

YOUNG MEN GET LEFT

Old-Timers Will Capture the Wisconsin Republican Convention.

And Jerry Rusk Will Be the Favorite Candidate for President.

Crookston Democrats Come Out for Cleveland and Tariff Reform.

Clay County Democrats Are Strong Against Ames and Doran.

Special to the Globe. MADISON, Wis., May 8.—Beyond a doubt Jerry Rusk will be nominated for president by the Wisconsin Republicans to-morrow. About half the delegates are in the city to-night, and seductive language from the lips of the party convention is being poured into the ears of the rank and file in the true old-fashioned style. From the outlook to-night the convention will be any thing but a young men's convention, despite the fact that the party bosses would like to make it appear so, and the same crowd that always attends the party conventions is here in all its glory, and the few young men appear sadly out of place. A number of the young men from the "Capitol crowd" circulated among the delegates at the Park hotel to-night, and to a stranger it might have appeared that there were some young men delegates, but there was a notable difference in the looks of the delegates at large as they are as thick as flies in summer time. Senator John O. Spooner will, without doubt, head the delegation to the national convention. Henry C. Payne, of Milwaukee, is considered to be another. As to the other two delegates, there is some fun will come.

In H. O. Fairchild, of Marinette, announced early in the afternoon his willingness to sacrifice to go to Chicago to represent the state at Chicago. From the Second district comes an interesting state of affairs. E. H. Fetters, of Janesville, the silver-tongued orator, and J. N. Quarles, of Racine, who is a rival of Fetters on the silver-tongued business, both left in the district convention and consequently have been laying wires to secure an "at large" plum. It is reported to-night that the delegates will withdraw from the convention and urge the selection of Fetters. There are other candidates, but the selection lies between the above five. Enough has been said to show that there is very fine with the farmers, so much so, in fact, that it is worthy the other candidates considerably. The convention will be held at the Hotel de Ville, and the delegates are enthusiastically for Rusk. After Rusk the Wisconsin delegation will support Gresham. Henry C. Payne will be the delegate from the Wisconsin central committee, which the convention is to choose.

Gov. Rusk First and Gresham Afterwards.

Special to the Globe. EAU CLAIRE, Wis., May 8.—Michael Griffin, of Eau Claire, chairman of the district committee, was chosen chairman of the Republican congressional district committee this afternoon, and Walter Hauser, of Buffalo, secretary. Mr. Griffin, in an address, said at no time since the election of Lincoln had there been such reason to regard with solicitude the future of the government, which was drifting from the old strongholds of the republic. The result of the war for freedom were being frittered away. All countries were fully represented, except Burnett. Griffin had refused to be a candidate for the seat of James Linderman, of Osseo; Trempealeau county, and James O'Neill, of Neillsville, Clark county, were elected to the national convention. The first choice of each for president is Gov. Rusk. Neither express a second choice, but O'Neill is rather favorable to Gresham. The second choice is chosen, and L. S. Tainter, of Menomonie, were elected alternates. On motion, Currie G. Bell, of Bayfield, was unanimously recommended for president by the delegates, and Senator Spooner for delegate at large, although Mr. Herrick, of Hudson, said the St. Croix delegation had advised for Currie G. Bell as a candidate, but preferred one of their own. An informal ballot, which it was expressly provided should not be construed as conveying any recommendation for president, was taken on second choice after Rusk, who was conceded to be the convention's first choice for president, resulting: Gresham 33, Blaine 29, Sherman 2, Depew 2, Lincoln 1. Vacancies in the district committee were filled by the election of J. C. Chapman, of Bayfield, and E. L. Foy, of St. Croix. The next meeting of the next congressional nominating convention.

Special to the Globe. GRANITE FALLS, Minn., May 8.—At the Republican county convention for Yellow Medicine county delegates were elected to the state and district conventions. A motion instructing the delegates for John Lind was defeated, and a resolution strongly favoring a reduction of duties on whisky and tobacco was adopted unanimously. A strong low tariff sentiment prevails among the delegates, which may lead to a serious break in the Republican ranks of this county.

Special to the Globe. CHATEAU, Minn., May 8.—At the Democratic caucus held last evening J. R. Jones was elected chairman and L. B. Betsis secretary. The following delegates to the county convention to be held at Preston Wednesday: J. C. Dickson, J. R. Jones, L. B. Betsis, J. D. Jones, John G. Glissner, O. J. Puffer, James Williams, W. Brown and M. Brennan. The delegates go unopposed.

Special to the Globe. PLEASANT WITH LINN. CURRIE, Minn., May 8.—The Democratic held a county convention here to-day. Wilson Borst, of Fulda, and Herbert C. Hadley, were elected delegates to the state and district conventions. The convention endorsed Cleveland. Borst is a candidate for congress at the next congressional convention. Members of the convention expressed themselves highly pleased with Hon. John Lind.

Special to the Globe. GRACEVILLE, Minn., May 8.—The Republican convention held here to-day elected C. K. Boyington, of Odessa, Jacob Brydson, of Graceville, and J. M. Finney, of Almond, delegates to St. Paul; H. L. Holmes, of Akron, F. G. Tuttle, of Graceville, and C. K. Orton, of Ortonville, to Crookston; W. O'Neill, of Graceville, G. W. Treer, Beardsley, and C. E. White, of Odessa, to St. Cloud.

Special to the Globe. LAKEVILLE, May 8.—At the Democratic caucus for this town to elect delegates to the Dakota county Democratic convention to be held at Hastings the 8th inst., the following persons were no voice in the convention. There is a great deal of dissatisfaction, especially on the part of the delegates from this county.

MINNESOTA CONVENTIONS. Delegates Chosen to the Coming State Gatherings.

Special to the Globe. ELBOW LAKE, Minn., May 8.—At the Democratic convention Saturday Pat Galvin, of Elbow Lake, and Charles Cates, of Herman, were chosen as delegates to the state convention to be held at Cleveland for president, and Edmund Rice, of St. Paul, for governor.

Special to the Globe. AT AUSTIN. MAY 8.—The following delegates were elected to represent this county at the Republican convention held to-day: For the congressional convention, at Watonwan, held May 15, Oscar Ayres, Knute Amundson, H. B. Sheldon, E. S. Hoppin, E. J. Ames, Ole Olson, N. S. Gordon, H. W. Lightly, For county convention at Austin, May 10, D. Allen, H. B. Corry, C. F. Greening, A. Sweeney, G. Sebach. For congressional convention at Rochester, July 10: L. French, D. Jackson, J. B. Worth, James M. Hutchins, H. O. Bradford, S. S. Washburn, N. Kinsley, A. M. The delegates were instructed for Judge J. C. Puffer for congress. There was but a small attendance, a number of towns not being represented. The county convention, which was held here to-day, and being satisfied with its proceedings, decided to send a representative to the next convention should be the vote cast for secretary of state and for president.

Special to the Globe. FAIRBANKS COUNTY. BLUE EARTH CITY, Minn., May 8.—In spite of the weather the Democratic county convention which was held here to-day, pursuant to call, was by far the largest and most enthusiastic convention that ever assembled together in this county. It was held at the hotel called to order by S. Pfeiffer, of this city, and proceeded to organize by electing Hon. D. P. Wascott, of Winnebago county, president, and H. P. Constans, of this city, secretary. H. P. Constans, M. S. Wilkinson, H. P. Segar and Peter Krause were chosen delegates to the national convention at St. Paul. Resolutions were passed indorsing unanimously the entire administration of President Cleveland, and especially that part of his late administration which related to the much needed tariff reform. The following persons were chosen as delegates to the district convention at Mankato: A. B. Davis, S. Pfeiffer, D. Straw, Peter Kramer and D. N. Nichols. These delegates were instructed to cast their vote for Rusk and to resist as they could every measure which would increase the duties on whisky and tobacco. Every name mentioned in the resolutions was mentioned it was received with cheers.

Special to the Globe. MOORHEAD, Minn., May 8.—The Clay county Democratic convention was held here to-day, with Lyman Lorbeck, of Moorhead, president, and T. C. Kurtz, Charles Klemm, D. C. Smyth and G. G. Neum were elected delegates to the state convention. Resolutions were adopted favoring Cleveland's administration and his tariff message, in favor of reducing the duties on whisky and tobacco, and in favor of the necessary duties on the taxes on whisky and tobacco. They also indorsed Knute Nelson's tariff, and declared it to be in accord with the principles of the Democratic party. The sentiment of the convention was strong against Ames and Doran. The delegates to the district convention at St. Louis were instructed, but favored E. C. Clough, Allen and William Elliott, of Hurley; Valep Thielman, S. Hyman, S. V. Jones and C. F. Haight, of Parker; W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead; and Joseph Hill. A resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. ADAM, Minn., May 8.—The Republicans of Adama county met in convention to-day and elected the following delegates to the next congressional convention: O. H. Myan, A. S. Lightbourne, and J. C. Norby; and J. T. Leightbourne, Wesley Jenkins, and J. H. Koenig. Resolutions were adopted favoring Cleveland for president, Barto for governor, and a resolution favoring F. H. Flatan, L. L. Bergan and E. C. Holland were elected delegates to the district convention at Crookston. A resolution was passed favoring Sherman for governor, in case Knute Nelson would not run.

Special to the Globe. MANKATO, Minn., May 8.—Republican ward primaries were held in the city to-day to elect delegates to the congressional convention; O. H. Myan, A. S. Lightbourne, and J. C. Norby; and J. T. Leightbourne, Wesley Jenkins, and J. H. Koenig. Resolutions were adopted favoring Cleveland for president, Barto for governor, and a resolution favoring F. H. Flatan, L. L. Bergan and E. C. Holland were elected delegates to the district convention at Crookston. A resolution was passed favoring Sherman for governor, in case Knute Nelson would not run.

Special to the Globe. MANKATO, Minn., May 8.—Republican ward primaries were held in the city to-day to elect delegates to the congressional convention; O. H. Myan, A. S. Lightbourne, and J. C. Norby; and J. T. Leightbourne, Wesley Jenkins, and J. H. Koenig. Resolutions were adopted favoring Cleveland for president, Barto for governor, and a resolution favoring F. H. Flatan, L. L. Bergan and E. C. Holland were elected delegates to the district convention at Crookston. A resolution was passed favoring Sherman for governor, in case Knute Nelson would not run.

Special to the Globe. GRANITE FALLS, Minn., May 8.—At the Republican county convention for Yellow Medicine county delegates were elected to the state and district conventions. A motion instructing the delegates for John Lind was defeated, and a resolution strongly favoring a reduction of duties on whisky and tobacco was adopted unanimously. A strong low tariff sentiment prevails among the delegates, which may lead to a serious break in the Republican ranks of this county.

Special to the Globe. CHATEAU, Minn., May 8.—At the Democratic caucus held last evening J. R. Jones was elected chairman and L. B. Betsis secretary. The following delegates to the county convention to be held at Preston Wednesday: J. C. Dickson, J. R. Jones, L. B. Betsis, J. D. Jones, John G. Glissner, O. J. Puffer, James Williams, W. Brown and M. Brennan. The delegates go unopposed.

Special to the Globe. PLEASANT WITH LINN. CURRIE, Minn., May 8.—The Democratic held a county convention here to-day. Wilson Borst, of Fulda, and Herbert C. Hadley, were elected delegates to the state and district conventions. The convention endorsed Cleveland. Borst is a candidate for congress at the next congressional convention. Members of the convention expressed themselves highly pleased with Hon. John Lind.

Special to the Globe. GRACEVILLE, Minn., May 8.—The Republican convention held here to-day elected C. K. Boyington, of Odessa, Jacob Brydson, of Graceville, and J. M. Finney, of Almond, delegates to St. Paul; H. L. Holmes, of Akron, F. G. Tuttle, of Graceville, and C. K. Orton, of Ortonville, to Crookston; W. O'Neill, of Graceville, G. W. Treer, Beardsley, and C. E. White, of Odessa, to St. Cloud.

Special to the Globe. LAKEVILLE, May 8.—At the Democratic caucus for this town to elect delegates to the Dakota county Democratic convention to be held at Hastings the 8th inst., the following persons were selected: Daniel F. Akin, James Dewey, J. Hyland, John Finnegan, O. W. Highland, George Keher, M. Harkins, John McSherry, Jr.

Special to the Globe. TOWER, Minn., May 8.—The Democratic delegates to the congressional convention at Watonwan, held May 15, were elected: J. C. Puffer for congress, and E. C. Clough for governor.

Special to the Globe. CROOKSTON, Minn., May 8.—At a Democratic county convention held here to-day, of which James E. Morrissy, of Crookston, was chairman, and John H. Boyle, of Red Lake Falls, secretary, the following delegates were elected to go to the St. Paul convention of May 17, viz.: A. McKinnon, I. Nortier, J. H. Patterson, William Stuart, T. A. Dunlap, President Smith, Charles Langevin and M. E. Kirsch. The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Democrats of Polk county, in convention assembled, renew their allegiance to the principles upon which the party has triumphed, and which have restored to the people of this county an honest administration of its public affairs, and, Whereas, Grover Cleveland has, by his wise and prudent administration as chief executive of the United States, proved himself eminently worthy of the Democratic party; therefore, be it resolved, That I do hereby heartily indorse President Cleveland and his administration, and approve his late message and the tariff views therein expressed, which in our opinion are entirely conducive to the welfare and prosperity of the farmer and the laboring man; that unnecessary taxation is a heavy burden upon the people, and the existing duties upon raw materials that are to be used in manufactures should be removed; that the duties upon raw materials which are to be used in manufactures should be reduced; that we do hereby pledge our mutual and individual support to the renomination of President Cleveland and the use of all honorable means to secure his election in November 1888.

Resolved, That every copy of these resolutions be sent to the newspapers of this county and to the St. Paul GLOBE for publication. Whereas, Grover Cleveland has, by his wise and prudent administration as chief executive of the United States, proved himself eminently worthy of the Democratic party; therefore, be it resolved, That I do hereby heartily indorse President Cleveland and his administration, and approve his late message and the tariff views therein expressed, which in our opinion are entirely conducive to the welfare and prosperity of the farmer and the laboring man; that unnecessary taxation is a heavy burden upon the people, and the existing duties upon raw materials that are to be used in manufactures should be removed; that the duties upon raw materials which are to be used in manufactures should be reduced; that we do hereby pledge our mutual and individual support to the renomination of President Cleveland and the use of all honorable means to secure his election in November 1888.

Special to the Globe. REDWOOD COUNTY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION MET TO-DAY TO NOMINATE DELEGATES TO THE STATE AND DISTRICT CONVENTIONS. C. L. Webber, of Walnut Grove, was elected chairman, and E. Anderson, of Redwood Falls, secretary. The state convention were chosen as follows: W. P. Dunnington, C. L. Webber, James Aikin, To the Second district, W. P. Dunnington, C. L. Webber, C. L. Lauer, O. L. Dornberg, E. L. Webb, Charles Chester, J. T. Cummings. The delegates were instructed, but the delegates to the district convention at St. Louis were instructed, but favored E. C. Clough, Allen and William Elliott, of Hurley; Valep Thielman, S. Hyman, S. V. Jones and C. F. Haight, of Parker; W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead; and Joseph Hill. A resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. PARKER, Minn., May 8.—The Republican convention held at Parker to-day elected the following delegates to the district convention at the Jamestown: J. P. Shurtliff, M. V. Hogan, and Gus Gilbert, of Parker; Joseph Allen, of Hurley, and Joseph Watson, of Spring Valley. The delegates to the district convention at St. Louis were instructed, but favored E. C. Clough, Allen and William Elliott, of Hurley; Valep Thielman, S. Hyman, S. V. Jones and C. F. Haight, of Parker; W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead; and Joseph Hill. A resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

Special to the Globe. HUDSON, Wis., May 8.—The Republican county convention was held here to-day. After the usual routine of electing delegates to Madison and Eau Claire, a resolution was introduced by W. E. Beizer, of Moorhead, and a resolution was passed indorsing Delegate Gifford for work in congress, and asking that the latter delegates vote for his admission and division.

AN URBURN LETTER.

The Contents of One of Steve Elkins' Epistles Given to the Public.

How the Blaine Schemers Propose to Nominate Their Man at Chicago.

Depew to Keep the New York Delegation From Ohio's Favorite Son.

Chairman Jones Has the Tip That Mr. Blaine Will Accept.

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—There has lately been shown here a transcript of a letter written by Steve Elkins that throws considerable light upon the schemes of the Blaine managers. In connection with the positive assertion of Col. McClure that Blaine is a candidate, it brings to the country at large convincing proof that, barring fate, Mr. Blaine will be again the Republican nominee. Mr. Elkins in this letter (its authenticity cannot be questioned) writes that Chauncey Depew is being boomed simply to hold the New York delegation away from Sherman. He asserts that Depew is only a figurehead candidate, who at the proper time will throw off all disguise and stand out boldly for Blaine. Elkins goes on to say that the plan is to spring a deadlock upon the national convention at the start, by which the Allison, Sherman, Alger and Gresham tickets will be eliminated, and to nominate their leaders. Every secret effort will be made by the Blaine men to prevent too great a concentration of strength upon any one candidate. This deadlock will be maintained until the delegates wear out, and begin to weaken. Then Depew will be dropped, and the New York delegation for Blaine, Pennsylvania will follow, and the whole convention joining in, make the Maine nomination choices. Mr. Elkins adds that there is no question of Blaine's acceptance; that B. F. Jones, of Pittsburg, has received direct word from the Blaine managers, and that he has been brought to Europe to see Blaine and ascertain from him positively how he felt. This is a personal and private one, but leaked out through the enthusiasm of its recipient over the news conveyed.

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to say about politics."

Special to the Globe. NEW YORK, May 8.—Chairman B. F. Jones, of the Republican national committee, is at the Windsor hotel. He had pressing business engagements which prevented him from giving more than a few minutes to the reporter who called on him. The time was principally spent in a denial of the reported interview with him sent out from Pittsburg last Saturday night in which he was made to say that he would not support Allison, Sherman or Harrison for the nomination; that Mr. Blaine was socially friendly to these gentlemen, but politically they were wide apart. "That is language which never passed my lips," said Mr. Jones. "The greater part of the reported interview is simply untrue. I have nothing to