THE COMMERCIAL RECORD.

fransactions in the Financial Circles of Wall Street .-- The General Quotations.

Special to the Globe. CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—There was less snap and sparkle to wheat to-day and quite a boom in corn. Wheat started down, but the de-cline was checked by the sharp advance in corn. The Farmers Review's estimate that the corn crop would be 1,300,000,000 bu started the buying fever, and the crowd became exceedingly bullish. Everybody was buying for themselves and customers. Hutchlnson was the great prime mover in corn. He bought on the Farmers Review's estimates and kept right on buying up to 46c for May and 42% for October and November. Ty to noon there was huge trading, but the fizz departed as suddenly as a candle is snuffed out, and for the last hour was tame. May left off at 4.5 %c. although corn was the most sensational deal on 'change there was not much to it from a pears point of yield. news point of view. Old Hutch did most of the whooping up. He made the rounds of the brokers' offices, buying at and above the market, and his brokers were active on the floor. Wheat cables were bullish and that proved quite a prop to the local market, but the crowd seemed anxious to work off a por-tion of its long wheat. As there was a dearth of sustaining orders the market assumed an appearance of softness. There was good buying at times, however, and the pit was thronged with active traders. For the past three or four days nothing but bull talk has been heard. Now everybody is looking for a reaction. The overpression is looking for a reaction. The expression is frequently heard, "I am very friendly to with clearing weather receipts at primary points are expected to show an increase in the near future. The local leaders were nearly all sellers to-day. Those who had closed out their trades put out new lines, and those who had stood pat on wheat sold 2@3c lower increased their lines as a rule. A good deal of long wheat was dumped. enry Clews & Company getting rid of a arge quantity through their Chicago brokers. ats developed strength and activity, closing higher. The boom in corn put speculative life into provisions. All products advanced, but the improvement was not sustained in anything but ribs, though the market closed strong. Estimated receipts to-morrow: 74 cars wheat, 292 cars corn, 148 cars oats, and strong. Estimated receipts to-morrow: 74 cars wheat, 292 cars corn, 148 cars oats, and 17,000 head of hogs.

The ROUTINE REPORT.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—The wheat bulls suffered a set back to-day. One weakening feature was the increase of the amount on ocean passage by about 400,000 bushels. This, however, was counteracted by the cables, which made spot and futures firm and in fair demand at Liverpool. There was nothing unusual in the wheat movement on this side. Heavy receipts were reported at Minneapolis and Duluth, and fair receipts at other primary points. Trading was active, but the feeling was unsettled, and considering, the strength of corn was rather weak most of the session. There was good buying but at the same time the longs rather exceeded the demands, there being realizing again. Shorts evidently were pretty well covered for the near futures. The selling was chiefly for May. October opened at 71%c, reacted to 71½c, advanced to 71½c, reacted to 71½c, advanced to 71½c, closing at 78½c, ranged from 79½c to 78½c, closing at 78½c, This was a decided buil day in corn. They were not a few who expected a reaction and decline with the clearing weather. Many hastily concluded that corn had already advanced to a dangerous point for investment on the bull side. Others contended that the advance was but the reaction following the break of Sept. 16, and that corn had returned to the figures of that date. Wheat was from 2 to 3 cents higher than at the middle of the month. At any rate, the combination of causes were on the bull side this morning, and corn went up before noon from ½ to 1c per pushel, and May touched at one time 46c. The causes seemed to be these: A good demand by exporters; the estimate of the crop of the year down to 1,310.000,000 bu; declining local receipts which were to-day for the first time in three weeks less than 400 cars; a demand for cash corn which were to-day for the first time in three weeks less than 400 cars; a demand for cash corn which appeals. ing local receipts which were to-day for the first time in three weeks less than 400 eptember to sell at one moment 14c over Oc-ober. That month opened 41%c, sold steadily up to 424c and reacted slightly. November opened with October at 41%c, and also reached its best figures at 424c. May was the center of interest and opened at 45½c, lost one point and then went straight up to 46c, after selling ¼c under. The half hour before I p. m. brought a weaker feeling, probably on account of a desire to realize. Closing figures were from ¼g¾c under the highest point of the day. Oats had no particular strength of their own, but they sold higher on the strength shown by corn. Near futures were in good demand, with but meager offerings, and prices ruled firm and higher. By I p. m. September, salable at ¼c, advanced with offerings; October ranged ¾kg½c higher, and November improved ¼c. May was more active, but only about ¼c all around. Provisions were stronger, and a better business transpired at a higher range of prices. Receipts of hogs were fair, but not up to the expectations of many operators. Prices were well maintained and had a decided effect upon holders of products, making them slow about selling. There was better buying of January pork and ribs than during any of the preceding days of this week. Shorts, who have been selling freely of late, became nervous and covered and helped put prices up. January opened at $12.32½, sold to $12.55, receded to $12.42½, again advanced to $12.55, receded to $12.42½, again advanced from $7.60 to $7.71½.

Duluth Wheat.

Special to the Globe.

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 28.—The market opened lower to day, but held firm until the last of the long session when it broke half a cent or more. The weakness was caused by lower values at Chicago and free selling here, together with some increase in receipts from first hand. The decline is but a natural reaction from the recent sharp advance and is as much the result of brokers taking in their profits from the bulge in advance. Receipts in the Northwest were large. Seaboard clearances were 198,000 bu, the largest for some days. The close was quiet and lazy. Cash wheat was in good demand and closed at 73%. Sales: 7 cars No. 1 hard 73½c, 10 trive 73c; 15 cars No. 1 Northern 71½c; 1 cars 71½c; 2 cars No. 3 64½c. October opened at 73%c, sold down to 72%c, closing at 72%c bid: December opened at 74½c, sold down to 73%c, closing with that bid; May opened at 80%c, sold up to 80%c, declined to 79%c, closing at 79%c bid. Afternoon Board—The market was active and easy; 13 cars No. 1 hard cash sold at 73c; 8 cars No. 1 Northern, 71c; October, 72%c and 72%c72%c; December, 73%c, down to 73%c73%c, and back to 73%c; May, 79%c79%c, down to 79%c. Closing: October, 72%c; December, 73%c; May, 79%c. Chicago closed at 70%c71c for October, 78%c for May.

The business in the stock market to-day was somewhat restricted by the absence of the Jewish element and was but slightly larger than that of yesterday. The tone of the dealings, however, was firm to strong throughout most of the day, principally upon clique buying. The news of the day was not of much influence, but what there was of it was of a favorable nature and the rumors circulated were of the same character. Considerable influence was exerted by the conference of the secretary of the treasury and the leading bankers of the city and it undoubtedly stimulated buying. The announcement of the advance in rates by 8t. Paul was of much benefit to the Grangers and the improved aspect of the coal trade made the coal stocks the leaders of the market during the forenoon, but the Vanderbilts displaced them toward the close. The buying of the latter was stimulated by reports of the unusually good earnings. Richmond and West Point was notably weak in the afternoon, but had little effect upon the general list. The opening was generally heavy on the offerings by the traders at declines of from ½ to ¾ per cent. from yesterday's final figures. Trading was dull but soon became more animated and the market was firm to strong from the opening. Jersey Central, Missouri Pacific, New England, Reading and Richmond & West Point were notably strong at the time. The market quieted down later when Jersey Central made a further gain. There were some few slight declines in the afternoon, but the general list crept slowly up and the Vanderbilts assumed the head. There was no further change in the market and the close was quiet but strong at the best prices of the day. Everything without exception in the active list is higher to-night, and Jersey Central is 1½. Comaha 1½, Canada, Southern 1½, Lake Erie & Western pre

Apples still continue firm at quotations and sales are free. There is no change in cranberries; they are not quite so plentiful and prices have an upward tendency. There is practically no change in butter. Some houses represent that a better movement is observable, but the market is still quoted rather easy, with prices strong, especially for strictly fresh and rancy dairy. Receipts are ample and buyers have no trouble in securing all grades. Cheese is quiet. Receipts of eggs are somewhat less and there is a good demand, which seems to hold prices steady. Pratric chickens are scarce, ducks a little more abundant. The market is well supplied with grapes and prices are steady. There is a good supply of poultry and prices are steady. There was less activity among buyers, though sellers during the early part of the session were getting about the prices of the day before and in some instances a fraction more. The decline in speculative markets had very little effect on the sample trade, and holders were firm all day. Offerings were lighter than on any day this week, only 117 cars being received. Shipments were 55 cars. Duluth took in 142 cars. Toward the close millers and shippers became free buyers.
