

THE WAR SPREADING.

Probability of a Strike on the Kansas City, Ft. Scott & Gulf System.

The Road Determined to Handle All the Burlington Freight Offered.

The Blockade Seriously Affecting Many Cities in Far Off California.

Developments at Chicago and Denver--General Strike Notes.

KANSAS CITY, March 16.--The situation on the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Gulf system is critical. It was thought certain that the men would strike at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and the men in the yards are said to have expressed surprise that no order came.

THE ROAD WILL BE TIED UP to-night, as everything depends on the action of Chairman Hitchkins. One feature of the situation on the Fort Scott has been frequently remarked, and that is, the fact that some days after the beginning of the Burlington strike...

CHIEF ARTHUR. He is Indignant Regarding the Santa Fe Strike. Special to the Globe.

CHICAGO, March 16.--Chief Arthur declared to-night that the strike on the Santa Fe road had been undertaken without his knowledge or sanction, and vehemently insisted that in the present condition of affairs he would resign his position before he would sanction a strike on this or any other road.

CALIFORNIA'S UNDERDOGS. Travel in the Sunset Land Seriously Interfered With. SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.--The locomotive engineers and firemen on the California Southern and California Central roads quit work this morning.

AT CHICAGO. Passenger Trains May Move on the Santa Fe. CHICAGO, March 16.--At 10 p. m., C. W. Smith, general manager of the Santa Fe system, said that brotherhood men had volunteered to take the passenger trains of the company from Kansas City to-night, and more brotherhood men would run out the regular passenger trains in the morning.

AT DENVER. The Tie-up at the Colorado Metropolitan is Complete. DENVER, Col., March 16.--The tie-up of the Santa Fe trains at this point is complete, not a single train having left here since last night, and the only one reported as arriving is the Kansas City express.

BEYOND THE CONTRACT.

An Impression Among Engineers That They Are Not Being Given Fair Play.

The Road Determined to Handle All the Burlington Freight Offered.

The Blockade Seriously Affecting Many Cities in Far Off California.

Developments at Chicago and Denver--General Strike Notes.

There was little change in the situation yesterday, though the reports in the morning papers of the strike on the Atchison road caused a good deal of talk, and tended to put the engineers on their nerve, and were more vigorous than ever in their assertions that they would stay to the end of the fight.

CHIEF ARTHUR. He is Indignant Regarding the Santa Fe Strike. Special to the Globe.

CHICAGO, March 16.--Chief Arthur declared to-night that the strike on the Santa Fe road had been undertaken without his knowledge or sanction, and vehemently insisted that in the present condition of affairs he would resign his position before he would sanction a strike on this or any other road.

CALIFORNIA'S UNDERDOGS. Travel in the Sunset Land Seriously Interfered With. SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.--The locomotive engineers and firemen on the California Southern and California Central roads quit work this morning.

AT CHICAGO. Passenger Trains May Move on the Santa Fe. CHICAGO, March 16.--At 10 p. m., C. W. Smith, general manager of the Santa Fe system, said that brotherhood men had volunteered to take the passenger trains of the company from Kansas City to-night, and more brotherhood men would run out the regular passenger trains in the morning.

AT DENVER. The Tie-up at the Colorado Metropolitan is Complete. DENVER, Col., March 16.--The tie-up of the Santa Fe trains at this point is complete, not a single train having left here since last night, and the only one reported as arriving is the Kansas City express.

A FEMALE FIREMAN.

She Helps Her Husband Run an Engine.

The Road Determined to Handle All the Burlington Freight Offered.

The Blockade Seriously Affecting Many Cities in Far Off California.

Developments at Chicago and Denver--General Strike Notes.

KANSAS CITY, March 16.--At 11:36 Ben Johnson, fireman of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe road house, at Argentine, backed an engine up to the engine house, and coupled on to train No. 3, which is the through California freight.

No Strike in Texas. GALVESTON, March 16.--The strike of the engineers and firemen on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad has not extended to Texas, and the line comprising the gulf division of the Santa Fe system, Vice President and General Manager Webster Snyder, of the gulf division, stated to an associated press reporter this evening that he does not anticipate that the strike would extend into Texas.

The Eccentric Slipped. Special to the Globe.

FARGO, Dak., March 16.--Some 250 "Q" cars have been side-tracked in the Northern Pacific yards at this point since last week, at which time a private order, it is rumored, came from headquarters to the effect that the cars of Quinby were in no rush for their cars. A train of them was made up one day or so since, but owing to the slipping of the eccentric they were started on the side-track, and have not been on the side-track. No further attempt was made to move them.

A RAY OF SUNSHINE. She Flits Into a Police Station and Tells the Captain All About Her Troubles.

LA JUNTA, Cal., March 16.--No. 4 came in from the South at 5:30 p. m., and it is expected that this is the last train that will be allowed to run until the strike is compromised.

AT CHICAGO. Passenger Trains May Move on the Santa Fe. CHICAGO, March 16.--At 10 p. m., C. W. Smith, general manager of the Santa Fe system, said that brotherhood men had volunteered to take the passenger trains of the company from Kansas City to-night, and more brotherhood men would run out the regular passenger trains in the morning.

AT DENVER. The Tie-up at the Colorado Metropolitan is Complete. DENVER, Col., March 16.--The tie-up of the Santa Fe trains at this point is complete, not a single train having left here since last night, and the only one reported as arriving is the Kansas City express.

THE DEAD AND DYING.

Germany's Emperor Unable to Attend the Obsequies of His Father.

Because He Is Growing Physically Much Weaker From Day to Day.

The Ceremonies Attended by a Great Crowd of Nobles.

Boulangers' Popularity in France--General Foreign Intelligence.

By Cable to the Globe. LONDON, March 16.--Although Emperor Frederick III. has displayed astonishing activity and endurance since the death of his father, yet he is gradually since the beginning of the preparations for the funeral of the late kaiser, it is feared that he will break down after the excitement attending the obsequies has subsided.

LA JUNTA, Cal., March 16.--No. 4 came in from the South at 5:30 p. m., and it is expected that this is the last train that will be allowed to run until the strike is compromised.

AT CHICAGO. Passenger Trains May Move on the Santa Fe. CHICAGO, March 16.--At 10 p. m., C. W. Smith, general manager of the Santa Fe system, said that brotherhood men had volunteered to take the passenger trains of the company from Kansas City to-night, and more brotherhood men would run out the regular passenger trains in the morning.

AT DENVER. The Tie-up at the Colorado Metropolitan is Complete. DENVER, Col., March 16.--The tie-up of the Santa Fe trains at this point is complete, not a single train having left here since last night, and the only one reported as arriving is the Kansas City express.

positions behind tabourets bearing the emperor's insignia. Gen. von Pape, holding the imperial standard, then placed himself at the head of the coffin; Count Lehndorff and Prince Radzivil, the late emperor's aide-de-camp, with other aides-camp standing together at the foot of the coffin.

BEHIND THE IMPERIAL STANDARD. Along the great boulevard of the city of Saxony, the king of Belgium and the king of Roumania. Close by stood the grand duke of Baden, Princes Albrecht and Henry, and other members of the royal house of Prussia; the prince imperial of Austria, the prince imperial of Russia, the Grand Dukes Michael and Nicholas of Russia, the prince of Wales; the crown prince of Italy; the crown prince of Denmark, and the crown prince of Greece, all in the uniform of the respective countries.

BEAT A DEAFENING TATTOO. This was the signal for the troops to march. While the procession was forming the bands played the "Marche Funebre," the sounds of the tolling of the church bells mingling with the strains. The formation of the cortege occupied some time, but was effected in an orderly manner, in accordance with the official programme.

EMPEROR AUGUSTA remained at home in solitary prayer. The deceased emperor had expressed his wish that he should be buried between the Old and the New Testaments. The word of prayer from the Old Testament was responded to by promises from the New Testament, and the latter was read with the attainment of eternal bliss.

THE SIGHT OF THE CHIEF MOURNER, the heir to the throne, accompanied by the most illustrious representatives of every European country, whose presence gave evidence of the universal sympathy in the death of the emperor, was held, and by a long line of statesmen, all combined to give the scene an impressiveness that was reflected in the demeanor of the dense throng in the cortege.

HE SLANDERED THE DEAD. Oshkosh Times. By far the most remarkable of these political harangues so far that of Senator Ingalls, of Kansas, delivered last Tuesday. He is one of the most virulent of partisans and is a powerful and sarcastic speaker.

THE BENEFIT OF DENIAL. Ortonville Herald-Star. Journal positively deny that they have been asked to submit for Motley. They ought to be given the benefit of the denial, and then they ought to explain the sudden change of front.

THE WAGES OF SIN. SPRINGFIELD, Mo., March 16.--Effie Ellis, the girl whom Dr. Cox burned with carbolic acid, is in a critical condition, and should she recover, will be disfigured for life.

THE DAMAGE SMALL. Fire in the residence of John Miller on Victoria street, near Hennepin, at 10 o'clock last night, called out the department. The house was damaged about $500.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. Probably no form of disease is so generally distributed among our people as Scrofula. Almost every individual has this latent poison coursing his veins.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. Probably no form of disease is so generally distributed among our people as Scrofula. Almost every individual has this latent poison coursing his veins.

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. Probably no form of disease is so generally distributed among our people as Scrofula. Almost every individual has this latent poison coursing his veins.

downs. Noisy crowds also gathered on the boulevards, but there was no disorder.

THE POPE'S SORROW. ROME, March 16.--The autograph letter from the pope to Emperor Frederick, which Mgr. Galluzzi takes to Berlin, expresses the deep sorrow of his holiness at the death of a monarch who was animated by the friendliest feelings toward the Catholic church.

THE POPE'S SORROW. ROME, March 16.--The autograph letter from the pope to Emperor Frederick, which Mgr. Galluzzi takes to Berlin, expresses the deep sorrow of his holiness at the death of a monarch who was animated by the friendliest feelings toward the Catholic church.

THE POPE'S SORROW. ROME, March 16.--The autograph letter from the pope to Emperor Frederick, which Mgr. Galluzzi takes to Berlin, expresses the deep sorrow of his holiness at the death of a monarch who was animated by the friendliest feelings toward the Catholic church.

THE POPE'S SORROW. ROME, March 16.--The autograph letter from the pope to Emperor Frederick, which Mgr. Galluzzi takes to Berlin, expresses the deep sorrow of his holiness at the death of a monarch who was animated by the friendliest feelings toward the Catholic church.

THE POPE'S SORROW. ROME, March 16.--The autograph letter from the pope to Emperor Frederick, which Mgr. Galluzzi takes to Berlin, expresses the deep sorrow of his holiness at the death of a monarch who was animated by the friendliest feelings toward the Catholic church.

THE POPE'S SORROW. ROME, March 16.--The autograph letter from the pope to Emperor Frederick, which Mgr. Galluzzi takes to Berlin, expresses the deep sorrow of his holiness at the death of a monarch who was animated by the friendliest feelings toward the Catholic church.

THE POPE'S SORROW. ROME, March 16.--The autograph letter from the pope to Emperor Frederick, which Mgr. Galluzzi takes to Berlin, expresses the deep sorrow of his holiness at the death of a monarch who was animated by the friendliest feelings toward the Catholic church.

THE POPE'S SORROW. ROME, March 16.--The autograph letter from the pope to Emperor Frederick, which Mgr. Galluzzi takes to Berlin, expresses the deep sorrow of his holiness at the death of a monarch who was animated by the friendliest feelings toward the Catholic church.

THE POPE'S SORROW. ROME, March 16.--The autograph letter from the pope to Emperor Frederick, which Mgr. Galluzzi takes to Berlin, expresses the deep sorrow of his holiness at the death of a monarch who was animated by the friendliest feelings toward the Catholic church.

THE POPE'S SORROW. ROME, March 16.--The autograph letter from the pope to Emperor Frederick, which Mgr. Galluzzi takes to Berlin, expresses the deep sorrow of his holiness at the death of a monarch who was animated by the friendliest feelings toward the Catholic church.

THE POPE'S SORROW. ROME, March 16.--The autograph letter from the pope to Emperor Frederick, which Mgr. Galluzzi takes to Berlin, expresses the deep sorrow of his holiness at the death of a monarch who was animated by the friendliest feelings toward the Catholic church.

MONARCH OF ALL THE DAILIES!

THE UNPARALLELED INCREASE IN THE Circulation of Advertising Patronage

OF THE Sunnelay Globe.

Has Placed it so far in the Lead that it can Never be Reached by Would-Be Rivals.

Old Foggy Ideas and Time-Worn Methods Employed by Other Papers have Gone to the Wall Before the Resistless, Pushing and Energetic GLOBE.

Among the Features of Absorbing Interest will be the following: ST. PAUL SLUGGERS.

Well known Bloods of the Saintry City who are clever with the boxing gloves.

HOW ST. PAUL MEN SLEEP. The proper position in which to sleep, with sketches of some St. Paul men as they are sleeping.

BEER DRINKERS IN ST. PAUL. Places where many spend the night, and how they turn down the amber fluid.

ST. PAUL GIRLS WHO WORK. Rights and privileges given to the dimpled darlings who toil for their bread, by St. Paul employers.

GOSSIP FOR THE SPORTS. A page of rich and racy matter for those interested in base ball and other manly sports.

LABOR LACONICS. A resume of the week in labor circles. Food for the workman.

FIRST HOUSE IN MINNEAPOLIS. A picture of the first building and a sketch of the historic spot.

SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR VILAS. Startling developments in his great suit against Welch, the Minneapolis attorney.

MEN OF MINNEAPOLIS. Bright things said about the popular men of the Flour City.

TYPOGRAPHICAL DELEGATES. Pictures of men who will attend the International Typographical Union from the Twin Cities.

IRISH-AMERICAN CLUB. Sketch of this well known organization in St. Paul. Those who are members.

GOV. HILL'S HOME. The cosy abode of the bachelor chief of New York.

BILL NYE SHOPPING. The famous humorist offends a saleslady by calling for suspenders.

WEAR GOOD CLOTHES. Some young men of St. Paul who might be mistaken for dudes.

THE SPRING BONNET. Fanny Davenport's Headgear. Mrs. Cleveland's New Mantles.

COURTED BY A CORPSE. Spirits, Spooks and Goblins who keep mortals in a constant stew.

MAIDENS OF MEXICO. Courtship and Lovemaking in Mexico. How the Young Ladies are Guarded.

LOVE'S TRAGEDY. A Terrible Tale of Love, Passion, Grief, Murder, Suicide and Double Death.

OUR WORK BASKET. Pretty Bureau Covers and Bedspreads.

FOR SMALL POCKETBOOKS. How to Live Cheaply and Well.

A PSALM OF TRADE.

Tell me not in mournful numbers, Trade is not an evil dream!

When a GLOBE ad never slumbers, Trade 'whooops' each worthy scheme.

Trade is real! Trade is earnest! Failure's grave is not its goal!

"Bust" thou art, to "biz" returnest. And through GLOBE ads in wealth roll!

Not bankruptry, with its sorrow Is thy destined end or way.

When that note for goods thou givest Will be due; but for thy credit, GLOBE ads can thy saving save.

Let him, then, be up and doing, Writing out an estate or drawing For the GLOBE. 'Twill trade be wooing From its first insertion date.

In the merchants' field of battle, In the busy mart of strife, Backed by GLOBE ads, struck can 'trifle' 'Tisze, while rivalry is rife.

Lives of great men all remind us We can make our names sublime, And, departing, leave behind us Standing GLOBE ads all the time!

"Adlets" that perds another, Stumbling in mistourne's train, Some are prominent stout brothers, Seeing, shall take heart again.

Let him, then, be up and doing, Writing out an estate or drawing For the GLOBE. 'Twill trade be wooing From its first insertion date.