

The GLOBE would like to tell you, In a pleasant sort of way, That it has some space to sell you In its columns every day.

WELL, WHAT OF IT? The divisionists have had their voting, and if they are satisfied with the result, there should be a season of general cheerfulness, as the unionists are decidedly cheerful over the event of Tuesday.

A DISH OF SALAD.

Editorial comment and a large amount of interesting Dakota news has to give way, this week, to the advertisers and anarchists.

THE CAUSE OF IT.

A POPULAR DAKOTIAN.

The honorable secretary of the territory was born in Friendsville, Susquehanna county, Pa., Nov. 26, 1847, in a family of moderate means.

THE UNLESS LETTER.

The letter of Commissioner Sparks to Mr. UNLESS, explanatory of the order and law in regard to the indemnity lands, seems to have given encouragement to parties filing claims upon improved farms hardly warranted by a dispassionate view of the situation.

A LACK OF FIGURES.

The Dakota Election Returns Tell a Very Uneven and Incomplete Story.

Prohibition Wins and Division Fails to Draw Votes, But Totals are Lacking.

A Review of the Situation and a Table of Unofficial Estimates.

Gen. Campbell Claims About 22,000 Majority for Division in South Dakota.

Maj. Edwards Thinks the Majority in the Territory Will Be About 10,000.

But little of a definite character can be said about the actual result of the Dakota election at this time, as the returns are still meager and incomplete.
