Suits Recommended in 700 Cases of Fraudulent Entry in California.

A Scotch Syndicate Which Will Suffer for Its Most-Stroustrickery.

Secretary Vilas Takes a Hand Against the Conspiracy to Obtain Patents.

New York State Senators Want Peckham Promoted to the Supreme Court.

Special to the Globe.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—The Redwood land frauds in California have for some time been engaging the attention of the officials of the interior department. Upwards of 700 entries of Special Agent in Charge Peckham, accompanied by a number of assistants, it appears that a Scotch corporation or syndicate was formed for the purpose of obtaining control of all the valuable redwood lands located in Humboldt county. This syndicate was represented in California by James D. Walker, who made a contract with Joseph Russ, David Evans and Charles King, composing the firm of Russ & Co., to carry out the object in view. These in turn employed as agents in the various work Charles E. Beach, Harry A. Mark and M. P. Roberts (brother of the register of the Humboldt land office), who employed other agents.

THE AFFIDAVITS of some of whom will be found hereafter. The affidavits of Frank McLoughlin shows he was employed by Charles E. Beach to furnish men to make timber applications, for which he (McLoughlin) was to receive $5 for each man, and not more than $100 for each man on completion of entry. Under this contract a number of men were furnished, whose names and the contracts for them are given. The contract was then changed so as to make McLoughlin's compensation $20 per week, and at this rate he furnished a large number of entries. The names and the contracts entered are also given. The papers relating to these entries were prepared by Beach, Roberts and Marks, and acknowledged by Charles E. Beach to furnish men to make timber applications, for which he (McLoughlin) was to receive $5 for each man, and not more than $100 for each man on completion of entry.

A NORWEGIAN FARMER Presents His Ideas in Regard to Tariff and Assessment Laws.

CYRUS, April 3.—In your issue of the 2nd inst. I read a list of well known farmers and business men giving their views in relation to the high or low tariff. I must state that I came to America with my parents from the Kingdom of Norway, forty-five years ago, and have resided west of Milwaukee ever since. I came to Wisconsin in 1837, and settled in the town of Mendota, when it was territory, and knew but little of tariff until late years. A change must be made in the tariff law, but let it be one that will strike the farmer and the manufacturer alike. Let us see what we can do for the farmer. Let us see what we can do for the manufacturer. Let us see what we can do for the farmer. Let us see what we can do for the manufacturer.

DEHORNING CATTLE. Alleged that it Opens the Way to Fraud and Regret to Age.

Leading farmers and stock raisers are seemingly in favor of it, because stock can be kept much easier, require less barn room, and they are rendered harmless by the concentration of horns. It is a cruel and unnecessary operation, and one that opens the way to fraud and regret to age. It is a cruel and unnecessary operation, and one that opens the way to fraud and regret to age.

They Are for Peckham. Special to the Globe.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 8.—Senator Pierce, of Brooklyn, has just finished his circulation of a memorial asking the president to name Judge Rufus W. Peckham, of the New York court of appeals, as candidate for the vacancy in the United States supreme court. The petition is signed by Senators Pierce, Murphy, Collins, Linson, Canton, Steadler, Langelien, Ives, Foley, Kelley, Vanocler and Russell. It is signed by the Democratic state committee, is also a signer, and signatures of many influential men are affixed. The communication will be sent to Washington.

Republican Campaign Views. Special to the Globe.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—"Congress will not break up before the middle of August," said a senator who is prominent as a Republican leader, "because we intend to do a great deal of campaign work through the session. Hereafter, in president-making years, the house has kept the senate in session. Now the tables will be turned, and there will be a long session in order to ascertain whether there has been any accession to their ranks or not, but this is nothing new. It is probable that the house will be in the house to-morrow in answer to Representative Taylor's proposition, made just before the recess was taken."

Judge Advocate of the Navy. Special to the Globe.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—On the 12th of June next the commission of Col. W. B. Remeyas, judge advocate general of the navy, will expire, and it is believed that when the time comes for the secretary to name a successor, there will be no lack of candidates from which to make a choice.

The Direct Tax Bill. WASHINGTON, April 8.—There has been no change in the situation with respect to the direct tax bill. No conferences looking to a settlement have taken place between the opposing parties. Leaders of both houses have, of course, consulted their followers in order to ascertain whether there has been any accession to their ranks or not, but this is nothing new. It is probable that the house will be in the house to-morrow in answer to Representative Taylor's proposition, made just before the recess was taken."

FARMERS' HOMES. In Southern Minnesota They Show Prosperity and Refinement.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. For two years, April 3.—Judging farmers as they appear coming into town they are, as a rule, very well to do; at least they are comfortably clothed, neat as one could ask them to be, and their families are finely dressed. No one could fail to notice that, with all, they are also very intelligent. Look- ing into the faces of some of them, and, perhaps, nearly all of them, and I wonder they are not very proud of their farms and make them more like "a thing of beauty and a joy forever." True, it requires work—hard work, too—maybe an expenditure of money; but it will pay; pay in its beauty and satisfaction, and these things are not only for one's family, but for the benefit of the community. The farmer who is well to do, and who is also very intelligent, is a credit to his community. He is a credit to his community. He is a credit to his community.

Phelps May Not Return. Special to the Globe.

WASHINGTON, April 8.—It is rumored that Minister Phelps, who is on his way back from England, will not return to his station in London.

In Search of Health. WASHINGTON, April 8.—Representative Mills has gone to Fort-Rensselaer, and will be absent for a few days to recuperate his health.

Profitable Farming. Hillsboro Banner.

Profitable Farming. Hillsboro Banner. When the Grandins made their heavy investments in Traill county lands they made a contract with Oliver Dalrymple to operate them. The Grandins were to furnish capital for stock, machinery and improvements, and when the farms should have paid for the same, the cost of the land and a reasonable interest, Mr. Dalrymple was to pay for one of the property. The thousands of acres, the hundreds of horses and the vast amount of machinery and improvements, all of which had been paid for, were now in the hands of Mr. Dalrymple. This shows the success of farming in North Dakota. It is a brilliant success, and it is a success that is well deserved.
