

THE DAILY GLOBE. PUBLISHED EVERY DAY AT THE GLOBE BUILDING, COR. FOURTH AND CEDAR STREETS. BY LEWIS BAKER.

ST. PAUL GLOBE SUBSCRIPTION RATES. Daily (not including Sunday) 1 yr in advance $8.00 3 mos. in advance $2.50 6 m. in advance $1.50

TO-DAY'S WEATHER. WASHINGTON, Aug. 10. For Wisconsin: Fair; warm; steady winds. For Minnesota and Dakota: Local rains, slightly warmer; easterly winds. Iowa: Rain, preceded by fair, slightly warmer, southeasterly winds.

Table with 4 columns: Place of Observation, Barometer, Thermometer, and Wind. Locations include St. Paul, Duluth, and various other points.

MR. BLAINE'S RETURN. The owner of the Republican party reached home yesterday, and immediately took possession of his property.

GEN. SHERIDAN'S FUNERAL. This is a day of national mourning. Gen. Sheridan's remains will be committed to their final resting place, and the whole nation will stand with uncovered head in respect to the memory of the dead commander.

ABLE AND UPRIGHT. Mr. Wilson is an able, upright, honest man. He is not allied to any faction or clique, and is a gentleman upon whom all can unite.

EDITORIAL MENTION. Some of our Eastern scientists are excited over the discovery in a New Jersey stone quarry of a sandstone rock which looks like a prehistoric horse.

THE EPOCH TELLS THE FOLLOWING ANECDOTE as an illustration of the courage, tenacity and independence of GROVER CLEVELAND.

THE HANGING OF MAXWELL. The hanging of Maxwell yesterday was the closing chapter in one of the most interesting stories of crime in the history of American jurisprudence.

THE WHEAT MARKET. Our Western farmers have been led to believe that the falling off of our wheat trade with Great Britain and the corresponding increase in the price of wheat has resulted from competition with India.

THE ANTI-BELLUM RELIC. The following officers of the Fairbank Lumber Co. were elected for the ensuing year.

THE ANTE-BELLUM RELIC. The following officers of the Fairbank Lumber Co. were elected for the ensuing year.

THE ANTE-BELLUM RELIC. The following officers of the Fairbank Lumber Co. were elected for the ensuing year.

STATE PRESS. The refusal of the Otter Tail Republicans yesterday to endorse Gov. McGill's administration after the vote is peculiarly interesting.

TO BE AVOIDED. To Republicans this Democratic row, which began in Ramsey county and is rapidly spreading all over the state, is peculiarly interesting and ought to serve as an example to be avoided.

WHY NOT? Why not Knute Nelson, when read out of the Republican press, call the Mills bill and believe in Democratic tariff doctrine.

KEEP COOL. Keep cool, gentlemen, and vote for the best man—and in our opinion that man is Eugene Wilson.

TOO MANY BOSSES. For a party that has not elected a state officer for a score of years at least the Democrats of Minnesota are about as demoralized as they could be.

QUEER KIND OF EFFECT. There was an apparent show of truth in Pillsbury's desertion of McGill, but time has not proved it, and it is probable that, like Fletcher, John S. remains true to the man whom he helped to make, nearly defeated and has since blushed for several times.

ABLE AND UPRIGHT. Mr. Wilson is an able, upright, honest man. He is not allied to any faction or clique, and is a gentleman upon whom all can unite.

A BAD EFFECT. Two days after the Hon. R. G. Horr spoke at Eau Claire, Wis., the Daily Leader, the St. Paul Herald, and the St. Cloud Times, all delivered the same speech at Eau Claire that he did in Rochester last Saturday evening.

RULE OR RUIN. For Mike Doran to protest innocence of the vote is a greater absurdity than the charge made against him on these scores.

ANCIENT LORDS. Kelly and Doran have long lorded it over the big boys of the Republican party.

BIG PLUNDER. The sneer Sentinel: About ten days ago Joel P. Heatwole, of Northfield, was in Le Sueur county, Minn., and he is traveling through the second district also.

MAKES A BOW. The St. Paul Herald: The Democratic state convention for the nomination of state officers met at Park next Tuesday, and there is a nice little row on as to whether the Doran-Kelly bosses, the Ames bosses or the Wilson bosses shall rule the convention.

MIXED. As to state politics, "things is mixed." The Democrats are in a bad way between Ames, Scheffer, E. Wilson, Doran, Kelly, Baker, and the big (H) and the little (h) members.

ONE WAY. The candidates for governor is William R. Merriam, the rich St. Paul banker, who started in to buy the nomination.

WONDERS WORKED. The Evening Herald has hosted the Gilman banner, and the name of Merriam no longer has a silvery ring to Editor Bunnell.

SEEMS TO BE ASSURED. Eugene Wilson's nomination for governor seems to be an assured fact. Delegates are being instructed for him all over the county.

TAKE IT DOWN. Gov. McGill's lightning rod, which was erected for gubernatorial purposes, received the attention of Jupiter Olympus during a storm yesterday.

WILL NEVER BE. The Journal is still of the opinion that Albert Scheffer will not get the Republican nomination.

A PLASTERER. McGill has plastered St. Cloud and Fergus Falls with his office holders, and the efforts can easily be seen.

AIR IT ELSEWHERE. The state convention will sit down on such nonsense so hard that there will never be a repetition of it.

HE FLOPS AGAIN.

The Scheffer Men Get Pillsbury Back to McGill Once More.

Good Reasons Why Scheffer and Merriam Are to Lose This Trip.

The People Continue to Talk About Candidates and the Issues.

Candidates Who Wish to Seize Upon the Small Offices.

HE IS NOT FOR HARRISON.

The Editor of the Folks's Tidings Boils the Republican Ticket.

THE PLATFORM IS ROTTEN. Magnus Lunnow Gives His Reasons For Deserting the Lifeless Old Party.

The Minnesota state election of 1880 witnessed the beginning of a change of sentiment among the Scandinavians that will, in its course, completely overthrow the Republican party.

MAGNUS LUNNOW. Magnus Lunnow, rapid and marked. The Republican party represents no issue which can attract the masses.
