

THE RAILWAY WORLD

The St. Paul & Duluth Survey to Omaha Already Completed.

And Now the Question Arises, Will They Build the Road?

A Plan for a Short Line Between Oshkosh and Berlin.

Further Assertions That the Red River Valley Road Will be Built.

Nearly three months ago the GLOBE gave the particulars of a party of St. Paul & Duluth surveyors being engaged...

From Oshkosh to Berlin.

Special to the Globe. Oshkosh, Wis., Oct. 28.—The Fox River Valley Construction company will file articles of association with the register of deeds tomorrow.

The Red River Road.

Special to the Globe. Fargo, N. D., Oct. 28.—A large deputation waited on the government to-day, when perfect assurances were given of the ability of the government to complete the road.

No Receiver.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 28.—The circuit court announced its decision in the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton case, which was simply to continue the present stay...

A Suit Ended.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 28.—The great $30,000,000 case against the New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio Railroad company was ended in the common pleas court to-day by the payment by the defense of the small amount of costs remaining.

Chips From the Ties.

The Manitoba has issued the following circular: "The railway of this company being semi-weekly and Great Falls, Minn., has been completed, and regular trains will be put on Monday, Oct. 31, 1887."

The Cholera.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Surgeon General Hamilton to-day received a telegram from the health officer at Philadelphia saying that he will endeavor to locate the Italian immigrants supposed to have arrived in Philadelphia from the steamer Independence.

Run Off the Track.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 28.—The eastbound accommodation train on the Florida Railway and Navigation company's road ran off the track eight miles east of Tallahassee yesterday.

Right to the Front.

The large advertisement of Max Strouse in this morning's GLOBE will attract—as it should—a great deal of attention.

The Fisheries Question.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Messrs. Anzell and Putnam, the fisheries negotiators, have returned to Washington and are in frequent consultation with Secretary Bayard regarding the appointment of a commission to investigate the fisheries.

usually to the commissioners the courtesy usually accorded visiting diplomats in the matter of free admission of personal effects, etc. It is the present intention to have the meeting in the department building, and the large room near the secretary's office, known as the diplomatic reception room, will be set apart for their consultations.

THE STATE OF TRADE.

The Usual Weekly Review of Commercial Matters.

New York, Oct. 28.—R. G. Dun & Co. in their weekly review of trade say: "During the past week, and during the month, the volume of business has diminished somewhat, as is natural at this season. But the October trade, in some branches and sections, falls below the average of the month last year."

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

He Writes a Letter to the Southern Forestry Congress.

HTTSVILLE, Ala., Oct. 28.—The Southern forestry congress held its sittings yesterday. The following letter from Jefferson Davis was read: "Beauvoir, Miss., Oct. 16.—Sidney Root, Esq.—My Dear Sir: Please accept my thanks for the report you have sent me of the proceedings of the forestry congress."

More Lake Disasters.

TABERNORAY, O., Oct. 28.—The steamer Alderson arrived here last night from Manitowish island, and brought news of two wrecks reported. One is the barge Sylvia Morton, of Detroit. She was driven ashore on Manitowish island, but her crew all escaped.

Notes From Aberdeen.

Little Pheasant Sends a Batch of Interesting News. The smiling faces of the following commercial tourists were visible in the corridors of the Sherman house at Aberdeen last Sunday: J. M. Hibbard, of Ned, as he is familiarly called, trying to discover a safe place to hide some oats, knowing that Pat Tracy was around."

SAM SLICK'S LETTER.

He Runs Up Against a Confiding Tenderfoot From Jersey.

The great theme of conversation in North Dakota, and Fargo especially, has been the land question, and the line to the land office began to form the night of the 20th, and many were rolled up in blankets and slept on the line that night so as to be ready for filing the 1,000 men. It was estimated that 1,000 men were in the city on that errand, and the crowds and full hotels with cots in parlors and halls remained one of the boom days' surges, perhaps, but which was one prominent feature lacking, and that was the "tenderfoot."

YORKER'S BANQUET.

He Gets in at the Opening of a Hotel at Pelican Rapids.

The Grand hotel at Pelican Rapids, Minn., was opened to the traveling public on Monday evening, Oct. 24. This house was built some years ago but has, never been fitted up till now, when the business men of the village, seeing the great necessity for better hotel facilities, persuaded Mr. Murray, late of the Bloodlet house, to open and run the house for a year at least.

Irishman's Cause.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—The Irish-American citizens of Chicago to the number of 5,000 assembled this evening at the hall of Battery D to welcome Arthur O'Connor, M. P., and Thomas Grattan Esmond, M. P. Speeches were made by these gentlemen, and resolutions were adopted declaring that moral and material support would continue to be given to the Irish National League in Ireland under Parnell's direction.
