ment to a pleading at the trial, and of leading questions to a witness held to be within the discretion of the court. After having litigated a question of fact without objection it is too late to claim that the pleading of the adverse party did not sufficiently cover the fact in the controversy. Evidence considered as justifying the verdict. OGDEN, J. DICKINSON, J.

James B. McDonald, respondent, vs. Joseph Przewocki, applicant. Syllabus—An instruction to a jury that a peculiar contract embracing the terms of a lease of land to the plaintiff constituted a sale to the defendant of a crop of grain grown on that land, held not prejudicial to the defendant. (The real question involved being paid of the value of the land.) Evidence held sufficient to justify the verdict upon the question of fraud. An objection that a written instrument, offered in evidence, is immaterial does not involve the point that preliminary proof of its execution had not been made. The court, in its discretion, may refuse to receive it. New trial denied. OGDEN, J. DICKINSON, J.

IT STILL HESITATES. The Chamber of Commerce Does Not Go on Record as to Whether It Will Support a Bill to Amend the Law Relating to the Sale of Goods. At the meeting of the chamber of commerce yesterday the resignation of Hon. Edmund Rice as a director was not accepted, but he was given a leave of absence while congress is in session.

THE CASES OF ALL APPLICANTS FOR AID, and those reported, and furnished relief of that kind, but in some cases the relief was not granted. It also has charge of the almshouse, an institution costing $60,000, unquestionably the finest institution of the kind in Minnesota, and better than any county hospital, where the sick and poor are attended to. In all these cases relief is furnished entirely by the chamber of commerce.

A JUROR WHO TALKED IRISH TO THE COURT AND WAS ALLOWED TO GO. "Joseph Foley," called Baz Armstrong in the district court room before Judge Simons yesterday morning, and one of the men who had been subpoenaed stepped forward. He was apparently about to ask to be excused, when Baz said, "Hold up your right hand, and swear that you will do your duty as a juror." He then began to ask to be excused. Mr. Foley hails from Connemara, and his brogue is as noticeable as his Irish. He was asked to talk for a minute, probably so rapidly and unintelligibly that no one could understand a word.

MUSICAL AND LITERARY. Entertainment by the Summit Chautauqua Circle Last Night. The Summit Chautauqua Circle met in the lecture room of the First M. E. church last evening. An entertaining and instructive programme was rendered and some interesting addresses were given.

PERSONALS. J. H. Halpin and wife are guests at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Halpin, called at the capitol yesterday.

THE THIRD NATIONAL. Cashier Stover Says Its Affairs Are Nearly Closed Up. There remains about $10,000 or $12,000 to be paid depositors of the Third National bank.

NEW CORPORATIONS. The Minneapolis Realty company filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state yesterday. The capital is $150,000, and W. A. Barnes, Alex. Barnes, C. W. Weston, P. H. Barnes and J. H. Weston, of Minneapolis, are the incorporators.

LOGGING HAS BEGUN. "Logging has commenced in earnest," said Capt. E. S. Austin, president of the St. Croix Lumber company, "and now that we had a good snow transportation to shipping points is made much easier. Nearly all the gangs are in the woods, and this is especially true throughout Wisconsin, where the output bids fair to be larger than ever. Hard wood is the specialty at my camp, and I have orders enough from the East to keep us engaged until late in the spring if the weather we are now having will only continue. My snow is a necessary aid to a successful lumber season since all our production has to be hauled on sleds a long distance to rivers, down which it must be floated almost to its destination."

THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY. The Minnesota Historical society held a regular meeting last night. Vice President Ramsey presiding. Thomas F. Oakes and C. H. Graves, of Duluth, were elected life members. Gov. Ramsey read a very interesting biographical sketch of D. Smith Harris, one of the pioneer steamboat men of the upper Mississippi, well known to all old settlers. A committee was appointed to nominate names for members of the association will be continued the balance of the week.

THE GYPSY QUEENS. "The Gypsy Queens" opened at the Olympic to a large house last evening. The Gypsy scene with its attractive girls is pretty and very popular.

THE POOR CARED FOR.

Some Misleading Comment on the Saintly City Poor. Dr. A. B. Ancker, city physician, said to the GLOBE yesterday that the publication of the comment of the Saintly Sentinel on one of the cases of destitution, reported in the GLOBE recently, would give people a wrong impression of the way the city cared for its poor.

STILLWATER HAPPENINGS.

Ben Rohrbach, while wrestling last Saturday night, had the misfortune to break a leg. A special meeting for the transaction of important business has been called at Opera House hall to-night by the president of the York club.

George Mitchell and Miss Frances Rutherford were made one of the Congregational parsonage Saturday evening by Rev. J. H. Albert. The funeral of Narcisse Belisle was held yesterday from the French Catholic church, and upwards of thirty teams were in the cortege that made its way to the graveyard. He leaves a large family to mourn his loss.

The board of education held a special meeting yesterday afternoon, when it was decided that instead of an upright boiler for the new high school building a horizontal one be put in. While the cost may be more, it is affirmed that more and better distributed heat will be obtained.

Lost, Diamond Bracelet. Dec. 4, on Dayton, Summit, Sixth street or College avenue; $150 reward to any one returning same to Globe office.

SCROFULA.

Probably no form of disease is so generally distributed among our whole population as Scrofula. Almost every individual has in his system some of its seeds. The terrible sufferings endured by those afflicted with scrofulous sores cannot be understood by others, and the intensity of their gratitude when they find a remedy that cures them, astonishes a well person.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. Hood's Sarsaparilla of 15 Scrofulous Sores the severity of which confront her to the house for two years. Six months previous to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla she could not get about her room without crutches. Her friend says: "I did not think it possible for her to live many months; she was reduced to a mere skeleton. Her cure is hardly less than a miracle." More wonderful cures than this have been effected by this medicine. There is no doubt that in Hood's Sarsaparilla we have the most remarkable medicine that has ever been produced, and a positive cure for Scrofula in its numerous forms. Price $1.00, six for $5.00. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass. Sold by Druggists.
