Estimates of the Amount Required for Their Maintenance.

A preliminary estimate was issued yesterday by the state board of corrections and charities of the amount necessary to be appropriated by the legislature of 1889, for current expenses for the two fiscal years ending July, 1891. The institutions governed by this board are Fergus Falls hospital, St. Peter hospital, Rochester hospital, soldiers home, school for the deaf, school for the blind, school for dependent children, reformatory for young men and state prisons.

The apparent increase in the rate of the estimated expenses for the coming three years is due partly to the extraordinary expenses necessary in opening the new institutions at Fergus Falls and St. Cloud, but chiefly to the fact that, owing to the uncertainty as to future results, the earnings of the prisoners at Stillwater and St. Cloud are estimated at S32 per man instead of $110 as mated at $32 per man instead of $110 as hitherto. Should the convicts in the two prisons earn $110 each, the amount expended for each inmate maintained would prisons earn $110 each, the amount expended for each immate maintained would be: 1888-9, $170; 1889-90, $171; 1890-91, $168. The foregoing estimates do not include any appropriations for erecting and furnishing new buildings, purchasing land, or for extraordinary repairs and improvements. The state board of corrections and charities will recommend an appropriation for each institution for extraordinary repairs and improvements, amounting to about 1 per cent of the value of the fixed property as shown by the annual inventory.

RAILWAY MAIL FACILITIES. Formation of a New Division in the Northwest.

A new division of the railway mail service was formed by order of the post office department Sept. 21. Formal organization will not take place however before the first of November as it will require considerable time to prepare the records and secure proper accommoda-tions for the officials. Until that time, the new division will be under the jur-lsdiction of Capt. White at Chicago The territory of the tenth division was taken from the Sixth and includes Wis-consin, Minnesota, the northern penin-sula of Michigan, Dakota and Montana. sula of Michigan, Dakota and Montana.
Pestmaster General Dickinson has appointed as superintendent of the new division Watter H. Butler, a gentleman well qualified to fill the position. Mr. Butler was born in Pennsylvania, and is at present about thirty-five years old. He received his education at the University of Minnesota, studied law with Daniel Buck at Mankato, and completed his law studies at the Madison Law school. He received one of the first appointments as postal clerk in the railway mail service under the Cleveland administration, and has served with conspicuous ability in every grade of the service until the present honor was conferred on him.

The headquarters of the new division will remain temporarily in the chief clerk's office at the city postoffice, but it is expected that quarters will soon be obtained in the Rice building, corner Fifth and Jackson streets.

Daughters of Veterans.

Garfield Post hall on East Sixth street was last night tastefully garnished with sheaves of matured grain and grasses and autumn leaves, the occasion being the annual harvest party given by the Daughters of Veterans of St. Paul Camp Daughters of Veterans of St. Paul Camp No. 1. Seibert's orchestra was present and rendered a musical programme of fourteen numbers, to which the young people tripped until 12 o'clock, when coffee and light refreshments were served. Among those present were: Mesdames Lightburn, Osgood and Millam; Misses Hasenwinkle, Fadden, Jenkins, Evans, Bailey, Stout, Hills, Bowker, Brigham, Sanders, Dressel, Hillman, Brash, Mace, Merrill and Lightburn; Messrs, Dunn, Oakes, Manhart, Hasenwinkle, Mutch-

Owed a Big Bank Bill.

There were no new developments in the Allen failure yesterday. It was stated that the German-American bank had a bill of $20,000 standing against the firm. Mr. Sattler, the assignee, was busy making inventory of the stock and was of the opinion that the assets would be nearer $100,000 than $80,000. He could give no estimate of the liabilities, but believed there was some pretty large bills outstanding.

Visiting Odd Fellows.

The Odd Fellows have arranged for a great time in St. Paul to-day. General Underwood, the grand sire of the Inde-Underwood, the grand sire of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the United States, and his staff, will be given a reception in the senate chamber at the capitol, by the members of the local lodges in St. Paul at 8 o'clock this evening. Gov. McGill, Mayor Smith, ex-Mayor Ames, of Minneapolis, and a number of other gentlemen will make short speeches.

Cheeky Sneak Thieves. William Morgan and James Barnes were arrested by Officer Lynch yesterday on the charge of stealing an overcoat from a Third street clothing store, About an hour after the coat was taken these men came along with a bundle and the officer saw that it was a coat the same color as that stolen. The prisoners claimed that they bought the coat for Discovered by a Female Detective. Yesterday afternoon a party of bootblacks found a man sleeping in a yard in the rear of the market sheds. The boys went through the man's pockets and took off a watch. A little girl who witnessed the robbery told Officers Maguire and Cornich, who arrested Chris Harris, one of the thieves.

Hon. Ignatius Donnelly Opposed to Leading a Forlorn Hope.

His Withdrawal From the Labor Ticket Only a Question of Time.

Providing New Depositories for the Ballots of American Citizens.

Judge Flandrau and the Independents Will Await Results of Primaries.

A report was circulated at a late hour last night that Hon. Ignatius Donnelly had withdrawn from the gubernatorial race. A reporter of the GLOBE inter-viewed the farmers and labor candidate concerning the matter, at his room in the Merchants hotel, shortly after mid-Mr. Donnelly acknowledged that there were grounds for the rumor, but was considerably surprised that it had come to the knowledge of the GLOBE, as an attempt had been made to maintain secrecy. When questioned as to his withdrawal, he said:

"No, I have not withdrawn, but the executive committee of the Farm and Labor party held a meeting to-day to consider the propriety of withdrawing their ticket for state officers from the field. This course was recommended because it was considered impossible to because it was considered impossible to carry the state or even canvass a great part of it. There was a desire to concentrate the efforts of the speakers of the party on behalf of the legislative ticket of the Farm and Labor party, but nothing was positively done except to discuss the matter. Further action will be taken in a few days. The whole question will rest with the state central committee, as the candidates are ready to continue the fight if they say so, although it will as the candinates are ready to continue the fight if they say so, although it will be only leading a forlorn hope." In the cities we would probably draw largely from Mr. Wilson, as the most of the laboring men are Democrats; while in the country we would detract many Republican votes from Mr. Merriam."

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES. Delegates to Be Chosen to the County Convention To-Morrow. The primaries for the election of delegates to the Ramsey county Democratic onvention will be held this evening from 5 until 7 o'clock. The indications are that the ticket chosen will be unusually strong, and the convention will be a most harmonious one. There is absolutely no opposition to the renomi-nation of M. F. Kain as county auditor. For sheriff George Moeller will be selected. A. N. Nelson or Alfred Palmselected. A. N. Nelson or Alfred Palmquist will be put up for county treasurer. J. J. Egan will be renominated as county attorney, while E. Stone Gorman will be nominated for judge of probate and Dr. J. A. Markoe as coroner. W. A. Van Slyke will be selected to contest the race for register of deeds with M. J. Bell, the Republican nominee. Dan Kelly, L. D. Wilkes, Charles Liedmann, H. F. Hoyt, A. B. Ronney and George Mitsch are the probable nominees for county commissioners. The possible make up of the legislative ticket is still in doubt. H. F. Stevens will probably be indorsed. John S. Grode will contest for political honors with William F. Bickel, John H. Ives will be nominated to oppose H. Ives will be nominated to oppose James A. Johnson, the labor candidate who obtained his seat on Saturday after so hard a struggle. Messrs. Botts, Lienau and Schurmeier are also spoken of, but the make up of the legislative ficket will be a matter of conjecture until to-morrow. until to-morrow.

THE RESULT UNAFFECTED.

The Independent Move If Inaugurated Will Be Unimportant. The independent convention for the nomination of a ticket which shall not ing upon the feeling which the nomina-tion of to-morrow's ticket will produce. It is the intention of the independents to submit the ticket to ents to submit the ticket to most vigorous scrutiny, and either modorse or reject it, in part or wholly. If the result of the convention should meet with their approbation no movement for an independent ticket will be made. If the ticket does not please, however, it is the intention of the instigators of the movement to call a convention, indorse such nominations as meet with their approbation, and place in nomination upon the new ticket substitutes for the nominations upon the regular county ticket.

From present indications it seems to be a foregone conclusion that their infant

The general sentiment among representative Democrats about the city, yes-terday, was that the independent move was a most foolish one, that it could not poll 200 votes, and that in the face of the notoriously weak ticket nominated by the Republicans, success for the regular Democratic nominee was as-regular Democratic nominee was assured.

Judge Flandrau, upon being interrogated as to the new movement, stated that the future of the independents would depend largely upon the outcome of the convention to morrow.

"We are dissatisfied with the manner in which the primaries are conducted," continued the judge. "We wished to have due notice given as to the time of their occurrence, places for holding them, and also requested that a regular Democratic club member be made one of the judges. Our first proposition was acceded to and due notice was given. However, the powers that be would not accede to our request for judges, and for that reason have resolved upon having either a fair representation, or going into the field with an independent ticket, which will, I hope, embody the strongest men in the party, and bring to us the vote of the conservatives. We are all of us tired of being compelled, with each recurring election, to be relegated to the background, and at the last election we went into the convention, and notwithstanding the fact that our claims were most strongly pushed by the champions went into the convention, and notwith-standing the fact that our claims were most strongly pushed by the champions of our side, and that our credentials when presented to the proper commit-tee were without a flaw, we were thrown out. On motion of Sam Nichols the executive committee will consist of nine members who will be appointed by the chairman today. Fred G. Wheeler was appointed assistant secretary and after discussing the plans of campaign for upwards of two hours an attempt was made to realize the nature and extent of the work to be accomplished by informally noting the amount of money necessary to be raised in each ward and in the country. No decision was arrived at, however, and a meeting of the executive committee is called for to-morrow at 4 o'clock at the Clifton, when the committee will establish themselves in permanent head-quarters.

JUDGE M'DONALD'S DISTRICT.

Anticipations of a Sweeping Victory at the Polls. "We are more than hopeful of the outlook in the Third congressional district and anticipate a sweeping victory," said Judge McDonald at the conclusion of the meeting of the Third district congressional committee yesterday afternoon in room No. 5 at the Merchants. These were present from their respective counties:

E. Southworth, chairman, Scott county; August Truwe, Carver county; R. C. Libby, Dakota county; M. Doyle, Goodhue J. M. Spicer, Kandiyohi; Hamlet Stevens. Meeker; S. P. Brown, McLeod: T. O'Connor, Reuville: Henry B. Hill, Rice, and William Austin.

Each delegate told precisely the situation in his county and informally advised as to the course to be pursued prior to the election.

A. D. Warner, who was a candidate for the legislature from the old First ward, has announced that he has withdrawn from the contest. He has found that according to section 24, article 4, of the state constitution, he is ineligible to the office, not having been a resident of of the meeting of the Third district

NEW BALLOT BOXES.

Receptacles in Which Voters Will Deposit Their Preferences. City Clerk Prendergast is engaged perfecting arrangements for the inauguration of a new system of voting at the coming elections.

At each polling place throughout the city seven ballot boxes will be used, a separate receptacle being provided for ballots for presidential electors, state officials, congressmen, members of state legislature, county officers, district judges, and constitutional amend-ments, a total of 448 boxes being required to cast the vote of the city Each of these boxes is marked in plain letters with the number of the ward and subdistrict, and also with the ticket for which it will be used. For instance, in the second precinct of the Third ward the box in which votes for the state ticket will be cast is marked "State" in large letters on top, and on either end the words "Tnird Ward, Second District."

Second District."

The new boxes are strongly constructed, one-inch black walnut dovetailed and glued together being used for the bottom and ends, while the sides are of half-inch plate glass. They are put together so that after the votes are counted and returned to the boxes by the judges each box may be locked by means of a Bohannon padlock. The key will be dropped through the aperture in the top, which will afterwards be closed by an ingeniously constructed automatic lock, and it will then be impossible to get at the ballots without breaking the boxes. The city clerk holds duplicate keys, which will be used when the official recount is made.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

The North St. Paul Cleveland and Thurman club met last evening, and for two hours indulged in an enthusiastic flow of harmony, interspersed with stirring speeches by E. St. Julien Cox, John H. Ives and others.

He had hardly left the store when Mr. Wagner discovered that he had been duped, and that the $5 bill was in reality a $1 bill, the figure one having been changed to a five. On discovering the trick that had been perpetrated upon him, he gave chase to the young man and succeeded in overhauling him. FIXED THE TAX LEVY.

Further Reductions Agreed Upon by the City Council.

WABASHA STREET BRIDGE.

Judges Selected for the Pall Elections No Cutting Down of the Street Force Estimates.

A special meeting of the city counci was held last evening for the purpose of adjusting the tax levy, which has so disturbed the minds of the city fathers during the past week. Alderman Bickel presided, and there were present Aldermen Melady, Minea, Yeorg, Bock, Cul-len, Fischer, Pratt, Sullivan, Leithauser and Sanborn. Comptroller Roche stated that the ommittee on ways and means had resolved upon a reduction of seven-tenths of one mill in the city tax levy estimate and three-tenths of one mill from the board of education estimate. The county auditor had counseled a reduction of two-tenths of one mill for county purposes. Mr. Roche suggested that five-tenths of one mill be deducted from the proposed one mill levy for the rebuilding of Wabasha street bridge, and the grand total tax levy for all purposes would be: Tenth assessment district 15.70 mills

Tenth assessment district.........15.70 mills
Ald. Melady—Does the reduction interfere with the wages of men employed on the streets? I oppose any such reduction, for the payments to these men is the best expenditures that we make.
Ald. Sanborn replied that the adoption of the tax levy did not deal with any such question as a reduction of wages to the street force. The resolution simply fixed the amount of money to be raised for all purposes. The street price estimate of last year has $127,000 and the committee on ways and means had fixed it this year at about $200,000,
a considerable increase.

The levy was then adopted.

An ordinance was read granting the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad company power to construct a railroad track across Chestnut street, which Ald. Bock proposed should be passed. Ald. Yeorg vigorously opposed this action, because the Milwaukee road had not been of so great a benefit to the city of St. Paul that they should be granted at once everything asked for. Let the matter be referred to the committee on streets, and if the commany deserve it.

Messrs. Minea, Weber, Sanborn, Pratt, Yeorg and Conley were appointed a committee to confer with the court house commissioners respecting the location of offices in the new court house.

It was decided that all supplies be presented by the presiding elders and re-ferred to the committee on admission. sented by the presiding elders and referred to the committee on admission. Presiding Elder F. J. Wagner, of the Minneapolis district, read his report. Elders from other districts passed in character and presented statistics. The interesting moment of the session was when the name of Dr. A. G. Smith, of St. Paul, was brought before the conference by Presiding Elder S. B. Warneeh, who said that Mr. Smith wished to withdraw. He moved that his withdrawal be accepted. Dr. Smith was present, and, being called for, said that for many years he had labored in the Methodist church and had done the best he could. He had only the kindest feelings for the Methodist church now, but he belived he could do better work elsewhere, and asked to have his withdrawal passed on by the conference. The general feeling towards Dr. Smith was of the kindliest nature by all who expressed themselves. Bishop Hurst said there existed throughout the conference the tenderest feeling for Dr. Smith on account of the work he had done in the church, and on account of his late bereavement. The bishop had received letters from prominent members of the church expressing the hope that Dr. Smith might retain his membership with the Methodists. He had acted honorably. Rev. John Pemberton, of Lake City, expressed his high regard for Mr. Smith, and thought the conference ought to extend sympathy in the loss of his beloved wife. Elder McCleary, of Fergus Falls, said many of the frontier ministers owed their warm clothes

Smith presented the credentials of Edwin Beel, of St. Paul, who withdrew from the ministry and the church. The reports of elders were then continued. Presiding elder, G. R. Hair, of Mankato district, made his report. Dr. William Butler, founder of Methodist missions in Mexico and India, and Rev. J. O. Peck, missionary secretary, were presented to the conference. Rev. J. H. Crum, of the First Congregational church, Winona, made a brief address of greeting. Rev. Dr. Gray, of the Freedman's Aid society, was also presented. The conference then adjourned. This afternoon the Freedman's Aid and Southern Educational society was handled by Rev. George W. Gray, D. D. The audience being so large, the First Congregational church kindly tendered their church for the evening services and the anniversary of the Missionary society was held there tonight. Interesting addresses were made by Rev. William Butler, D. D., Rev. Bishop J. H. Hurst, D. D., and Rev. J. O. Peck.

A Centenarian's Poe m. Co 1. George L. Perkins, the late cer tenarian railroad treasurer, of Nrowich, Conn., wrote the following poem in an autograph album a fortnight before he died. It is thought to be original with nim:

They soon grow old who grope for gold
In marts where all is bought and soid;
Who live for self and some shelf
In darkened vauits hoard up their pelf,
Cankered and crusted o'er with mould;
For them their youth itself is old. They ne'er grow old who gather gold Where springs awake and flowers unit They he er grow old who gather gold. Where springs awake and flowers unfold; Where suns arise in joyous skies And fill the soul within their eyes; For them, the immortal bards have sung; For them, old age itself is young.

Absolutely Necessary. It's absolutely necessary that men should be particularly careful in regard to the Underwear they wear, especially in this climate. The Boston is considered authority on the Underwear question. Their prices are unusually low, while their assortment is unusually large. His a good idea not to have any large. It's a good idea not to buy any Underwear without getting prices and seeing the assortment at the Boston-One-Price Clothing House, Third and Robert streets.

What is Scrofula

It is that impurity in the blood, which produces unsightly lumps or swellings on the glands of the neck; causes running sores on the arms, legs or feet; developes ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often caus-ing blindness or deafness; is the origin of cancerous growths, boils, pimples, or "humors." It is a more formidable enemy than consumption or cancer alone, for scrof-ula combines the worst possible features of both. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections How can it be cured? By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the cures it has accomplished, has proven itself a potent
