"It is the largest delegation which ever represented the state in a National encampment," said J. H. Drake, of St. Paul, to the GLOBE reporter. "We had a pleasant trip here, eventful only for the good time we had."

He Gets Most of His Money Back, and Also the Woman.

Arensdorf, the Alleged Slayer of Haddock, Has to Furnish New Bail.

A Rich Ore Strike at Deadwood—General Northwestern News.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—I. D. Forrest, who said he had been proprietor of the Park hotel at Billings, Mont., for some years, called upon the chief of detectives to-day, and stated that a woman with whom he had lived for sixteen years as man and wife had left Billings last August with a man named Fred P. Thompson, who was at one time a boarder at the hotel, but who, by reason of sickness and his destitute circumstances had been taken care of by Mr. Forrest and his mistress, and finally given a position in the establishment. Last August, Mr. Forrest stated, he was absent from Billings several weeks, during which time the hotel was destroyed by fire. Upon his return his wife, as he had recognized the woman, complained of illness and was sent by him to St. Paul with $2,300 in bank drafts, which, he says, she converted into cash and married Thompson, who, he says, she followed to this city by means of the former's trunk. Upon Mr. Forrest's arrival here he located the pair and had them arrested when they were on their way to Philadelphia. Forrest declared that either the parties and that he had decided to take the woman back to Montana with him. The whole affair came to the attention of the chief of police. Forrest is thirty years of age, ten years younger than the woman.

THE HADDOCK CASE

Arensdorf Has to Get New Bondsman—Munchrat's Trial.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 26.—This forenoon Arensdorf, under indictment for the murder of Rev. George C. Haddock, was surrendered by his bondsmen and for a short time was in the custody of Sheriff Haddock, formerly St. Vincent Lerch, one of the bondsmen, desiring to dispose of some property, and could not give a clear title white the lien of the bond was upon it. Joseph Borsch, a well known lawyer, was retained for the motion for a new trial in the Munchrat case has occupied the entire day. A very exhaustive argument was made by the motion by G. W. Hoyt, and opposed by States Attorney Marsh and A. D. O'Connell. There are fifteen counts in the motion and each is treated as a separate case. The motion is, however, that the motion will be denied, and in that case sentence will be passed to-morrow. A good share of the day has been taken up in settling objections to the jury, who were retained after having admitted that they had contributed to the fund raised by the Law and Order committee, and a motion for a new trial was also claimed that the indictment was not in proper form, the defect being serious enough to affect its legality.

GOOD FOR CONSUMERS.

Judge Severance's Recent Decision Regarding Unsealed Weights and Measures Kicking Up a Commotion.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 26.—The sealer of weights and measures for this county has just been notified by the state in correcting false weights in the market. He finds many of the weights and measures decidedly deficient; especially so are the liquid measures. The greater proportion of quart measures examined are found a full gill too small. This revolution in the market has excited a commotion in the minds of the consumers, and the decision of Judge Severance in the recent case of Bissbe, Oleson and Boynton vs. Mary McAllen, which bids for a revision of the present case, has been judicially announced of our state. This case was an action of goods sold and delivered, and to recover on a book account. One of the items was a quantity of goods for the defendant, set up the defense of unsealed weights and measures. This defense was sustained by Judge Severance, the court holding that the accounts for goods sold could not be enforced if at the sale they had been measured by unsealed weights or measures. As a result of this decision dealers are having their weights and measures tested and sealed. This will undoubtedly cause a great saving to the consumer, and the numerous complaints made by the sealer clearly indicate, and as this change is likely to be carried out throughout the state, Mr. Foster predicts a small decrease of profits from the consumers for the position he has taken in this matter.

Caught After Long Delay.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 26.—The town is somewhat excited over the arrest of one Albert Hasenmayer, formerly from Hannibal, Mo., who has been working for Mr. Steele, near town, all summer. Last May the store of W. B. Kitchel was broken into and a quantity of goods taken out. On leaving the building the burglar placed a quantity of combustible material underneath the lower floor and set fire to it. The fire was discovered, and the prompt action of the fire department saved the building and prevented a row of buildings—one of the best business blocks in the city would have been burned had the fire got started well. The fire department was called for the thief and incendiary, and yesterday a portion of the stolen goods were discovered in a valise and hat box belonging to Hasenmayer. The goods were quickly recognized by Mr. Kitchel, and a warrant put in the hands of Sheriff Hasenmayer was arrested between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning, and is now in jail. He claims he bought the goods of another party, but this is not credited.

The Fair at Mitchell.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 26.—The entire day at the fair grounds was given to the arrangement of exhibitors, which, as a whole, are extensive and first class, though much more in all departments is still to be added. The exhibit of Norman, Clydesdale, Percheronshire and other breeds of horses, and a variety of stock, with the exception of Smith, of Hastings, and Adams from Spencer, who have a small number, the stock are owned in Dakota. The stock show is said to equal the one at St. Paul. Fully 300 horses and 150 head of cattle are on exhibition. The show of fine fashions embraces the following breeds, as well as many others not mentioned: E. Schleicher, Watertown, Herefords; Thea S. David, Mitchell, Short-horns; F. H. Hagarty, Aberdeen, Holsteins and Frisians; Labelle Blanche, Lake county, Short-horns; D. J. Spalding, Hamlin county, Short-horns; W. S. Maes, Brookings, Herefords; Lake county alone sends 40 head of stock. Faulk, Hanson, Hyde, Hughes, Davison and Turner counties have very fine county exhibits. The exhibit in the art hall, though all in all, is yet, will be very creditable. To-morrow is the grand opening day, the exercises incident to which will be in the forenoon. The exhibits in the forenoon there will be the shooting tournament.

A Will Case.

OSKOSH, Wis., Sept. 26.—Judge Burnell this morning rendered his decision in the case of Lulu Stoughton Beem vs. D. L. Kimberly and Augustus Kimberly, and that the order of distribution made by the county court be set aside. The decision is in favor of Mrs. Beem, and should be affirmed by the supreme court. The amount involved is $14,000 to her, as that is the amount in the case. The plaintiff is the wife of Gen. Beem, of Chicago, and a grand daughter of Harry M. Kimberly, of Neenah, and brought this action, claiming that in the order of distribution Judge Hamilton, of the county court, had taken into consideration as an heir, and that by the terms of Mrs. Kimberly's will she, the plaintiff, had been left her share of the Kimberly's estate, and that Mrs. Kimberly's share consisted of what was allowed her under the statutes of the state. The case will now be taken to the supreme court.

Accidentally Shot.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 26.—A farm laborer of this town, Richard, aged nineteen years, was brought to the Kenyon house on Sunday in a very critical condition, having been accidentally shot with a revolver in the hands of a boy about ten years of age, when he was near the center of the breast and lodged near the heart. Dr. Anderson sent for Dr. Wood, of Fairbairn, who arrived about 2 o'clock this morning. No attempt has been made to probe for the ball, as it is considered unsafe at present. The patient is comparatively free from pain and there is a hope of recovery.

Had a Lively Time.

OSKOSH, Wis., Sept. 26.—A most exciting time was experienced at the opera house this morning when the sale of seats opened for the engagement of Booth and Barrett next Wednesday evening. The opera house was crowded about the entrance, and all efforts to get them into line proved useless. In the struggle one man lost a watch, another a roll of money, several had their coats torn, and numerous hats were crushed into a shapeless mass. Women in the crowd had a rough time. The sale amounted to $1,500. In three hours.

No Jurisdiction.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—In the case of the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railway company, formerly St. Vincent Lerch, vs. Simon L. West for pre-emption on land certified to the state under the railroad grant for a quarter section in the Fergus Falls district, the acting secretary of the interior decides that the land in question having been certified to the state April 30, 1874, has passed beyond the jurisdiction of the interior department.

The charge entered his leg above the knee, passing through and badly fracturing one bone. It is a question whether amputation will not be necessary to save his life.

A Freight Smash Up.

The Astonished Anarchist Hustled Off to the Train With Great Secrecy.

Jake Sharp Will be Doing Time at Sing Sing by To-Morrow.

A Jealous Woman Cowhides Her Supposed Rival at Annapolis, Md.

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—Oscar Neebe, the anarchist, is in Joliet. He was taken there with much secrecy by the sheriff's deputies to-night. None of his friends knew he was to be taken away so suddenly and to none of them did he say good-bye. At 8 o'clock to-night, a coupe driven by a deputy sheriff stopped in the shadow of the criminal court building, and Deputy Sheriff Gleason, Spears and Hubbard alighted and went into the jail. Ben Price, the jail clerk was waiting for them. They understood each other, and without any further delay the inner doors and followed by Gleason and Spears, tramped up the iron stairs to the second gallery, where the condemned anarchists are. Lights were burning in all the cells. Neebe's door was unlocked and Spears told him he wanted to talk with him in the jail office. The party then went quietly down stairs, and the office door was closed, Spears said: "Well, Neebe, we are going to take you to Joliet to-night. Can I see you to-night? Can't I see you to-night? Can't I see you to-night?" Neebe then asked to be allowed to change his clothes. A turkey brought down his best suit of clothes and clean linen. He put them on, and when he was ready for the manacles with which Gleason had been playing. He was first handcuffed alone and then the deputy sheriffs followed him, and chained his right wrist to Spears's left. The party then left the jail. Gleason told the guards at the jail to lock the door and keep a tight watch on Neebe. They did so with force and impetuosity for several minutes and until the carriage was well on its way to the Chicago and Alton railroad. When a delayed reporter reached the jail he found that the fast express for St. Louis was just pulling out. The Neebe party consisted of a woman, a man, and a boy. A telegram had been received from Neebe's wife, Mrs. Neebe, that she had been largely reinforced. The Houston Light guards have just received orders to leave on a special train for the town of Columbia, Brazoria county.
