

MINNEAPOLIS

BECOMES A PRECEDENT.

Hardenberg Gets Damages No Seat, No Fare. In the case of Frederick Hardenberg against the Manitoba railway company to recover $3,000 damages on account of being ejected from one of the defendant's passenger trains, the jury rendered a verdict of $800 for plaintiff.

DISTRICT COURT BRIEFS.

Mary Case yesterday filed the preliminary papers in an action for divorce from Elroy C. Case. She alleges in her complaint that they were married at Faribault, Minn., on Nov. 2, 1882; that she is now a widow, and that she has five children, five years old, and that in July, 1885, Case refused to furnish her with a home or provide her with the necessary expenses of life, and she was obliged to seek a home for herself and child with her parents. She asks for an absolute divorce, and for an order of the court allowing her to assume her maiden name of Mary Scott.

He Got Seven Years.

Frank Blie Henry, who was convicted of burglarizing the business of J. W. Lawrence, was brought into court yesterday for sentence. On being asked why sentence should not be pronounced he protested his innocence. The court after a short hearing, pronounced a sentence of seven years in the state prison.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBULES.

Bank Clearings yesterday, $713,875.95. Elder Miles Grant preached on "Humanism" at the Messiah Advent church last evening. Since Sept. 1 over $2,500 has been paid into the municipal court in the shape of fines. Peter Hanson, hurt in one of the sewers about a month ago, is now better and wants the city to help him. The relief association of the Minneapolis fire department held a meeting yesterday and paid claims amounting to about $50. A permit was yesterday issued to N. C. McCreary to erect a new building, cost $30,000, at 3132 Hennepin avenue. A market will soon be established on the block bounded by Broadway, Hennepin, Fourth, First and Second avenues north.

CAMPAGN'S TORES.

The Sorry Attempt of a Brace of Papers to Make Political Capital

From Mayor Ames' Congressional Committee and the Johnson Letter. Numerous Other Lies Properly Branded by Chairman Lawrence. Cheering News From West Virginia--Tidbits From Along the Line.

SILLY STORIES

Being Banned About by Two Irresponsible Sheets. About the silliest and most transparent campaign method is that employed by the morning and evening edition of the Duplicate, issued from the Tribune building, and which consists of continuing references to a supposed fight between the Ames and anti-Ames wings of the Democratic party. The object is very apparent—to keep alive alleged differences—but it will not work. The morning edition attempts to make out that Mayor Ames has appointed a strictly anti-Wilson congressional committee, while the evening edition goes further, and says there was a great fight at the meeting of the committee in St. Paul, over the D. B. Johnson letter. Both statements are lies, pure and simple, and will deceive nobody. The Duplicate is doing its best to make out that the Democracy is harmonious and united and the majority in Hennepin county will fittingly rebuke the silly notion about election to time, that the Democracy is harmonious and united and the majority in Hennepin county will fittingly rebuke the silly notion about election to time, that the Democracy is harmonious and united and the majority in Hennepin county will fittingly rebuke the silly notion about election to time.

A SAD CASE

That Came Before Superintendent of the Poor Curtiss. "Here's a sad case," remarked Superintendent of the Poor Curtiss, yesterday afternoon, as he entered his office carrying a quilt and a basket of food. "This food is for a young woman who was deserted by her husband last week. Now she is going home to her parents' home in St. Louis, accompanied by her two children." "Here's a picture of the couple when they were married," continued the superintendent, producing a large photograph of a gentleman and lady, who were identified as the husband and wife of the young woman who was deserted by her husband last week. "As cold weather approaches application for relief becomes numerous. A large portion of those asking aid are widows and women who have been deserted by their husbands. You see, as winter comes on, and the women are left alone and go away, leaving their families to be cared for by the city. A great many of these women I send home, if they will only tell me where they want to go. This coming winter promises to be a fairly hard one, but I guess no one in our care will starve to death."

SLIGHTLY EXCITED.

Mrs. Anderson Makes Things Lively in the Court Room. Augusta Anderson, an energetic German woman, was arraigned in the police court yesterday afternoon on a charge of assaulting Oscar Cedergrew. The moment she was arraigned before the judge she began to talk so fast that her words ran together. "Yes, I hit the boy," she said, "because he was drunk. Yes, he was trying to hurt me, and you are no better than the rest." "Oh, yes, I'll tell you all you want to, and you can put me back in the station house if you want to. Des boys tried to make my husband a brute and has been trying to injure my property. If I could get away from this city I would go." "Ten dollars and costs," remarked the judge, and then he called an officer and had the excited woman, who was making Rome howl, removed from the room.

COURT CASES.

The jury in the case of Ole Olson, charged with stealing a horse, after being out but a short time, rendered a verdict of guilty. He was sentenced to serve two and a half years in state prison. Thomas Garrett, charged with stealing a mortgage note for $500 from Frank W. Webster at Wayzata, entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to serve two years in state prison. The case of Dr. E. F. Seitz, indicted for selling liquor without a license, was reset for trial Oct. 4. The Aldermen Did Not Appear. The council committee on sewers was to have held a meeting yesterday to discuss the North Minneapolis sewer, but none of the aldermen, except Ald. Vogt, put in an appearance. He was excused on account of being out of town. In this connection it might be interesting to state that only about half the time do all the aldermen appear in council. It is such things as these that make life worth living. Garrick Club Benefit. The performance given by the Garrick Dramatic club last evening at Harriet's hall, for the benefit of the yellow fever sufferers, was well rendered and drew a much larger audience than was in attendance. The performance consisted of a drama entitled "Alice, the Outlaw's Daughter." It is not yet known just how much money has been realized from the sale of tickets, as a large number were left for sale with persons who have not yet reported the proceeds. It is thought, however, that the returns are all in, the receipts will amount to quite a snug sum. A Small Fire. Some children, playing in a woodshed in the rear of the residence of O. Peterson, residing at 801 Green avenue, accidentally set some hay on fire. Before the fire could be extinguished they had communicated to the house and to the barn, which were nearly totally destroyed. All the furniture was destroyed, and it will amount to something like $2,000. The insurance was $1,000 on the building. Hans Forger, who resides in the upper part of the house with his family. Wynana Sisolak, a Hungarian employed by the Street Car company, asked for the aid of the police yesterday in finding his wife, who, when last heard from, was at Bloomsfield, N. Y., with a party of twenty other emigrants. He says that he sent her money when she landed at Castle Garden, but that the authorities there had sent it back, saying his wife had gone before the money came.

POLITICAL GOSSIP.

The Democrats of Minneapolis will give a grand barbecue the afternoon of Oct. 10 at the base ball park. Joe Jepson and Peter Anderson, the committee having the affair in charge, are completing arrangements as rapidly as possible, and promise plenty of fun for all who attend. There will be a roast of other and other eatables. Eugene M. Wilson and Mayor Ames will address the audience, which will be a fine brass band present. John Flannigan, Blithen looks as though he might make quite a hustler in politics and is liable to be nominated and elected mayor. Look at him. I never saw a man who could get the Swedish, Dutch and Irish, the business men, fighters, gamblers, lovers and hack drivers on the string and hold 'em like he does. I saw him walking around with a coat of arms on his back, and find out, Mr. Coon is up at the West hotel; treats about 100 of 'em up there. See? He's going to make some of these aspirants for the mayoralty nomination think they weren't in the race. W. H. Skemp, the Prohibition candidate for register of deeds, has the point that, as the county officers will be elected and installed before the session of the legislature, their compensation cannot be changed during their term of office. The point is not well taken. The legislature can do as it will, or it will grossly disrespect the voters of the county. However, there is no reason to leave the result in doubt. No voter should give his support to a candidate who is not outspoken in favor of the reform. If it is doubtful, scratch him from your ticket. William Phillips—I am a Republican, but if Ames should run against Blithen he would be elected by the biggest majority Minneapolis ever knew. Any Democrat can beat Blithen out of sight. The Farm and Labor party has not yet decided what course it will pursue with regard to city officers. Dr. M. P.

GOSSIP OF THE THEATERS.

Plenty of Good Things in Store for Patron.

Enma Juch, the famous young prima donna, who was with the National Opera company last season, and whose singing of Marguerite in "Faust" created a furore in local musical circles, will be heard in Minneapolis at the People's theater Friday evening, Oct. 5, in an original concert. An unusually strong company will support Miss Juch. It includes Rosa Linde, contralto; Adele Aus der, the pianist, a favorite pupil of Liszt; William Lavin, a young English tenor, whose voice took London by storm a year ago; Clement Bassano, basso, formerly with Campanini, and Victor Herbert, the famous Irish tenor, who is also well known as the conductor of the Metropolitan Opera house orchestra, of New York. The company is now singing in Chicago with great success. "Natural Gas" might quite as appropriately be called laughing gas. It is a convulsion, explosion or continuation in three acts. The piece is in German on the stage, constantly interrupted, but not stopped, by laughter in the audience. Henry V. Donnelly is an excellent comedian, and Emil Girard is one of the cleverest actors seen on the stage in years. The large audience last night roared themselves hoarse with laughter. The play is so audaciously. The play is so for a prosperous business the remainder of the week. The sale of seats for Maggie Mitchell's engagement opens at the Grand to-day. Already inquiries have been made at the box office for the repertoire, Monday and Tuesday, inclusive. "Ray," a new play, written and acted by Friday "Fancion" will be the bill and Saturday "Little Barefoot" will be presented. The stage direction of the new plays will be under the personal supervision of Ben Tet, the greatest stage manager in America. Manager Conklin is also painting special scenery for the new plays. E. Witherell, manager of Emma Abbott, is in the city. The Select Knights, A. O. U. W., of Minneapolis, have given a benefit at the People's theater to-night. "The Strangest of Paris" will be the play presented by the People's stock company. The evening's entertainment from Army hall to the theater in full uniform. The sale of seats has been unusually large. The water heater has been engaged by the local committee of the Farm and Labor party, both afternoon and evening, Wednesday, Oct. 4, for the Dr. McLaughlin, in connection with the political topics and the single tax theories advocated by the party of which the famous ex-priest is an able exponent. Miss Effie Ames, daughter of Mayor Ames, has been awarded the elegant gold medal presented to the Exposition by Manager Sterling, of the People's theater, to be given to the scholar highest in the graduating class of the Minneapolis High school after a thorough examination. The medal is unique in design, valued at $75. The play of "Not Guilty" was produced at the Pence opera house last night to a large audience. Mr. Bock was the star, and his performance was highly praised. "Not Guilty" will run the remainder of the week. Next week the highly regarded play of "The Doctor" will be presented, with a powerful cast.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

A Real Estate Man Nearly Becomes a Murderer. A cutting affair occurred in the Boston block about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in which John McElhattan, an old-time citizen, residing at 2448 Eighteenth avenue south, was stabbed and painfully, although, fortunately, not dangerously wounded, by Stephen D. Moore, a real estate dealer. It appears that Mr. McElhattan held a party at his residence, 2448 Moore's furniture. It was part of Moore's plan to keep several agreements to meet it. The two men met in front of the house, and Moore, who was a few words, when Moore threatened to strike McElhattan. C. W. Nash, the attorney, intervened and induced Moore to withdraw. Moore, however, followed McElhattan and Nash then took the elevator and went to the office of Bailey & Brackett, on the fourth floor of the Boston block, and were sitting there talking when Moore suddenly entered the room. Without any warning, he sprang upon Mr. McElhattan with an open knife in his hand. Before any one could part them, he had inflicted three cuts, one a gash about an inch and a half long, on McElhattan's left chest, the second was a vertical cut on the left side of the third upon the breast an inch below the heart. The blade struck the sternum, and penetrated to the lungs. The wound inflicted is not dangerous, although a deviation of an inch up or down would have proved fatal. During the struggle McElhattan slipped to the floor, and when Moore was pulled away he drew a stone from his pocket and made some further demonstrations, after which he turned and left the room without interference. The affair created quite a sensation, as the peaceful corridors of Boston block are not often the scene of acts of violence amounting to more than a political debate. Mr. McElhattan was taken to the office of Dr. Allen across the street at 14th and Hennepin streets. He is about fifty years old, and is a man of considerable property, being engaged in logging. Stephen Moore is an old citizen in Minneapolis, and has been engaged in real estate speculations, by which he has made a living. He resides at the corner of Tenth avenue and Hennepin street. The stone which he used in his assault was unprovoked, and created no little indignation. A warrant will be issued for his arrest to-day.

IT ATTRACTS ATTENTION.

How Three or Four Minneapolis Firms Advertise Their Goods. It has realized any better than the merchants of Minneapolis. It is when all times come they are among the first to be affected. So, to provide against their being forgotten entirely when money is scarce, some of the merchants are doing a good deal of unique advertising. It first started moving the store front and putting up signs on the windows. An entirely new style of glass projecting out a few inches into the sidewalk. This soon became common and then came the hanging signs, which were well rendered and drew a much larger audience than was in attendance. The performance consisted of a drama entitled "Alice, the Outlaw's Daughter." It is not yet known just how much money has been realized from the sale of tickets, as a large number were left for sale with persons who have not yet reported the proceeds. TO AID THE NEEDY.

The Associated Charities Getting in Shape for the Winter. At the meeting of the board of directors of the associated charities yesterday morning it was decided to appeal to the employers to patronize the employment bureau of the association and to give work to the poor instead of the transients. A committee consisting of Judge Pierce, Rev. G. L. Morrill and Secretary Holt was appointed to see about raising funds. The committee on legal aid will continue to draw up a petition to the legislature to take the superintendent of poor out of politics.
