

MINNEAPOLIS

REFORM IT WE MUST. Anticipation promises are one thing and their fulfillment is another. It has been taken for granted that every member of Hennepin county sends to the next legislature is pledged to secure the passage of a law abolishing the fee system in the county offices and turning all receipts...

THE CHOICE OF JUDGES.

In the interest of one of the, if not the most important offices to be filled this fall, the GLOBE feels impelled to say a word in relation to the position on the bench of the district court. The vast litigation of Hennepin county involves more than is at stake in any other matter of local moment to come before the people, and yet little or nothing has been done...

THE PUBLIC IS VERY FAR FROM KNOWING THE WHOLE TRUTH IN REGARD TO THE RECENT SHEET STEAL, and the mystery which clings about it is suspicious, to say the least. Instead of bringing the guilty parties to justice, it looks as though they were quietly run out of the city, and the disposition is evidently to smother as far as possible the details of the affair.

MEN OF MINNEAPOLIS.

The board of directors of the exposition will elect a general manager on Friday to succeed C. M. Palmer. W. G. Byron will be elected and the board cannot go wrong in it.

CURRENT TALK.

Health Officer Kilvington-The GLOBE was right in saying Aid. Cooley is the best of the four Republican candidates for Mayor. I know what good work he has done in the health department.

THE FLOUR MARKET.

Domestic Demand Heavy and Exports Fairly Light. In its weekly review of the flour market, the Northwestern Miller says: "The mills made more flour last week, but the gain was not as large as was expected. The week's output was 174,545 barrels - averaging 29,755 barrels daily - and even at that rate the week before, and 127,150 for the corresponding time in 1887. The same twenty-one mills are running again this week, but it is not likely that the Eastern trade seems disposed to buy as freely as the millers care to sell."

FAVORITES FINED.

A Trio to Which Court Forms Are Familiar. Ted Quinlan, Spike Trainor and Thos. Fraker, who are periodically arraigned on the charge of highway robbery, were up again on the same old charge yesterday and were allowed to go free after paying a small fine, as usual. They were charged this time with holding up a man named Erickson, and even at that the Eastern trade seems disposed to buy as freely as the millers care to sell.

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Many Important Matters Considered--The Superintendent's Report. STATE TEXT BOOK FUND. The question of free text books considered--The Corcoran School Site Located. There was a full attendance last evening at the meeting of the board of education. The consideration for a site for the school in the Corcoran district in South Minneapolis took up considerable time. Petitioners for the location of the school at the site once agreed upon, at the corner of Eighteenth and One-half avenue south and Thirtieth and Thirty-fourth street south respectively were present. The advocates of the first site were headed by Judge Ellis and those in favor of the second site mentioned by Josiah Thompson, Jr. The proposition amounted to the exchange of the six lots in block 13, Minnehaha addition, which constituted the first site, for eight lots in block 31, of the Corcoran district. The board voted to accept it. President Ottobald alone voting in the negative.

A LARGE INCREASE.

Superintendent Bradley submitted his monthly report. The enrollment for September, he said, has been unprecedented, reaching a total of nearly 15,000 in the first three weeks, an increase of 1833 over the enrollment of September, 1887. Allowing forty-eight pupils in a room, this increment would fill three twelve-room buildings over the present capacity. It is likely that the new Greeley and North Side high school buildings will be completely filled as soon as they are completed. The number of the district school districts are provided for, as far as possible, in the adjacent schools.

A workshop for manual training has been opened in both branches of the high schools, and a large number of boys have availed themselves of the opportunity to combine the training of the hand with the ordinary work of the school. The manual training department has been supplied with material for modeling in the primary grades. Teachers have resigned since June and one hundred and thirty have been appointed.

TEACHERS APPOINTED.

The following principals of night schools were appointed: H. E. Wilson, French; Wm. S. H. Smith, English; C. E. G. Eglington, Adams; D. W. Knowlton; Jackson, B. M. Aslakson; Penabock, S. J. Boynton; Longfellow, K. C. Babcock; Winthrop, J. L. Brindish. The night schools are to open Nov. 12; the age of admission is to be raised from ten to twelve years. The school of mechanical drawing is to be held two evenings in East Minneapolis and three evenings in West Minneapolis each week. Higher studies are to be introduced at the Washington, Franklin and Winthrop schools, and the manual training school was changed to either the Webster or Holland. Language studies are to be introduced in all the night schools.

FREE TEXT BOOKS.

Mr. Ankeny introduced a motion that all text books be purchased at wholesale rates and furnished pupils at cost, actual cost including freight. Prof. Moore amended that text books be furnished free at cost, as is done in some Eastern cities. The matter was postponed for further consideration at the next meeting.

STATE TEXT BOOK FUND.

Resolved, That the act of the legislature, passed March 3, 1887, by which is imposed a tax of 1 mill for the purpose of maintaining public schools known as the "state text fund," and which is authorized by the superintendent of public instruction among the several counties, in proportion to the number of scholars enrolled, be grossly unjust to this board in that it demands $120,000 in tax and returns only about $40,000 and at the same time should be repealed without delay.

NOT EVEN BLETHERN.

Could Tempt Mayor Ames to Run Again for Mayor. Mayor Ames was asked last evening if it was true, in the event that A. J. Bletcher is the nominee of the Republicans for mayor, that he might reconsider his decision not to be a candidate for any office this fall, and consent to accept the Democratic nomination. It is understood that his honor has declined the offer, and has declared that he would like no better to get out of the political arena than to get out of the city.

BOUND TO KEEP IT UP.

The Mason Case and the Wheat Mystery Continued. There was something of a sensation in the municipal court room yesterday morning when the case against Charles Mason, charged with stealing wheat from the Union Elevator company, was called, and his attorney, L. R. Thian, moved that the matter be continued three weeks. On the day before he had objected to even an hour's delay in holding the trial, and his sudden change was what caused the surprise that showed on the faces of all present. Assistant County Attorney yesterday assuming to assist in the case with this turn, while the other parties engaged in the prosecution and the attorney for Harley and Mason seemed to be feeling just the opposite. After making the motion for a continuance Mr. Thian and the others held a long conference. Judge Bailey took the motion under advisement, but finally granted it.

TWO AMAZONS AT WAR.

Maggie Kennedy and Ellen Collins Indulge in a Row. Maggie Kennedy, a solidly built woman with a severe face, was arraigned yesterday on a charge of assaulting Ellen Collins. As all the witnesses were not present, the case was continued until Friday morning. The court was told that the woman on her own recognition, when she broke out: "I only put the woman out of my own house. She has no home of her own, and I guess she lives in the work house most of the time."

A DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

A Splitter of Iron Destroys One of Arthur Forbes' Eyes. Arthur Forbes, a boiler maker, residing at 3628 Snelling avenue, and employed at the Milwaukee shops, met with a peculiar and distressing accident yesterday afternoon. He was working on a boiler at the shop, when a splinter of iron, an inch long and about one-eighth of an inch in thickness, suddenly flew into his left eye, penetrating the bone behind the eye. He was taken to St. Barnabas hospital in the Third Precinct station patrol wagon, and after a careful examination, removed what was left of the eye, it being found necessary to do this in order to save the right eye.

IS HE THE THIEF?

Ole Olson, a young man who was arrested near Hutchinson, Minn., for stealing a horse from a pasture near Lake Calhoun on the 30th of May, and the fact that two horses were stolen from the pasture at the same time, and that Olson is pretty well corroborated in his statement that he was at his mother's in lower town on the night the theft was committed, looks as though there is some question about whether there is a thief or not. The case will be continued this morning.

BLAKE CONVICTED.

The Third of the Burglars Trio Found Guilty. When court convened yesterday morning the trial of Frank Blake, alias Frank B. Henry, was resumed. The first witness to take the stand was the prisoner, who was put on the defense. He said that his real name was Frank B. Henry, and that he came to this city from Chicago, where he had been engaged in railroad work in various capacities. A few minutes later he acted as clerk at Davidson's lodging house. He corroborated the witness Graham in regard to his often hiring burglars at Carlson's stable and also acknowledged that he had visited DeYoung's place, but said that he only went there to dispose of some old clothes which had been left at the lodging house. On cross-examination he said that he was not out of the house on the night of July 18, which was the night that the burglar's house was burglarized. This conflicted with the statement made by Graham that Blake had hired a horse and buggy of him at 12 o'clock that night and kept it out until 8 o'clock in the morning. He also denied that he disposed of the opera glasses at DeYoung's, which conflicted with the statement made by DeYoung. Sterling P. Davidson, the witness, testified that he had a very poor opinion of De Young, and would be rather loath to believe him under oath. A Mr. Ketchum, who was called to the stand, testified that he and De Young belonged to the same church, but that he would not believe him under oath. Several other witnesses were then called for the purpose of impeaching De Young's testimony by testifying in regard to his reputation for truth and veracity, and the case was then summed up and given to the jury. The jury retired at 11 o'clock, and returned a verdict of guilty at 5:30 p. m. Blake was remanded to jail to await sentence.

HIS TIME WAS LIMITED.

But It Was Long Enough for Him to Get Drunk in. George Adams, an old soldier, was arraigned in the police court yesterday morning on a charge of drunkenness. He pleaded guilty, whereupon Judge Bailey looked at him in astonishment. "Why," said his honor, "it was only day before yesterday that I suspected you of a 'drunk' sentence on you as you told me you were going out to the soldiers' home. You promised me then that you would go out to the home and let liquor alone."

THIS IS EVERYBODY'S DAY.

Prof. Danz's band will render musical selections after noon and evening, including the most popular gems of Ireland. The U. T. K. clothing house gave a suit of clothes for the best paper in the city. The results of the annual training school. John A. Schlemmer & Co. give a handsome set of German silver mathematical drawing instruments for the best paper in the city. Exhibited by any pupil in the Northwest.

AMATEUR ARTISTS' PRIZES.

The awards of art prizes for amateur work at art school being excluded, have been made. The results of the Bradstreet, Thurber & Co. prizes were as follows: First prize for best flower painting in oil, $20, awarded to No. 634, "Lilies." Miss Gertrude Johnson; second prize, $10, awarded to No. 793, "Pond Lilies," Mrs. M. L. Fonda; first prize for best landscape, $15, awarded to No. 602, "Afternoon Near Washington Park, Minneapolis," by Stearns Hale; first prize for best painting in still life, $5, awarded to No. 1,034, "Still Life, Miss Gertrude E. Math." The results of the Gooding & Bligh lift prizes for fruit pieces were as follows: First prize, $10 worth of frames, awarded to No. 1,034, "Fruit Pieces," Mrs. C. V. Henderson; prize for youngest amateur exhibitor, $5 worth of frames, awarded to No. 799 B. Miss Helen Humphreys, nine years old. Mrs. M. L. Fonda was awarded the H. J. Smith prize of $10 for the best game picture painted from life, on her painting, No. 555.

THE MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION.

Mayor Ames has issued the following proclamation: "I, Wm. Ames, Mayor of Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 26, 1888: 'The Minneapolis Industrial Exposition being a home production, owned and controlled by Minneapolis citizens, and representing the enterprise and push of the people of the metropolis of the state, I deem it my duty to give it the most thorough support by my people, and placed free from debt at the close of this, the third year of its existence. At the earnest request of the directors and a large number of our citizens, I hereby issue the ballot box, and had this year, observed by a general outpouring in order to test the capacity of the building. I also request that stores, banks, manufacturing and other places of business be closed at 12 m. on night, but that everybody be allowed to attend the Exposition. (Signed) A. A. Ames, Mayor."

SHE WAS INNOCENT.

A party of young people in the Eighth ward recently formed a social club for enjoyment during the winter months. On Tuesday night they met to decide upon a name, and they racked their brains for some time, for some time in vain. A youth remarked: "We ought to have a French or Latin name so that everyone would not know what it means." This caught the general fancy, and an innocent miss inquired: "Wouldn't the Demi Monde club be a good name?" The name was rejected, but it was some time after when she learned what caused the laughter.

A MINNEAPOLIS HORSE.

In the front window of Eustis Bros.' jewelry store, on Nicollet avenue, is a handsome push case, a big silver pitcher valued at about $300. This is the Minnesota club stealer's case, won by Tommie West, owned by Messrs. C. & Richardson in the stealer's case race at the state fair, Sept. 12. There were ten entries, but the Minneapolis horse won on a jog, taking the purses and ditches as easy as could be riding as he did at twenty-nine pounds overweight.

WANTED HIS PAY.

There is considerable excitement in the vicinity of Western avenue and Seventh street over the death of Miss Bertha Berker, which occurred Tuesday evening. A month ago she was badly burned by a gasoline stove, and after lingering in the hospital for some time, she died. Dr. Armstrong's statement was to the effect that he did not consider it his duty to treat and nurse her unless paid for it.

BUT THREE DAYS REMAIN.

The Exposition Almost Over--Preparations for Second Minneapolis Day. SECOND CHORUS CONCERT. Yesterday's Prizes Awarded--Mayor Ames Issues a Proclamation--Special Events and Attractions. The attendance at the Exposition yesterday afternoon was large, when the disagreeable weather is taken into consideration. A very enjoyable concert was given by the Danz band, and Prof. Carpenter amused a large audience with his mesmeric experiments. In the evening Prof. Raymond's chorus of 1,000 school children, accompanied by the Danz band, gave a delightful concert, a large audience being present. Verdi's "Pilgrims Chorus," the "Anvil Chorus" and "America" were especially well rendered and were enthusiastically received. LOCAL MENTION. J. B. Wheatley, 604 Nicollet. Is selling off all Fancy Brass Goods at 25 to 40 per cent discount, to make room for new fall stock. Twins Born Last Night. Happy Mother--Dear John, wasn't it lucky there were two of them? Now both can be endowed with three shares each in the Educational Endowment Association, and the six shares will earn $1.20 per day for the twins, and we can send both to college. Happy Father--Yes, Susan, I must call at the office, 550 Temple Court, this morning, and have them endowed before they are a day older. It does not cost much if they are enrolled before they are one year old. Exit happy father. ITEMS ON FURNISHING GOODS.

Ventilated Suspenders are the latest hygienic development. The figures on Neckwear are even larger than during the summer. The twice around the neck Scarf, known as the Stock, is again out. The "Garrote" Collar, which buttons behind, promises well for a run this season.

Items On Clothing.

You will not find odds and ends from a hundred different makers at the BIG BOSTON. We manufacture our own garments, which means that we cannot only give you lower prices, but also uniformity of quality and fit; absolutely impossible to find at the smaller establishments, that handle anybody's and everybody's make.
