A Customs Report That Shows How the Masses are Robbed.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The following letter is published in the Post:

To the editor of the Washington Post: I have read the comment which the New York Herald and Evening Post have made upon the letter in which the Hon. Mr. Romero, minister from Mexico, declines to give an opinion on politics in the United States. As I notice that the Evening Post (alluding to the diplomatic corps) says that this "admirable answer" should be framed and sent to every foreign legation in Washington, I desire to state that the principle of international law which enjoins upon diplomatic representatives to abstain from all interference in matters relating to the internal politics of the states to which they are accredited, is the a b c of diplomacy, and is the basis of its rudimentary principle. Therefore should a diplomat deviate from this rule of the law of the nations, he would do so at his own will and regard to the necessary consequences or be disposed, in advance, to face them. Very respectfully, Francisco Laforest, Minister from Guatemala.

SACKVILLE'S MINE. The Ex-Minister Will Exploide It Before Leaving Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Lord Sackville, ex-minister for Great Britain, is still in Washington, and from all that can be learned is likely to remain for some days. All attempts to secure information from the legation are futile. It is learned, however, that he has announced his determination to give out a statement for publication before his departure. This statement will doubtless contain his views on Secretary Bayard's course, but it is not likely that it will be of any great importance from a political or diplomatic standpoint. There is a well-defined belief in diplomatic circles here that Lord Sackville has been assured by Lord Salisbury that his indiscretion will not cause him to be dealt with severely by the home government. In fact, a statement was made to-day by a gentleman who has been connected for years with the diplomatic service of the United States, to the effect that Lord Sackville will in all probability be sent to the mission at St. Petersburg. It has been intimated within the past few days that, in the light of past experience and the present diplomatic blunder, England will advance the United States mission to second, if not to the first class, and send a representative here who will be able to deal with every exigency that may arise. It is whispered, as one of the probable outcomes of the unpleasantness, that Lord Sackville may be made governor general of Canada.

TARIFF IS A TAX. A Customs Report Showing How the Surplus is Gathered.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The statement of the business transacted in each of the customs districts of the country for the past fiscal year, compiled by Supervising Special Agent Jewett, and which will accompany his annual report, shows the total customs collections for the year to have been $230,301,188, and that the total expense for collecting this revenue amounted to $8,522,579. The customs revenues collected during the past year aggregated $1,638,191 more than during the previous year, while the expenses for collection were $125,000 less. The percentage of cost of collecting the customs revenues of the country during the past year was .0293 per cent, and is the lowest since the year 1882.

REDUCTION OF THE DEBT.

Statement of Bond Purchases Under the April Circular.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Bond purchases by the treasury department during the past week amounted to $2,412,000, all of which were 4 1/2 per cent, at 108 1/2. About $3,000,000 of 4s were offered during the week, at prices ranging from 128 to 130, mainly at 128 1/2, but none of them were accepted. The purchases up to date, under the circular of last April, aggregate $92,159,850. Of this amount $51,292,000 were 4s, and $40,757,850 were 4 1/2 per cent. In round numbers the cost of the government $96,000,000, and the 4 1/2s $44,000,000. The treasury department monthly statement of changes in the circulation during October, shows a net increase in the circulation since October 1 of $23,531,388. There was a decrease of $2,300,057 in national bank note circulation during the month, and an increase in gold coin circulation amounting to $2,606,052; in standard silver dollars, $1,841,934; in gold certificates, $5,775,498; in silver certificates, $11,221,591, and in United States notes, $8,315,645. The entire circulation of the country—specie and paper—on November 1 is put at $1,407,571,668.

CASTLES IN THE AIR.

Count de Mikiewicz's Chinese Schemes Legally Aired.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—A branch of the case of Edward Abner against Count Eugene de Mikiewicz was before Judge Cox in the equity court to-day. Prior to leaving for China, the count transferred to Mr. Christy in trust all connections that might be obtained. He also transferred his interest in such contracts and agreements as existed between him (Mikiewicz) and Wharton Barker and his association in Philadelphia. This interest had a face value of $2,500,000, and there were three classes of beneficiaries, the family of the count, parties who had made advances and rendered services with respect to the interest, and the residue to any general creditors. The complainant seeks to subject the interest in the hands of Christy by writ of garnishment to condemnation to pay a judgment.

HOBBED WITH GROVER.

Brotherhood Engineers Shake the Hand of the Chief Magistrate.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Nine profusely decorated Pullman sleeping cars, bearing 50 delegates to the convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, rolled into the station this morning. All the cars bear banners and mottoes. On one side of the first car are the words: "Twenty-sixth annual convention, Denver, Col., Oct. 1889." Full life-size paintings of the train of the Brotherhood adorn the train. The same train has been used by the party ever since it left Chicago, nearly three weeks ago. The visitors passed the morning in viewing the places of interest about the city. They had arranged for a reception at the White House at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and at that hour, the great east room was thronged with the delegates and their families, who called to pay their respects to the chief magistrate.

JOY AMONG THE JOBBERS.

Iowa's Railroad Commissioners Render an Important Decision.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. DES MOINES, Mo., Nov. 3.—The most important decision ever made by the Iowa railroad commissioners was filed this morning in the case of the complainants of Davenport, Dubuque and Burlington jobbers. The commissioners reaffirm their schedule of June 28th in first, second, third, fourth, and fifth classes, and a, b, c, d and e classes, with the addition of the lumber rate in the Burlington case. The Western classification being adopted in lieu of the Illinois classification. The decision is signed by Commissioners Smith and Scholten. The commissioners deny refusing to sign on the ground that Fred Wilde of Davenport, secretary of the Twin Cities Freight association, in a letter dated Oct. 31, threatened him with the opposition of the jobbers unless he signed the decision by Friday, Nov. 2. "In this situation," says Dev. in a note to the press, "I am compelled by my feeling of self respect to decline, until after the election, to give any expression of my views upon the subject." The decision causes great rejoicing among the jobbers and manufacturers here, as it puts the commissioner's schedule in force despite the Brewer and Farrall injunctions.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—On account of the threatening rain there was not so large an attendance at Ivy City to-day as yesterday, but still the stand was very comfortably filled and the quarter stretch well lined with vehicles. The programme was a splendid one and the track in excellent condition. Although Pasha ran in Mr. Barrell's colors yesterday, he was sold by his owner, George M. Oyster, Jr., just before the race, to J. H. McCormick for $1,500 and his new owner won with him at the first asking. There was talk to-day of some extra days racing next week, but it was only among outsiders. The betting contingent, the legitimate followers of the races, and the trainers had their trunks packed, and their families with them, and were carrying around their grips ready to fly the moment the last horse passed the pole. The greatest surprise of the day was the first race, which was taken by a 6 to 1 chance.

RIFLED THE TREASURE BOX.

A Lone Robber Makes a Big Haul on the New Orleans & Northeastern Railway.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 3.—The United States Express messenger, on the train on the New Orleans & Northeastern railway, which arrived here this morning at 7 o'clock, was robbed at 5 a. m. between Lacey and Derby stations, fifty miles from this city. The express officials decline to state the amount of the robbery, but it is understood the loss is between $4,000 and $5,000. Between the stations above named, the robber entered the express car, where Henry McElroy, the baggage master, was sitting on a chest near the middle of the car, and Express Messenger Charles Lourey was at one end of the car, checking off freight. The robber came first to the baggage master, presented a pistol and quickly McElroy to hold up his hands. Quickly throwing a sack over McElroy's head, the robber gave his attention to the messenger, who was required at the point of a pistol to open the safe. A sack was then placed over the messenger's head, while the robber proceeded to the latter part of securing the money. Both McElroy and Lourey were required, under threat, to hold up their hands. After securing the contents of the safe, the robber pulled the bell rope, the train then being near Nicholson station, forty-five miles from the city. When the train stopped he left the car unobserved. The conductor did not start forward to ascertain, found the near end of the coach next to the baggage car locked, and the key left in the door, on the outside. When the express car was finally reached both McElroy and Lourey were found sitting on the floor, hands up and sacks over their heads. They were under the impression that the robber was still present. Only one robber was seen by Lourey.

HUSKY OLD HOGAN.

A Hoosier Bandit Holds a Possession of Officers at Bay With Rifle Bullets.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Nov. 3.—Armed with two shotguns, two revolvers, and unlimited ammunition, old Harrison Hogan, the terror of this part of the state, kept two deputy sheriffs at bay for several hours last Thursday, and according to the latest reports, is still holding his own. Hogan, who is over seventy years old, has been at war with the officers of the law for several years, the trouble originating in a divorce suit which his wife entered against him. He has refused to obey the orders of the court, and defies all efforts to arrest him. Thursday last Deputy Sheriffs Linek and Howell, disguising themselves as hunters, decided to make another attempt to capture the old man. They went to Bull creek, on which Hogan has a shanty-boat, and endeavored to lure him out by questioning him about the hunting in the neighborhood. Hogan was on the alert, however, and when the officers approached too near to his floating camp, he opened fire on them with shotgun and revolver. The deputies returned the fire, the battle raging until their ammunition was exhausted, when the officers retreated. Hogan declares that he will not be taken alive, and as the people in the vicinity are afraid of him, there is little likelihood that he will be captured except by an extended siege.

It is announced that St. Paul City will certainly have a club in the Western association next season. John S. Barnes left England Friday night and will arrive in New York this evening. It will be a wise move to have some one of this important position that is not otherwise connected with the association.

An Unwelcome Visitor.

A great commotion among pedestrians on East Seventh street was occasioned last evening by a runaway horse. When near Jackson street the animal broke away from the vehicle to which it was attached and dashed up the sidewalk on the south side of Seventh street, frightening men, women and children who happened to be passing, and demoralizing several show cases. At Seventh and Robert streets the horse slipped, fell headlong through the door of a cigar store, breaking a large plate glass and startling those who were inside. The intruder was ejected from the building with considerable difficulty.

KILLED BY A FALSE FRIEND.

Charles McKane Lured into the Mountains and Murdered by an Ex-Convict.

DAYTON, Col., Nov. 3.—About a week ago George Wetherell induced Charles McKane, of Pueblo, to start with him for the mountains to visit a mining camp. Nothing more was heard of McKane until yesterday when his mutilated remains were found in Beaver creek. His head had almost been severed with an axe, while his body was shockingly mangled. Wetherell had murdered his victim while he slept. He then abstracted $238 from McKane's pocket, stole his team and drove to Denver. He could not satisfactorily account for the team and the police arrested him on suspicion of being a horse thief, but when a bloody axe was found in his wagon, it appeared certain that he had committed murder. When the news of McKane's death was received, the suspicion was verified. Wetherell was sent to the penitentiary on a life sentence eighteen years ago, for the murder of a sheep herder, but under the law passed two years ago, making twenty-five years the maximum imprisonment for good behavior, secured his release. He was taken to Canon City last night and placed in the penitentiary, as there was talk of lynching him.

OVERCOATS FOR EVERYBODY

WE CAN SUPPLY ALL NATIONALITIES, THE AMERICANS with an "OVERCOAT," FRENCH with a "SURTOUT," SPANIARD with a "CAPA," ENGLISHMEN with a "GREAT COAT," SCANDINAVIANS with an "OVER FRUK," ITALIAN with a "ZIMARRA," GERMANS with an "UBERZIEHER," BELGIANS with an "OVERGUS," THE GREEK with a "I MATION," ROMAN with a "HABITUS SUPERIOR," CHINESE "DI LOW,"

Most of the readers of the GLOBE know that with November begins Minnesota's Winter, and have you not already prepared for winter? Be wise! Do not delay, but do so at once. The Over-Garment is of all Winter Clothing the garment that requires more care in selecting than any other. While it does not "Cover a Multitude of Sins" it does cover the multitude, not en masse, but singly, and may cover an old suit or new. One thing is certain, in Winter yours may be last season's and worse for wear. You may wear a Soft, Stiff Hat or Cap of any style, and need not be so particular about your shoes as in Summer, but to be well dressed you must wear a good-looking OVERCOAT. There are a variety of styles to select from in a large Clothing store, especially the one that shows more than any Two Houses in the Northwest. There is the FUR COAT, ULSTER OR STORM COAT, DOUBLE-BREADED SACK, FUR-TRIMMED SACK, PRINCE CHARLES COAT, FLY-FRONT SINGLE-BREADED SACK, CAPE COAT. Our particular theme to-day is FUR COATS. This being our first Winter in St. Paul, we intend to show the friends we have made (and they are legion) also the public generally, a model line of Fur and Fur-Lined COATS. We are determined to make this department a success in every sense of the word. Every Fur garment in our store was made to our order by the very best FUR COAT Manufacturing Concern in America; we except none; and every garment is sold with the guarantee to the purchaser that the skins used are perfect. We are backed up in this by the manufacturer, so the loss, if any, will be his. The line is complete. Dog Coats, Raccoon, Seal, Astrachan, Persian Lamb, Mink and Fur-Lined Garments. No trash sold. Cheap Furs are the poorest investment possible.

STORM COATS. There are thousands of men that do not want a FUR COAT, but the severity of Minnesota Winters necessitates a warm garment. Hence the STORM COAT. There is not a garment made for man's wear that insures more satisfaction and enjoyment, that embodies greater wearing qualities and is of more actual value to the purchaser. Cognizant of these facts, we have secured for this season the largest and finest assortment of these goods of every conceivable style ever shown in the Northwest. FUR-TRIMMED GARMENTS. The assortment is so immense that we stand ready to guarantee to all comers—All Nationalities—Absolute Satisfaction. HUNTSMAN, THE GUNSMAN, RYAN BUILDING, Cor. Seventh and Robert Sts., St. Paul, Minn.
