W. P. Murray and Others Summarize the Work of the Omaha Convention.

No Liquor But Plenty of Food to Be Had At the State Fair.

A Dude Done Up in Fine Style By a Young Lady's Big Brother.

The Last Man Who Does Not Understand a Base Ball Score Card.

Delegates to the Charities Convention Summarize Its Work.

The doings of the recent national convention of Charities and Corrections, held at Omaha, were discussed at Plymouth church last evening by some of those who went from St. Paul as delegates.

After the opening exercises and the reading of a chapter in Scripture, Dr. Dana briefly reviewed the meeting, taking as his subject, "Preventive Measures."

After comparatively speaking, realize the magnitude numerically of the defective classes, as to those who are the recipients of the improved treatment of whom it devotes study and directs its endeavors, he said that there are 1,000,000 in the United States, and that our country, whose public care entails an immense expense, a class rapidly increasing.

Some of the most interesting and instructive features of the Omaha convention, as they were presented to the delegates, were the reports of the various states, and the reports of the various states, and the reports of the various states.

Dr. Dana followed by Secretary Hart of the state board of correction and charities, who said the Omaha conference was not up to the one held in St. Paul last year.

Many of the delegates spoke of the pleasant treatment they received at the Omaha convention, and the reports of the various states, and the reports of the various states.

St. Paul, and blind pigs were found on every hand. This year a vigorous attempt will be made to keep them out. Twelve or thirteen booths have been sold for lunch counters and refreshment stands. Quite an amount of revenue will be gained from these, as the price was $200 apiece. All the space we could spare for tents has now been disposed of. The public seating capacity of over 600, has been leased for $1,000, the society furnishing chairs and a big range. The contract calls for good meals at all hours, at a cost of not more than 50 cents. The bill of fare to be supplied has been approved by the directors, and a good show of success is expected. There will be no lunch counter run in connection with the hotel, owing to the fact that meals can be had at any time there. The sale of privileges, which amounted to twice the amount received last year, and about all the available room is now taken.

THE COXS DOCTOR. Lots of funny people, with rather peculiar arguments for getting tent space for nothing, daily make their appearance. There's the corn doctor, the scientific man who wants the society to pay him or rather guarantee him a certain sum per day, as well as give him free space, all the night long; the people; the fortune teller, who offers to give you to get in, but was refused, the knife man, and last the medal men, who want power and space for nothing; but they all go or keep away.

There have been fewer applications from fakirs this year than before for some time, probably owing to the fact that the medical profession has taken their stand no chance of getting in. A firm of pottery manufacturers from Red Wing have secured space and will be on hand on last night, making and giving away all kinds of little dishes and pottery ware.

Three car-loads of machinery arrived on Saturday, and there are ready 200 horses, sixty head of cattle and a drove of Shetland ponies on the grounds. Manager Scott will bring the sale of the horses at the house on Wednesday. A box, holding six persons, will be sold for the seven days for $14. Owing to the G. A. R. sham battle and arrangements made in connection with it, these tickets do not include Saturday.

THE COMPLETE LIST OF ENTRIES. The complete list of entries in the guaranteed stake races for purses of $2,500 are as follows:

TUESDAY, SEPT. 13. Three-minute race—J. C. Madden, Bethel, Pa., g. e. class leader. H. C. Vaughn, Minneapolis, g. e. Senator. W. H. Crawford, Hartford, Conn., b. g. Problem.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 16. Three-minute race—J. C. Madden, Bethel, Pa., g. e. class leader. H. C. Vaughn, Minneapolis, g. e. Senator. W. H. Crawford, Hartford, Conn., b. g. Problem.

FRIEDMAN'S. A well known man, whose mother is a millionaire and whose principal business is loading and washing, met with a serious accident on Exchange street Friday night. He ran against the brother of a young lady to whom he has been paying attentions for some time past.

THE SWEET YOUNG MAN. A young man, who is a stenographer and earning a living in a downtown mercantile office, and her big brother divined that the attentions of the sweet young man were not bestowed with any honorable intentions.

THE BIG BROTHER. The big brother took a hack and followed closely. They drove by devious ways through back streets and dark alleys, and finally out Rice street on THE BASS LAKE ROAD.

THE BROTHER WAS IN HOT PURSUIT. The brother was in hot pursuit and they kept then constantly in sight. He had nearly reached one of the resorts on the shore of the lake, when one of the party discovered that they were followed, and left him cringing in the mud begging for mercy.

THE BROTHER WENT ABOUT HIS BUSINESS. The big brother went about his business, and the sweet young man sneaked through a back street to his father's home on the hill.

FOR FOREIGN LANDS. A Move Toward Organizing Y. M. C. Associations at Mission Stations.

L. D. Wishard, the college international secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, gave a very interesting and instructive talk upon the "Young Men of Heathen Lands" at the Y. M. C. A. rooms yesterday.

HE SET FORTH THE PRESSING DEMAND FOR A Y. M. C. A. secretary for several of the foreign fields in which a clear and impressive way that at the end of the year a motion was made that the directors of the St. Paul association should appoint a secretary, and let him take steps toward the associations of Minnesota sending such a secretary, which was carried.

ALTHOUGH NO MONEY WAS SOUGHT, although no money was sought, $148 was subscribed voluntarily within a few moments after the close of the meeting. Mr. Wishard expects to go soon to a clear and impressive way that at the end of the year a motion was made that the directors of the St. Paul association should appoint a secretary, and let him take steps toward the associations of Minnesota sending such a secretary, which was carried.

St. Paul police will have nothing to do with the protection of the fair grounds this year. Secretary Board, of the Agricultural society, in his instructions to Marshal Chapel, of Northfield, who is to take charge of the fair ground's police, ordered him to employ his own men and "under no consideration" to have anything to do with the police departments of St. Paul or Minneapolis. Chief Clark thinks this is sufficient reason why his men should be kept away from the grounds, and will not send an officer there in order of Secretary Board is refracted.

NOTES FROM THE ARMY. A Death of Material to Recruit the Companies.

First Lieut. Thomas M. Woodruff, Fifth Infantry, Fort Keosauqua, Mo., is reported to Eastport and Portland, Me., on duty pertaining to the signal service.

An army retiring board having found First Lieut. Woodruff, Fourth cavalry, is reported to Eastport and Portland, Me., on duty pertaining to the signal service.

The returns from the various rendezvous of the general recruiting service indicate a general decline in the number of recruits required by existing regulations. Not only are applicants for enlistment very scarce, but of those who do appear, the majority are applicants for the new very badly depleted company organizations throughout the country.

Capt. William Fletcher, Twentieth Infantry, Fort Assiniboine, Mont., having served his term of duty at Fort Keosauqua, is reported to Eastport and Portland, Me., on duty pertaining to the signal service.

Under the provisions of an act of congress approved Feb. 14, 1885, ordnance sergeant William Buswell, of the same army, is placed on the retired list.

Troop E, Sixth cavalry, is transferred from Fort Union, N. M., to Fort Lewis, Col.
