

IT FALLS INTO LINE.

The Baltimore & Ohio No Longer to Be Ishmaelite of Railroads.

A New Deal Consummated Which Places It in Harmony With the Others.

And Turns Its System Over to the Western Union--Details.

The Duluth, Red Wing & Southern Railroad Company to Build at Once.

New York, Sept. 2.—The mysterious movement of the stock market during the past week and the continued rumors from all sources that some important developments were hanging over the railroad and telegraph world, were explained by facts which were made public late this afternoon.

After breaking through the negotiations with Ives & Co., Mr. Garrett went to London, where the negotiations were continued with J. S. Morgan and to-day a deal was announced comparable in importance with the West Shore settlement with the New York Central and the forming of the Reading syndicate to recognize that company.

Both of these deals were carried through by Drexel, Morgan & Co., but in the latter case Edward Lantieri was the most prominent figure as a mediator between the Gowen and Drexel interests and in the agreement now made he also takes a prominent part.

The consummation of the contract made to-day was held in a private room in the city of Baltimore, and until his opinion was obtained on the question of whether the sterling loan made by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad covered the telegraph system of the company.

After studying the question in all its aspects, he decided that the line of credit should be given to the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and on receiving this opinion the agreement in the nature of a preliminary contract was executed to-day. The parties to the agreement were J. S. Morgan, Drexel & Co., Baring Bros. & Co., Brown, Shipley & Co., and Brown Bros. & Co. of this city, and Drexel & Co. of Philadelphia.

The most important point in the contract is that the Baltimore & Ohio railroad company shall place in competent hands satisfactory to the syndicate, the lines of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and the telegraph system of the company, and in return the syndicate shall place in competent hands satisfactory to the syndicate, the lines of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and the telegraph system of the company.

It is understood that the syndicate will be organized and placed upon a sound financial basis. Drexel, Morgan & Co. were in correspondence all day with their business in London and Philadelphia and late in the evening confirmed the statement that the contracts and negotiations given above had been just completed. Outstanding matters were then above they declined to speak.

The clause of the contracts suspending all work on the extension from Philadelphia to New York is believed to be the key note of the syndicate's interest in the negotiations, and is construed to mean that the Pennsylvania and the Chesapeake and Ohio parallel lines north and east of Philadelphia. The houses interested in this deal are Drexel, Morgan & Co., Baring Bros., Kidder, Peabody & Co., and the Western Union.

WHAT IT MEANS. Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The meaning of the official statement given above is very clear. It means the retirement of Robert Garrett from the active management of the Baltimore & Ohio telegraph and the energy and ability of his father; it means that the Baltimore & Ohio has become crippled financially by its long and expensive fight for entrance into New York city and by its maintenance of an unprofitable telegraph system in opposition to the Western Union; it means that the Baltimore & Ohio has agreed to come to the financial assistance of the road and by the negotiation of $10,000,000 of securities to place it on a sound basis; it means that the syndicate does this on conditions which must appear very hard to Mr. Garrett, as they place the Baltimore & Ohio property into the hands of a syndicate friendly to the Pennsylvania railroad, and compels the abandonment of the long-cherished plan of the elder Garrett to build an independent line into New York paralleling the Pennsylvania; it means finally that

A HANDFUL OF CAPITALISTS now really control a railroad system which covers half a continent in every direction, and with the New York Central system absolutely controls the trunk line situation. No mention is made in this announcement of the fact that it can be stated as almost certain that the syndicate will not long carry the burden of the telegraph, and that the latter will sooner or later become a part of the Western Union.

All that delays this consummation is probably the arrangement of the position of the other telegraph companies which are now competing with the Western Union. The sleeping car system of the Baltimore & Ohio will no doubt go to the Pullman Car company, the price of whose stock has been rapidly advancing in anticipation of this result. The Baltimore & Ohio express business is being sold to the hands of the United States Express company. Thus the Baltimore & Ohio system is dismembered, and its parts swallowed up by rival lines, and competition it was unable to overcome. The conditions of the contract show that the syndicate is made up of capitalists friendly to the Pennsylvania railroad. That Jay Gould, who has lately been converting $17,000,000 of securities into cash, is also represented in the syndicate is a fact more than probable. Operators who desire that the Baltimore & Ohio shall be removed as a disturbing element in the speculative market of the country have a hand in the movement. When at the forthcoming annual meeting of the Baltimore & Ohio a new directory is elected, it is probable that the remainder of the present management representing the Maryland holding of a large variety of interests will be represented.

IT IS A SENSATION. How the News Struck the People of Baltimore. Special to the Globe. BALTIMORE, Sept. 2.—The announcement from New York this evening to the effect that the Baltimore road has been practically mortgaged to the extent of $10,000,000, and that the management of the road would pass over to Drexel, Morgan & Co., has created considerable excitement in this city, and was the subject of much conversation all night. The sale of the Baltimore & Ohio Express still occupied the public mind when this second surprise came in the form of a report that after the receipt of the dispatch from New York, a reporter hastened to the residence of William Murray, chairman of the finance committee, and president pro tem. of the Baltimore & Ohio, with a copy of it. After reading it carefully Mr. Murray said that he was not surprised to report to your office, and that the facts and circumstances attendant upon the sale of the Baltimore & Ohio, and upon receipt thereof you will probably transmit the same to the department for circulation in connection with the other papers in the case.

PHILADELPHIA COMMENT. Special to the Globe. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—In its financial history the Baltimore & Ohio entered into between the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and a syndicate of bankers, the Ledger to-morrow will say: "The policy of the syndicate regards the Baltimore & Ohio will be that the syndicate will take such a step without consulting the city, which owns 32,000 shares of stock, upon which it could not be expected to have any influence. The syndicate will take up the Baltimore & Ohio, and will probably require a loan of $10,000,000 to pay it off. He thinks the stability of the company, and the interests of the city, are in business, is unimpaired. There is a report current to-night, which emanated from a source of authority, that the syndicate has purchased the Baltimore & Ohio telegraph, said option to expire Sept. 10, inst."

PHILADELPHIA COMMENT. Special to the Globe. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—In its financial history the Baltimore & Ohio entered into between the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and a syndicate of bankers, the Ledger to-morrow will say: "The policy of the syndicate regards the Baltimore & Ohio will be that the syndicate will take such a step without consulting the city, which owns 32,000 shares of stock, upon which it could not be expected to have any influence. The syndicate will take up the Baltimore & Ohio, and will probably require a loan of $10,000,000 to pay it off. He thinks the stability of the company, and the interests of the city, are in business, is unimpaired. There is a report current to-night, which emanated from a source of authority, that the syndicate has purchased the Baltimore & Ohio telegraph, said option to expire Sept. 10, inst."

PHILADELPHIA COMMENT. Special to the Globe. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—In its financial history the Baltimore & Ohio entered into between the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and a syndicate of bankers, the Ledger to-morrow will say: "The policy of the syndicate regards the Baltimore & Ohio will be that the syndicate will take such a step without consulting the city, which owns 32,000 shares of stock, upon which it could not be expected to have any influence. The syndicate will take up the Baltimore & Ohio, and will probably require a loan of $10,000,000 to pay it off. He thinks the stability of the company, and the interests of the city, are in business, is unimpaired. There is a report current to-night, which emanated from a source of authority, that the syndicate has purchased the Baltimore & Ohio telegraph, said option to expire Sept. 10, inst."

PHILADELPHIA COMMENT. Special to the Globe. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—In its financial history the Baltimore & Ohio entered into between the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and a syndicate of bankers, the Ledger to-morrow will say: "The policy of the syndicate regards the Baltimore & Ohio will be that the syndicate will take such a step without consulting the city, which owns 32,000 shares of stock, upon which it could not be expected to have any influence. The syndicate will take up the Baltimore & Ohio, and will probably require a loan of $10,000,000 to pay it off. He thinks the stability of the company, and the interests of the city, are in business, is unimpaired. There is a report current to-night, which emanated from a source of authority, that the syndicate has purchased the Baltimore & Ohio telegraph, said option to expire Sept. 10, inst."

PHILADELPHIA COMMENT. Special to the Globe. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—In its financial history the Baltimore & Ohio entered into between the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and a syndicate of bankers, the Ledger to-morrow will say: "The policy of the syndicate regards the Baltimore & Ohio will be that the syndicate will take such a step without consulting the city, which owns 32,000 shares of stock, upon which it could not be expected to have any influence. The syndicate will take up the Baltimore & Ohio, and will probably require a loan of $10,000,000 to pay it off. He thinks the stability of the company, and the interests of the city, are in business, is unimpaired. There is a report current to-night, which emanated from a source of authority, that the syndicate has purchased the Baltimore & Ohio telegraph, said option to expire Sept. 10, inst."

PHILADELPHIA COMMENT. Special to the Globe. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—In its financial history the Baltimore & Ohio entered into between the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and a syndicate of bankers, the Ledger to-morrow will say: "The policy of the syndicate regards the Baltimore & Ohio will be that the syndicate will take such a step without consulting the city, which owns 32,000 shares of stock, upon which it could not be expected to have any influence. The syndicate will take up the Baltimore & Ohio, and will probably require a loan of $10,000,000 to pay it off. He thinks the stability of the company, and the interests of the city, are in business, is unimpaired. There is a report current to-night, which emanated from a source of authority, that the syndicate has purchased the Baltimore & Ohio telegraph, said option to expire Sept. 10, inst."

PHILADELPHIA COMMENT. Special to the Globe. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—In its financial history the Baltimore & Ohio entered into between the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and a syndicate of bankers, the Ledger to-morrow will say: "The policy of the syndicate regards the Baltimore & Ohio will be that the syndicate will take such a step without consulting the city, which owns 32,000 shares of stock, upon which it could not be expected to have any influence. The syndicate will take up the Baltimore & Ohio, and will probably require a loan of $10,000,000 to pay it off. He thinks the stability of the company, and the interests of the city, are in business, is unimpaired. There is a report current to-night, which emanated from a source of authority, that the syndicate has purchased the Baltimore & Ohio telegraph, said option to expire Sept. 10, inst."

PHILADELPHIA COMMENT. Special to the Globe. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—In its financial history the Baltimore & Ohio entered into between the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and a syndicate of bankers, the Ledger to-morrow will say: "The policy of the syndicate regards the Baltimore & Ohio will be that the syndicate will take such a step without consulting the city, which owns 32,000 shares of stock, upon which it could not be expected to have any influence. The syndicate will take up the Baltimore & Ohio, and will probably require a loan of $10,000,000 to pay it off. He thinks the stability of the company, and the interests of the city, are in business, is unimpaired. There is a report current to-night, which emanated from a source of authority, that the syndicate has purchased the Baltimore & Ohio telegraph, said option to expire Sept. 10, inst."

PHILADELPHIA COMMENT. Special to the Globe. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—In its financial history the Baltimore & Ohio entered into between the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and a syndicate of bankers, the Ledger to-morrow will say: "The policy of the syndicate regards the Baltimore & Ohio will be that the syndicate will take such a step without consulting the city, which owns 32,000 shares of stock, upon which it could not be expected to have any influence. The syndicate will take up the Baltimore & Ohio, and will probably require a loan of $10,000,000 to pay it off. He thinks the stability of the company, and the interests of the city, are in business, is unimpaired. There is a report current to-night, which emanated from a source of authority, that the syndicate has purchased the Baltimore & Ohio telegraph, said option to expire Sept. 10, inst."

MR. SPARKS SCOLDED

For Allowing the Helena Land Office People to "Do Up" a Settler.

He is Ordered to Re-Open the Case and Make a Strict Inquiry.

The Montana Legislature Liable to Stay in Session a Month.

The Janesville Elopers at Home--A Boy Dies of Hydrophobia.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Acting Secretary Muldrew of the interior department to-day directed the reopening of a case that had been decided against a claimant by the commissioner of the general land office. The appeal was presented by Truman L. Hodge, of Montana, who after having made final proof that he had complied with all the requirements of the law, having resided on a tract of land long enough to demand it under the general homestead law without commutation, was charged by the land officers at Helena, Mont., for commutation. Secretary Muldrew, in his letter to Commissioner Sparks, says: "Your office decision of March 11, 1886, rejecting the money paid for any portion of the tract on the ground that the date of the regular claims and right to the tract was within the granted limits of the Northern Pacific Railroad, and that the tract was within the granted limits of the Northern Pacific Railroad, counsel for applicant does not deny, and is fully, that it has nothing to do with the question at issue. It seems clear that some error has been committed in connection with the demand of acceptance as the case may be of final proof. It is DIFFICULT TO BELIEVE that the error was upon paying $400 for a tract which he had already earned by full compliance with the homestead law. The money was paid to the land officers of the government should demand payment of an entryman for a tract upon which he had already earned the right thereto without payment. A better understanding of the matter is indispensable in order to arrive at any decision with an assurance that it will be just and proper one. It is requested that the land officers report to your office the complete details of the facts and circumstances attendant upon the case, and upon receipt thereof you will probably transmit the same to the department for circulation in connection with the other papers in the case.

UNCALLED-FOR REQUEST. Special to the Globe. OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 2.—The annual reunion of the soldiers and sailors of Nebraska takes place here next week. For which preparations are in the desert. The water bridge across the Loup is washed out and eight or ten miles of the Union Pacific track from Columbus to Genoa is out of place. Heavy damage has been done to the Loup, Shoshone, Beaver and Cedar rivers, which will at Columbus, will reach $100,000 anyway.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE. Special to the Globe. PINEBLUFF, Minn., Sept. 2.—The State Teachers' institute, which closes this city to-day, is pronounced to be the best ever held in the county. The exercises were conducted by Miss S. E. Sprague and Mrs. E. K. Jacques, of Pinebluff, Minn., County superintendent C. J. Crandall. Over fifty teachers were enrolled, embracing parties from all parts of the county, and the institute has been of great value to the educators of the county. The members of the institute gave a very fine "Lowell entertainment" at the Pinebluff church, last evening, which was largely attended.

ADVENTIST CAMP MEETING. Special to the Globe. WASCANA, Minn., Sept. 2.—To-day's exercises at the Adventist camp meeting were closed by a lecture this evening delivered by Rev. H. Polson, of Minneapolis, Minn. The speaker, in well chosen remarks, vividly portrayed the condition of the world, and the need of the sinner's conversion. The features of the service were well received by the audience, which numbered nearly 400. The space included the church and the grounds, and was filled with tents. People are constantly arriving on the trains and new tents are being put up.

BLOWN TO PIECES. MONROE, Wis., Sept. 2.—William Kroell was killed seven miles north of this city yesterday. Four blasts were put in, three exploding, but the fourth one did not go off. After waiting twenty minutes the men were ordered to get Mr. Kroell being the first man to get there. The blast exploded, blowing him to the top of a cut forty-five feet high, blowing one side of his head and one arm off and a terribly mangled body. One arm was found over 100 feet from the scene of the disaster. "This is the first time in the same place and place during the summer."

THE NORTHVILLE MURDER. Special to the Globe. NORTHVILLE, Mich., Sept. 2.—The Northville murder of the murdered Miss Clara Rudee, still creates great excitement throughout Central Dakota. The authorities have to-day found some important clues and one party is already suspected on circumstantial evidence. As the relatives of the murdered girl are well to do, a detective agency in Chicago has been engaged to hunt the criminal down. The governor's jury could not ascertain for certain if an outrage had been committed and was the cause for the murder, but the facts point that way.

SPLENDID FAIR GROUNDS. Special to the Globe. GARY, Dak., Sept. 2.—The citizens of Gary purchased yesterday the grounds formerly leased by the Agricultural Society from the Northwestern Railroad company and will fence the park at once. Fifty-six acres were purchased. The tract is covered with heavy forest and is traversed by the Lake Park river. The grounds will be in splendid shape for the fair on the 15th, 16th and 17th of this month.

WANTS FREE DELIVERY. Special to the Globe. FARGO, Sept. 2.—An inspector of the postoffice department visited Fargo yesterday, and decided that this city has for long time been entitled to free delivery, and has telegraphed the fact to Washington. It is expected that it will soon be put in operation. As the mails about all arrive at night, it would be of little use, but still Fargo would like it, because it is big enough and is entitled to it.

A TRAIN DITCHED. Special to the Globe. FARGO, Sept. 2.—A freight train from the Fargo & Southwestern was ditched near Sheldon, and delayed the passenger train some eight hours.

A. R. Hall was dedicated to-night with rather imposing ceremonies. Among those present from abroad were Commander in Chief Fairchild, Department Commander Harrison Allen, Col. Plummet Aberdeen, and Maj. Edwards, of Fargo. Fairchild made a speech, but did not palsy anybody. After the speaking was a banquet prepared by the ladies of the city, and the Rev. R. Hall here is one of the finest in the territory.

TOO MUCH RAIN. Portions of Nebraska Covered With Water. Special to the Globe. OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 2.—Special telegrams from various portions of Nebraska to-night bring information of exceedingly heavy rains throughout all parts of the state. It has been raining for several days. Little actual damage has been reported as yet, except from Columbus. There the heaviest rain fell in the history of the white settlement occurred. Besides place the rainfall at Columbus to twenty inches, and at Plattville valleys are solid sheets of water from Genoa to Schuyler, covering the finest farming country in Nebraska. Ten thousand acres of hay have been spoiled. This will be hard on the farmers and stockmen, for which preparations are in the desert. The water bridge across the Loup is washed out and eight or ten miles of the Union Pacific track from Columbus to Genoa is out of place. Heavy damage has been done to the Loup, Shoshone, Beaver and Cedar rivers, which will at Columbus, will reach $100,000 anyway.

UNCALLED-FOR REQUEST. Special to the Globe. OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 2.—The annual reunion of the soldiers and sailors of Nebraska takes place here next week. For which preparations are in the desert. The water bridge across the Loup is washed out and eight or ten miles of the Union Pacific track from Columbus to Genoa is out of place. Heavy damage has been done to the Loup, Shoshone, Beaver and Cedar rivers, which will at Columbus, will reach $100,000 anyway.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE. Special to the Globe. PINEBLUFF, Minn., Sept. 2.—The State Teachers' institute, which closes this city to-day, is pronounced to be the best ever held in the county. The exercises were conducted by Miss S. E. Sprague and Mrs. E. K. Jacques, of Pinebluff, Minn., County superintendent C. J. Crandall. Over fifty teachers were enrolled, embracing parties from all parts of the county, and the institute has been of great value to the educators of the county. The members of the institute gave a very fine "Lowell entertainment" at the Pinebluff church, last evening, which was largely attended.

ADVENTIST CAMP MEETING. Special to the Globe. WASCANA, Minn., Sept. 2.—To-day's exercises at the Adventist camp meeting were closed by a lecture this evening delivered by Rev. H. Polson, of Minneapolis, Minn. The speaker, in well chosen remarks, vividly portrayed the condition of the world, and the need of the sinner's conversion. The features of the service were well received by the audience, which numbered nearly 400. The space included the church and the grounds, and was filled with tents. People are constantly arriving on the trains and new tents are being put up.

BLOWN TO PIECES. MONROE, Wis., Sept. 2.—William Kroell was killed seven miles north of this city yesterday. Four blasts were put in, three exploding, but the fourth one did not go off. After waiting twenty minutes the men were ordered to get Mr. Kroell being the first man to get there. The blast exploded, blowing him to the top of a cut forty-five feet high, blowing one side of his head and one arm off and a terribly mangled body. One arm was found over 100 feet from the scene of the disaster. "This is the first time in the same place and place during the summer."

THE NORTHVILLE MURDER. Special to the Globe. NORTHVILLE, Mich., Sept. 2.—The Northville murder of the murdered Miss Clara Rudee, still creates great excitement throughout Central Dakota. The authorities have to-day found some important clues and one party is already suspected on circumstantial evidence. As the relatives of the murdered girl are well to do, a detective agency in Chicago has been engaged to hunt the criminal down. The governor's jury could not ascertain for certain if an outrage had been committed and was the cause for the murder, but the facts point that way.

SPLENDID FAIR GROUNDS. Special to the Globe. GARY, Dak., Sept. 2.—The citizens of Gary purchased yesterday the grounds formerly leased by the Agricultural Society from the Northwestern Railroad company and will fence the park at once. Fifty-six acres were purchased. The tract is covered with heavy forest and is traversed by the Lake Park river. The grounds will be in splendid shape for the fair on the 15th, 16th and 17th of this month.

WANTS FREE DELIVERY. Special to the Globe. FARGO, Sept. 2.—An inspector of the postoffice department visited Fargo yesterday, and decided that this city has for long time been entitled to free delivery, and has telegraphed the fact to Washington. It is expected that it will soon be put in operation. As the mails about all arrive at night, it would be of little use, but still Fargo would like it, because it is big enough and is entitled to it.

A TRAIN DITCHED. Special to the Globe. FARGO, Sept. 2.—A freight train from the Fargo & Southwestern was ditched near Sheldon, and delayed the passenger train some eight hours.

SUNDAY'S BIG SHINDY

It Will Probably Take Place on the Hill of Bally-coore.

If the English Police Presume to Interfere With the Gladstone Meeting.

Our Jim Blaine is Now on Good Terms With the Prince of Wales.

The Papal Jubilee--The General Budget of Foreign Intelligence.

By Cable to the Globe. LONDON, Sept. 2.—The great mass meeting for the purpose of discussing the policy of the government and expressing the gratitude of the Irish people to Mr. Gladstone and his Liberal followers for their efforts in behalf of Ireland, which, in spite of the proclamation of the Dublin executive, will occur next Sunday, will be held on the hill of Bally-coore, in the parish of Ennis. The people in the vicinity of Ennis, from five miles around have come thoroughly aroused by the arbitrary action of the government, and a large number of persons who otherwise would have refrained from attending the meeting because of the distance they would have to travel, and for other reasons, are present. So widespread is the indignation caused by the edict of prohibition that the attendance will, without doubt, be one-third larger than the number who have been had. The government has been accused of having permitted the meeting to be held without interference. The English members of parliament who will be present are DETERMINED IN THEIR PURPOSE to test the legality of the proclamation until they have seen the result of the government's action. The English members of parliament who will be present are determined in their purpose to test the legality of the proclamation until they have seen the result of the government's action. The English members of parliament who will be present are determined in their purpose to test the legality of the proclamation until they have seen the result of the government's action.

IN PARLIAMENT. LONDON, Sept. 2.—The votes of money for the Irish government are still under debate in the house of commons. This evening the Parliaments discussed the bill for the purpose of the Irish government. The English members of parliament who will be present are determined in their purpose to test the legality of the proclamation until they have seen the result of the government's action.

SCARLET FEVER has become epidemic in London and at English seaside resorts, and is increasing in violence. A great number of cases have been reported, and the disease has spread to the continent. The English members of parliament who will be present are determined in their purpose to test the legality of the proclamation until they have seen the result of the government's action.

HE HAS ANOTHER FALL. BERLIN, Sept. 2.—While Emperor William was passing along the saloon of the palace yesterday he stumbled and fell heavily to the floor, bruising his left hip and elbow. There was much excitement over the occurrence at the time and considerable anxiety through the night. The emperor felt no bad effects from the fall. He made his appearance at the palace yesterday and the emperor was tremendously cheered by the people.

SALISBURY EXPLAINS. LONDON, Sept. 2.—Lord Salisbury has written a letter to the Conservative and the Bridgeton division of Glasgow in explanation of his defeats in the recent election, in which he says: "By a devious ambiguity of language many Liberal Unionists have been misled. Mr. Gladstone has abandoned his separatist designs. It is no longer the intention of the government to receive their triumphal reward."

A MOONLIGHT OUTRAGE. DUBLIN, Sept. 2.—Last night "moonlighters" broke into the residence of Sir Rowland Blennethers, ex-member of parliament at Kells, county Kerry, and searched every room in the house. They forced open the door of a bedroom in which the ladies' purveyors were sleeping, seized the ladies' purveyors and carried them to the residence of the owner of the house abroad at present.

BAVARIA'S INSANE KING. VIENNA, Sept. 2.—A dispatch to the Tagblatt from Munich says that King Otto's periods of insanity are becoming less frequent, but that their likeness to the late King Ludwig's attacks is becoming stronger daily.

A HEAVY GALE IN ENGLAND. LONDON, Sept. 2.—A heavy gale is prevailing in Great Britain. Many minor shipping casualties have been reported, and numerous telegraph wires are down. There has also been a heavy fall of rain, and the rivers in Devonshire have overflowed their banks.

TO PROSECUTE THE FIGARO. PARIS, Sept. 2.—The government has decided to prosecute the Figaro for publishing the details of the mobilization scheme, which it had obtained from the dishonest employes of the war department.

to their full depth by astute vatican diplomats in the shape of plausible excuses for their personal opinions, as well as the views of the rulers they represent, upon the question of the restoration of the Holy See. But really it has not been the success of his plans in not wholly, or even in great part, placed upon

THE SLOW PROCESS of winning over Italian politicians through home agitation. The question of restoring diplomatic relations between England and the holy see, revived at the time of Queen Victoria's Jubilee, has apparently been allowed to drop out of sight. But really it has not for a moment been lost sight of, nor have the resources of the vatican for keeping it within the bounds of consideration in the minds of the English people, drawn upon, so that the likelihood of the abandonment of the idea is very remote. This question will be in various ways, and the grand affairs of the representatives during the pontifical festivities, and the representatives of the French republic will also be treated to a full exhibition of the vatican's policy in prospective, growing out of closer and more cordial relations between France and the holy see.

THE SLOW PROCESS of winning over Italian politicians through home agitation. The question of restoring diplomatic relations between England and the holy see, revived at the time of Queen Victoria's Jubilee, has apparently been allowed to drop out of sight. But really it has not for a moment been lost sight of, nor have the resources of the vatican for keeping it within the bounds of consideration in the minds of the English people, drawn upon, so that the likelihood of the abandonment of the idea is very remote. This question will be in various ways, and the grand affairs of the representatives during the pontifical festivities, and the representatives of the French republic will also be treated to a full exhibition of the vatican's policy in prospective, growing out of closer and more cordial relations between France and the holy see.

THE SLOW PROCESS of winning over Italian politicians through home agitation. The question of restoring diplomatic relations between England and the holy see, revived at the time of Queen Victoria's Jubilee, has apparently been allowed to drop out of sight. But really it has not for a moment been lost sight of, nor have the resources of the vatican for keeping it within the bounds of consideration in the minds of the English people, drawn upon, so that the likelihood of the abandonment of the idea is very remote. This question will be in various ways, and the grand affairs of the representatives during the pontifical festivities, and the representatives of the French republic will also be treated to a full exhibition of the vatican's policy in prospective, growing out of closer and more cordial relations between France and the holy see.

THE SLOW PROCESS of winning over Italian politicians through home agitation. The question of restoring diplomatic relations between England and the holy see, revived at the time of Queen Victoria's Jubilee, has apparently been allowed to drop out of sight. But really it has not for a moment been lost sight of, nor have the resources of the vatican for keeping it within the bounds of consideration in the minds of the English people, drawn upon, so that the likelihood of the abandonment of the idea is very remote. This question will be in various ways, and the grand affairs of the representatives during the pontifical festivities, and the representatives of the French republic will also be treated to a full exhibition of the vatican's policy in prospective, growing out of closer and more cordial relations between France and the holy see.

THE SLOW PROCESS of winning over Italian politicians through home agitation. The question of restoring diplomatic relations between England and the holy see, revived at the time of Queen Victoria's Jubilee, has apparently been allowed to drop out of sight. But really it has not for a moment been lost sight of, nor have the resources of the vatican for keeping it within the bounds of consideration in the minds of the English people, drawn upon, so that the likelihood of the abandonment of the idea is very remote. This question will be in various ways, and the grand affairs of the representatives during the pontifical festivities, and the representatives of the French republic will also be treated to a full exhibition of the vatican's policy in prospective, growing out of closer and more cordial relations between France and the holy see.

THE SLOW PROCESS of winning over Italian politicians through home agitation. The question of restoring diplomatic relations between England and the holy see, revived at the time of Queen Victoria's Jubilee, has apparently been allowed to drop out of sight. But really it has not for a moment been lost sight of, nor have the resources of the vatican for keeping it within the bounds of consideration in the minds of the English people, drawn upon, so that the likelihood of the abandonment of the idea is very remote. This question will be in various ways, and the grand affairs of the representatives during the pontifical festivities, and the representatives of the French republic will also be treated to a full exhibition of the vatican's policy in prospective, growing out of closer and more cordial relations between France and the holy see.

THE SLOW PROCESS of winning over Italian politicians through home agitation. The question of restoring diplomatic relations between England and the holy see, revived at the time of Queen Victoria's Jubilee, has apparently been allowed to drop out of sight. But really it has not for a moment been lost sight of, nor have the resources of the vatican for keeping it within the bounds of consideration in the minds of the English people, drawn upon, so that the likelihood of the abandonment of the idea is very remote. This question will be in various ways, and the grand affairs of the representatives during the pontifical festivities, and the representatives of the French republic will also be treated to a full exhibition of the vatican's policy in prospective, growing out of closer and more cordial relations between France and the holy see.

THE SLOW PROCESS of winning over Italian politicians through home agitation. The question of restoring diplomatic relations between England and the holy see, revived at the time of Queen Victoria's Jubilee, has apparently been allowed to drop out of sight. But really it has not for a moment been lost sight of, nor have the resources of the vatican for keeping it within the bounds of consideration in the minds of the English people, drawn upon, so that the likelihood of the abandonment of the idea is very remote. This question will be in various ways, and the grand affairs of the representatives during the pontifical festivities, and the representatives of the French republic will also be treated to a full exhibition of the vatican's policy in prospective, growing out of closer and more cordial relations between France and the holy see.

THE SLOW PROCESS of winning over Italian politicians through home agitation. The question of restoring diplomatic relations between England and the holy see, revived at the time of Queen Victoria's Jubilee, has apparently been allowed to drop out of sight. But really it has not for a moment been lost sight of, nor have the resources of the vatican for keeping it within the bounds of consideration in the minds of the English people, drawn upon, so that the likelihood of the abandonment of the idea is very remote. This question will be in various ways, and the grand affairs of the representatives during the pontifical festivities, and the representatives of the French republic will also be treated to a full exhibition of the vatican's policy in prospective, growing out of closer and more cordial relations between France and the holy see.

THE SLOW PROCESS of winning over Italian politicians through home agitation. The question of restoring diplomatic relations between England and the holy see, revived at the time of Queen Victoria's Jubilee, has apparently been allowed to drop out of sight. But really it has not for a moment been lost sight of, nor have the resources of the vatican for keeping it within the bounds of consideration in the minds of the English people, drawn upon, so that the likelihood of the abandonment of the idea is very remote. This question will be in various ways, and the grand affairs of the representatives during the pontifical festivities, and the representatives of the French republic will also be treated to a full exhibition of the vatican's policy in prospective, growing out of closer and more cordial relations between France and the holy see.

THE SLOW PROCESS of winning over Italian politicians through home agitation. The question of restoring diplomatic relations between England and the holy see, revived at the time of Queen Victoria's Jubilee, has apparently been allowed to drop out of sight. But really it has not for a moment been lost sight of, nor have the resources of the vatican for keeping it within the bounds of consideration in the minds of the English people, drawn upon, so that the likelihood of the abandonment of the idea is very remote. This question will be in various ways, and the grand affairs of the representatives during the pontifical festivities, and the representatives of the French republic will also be treated to a full exhibition of the vatican's policy in prospective, growing out of closer and more cordial relations between France and the holy see.

AN INDIAN'S STORY.

Gus Beaulieu's Version of the Investigation at White Earth.

In Which He Gives the Inside of the Trouble at the Reservation.

Church and State Somewhat Mixed--Bishop Whipple's Investigation.

The Other Side of the Story of the Alleged Heavy Pine Deal.

Gus Beaulieu, the Indian who was the subject of no little talk at the hearing at the White Earth reservation by the United States senate committee, was in St. Paul yesterday. He said that a great deal of the investigation had not appeared in print. "A letter was directed to Agent Sheehan by John Beaulieu, my cousin," said he, "and a portion of it was removed from the reservation. Being cross-examined he said that I ought to be removed because I opposed the treaty. I was not exactly that alone, but on account of the following reasons: I was not consistently on some alleged fraudulent returns of annuity pay-rolls, after Indian inspectors had pronounced him innocent of the charges preferred against him, and also because Beaulieu had acted as interpreter in subsequent payments which the Indians admitted having received."

SENATOR FREEMAN called John's attention to Morgan Warren's statement, in which Mr. Warren says that forty-five annuity rolls, and upon which I had based some of my charges. Warren was the United States interpreter at the payment of the annuities. The statements respecting my father's moral character was also investigated. (Gillilan was the instigator of those charges, and he was called a nuisance by Agent Sheehan, who has steadily ignored my father's requests to report to the interior department his findings. In connection with this there is a great deal of the principal theaters of the past month numerous stories have been published in the Chicago press, which he will make his first appearance in Chicago since the fall of '85. During the past three days letters and telegrams have been