

SAINT PAUL CITY GOINGS.

The Camp at Lake City Will Be Ready for the Boys In Blue. Railroad Commissioners Hear Arguments on Discriminating Rates. Gov. Hauser, of Montana, Is in St. Paul--Insanity on the Increase.

Summary of the Doings of One Day Gathered From All Sources.

ABOUT READY FOR TENTS. The New Camp Grounds of the National Guard. Adjt. Gen. Seeley was in his office at the capitol yesterday, after a trip to Lake City, where he inspected the new camp grounds of the state guard. He was quite enthusiastic over the coming encampments, and predicted a good turnout from all the regiments. Arrangements in getting the grounds in readiness are progressing in a very satisfactory manner, he said. "Col. Koller has just told me that the attendance at camp from his regiment will be larger than usual," said Gen. Seeley, "and I think it is quite probable that the First, Second and Third regiments will be somewhat anxious over the condition of the grounds, for the great rain fall has just put everything behind. The grounds were seeded this year and until my recent trip I was afraid the rain had interfered so that the surface of the ground would not be solid enough. But a very heavy growth has come up, and as the ground will be rolled later, I think there will be no trouble on this score."

MORE DISCRIMINATION. Complaints Presented to the Railroad Commissioners.

If there is one thing more than another that the Business Men's Association of Minnesota desires to make a record on it is in the number of its complaints against railroads operated in this state for maintaining unequal and unreasonable rates. Two complaints filed by the association, identical in character and against the Chicago and Northwestern roads, were ventilated before the railroad commission yesterday, occupying the attention of the board for the day. The complaint of the association alleges that the rates charged by the companies mentioned for the transportation of the several classes of freight over the lines to and from St. Peter, Winona, Sleepy Eye and numerous other stations on their lines are unjust and unreasonable, inasmuch as the towns named are subjected to unequal and unreasonable prejudice and disadvantage. It is further alleged that the distance traveled by the goods is not taken into account, and that the companies complained of are exacting rates which will do justice to all concerned. The hearing, which partook of the character of an informal talk, began at 10 a. m. J. M. Burlington, secretary; E. M. Pope, Mankato, and Secretary Chapman, of the St. Paul and Minneapolis freight bureau, appeared for the association; the railroads were represented by E. W. White, J. T. Clark, H. C. Wicker and J. H. Howe. The last-named stated that a new tariff would go into effect on the Omaha about the 10th prox., which would materially alter the rates complained of as excessive, and he suggested that the commission consider that fact before proceeding with the hearing. Mr. Wicker said the new tariff would effect considerable change in the rates on the Northwestern also, and that the advancement of rates June 4 between Chicago and the Twin Cities would be to the advantage of the Chicago and Winona, for the reason that rates to those points would remain as now. Messrs. Pope and Burlington, however, insisted that the hearing be proceeded with, stating that there was time enough to consider the tariffs referred to as likely to alter existing conditions after they had been issued. The request for a stay of reference in the matter of rates was based, they said, upon a principle which would be elucidated by the testimony it was intended to offer. Mr. Howe contended that the two roads should be considered separately, which provoked a discussion that consumed a great deal of time and amounted to nothing in the end. Secretary Chapman, of the freight bureau, was examined as to rates on coal, grain and lumber. He testified that the rate on grain from St. Paul to Red Wing, 106 miles, is 11 1/2 c; Red Wing to Duluth, 257 miles, 17 c; Red Wing to Chicago, 565 miles, 19 c. On the basis of the rate from Red Wing to Chicago he claimed that the rate from Red Wing to Duluth should be 10 c, and Red Wing to St. Paul 6 c. The rates from other points on the respective lines to the terminals named were quoted, and arguments made in favor of a reduction proportionate to the through rate to Chicago. The commission will take the matter under advisement.

MAY GET THE OFFICER.

"Some time ago," said Corporation Attorney W. P. Murray, "the managers of the state reform school of Minnesota requested the secretary of war, through the representative of Chicago, to detail an army officer for service at the institution, with a view to instructing the inmates in military discipline and tactics." "Under date of May 12, Mr. Rice informed the board of managers that such a detail could not be made under existing laws, but that there were two bills on the calendar of the house of representatives, one of which had already passed the senate, the purpose of which was to amend the law in regard to such details. Should the bill become a law he would use his best efforts in the matter, so that Minnesota should not be out-ranked in the assignment of officers for the service requested."

IT RAINS UP NORTH.

Sergt. Lyons, of the signal office, reports a heavy rainfall during the past thirty-six hours in the northern and western part of the state, indicating that the rain area is moving northward. A large part of this rain fell in the district drained by the Minnesota river, where the rain had fallen for the past ten days, so it is just what is needed for crops. Moonhead last night reported 1.58 inches rainfall; Alexandria 1.06, and Fergus Falls 1.11 inches.

THE SAME CANDIDATES.

Gov. Hauser, of Montana, Thinks Blaine Will Be in the Field. "We will have the same candidates in 1888 that we had in 1884, as the standard bearer, but two great political parties," said ex-Gov. Hauser, of Montana, "for it is pretty evident, to thinking men, that Blaine's letter of withdrawal is not worth the paper it is printed upon, so far as settling the question of his candidacy is concerned. "All the candidates we have met up to date and sent delegates to Chicago have tacitly instructed them for Blaine, and in that much the field as he has ever been in a political campaign. "So it will be Cleveland and Blaine again and the former will serve his opponent as he did four years ago, since insane that he is, is in keeping with the interest of a good government for the benefit of the people. No one is fooled by Mr. Blaine's tactics, and what he is doing is in keeping with his past career, that of saying great many things that he does not mean. "I am bound for New York by the way of Chicago, and before I return to Montana the question will be settled by the St. Louis convention as to the next president of the United States."

INSANITY IS GROWING.

Secretary Hart's Figures on the Insane of the State. Secretary Hart, of the state board of corrections and charities, was at work yesterday making out his report showing the population of the penal and charitable institutions of the state. He is quite enthusiastic over the coming year, and predicted a good turnout from all the institutions except the State Soldiers' home. From the returns he has it appears that in a year the increase among the insane has been a trifle more than 1 per cent. "This," said Secretary Hart, "brings the whole number up to within fifty of all the present hospital can contain. "What is the cause of the rapid increase? "One of the principal causes is the rapid increase in population, and another is that before the present percentage has been far below the normal. A large proportion of the present population came here from other states and so the insane that are brought to this body of population are left elsewhere. "The talk that is sometimes heard that the rushing commercial life is driving the hard workers to insanity is not correct. Statistics show that it is not the brain workers that go insane. Out of a classification embracing 4,000 insane people, more than 3,000 are farmers, laborers and housekeepers. It is the class that keep in a certain small rut, day after day, that contributes most largely to the insane. The man who is first to go brain till he goes insane, he is more likely to blow his brains out than to turn up in an asylum."

BREWERS ARE COMING.

The National Convention Delegates to Be Suitably Entertained. A meeting of the committee of arrangements for the reception and entertainment of delegates to the twenty-eighth annual convention of the brewers of the United States, which meet in this city next Tuesday, was held at the Merchants hotel, evening. William Haman presided, and the other members of the committee present were Messrs. William Banholzer, A. Yoerg, Jr., Chris Durheim, Charles and Paul Hauser, Philip Sittman and Otto Hattersmae. It was decided after the visitors had been escorted to their hotels the following programme should be carried out: Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock a formal reception at Standard hall where the convention will hold its sessions, Mayor Smith being expected to deliver an address of welcome Wednesday Thursday to be devoted to business sessions; Thursday evening banquet at the Merchants hotel, covering being laid for 500 guests; Friday morning a ride in carriages through St. Paul to Minneapolis, via Fort Snelling and Minneapolis Falls, concluding with a luncheon at the West hotel.

THE BLIND GODDESS.

Minor Doings in the Halls of Justice--The Labeled Boats. Before Judge Brill yesterday the jury in the case of the State vs. William Ellow returned a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree. James D. Hill pleaded guilty of petit larceny and was sentenced to sixty days in the workhouse. H. H. Smith pleaded guilty to grand larceny in the second degree and was sentenced to two years and hard labor in the penitentiary for life.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Lewis and Sarah Corcoran; Charles Bauer and Christine Luertal; John Hair and Marian Infield; Engabur Karluk and Maria Fachingbauer; Andrew Norlen and Tillie J. Johnson.

GLOBULES.

The English Singing society will give a hop at Gray's hall this evening. One marriage, eight births and nine deaths were reported from the health office yesterday. The water board will soon have water mains put in on Goodrich and Fairview avenues. James Connolly, residing at 616 Park avenue, had two girls, white at work in the Manitoba yards yesterday. John Murphy and Mike Hart, two huckmen arrested for driving without a license, took out permits and were discharged. Bridget O'Toole, an old offender from the Common Pleas, was arrested yesterday for using abusive language, but was discharged. The board of public works considered a petition of the city clerk, requesting the northern limits of the city, charged with selling liquor to a drunkard, will have a trial by jury this morning.

STILLWATER NEWS.

A notable wedding--General and Personal. The wedding bells rang out merrily at St. Michael's yesterday morning as the many friends of Miss Allie Bromley and Willard Getts, of this city, gathered to witness the ceremony performed by Father M. E. Murphy, which united the happy couple for life. The bridal party consisted of Messrs. Machee, Derazich and Wally as ushers; May Machee as bridesmaid; all of Kevill's groomsmen; a little Misses Lilly Shannon and Rose O'Neal as maids of honor. After the ceremony some of the most intimate friends of the contracting parties accompanied to the residence of the bride's parents, where an elegant breakfast was served, and congratulations indulged in. The bride was dressed in a beautiful Moray silk tulle and headdress, Oriental lace draperies and pearl ornaments. Such a happy union, and a most gratified to the popularity of the bride and groom. In the evening there was a number of the York club and other friends had a pleasant reception. Among the friends present from abroad were Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Shaller, of Hastings, Miss Ida Dufrene and Mr. Newell, of St. Paul. Jessie James McDonald, the man who viciously assaulted and bit a male waiter at the Vienna bakery on Tuesday last, was yesterday arrested and insulting to the officer who took him the city jail, pleaded guilty to assault and battery and insulting language to an officer, and was sentenced to 30 days in jail, which he paid, and was liberated. The third floor of the new school building has been arranged for an exhibit of specimens of the school work of the pupils of the city school during the school year just closing. The exhibition opens this morning, and will be free to visitors Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

ROME'S RECOGNITION

of Bishop John Ireland's Eminent Services to Religion. His Elevation to an Archbishop Generally Regarded With Favor. Form of Ceremony at the Investiture of an Archbishop. The Pallium a Mark of the Plenitude of Apostolic Power.

The fact, first announced in the GLOBE, that the Roman Catholic see of St. Paul was recently erected an archdiocese by papal brief, is now more or less familiar to the residents of this city and state. Bishop Ireland's eminent services to religion, the best evidence of which is shown in the wonderful growth of the church in the Northwest, long since suggested to the sacred college of the Propaganda some fitting recognition. His advancement in ecclesiastical rank is so well merited that it is regarded by the public generally, regarding the ceremonial incident to the conferment of the pallium are of especial interest and peculiar solemnity, and invariably draw together a large concourse.

CLAD IN PONTIFICAL ROBES and heard by the choir. The celebration of pontifical mass is then proceeded with, and at the conclusion of the first gospel the sermon is delivered. The same order follows the sermon, and at the close of the communion services the pallium is placed upon the altar. At the conclusion of the mass the briefs from Rome are read in Latin and English. The brief to the archbishop-elect is read to him in Latin and he replies in the same language, according to the custom, ability and affirming his intention to discharge the duties of the high office to the best of his ability. The form of consecration is then read, the archbishop kneeling at the foot of the altar. The customary oath is administered to him and the pallium is placed upon his shoulders. He then assumes the miter and intones a portion of the Psalms prescribed for the occasion, which are taken up by the choir in alternate verses. The benediction, pronounced by the archbishop, concludes the ceremony.

TRYING THEM ON!

Imitating his owner and in his absence appropriating his wardrobe. The poor monkey knows no difference in clothes; a garment is a garment to him, whether it's made of cotton or wool. He knows or cares nothing for make, fit and style; fortunately for us monkeys don't wear clothes, otherwise our fine tailor-made clothing would stand no better show than the poorly made, ordinary clothing with which the market is now flooded. We are displaying office and house coats for the hot weather. We have a tremendous assortment of these goods at all prices and solicit an early selection before the sizes get broken. These House and Office Coats are handsomer and more inviting this year than ever before, while the prices are lower than ever. These goods on Second floor. Please take elevator.
