

Surely Mr. Carnegie does not have to employ women at his coke ovens. He is rich enough to pay men for doing such work. But he wanted cheap labor, and women supplied it. Yet he would have the nation think that he is a famous champion of labor. Why should Mr. Carnegie spend in foreign coaching tours the profits accruing from women's labor at coke ovens and from the sale of deer rails, which to farmers take the form of ruinous freight charges?—Chicago News.

The Republicans pretend to take a great interest in the welfare of the workingmen. If that is the case, why is it that the Harlem Republican club, which had charge of the meeting Saturday night to welcome Blaine, employed "scab" carpenters to erect the stands for spectators on the Polo grounds? The G. O. P. seems to be a good deal of a "scab" party. Its two leading newspapers, the Tribune and Philadelphia Press, have non-union offices.—New York Star.

SOME VERY HOT SHOT

Congressman Wilson Directs His Batteries at Mark Durnell's Methods.

Like a toad at the ear of Eve, I defy them. I have nothing but the sincerest contempt for a man who seeks to elevate himself by lying. (Laughter.) Perhaps the heartiest applause of the evening came when Mr. Wilson said of the severest charges Durnell was making against him, "They are whispering their lies."

Kassonians Listen With Delight to a Recital of Cold Facts.

Like a toad at the ear of Eve, I defy them. I have nothing but the sincerest contempt for a man who seeks to elevate himself by lying. (Laughter.) Perhaps the heartiest applause of the evening came when Mr. Wilson said of the severest charges Durnell was making against him, "They are whispering their lies."

The Democratic Campaign in Dodge County Opens With a Flourish.

Like a toad at the ear of Eve, I defy them. I have nothing but the sincerest contempt for a man who seeks to elevate himself by lying. (Laughter.) Perhaps the heartiest applause of the evening came when Mr. Wilson said of the severest charges Durnell was making against him, "They are whispering their lies."

Editor McNeil, of Chatfield, Gives the G. O. P. the Go-By.

Like a toad at the ear of Eve, I defy them. I have nothing but the sincerest contempt for a man who seeks to elevate himself by lying. (Laughter.) Perhaps the heartiest applause of the evening came when Mr. Wilson said of the severest charges Durnell was making against him, "They are whispering their lies."

Special to the Globe.
KASSON, Minn., Oct. 3.—Congressman Thomas Wilson opened the Democratic campaign in Dodge county this evening with a speech at Mantoville delivered to a court room full of farmers, who came from all sections of the county to hear him. The attendance was larger by 200 than the audience Durnell spoke to on Tuesday. Hon. A. J. Leach, who presided, escorted the speaker to the platform through a crowd that filled every aisle and seat, and which not only jammed the entrance, but extended to the foot of the hall stairs. Even the windows were filled, and that was not all. The people here to hear Mr. Wilson after an absence of two years from them. For it is two years ago this month that he spoke last to them here. The Mantoville Cornet band opened the exercises with music, after which Mr. Leach introduced Mr. Wilson, who, in saying, "Two years ago when I was elected a candidate for congress, Judge Wilson was but little known, but to-day we present him with a national reputation, and I am proud to congratulate you on his success. The representative of the first district is to-day acknowledged to be the best of any man upon the floor of congress." Mr. Wilson, admiring applause, took the platform and gave an account of his stevedoring career, and then proceeded to give an explanation of his now famous retaliation bill and the president's action in asking for it. Mr. Cleveland, he said, had introduced the bill at the first session of the fourth congress, but without any favor. Mr. Durnell, of Minnesota, who seemed to be thoroughly wedded to the interests of the stevedores, had introduced the bill, and it was impossible to produce an impression upon him. While many other members of the committee expressed their opposition to the bill, the influence of Mr. Durnell seemed to be sufficient to defeat any action in our favor. Every effort on the part of the committee was controlled by the Republican members. Mr. Durnell has been active in his opposition as during the session of the fourth congress, entirely owing to his enmity to us and his championship of the whisky thieves that the infamous law remains on the statute books.

Special to the Globe.
CHATHFIELD, Oct. 3.—A rousing demonstration was given here last night, the occasion being Judge Thomas Wilson's welcome at this place. A procession of about 100 people, headed by the principal streets and escorted the speaker to the hall. The hall has a seating capacity of about 100, and the speaker was surrounded by many persons being turned away. The meeting was opened by Col. John R. Jones, music by the Glee club, and as the speaker was introduced, the crowd burst into cheers as they saw the honest, sturdy face of Thomas Wilson before them. Mr. Wilson's speech was the most interesting of the evening, and was explained of some of his votes in congress that have been criticized by Mr. Durnell.

Special to the Globe.
CHATHFIELD, Minn., Oct. 3.—Great excitement was caused here to-day by the announcement that Eugene Wilson, editor of the Chatfield Democrat, a prominent Republican and nominee for the legislature on the Republican ticket, had been elected to the legislature. Mr. Wilson's position will be defined in the next issue of the Democrat.

Special to the Globe.
KASSON, Oct. 3.—It is not alone from Democratic sources that the reports come that Eugene Wilson has been elected. Wilson's speeches in this district. I wish that I might disclose the name of the Republican one here, but I will not do so. The party has come to that point that it says there shall be no abatement of this tariff. Continuing, in the main, he said: "Durnell says he was in Washington. Mr. Durnell has been at every session of congress since he was mustered out. He has been in the lobbies there every session, and he knows more about the matter than I do. I know, and I know that I don't know. There are no indications that Eugene Wilson has lost an inch of ground here, and much evidence that he has gained. A. J. Leach reports that the stevedores are holding every Democratic vote solid, and there are daily reports of Republicans changing to us. Eugene Wilson has been elected. I am convinced that the congressmen they say must be defeated. If they can beat me I don't want to serve with the representatives of our constituency and they can't beat me. I have no fear of that." The joint debate last night was presided over by Durnell and they will not come off. In regard to Durnell's evasion of the challenge, Mr. Wilson said, while the audience laughed and cheered, "I had hoped to say these things before Durnell and to show the falsity of his statements. I proposed, through our district committee, to do that, but we would hold a joint debate at every county seat. Durnell replies candidly. (It makes me think of the band pay.) The joint congress adjourns and we hold our joint debates. He knew congress would not adjourn. He was here last night. Why would he not meet me? I had the records, and together we

DECEASED IN A CELL.

Charles Carlson, a Prisoner, Burned to Death at Sac City.

Special to the Globe.
SAC CITY, Ia., Oct. 3.—The court house at Sac City was burned to the ground last night. Part of the records were destroyed, and possibly all. A prisoner named Charles Carlson perished in the flames, as he was locked up last night and has not been seen since. The body has not been found, however.

Hawkeye Pythians Gather in Dubuque for Their Annual Conclave.

Special to the Globe.
DUBUQUE, Ia., Oct. 3.—The nine-tenths of the members of the Iowa Grand Lodge of Knights of Pythias, opened this morning at Castle hall in Apolo lodge. The delegates formed at the Larimore house at 9:30 o'clock, and, headed by the Dubuque Cornet band, marched to the hall. Past chancellors and chancery commanders only are eligible to membership in the grand lodge. Over fifty past chancellors were initiated, this ceremony being concluded about 11 o'clock. The report of Grand Chancellor Duncan, in pamphlet form, was distributed among the members of the lodge. This was referred to a committee, as was also the report of the master of exchequer, the master of finance, and the report of the secretary. From these reports it was gleaned that the membership in the lodge has increased 5,000 the past two years and that the total amount of grand lodge revenue are a per capita tax, a percentage tax and a tax for dispensing and institutions. The grand lodge for the past year was $462,76, and the treasury contains a balance of over $6,000, of which was carried over from last year. An amendment to the constitution providing that the session of the grand lodge be held in July instead of October, was proposed and referred. This afternoon the committee on the officers' reports were referred to, and at 2:30 o'clock Supreme Chancellor Ward was received with music and records and closed at 1 p. m., to-morrow afternoon.

The Murderer of Gull James Has a Price on His Head.

Special to the Globe.
DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 3.—The court house at Sac City was burned to the ground last night. Part of the records were destroyed, and possibly all. A prisoner named Charles Carlson perished in the flames, as he was locked up last night and has not been seen since. The body has not been found, however.

MINNESOTA METHODISTS. Important Proceedings Yesterday at the Winona Conference.

Special to the Globe.
WINONA, Oct. 3.—The attendance at the opening session of the thirty-fourth annual conference of the Minnesota Methodists to-day was large, nearly 300 clergymen and delegates being present. Rev. J. W. Powell preached the conference sermon, being an interesting discourse on the pioneers of early Methodism in Minnesota. Bishop John P. Hurst, assisted by the presiding elders, presided over the conference, and the opening of the business session. Rev. Dr. Forbes, of St. Paul, was made secretary, and Rev. C. Jennings, of St. Paul; Rev. L. H. Shuman, of Duluth; and Rev. J. B. Hingey, of Minneapolis, assistant secretaries. Rev. J. B. Kinney, of Duluth, was elected treasurer, and Rev. R. Atchison, of J. Edwards, J. F. Davidson and E. G. Pilling, assistants. The bar of the conference was an interesting one, and the opening of the business session. Rev. Dr. Forbes, of St. Paul, was made secretary, and Rev. C. Jennings, of St. Paul; Rev. L. H. Shuman, of Duluth; and Rev. J. B. Hingey, of Minneapolis, assistant secretaries. Rev. J. B. Kinney, of Duluth, was elected treasurer, and Rev. R. Atchison, of J. Edwards, J. F. Davidson and E. G. Pilling, assistants. The bar of the conference was an interesting one, and the opening of the business session.

Now Come Republican Senators With a Substitute Tariff Bill.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

It Conforms Closely to the Party Platform Adopted at Chicago.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Which, Stated Succinctly, Means Free Whisky and Dearer Clothing.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Protection's Principles Stick Out at Every Point of the Substitute.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

MINNESOTA METHODISTS. Important Proceedings Yesterday at the Winona Conference.

Special to the Globe.
WINONA, Oct. 3.—The attendance at the opening session of the thirty-fourth annual conference of the Minnesota Methodists to-day was large, nearly 300 clergymen and delegates being present. Rev. J. W. Powell preached the conference sermon, being an interesting discourse on the pioneers of early Methodism in Minnesota. Bishop John P. Hurst, assisted by the presiding elders, presided over the conference, and the opening of the business session. Rev. Dr. Forbes, of St. Paul, was made secretary, and Rev. C. Jennings, of St. Paul; Rev. L. H. Shuman, of Duluth; and Rev. J. B. Hingey, of Minneapolis, assistant secretaries. Rev. J. B. Kinney, of Duluth, was elected treasurer, and Rev. R. Atchison, of J. Edwards, J. F. Davidson and E. G. Pilling, assistants. The bar of the conference was an interesting one, and the opening of the business session.

Now Come Republican Senators With a Substitute Tariff Bill.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

It Conforms Closely to the Party Platform Adopted at Chicago.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Which, Stated Succinctly, Means Free Whisky and Dearer Clothing.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Protection's Principles Stick Out at Every Point of the Substitute.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

MINNESOTA METHODISTS. Important Proceedings Yesterday at the Winona Conference.

Special to the Globe.
WINONA, Oct. 3.—The attendance at the opening session of the thirty-fourth annual conference of the Minnesota Methodists to-day was large, nearly 300 clergymen and delegates being present. Rev. J. W. Powell preached the conference sermon, being an interesting discourse on the pioneers of early Methodism in Minnesota. Bishop John P. Hurst, assisted by the presiding elders, presided over the conference, and the opening of the business session. Rev. Dr. Forbes, of St. Paul, was made secretary, and Rev. C. Jennings, of St. Paul; Rev. L. H. Shuman, of Duluth; and Rev. J. B. Hingey, of Minneapolis, assistant secretaries. Rev. J. B. Kinney, of Duluth, was elected treasurer, and Rev. R. Atchison, of J. Edwards, J. F. Davidson and E. G. Pilling, assistants. The bar of the conference was an interesting one, and the opening of the business session.

Now Come Republican Senators With a Substitute Tariff Bill.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

It Conforms Closely to the Party Platform Adopted at Chicago.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Which, Stated Succinctly, Means Free Whisky and Dearer Clothing.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Protection's Principles Stick Out at Every Point of the Substitute.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

MINNESOTA METHODISTS. Important Proceedings Yesterday at the Winona Conference.

Special to the Globe.
WINONA, Oct. 3.—The attendance at the opening session of the thirty-fourth annual conference of the Minnesota Methodists to-day was large, nearly 300 clergymen and delegates being present. Rev. J. W. Powell preached the conference sermon, being an interesting discourse on the pioneers of early Methodism in Minnesota. Bishop John P. Hurst, assisted by the presiding elders, presided over the conference, and the opening of the business session. Rev. Dr. Forbes, of St. Paul, was made secretary, and Rev. C. Jennings, of St. Paul; Rev. L. H. Shuman, of Duluth; and Rev. J. B. Hingey, of Minneapolis, assistant secretaries. Rev. J. B. Kinney, of Duluth, was elected treasurer, and Rev. R. Atchison, of J. Edwards, J. F. Davidson and E. G. Pilling, assistants. The bar of the conference was an interesting one, and the opening of the business session.

Now Come Republican Senators With a Substitute Tariff Bill.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

It Conforms Closely to the Party Platform Adopted at Chicago.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Which, Stated Succinctly, Means Free Whisky and Dearer Clothing.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Protection's Principles Stick Out at Every Point of the Substitute.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

MINNESOTA METHODISTS. Important Proceedings Yesterday at the Winona Conference.

Special to the Globe.
WINONA, Oct. 3.—The attendance at the opening session of the thirty-fourth annual conference of the Minnesota Methodists to-day was large, nearly 300 clergymen and delegates being present. Rev. J. W. Powell preached the conference sermon, being an interesting discourse on the pioneers of early Methodism in Minnesota. Bishop John P. Hurst, assisted by the presiding elders, presided over the conference, and the opening of the business session. Rev. Dr. Forbes, of St. Paul, was made secretary, and Rev. C. Jennings, of St. Paul; Rev. L. H. Shuman, of Duluth; and Rev. J. B. Hingey, of Minneapolis, assistant secretaries. Rev. J. B. Kinney, of Duluth, was elected treasurer, and Rev. R. Atchison, of J. Edwards, J. F. Davidson and E. G. Pilling, assistants. The bar of the conference was an interesting one, and the opening of the business session.

Now Come Republican Senators With a Substitute Tariff Bill.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

It Conforms Closely to the Party Platform Adopted at Chicago.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Which, Stated Succinctly, Means Free Whisky and Dearer Clothing.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Protection's Principles Stick Out at Every Point of the Substitute.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

MINNESOTA METHODISTS. Important Proceedings Yesterday at the Winona Conference.

Special to the Globe.
WINONA, Oct. 3.—The attendance at the opening session of the thirty-fourth annual conference of the Minnesota Methodists to-day was large, nearly 300 clergymen and delegates being present. Rev. J. W. Powell preached the conference sermon, being an interesting discourse on the pioneers of early Methodism in Minnesota. Bishop John P. Hurst, assisted by the presiding elders, presided over the conference, and the opening of the business session. Rev. Dr. Forbes, of St. Paul, was made secretary, and Rev. C. Jennings, of St. Paul; Rev. L. H. Shuman, of Duluth; and Rev. J. B. Hingey, of Minneapolis, assistant secretaries. Rev. J. B. Kinney, of Duluth, was elected treasurer, and Rev. R. Atchison, of J. Edwards, J. F. Davidson and E. G. Pilling, assistants. The bar of the conference was an interesting one, and the opening of the business session.

Now Come Republican Senators With a Substitute Tariff Bill.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

It Conforms Closely to the Party Platform Adopted at Chicago.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Which, Stated Succinctly, Means Free Whisky and Dearer Clothing.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Protection's Principles Stick Out at Every Point of the Substitute.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

MINNESOTA METHODISTS. Important Proceedings Yesterday at the Winona Conference.

Special to the Globe.
WINONA, Oct. 3.—The attendance at the opening session of the thirty-fourth annual conference of the Minnesota Methodists to-day was large, nearly 300 clergymen and delegates being present. Rev. J. W. Powell preached the conference sermon, being an interesting discourse on the pioneers of early Methodism in Minnesota. Bishop John P. Hurst, assisted by the presiding elders, presided over the conference, and the opening of the business session. Rev. Dr. Forbes, of St. Paul, was made secretary, and Rev. C. Jennings, of St. Paul; Rev. L. H. Shuman, of Duluth; and Rev. J. B. Hingey, of Minneapolis, assistant secretaries. Rev. J. B. Kinney, of Duluth, was elected treasurer, and Rev. R. Atchison, of J. Edwards, J. F. Davidson and E. G. Pilling, assistants. The bar of the conference was an interesting one, and the opening of the business session.

Now Come Republican Senators With a Substitute Tariff Bill.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

It Conforms Closely to the Party Platform Adopted at Chicago.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Which, Stated Succinctly, Means Free Whisky and Dearer Clothing.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Protection's Principles Stick Out at Every Point of the Substitute.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

MINNESOTA METHODISTS. Important Proceedings Yesterday at the Winona Conference.

Special to the Globe.
WINONA, Oct. 3.—The attendance at the opening session of the thirty-fourth annual conference of the Minnesota Methodists to-day was large, nearly 300 clergymen and delegates being present. Rev. J. W. Powell preached the conference sermon, being an interesting discourse on the pioneers of early Methodism in Minnesota. Bishop John P. Hurst, assisted by the presiding elders, presided over the conference, and the opening of the business session. Rev. Dr. Forbes, of St. Paul, was made secretary, and Rev. C. Jennings, of St. Paul; Rev. L. H. Shuman, of Duluth; and Rev. J. B. Hingey, of Minneapolis, assistant secretaries. Rev. J. B. Kinney, of Duluth, was elected treasurer, and Rev. R. Atchison, of J. Edwards, J. F. Davidson and E. G. Pilling, assistants. The bar of the conference was an interesting one, and the opening of the business session.

Now Come Republican Senators With a Substitute Tariff Bill.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

It Conforms Closely to the Party Platform Adopted at Chicago.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Which, Stated Succinctly, Means Free Whisky and Dearer Clothing.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Protection's Principles Stick Out at Every Point of the Substitute.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

MINNESOTA METHODISTS. Important Proceedings Yesterday at the Winona Conference.

Special to the Globe.
WINONA, Oct. 3.—The attendance at the opening session of the thirty-fourth annual conference of the Minnesota Methodists to-day was large, nearly 300 clergymen and delegates being present. Rev. J. W. Powell preached the conference sermon, being an interesting discourse on the pioneers of early Methodism in Minnesota. Bishop John P. Hurst, assisted by the presiding elders, presided over the conference, and the opening of the business session. Rev. Dr. Forbes, of St. Paul, was made secretary, and Rev. C. Jennings, of St. Paul; Rev. L. H. Shuman, of Duluth; and Rev. J. B. Hingey, of Minneapolis, assistant secretaries. Rev. J. B. Kinney, of Duluth, was elected treasurer, and Rev. R. Atchison, of J. Edwards, J. F. Davidson and E. G. Pilling, assistants. The bar of the conference was an interesting one, and the opening of the business session.

Now Come Republican Senators With a Substitute Tariff Bill.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

It Conforms Closely to the Party Platform Adopted at Chicago.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Which, Stated Succinctly, Means Free Whisky and Dearer Clothing.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

Protection's Principles Stick Out at Every Point of the Substitute.

Special to the Globe.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—In the senate, immediately after the journal was read this afternoon, Senator Allison, from the committee on finance, reported the Republican substitute for the Mills tariff bill, which was passed by the house of representatives last July.

MUZZLED MAGNETISM

Blaine Ignores His Party, Its Candidate and the Paramount Issue.

Special to the Globe.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine spoke for twenty-three minutes this afternoon in the Detroit trial to an audience estimated at 8,000. All the railroad rates, special excursion trains for the occasion, the cheap rates and the fame of the orator contributing to augment the crowd. Many ladies were present. There was the usual campaign hurrah, but the meeting was not an exclusively partisan one, as was evidenced by the quite general applause which followed Mr. Blaine's reference to Andrew Jackson as a great leader of Democracy and which occasionally greeted the name of Mr. Cleveland. Upon being introduced by the chairman, Gen. Alger, Mr. Blaine said:

Special to the Globe.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine spoke for twenty-three minutes this afternoon in the Detroit trial to an audience estimated at 8,000. All the railroad rates, special excursion trains for the occasion, the cheap rates and the fame of the orator contributing to augment the crowd. Many ladies were present. There was the usual campaign hurrah, but the meeting was not an exclusively partisan one, as was evidenced by the quite general applause which followed Mr. Blaine's reference to Andrew Jackson as a great leader of Democracy and which occasionally greeted the name of Mr. Cleveland. Upon being introduced by the chairman, Gen. Alger, Mr. Blaine said:

Special to the Globe.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine spoke for twenty-three minutes this afternoon in the Detroit trial to an audience estimated at 8,000. All the railroad rates, special excursion trains for the occasion, the cheap rates and the fame of the orator contributing to augment the crowd. Many ladies were present. There was the usual campaign hurrah, but the meeting was not an exclusively partisan one, as was evidenced by the quite general applause which followed Mr. Blaine's reference to Andrew Jackson as a great leader of Democracy and which occasionally greeted the name of Mr. Cleveland. Upon being introduced by the chairman, Gen. Alger, Mr. Blaine said:

Special to the Globe.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine spoke for twenty-three minutes this afternoon in the Detroit trial to an audience estimated at 8,000. All the railroad rates, special excursion trains for the occasion, the cheap rates and the fame of the orator contributing to augment the crowd. Many ladies were present. There was the usual campaign hurrah, but the meeting was not an exclusively partisan one, as was evidenced by the quite general applause which followed Mr. Blaine's reference to Andrew Jackson as a great leader of Democracy and which occasionally greeted the name of Mr. Cleveland. Upon being introduced by the chairman, Gen. Alger, Mr. Blaine said:

Special to the Globe.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine spoke for twenty-three minutes this afternoon in the Detroit trial to an audience estimated at 8,000. All the railroad rates, special excursion trains for the occasion, the cheap rates and the fame of the orator contributing to augment the crowd. Many ladies were present. There was the usual campaign hurrah, but the meeting was not an exclusively partisan one, as was evidenced by the quite general applause which followed Mr. Blaine's reference to Andrew Jackson as a great leader of Democracy and which occasionally greeted the name of Mr. Cleveland. Upon being introduced by the chairman, Gen. Alger, Mr. Blaine said:

Special to the Globe.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine spoke for twenty-three minutes this afternoon in the Detroit trial to an audience estimated at 8,000. All the railroad rates, special excursion trains for the occasion, the cheap rates and the fame of the orator contributing to augment the crowd. Many ladies were present. There was the usual campaign hurrah, but the meeting was not an exclusively partisan one, as was evidenced by the quite general applause which followed Mr. Blaine's reference to Andrew Jackson as a great leader of Democracy and which occasionally greeted the name of Mr. Cleveland. Upon being introduced by the chairman, Gen. Alger, Mr. Blaine said:

Special to the Globe.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine spoke for twenty-three minutes this afternoon in the Detroit trial to an audience estimated at 8,000. All the railroad rates, special excursion trains for the occasion, the cheap rates and the fame of the orator contributing to augment the crowd. Many ladies were present. There was the usual campaign hurrah, but the meeting was not an exclusively partisan one, as was evidenced by the quite general applause which followed Mr. Blaine's reference to Andrew Jackson as a great leader of Democracy and which occasionally greeted the name of Mr. Cleveland. Upon being introduced by the chairman, Gen. Alger, Mr. Blaine said:

Special to the Globe.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine spoke for twenty-three minutes this afternoon in the Detroit trial to an audience estimated at 8,000. All the railroad rates, special excursion trains for the occasion, the cheap rates and the fame of the orator contributing to augment the crowd. Many ladies were present. There was the usual campaign hurrah, but the meeting was not an exclusively partisan one, as was evidenced by the quite general applause which followed Mr. Blaine's reference to Andrew Jackson as a great leader of Democracy and which occasionally greeted the name of Mr. Cleveland. Upon being introduced by the chairman, Gen. Alger, Mr. Blaine said:

Special to the Globe.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine spoke for twenty-three minutes this afternoon in the Detroit trial to an audience estimated at 8,000. All the railroad rates, special excursion trains for the occasion, the cheap rates and the fame of the orator contributing to augment the crowd. Many ladies were present. There was the usual campaign hurrah, but the meeting was not an exclusively partisan one, as was evidenced by the quite general applause which followed Mr. Blaine's reference to Andrew Jackson as a great leader of Democracy and which occasionally greeted the name of Mr. Cleveland. Upon being introduced by the chairman, Gen. Alger, Mr. Blaine said:

Special to the Globe.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine spoke for twenty-three minutes this afternoon in the Detroit trial to an audience estimated at 8,000. All the railroad rates, special excursion trains for the occasion, the cheap rates and the fame of the orator contributing to augment the crowd. Many ladies were present. There was the usual campaign hurrah, but the meeting was not an exclusively partisan one, as was evidenced by the quite general applause which followed Mr. Blaine's reference to Andrew Jackson as a great leader of Democracy and which occasionally greeted the name of Mr. Cleveland. Upon being introduced by the chairman, Gen. Alger, Mr. Blaine said:

Special to the Globe.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine spoke for twenty-three minutes this afternoon in the Detroit trial to an audience estimated at 8,000. All the railroad rates, special excursion trains for the occasion, the cheap rates and the fame of the orator contributing to augment the crowd. Many ladies were present. There was the usual campaign hurrah, but the meeting was not an exclusively partisan one, as was evidenced by the quite general applause which followed Mr. Blaine's reference to Andrew Jackson as a great leader of Democracy and which occasionally greeted the name of Mr. Cleveland. Upon being introduced by the chairman, Gen. Alger, Mr. Blaine said:

Special to the Globe.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine spoke for twenty-three minutes this afternoon in the Detroit trial to an audience estimated at 8,000. All the railroad rates, special excursion trains for the occasion, the cheap rates and the fame of the orator contributing to augment the crowd. Many ladies were present. There was the usual campaign hurrah, but the meeting was not an exclusively partisan one, as was evidenced by the quite general applause which followed Mr. Blaine's reference to Andrew Jackson as a great leader of Democracy and which occasionally greeted the name of Mr. Cleveland. Upon being introduced by the chairman, Gen. Alger, Mr. Blaine said:

Special to the Globe.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine spoke for twenty-three minutes this afternoon in the Detroit trial to an audience estimated at 8,000. All the railroad rates, special excursion trains for the occasion, the cheap rates and the fame of the orator contributing to augment the crowd. Many ladies were present. There was the usual campaign hurrah, but the meeting was not an exclusively partisan one, as was evidenced by the quite general applause which followed Mr. Blaine's reference to Andrew Jackson as a great leader of Democracy and which occasionally greeted the name of Mr. Cleveland. Upon being introduced by the chairman, Gen. Alger, Mr. Blaine said:

Special to the Globe.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine spoke for twenty-three minutes this afternoon in the Detroit trial to an audience estimated at 8,000. All the railroad rates, special excursion trains for the occasion, the cheap rates and the fame of the orator contributing to augment the crowd. Many ladies were present. There was the usual campaign hurrah, but the meeting was not an exclusively partisan one, as was evidenced by the quite general applause which followed Mr. Blaine's reference to Andrew Jackson as a great leader of Democracy and which occasionally greeted the name of Mr. Cleveland. Upon being introduced by the chairman, Gen. Alger, Mr. Blaine said:

Special to the Globe.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine spoke for twenty-three minutes this afternoon in the Detroit trial to an audience estimated at 8,000. All the railroad rates, special excursion trains for the occasion, the cheap rates and the fame of the orator contributing to augment the crowd. Many ladies were present. There was the usual campaign hurrah, but the meeting was not an exclusively partisan one, as was evidenced by the quite general applause which followed Mr. Blaine's reference to Andrew Jackson as a great leader of Democracy and which occasionally greeted the name of Mr. Cleveland. Upon being introduced by the chairman, Gen. Alger, Mr. Blaine said:

Special to the Globe.
DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine spoke for twenty-three minutes