WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—The president talked quite freely about the returns and the increased Republican vote, but expressed not the slightest regret in the world at any action he had taken during his administration. He is willing to admit that his position on the tariff and decided stand he took in favor of revenue reduction may have lost him a good many votes, but he still maintains that if it were to do over again, he would follow the dictates of his own convictions. The bitterest pill the pres-

Their department towards the administration is a source of great disappointment to him. The president received no telegrams from New York city later than early in the afternoon. From what he has heard, however,

HE CONCEDES HIS DEFEAT. No man ever took defeat more philosophically. He lays his defeat to no one. Hill and Tammany hall, he says, treated him perfectly square, and he has no fault to find against them at all. The president and Col. Lamont left the executive mansion early in the evening and drove to Oak View, where the colonel remained until late in the evening. The bulletins and press reports were not sent to the mansion after 8 o'clock.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—Judge Thurman said to-night that so far as he himself was concerned he cared nothing for defeat. He much regretted the defeat of the party, however, because he foresaw the mischief the Republican party might do. Already he saw intimations in the Republican press of a return of the carpet bagging system in the South, and he feared the party if it obtained complete control of congress would seek to insure its continuance in power by admitting Dakota, Idaho and Montana.

HARRISON IS HAPPY. Still Success Has Not Enlarged the Head of the Hoosier.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—Gen. Harrison spent the evening in his library receiving election bulletins over the private wire running to the main office of the Western Union. During the afternoon a number of friends and neighbors dropped in to congratulate him. The rainwater has been a great safeguard to the general, so far as escaping midnight and noisy demonstrations around his residence. He was in a very cheerful frame of mind to-night, reading the bulletins complacently, and explaining, from time to time to the little group, the significance or importance of this or that statement or bulletin. Among his callers were Judge William A. Woods and wife and Mr. Fairbanks. John S. Harrison, of Kansas City, the general's only brother, arrived this morning, and was among the guests. All the members of the family were in and out of the library during the evening, as were Mrs. Harrison's guests, Mrs. Brown, of West Virginia, and Miss Strickle, of Dayton, O. About 11 o'clock the ladies retired, and it was not a great while thereafter before the general did likewise, leaving his son and Mr. McKee to sit up for the late returns. Some 950 precincts in Indiana had been heard from up to 6, being the state. The general figured a few moments and then stated, with some degree of satisfaction, that the average net gain of about six and three-fourths votes to the precinct was being maintained. At this rate Gen. Harrison's plurality will be in the vicinity of 6,000. Mr. Russell Harrison received a telegram to-night from Secretary Weed, of the Montana Republican committee, stating that either the Republican candidate for delegate to congress, was elected by a majority of 4,000, which is a change of 8,300 votes. Another telegram to Russell Harrison from Port Townsend, Washington territory, says that John Ballen, Republican candidate for delegate, had defeated Charley Voorhees, the son of Senator Voorhees. Additional local interest is felt at the defeat of Delegate Voorhees, from the fact that next week he will lead the altar one of the belles of the Hoosier capital.

NEW YORK. CALIFORNIA IS OURS. NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The following telegram was received at Democratic headquarters late to-night: "San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 7.—The Republican ticket has carried the state for Cleveland and Thurman by a safe majority." Wm. J. Foxworth, president of the state, was elected by every election district in this city, as follows: Harrison, Rep., 105,750; Cleveland, Dem., 102,983; Fisk, Pk., 1,283; Cowdry, Lab., 1,559.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The official vote of this city for county appeals justice is: Gray 103,244, Rumsey 87,467.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Republican national committee makes the following statement to the public: "The Republican National Headquarters, Nov. 7.—In view of the fact that telegrams to their local committees all over the state to that effect, the Republican national committee has directed the chairman of each county committee and the chairman of the state committee the following telegram: 'We are confident that the Republican ticket in the state show New York safe for Harrison by upwards of 15,000 plurality. The Democratic ticket is in a very bad way. We are claiming the state and urging them to pay attention to the returns. See to it that returns are sent in promptly. Do not allow the returns to be tampered with. Communicate with your local committee at once, if necessary by special messenger.' 'J. SLOAT FASSETT.'"

COUNTY MAJORITIES.

Table with 3 columns: County, Cleveland, Harrison. Lists majorities for various counties including Albany, Allegany, Broome, etc.

HERE ARE THE FIGURES.

Harrison's Majority in New York a Trifle Over Eleven Thousand. NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Sun of this morning will say that Harrison has 11,763 plurality in New York state, and that Hill has 18,932. It says that the next house of representatives will be evenly divided between the two parties that the official count will be necessary to decide which is in the majority. Its figures show that Indiana gives Harrison a plurality of about 2,000. Connecticut is Democratic by 1,000. The Tribune this morning says: "Revised returns of the vote for president, with careful estimates where authentic figures are lacking, give Harrison 11,000 plurality in this state."

INDIANA. ON THE RAGGED EDGE.

Hoosiers Are Speculating as to the Result in Their Own State. Special to the Globe. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 7.—There was no lack of noisy enthusiasm at the home of Gen. Harrison to-day. By 4 o'clock this morning the streets were pretty well cleared of the 50,000 men and boys that had been creating pandemonium from dusk of the evening before, but by 8 o'clock a godly number of them were out of doors again, apparently fresh and certainly ready for the fray. The rain, which fell almost without cessation throughout the day, did not dampen their ardor a bit. They surrounded the newspaper offices, packed into the political headquarters, blocked the street corners and paraded in mud and ankle deep. The prevailing bonfire was a paper 4 tag with the figures "547" in bold type, representing the number of votes that Gen. Harrison received in the decisive ballot in the Chicago convention. About everybody who wore a "Derby" had "547" inscribed upon its front in white chalk, and many had the same figures chalked on their backs. The inevitable rooster could be counted by the thousands. The tin horn brigade was out in force, and up town and down town, and from one end of the city to the other, the pedestrian could not go a block without being greeted with the refrain:

"EYE BYE, OLD GROVER." being asked to respond to the chestnut inquiry "What's the matter with Harrison?" Fortunately, for his own comfort, the noisy adherents of the prospective president elect kept away from the neighborhood of his residence. Probably this was fully in accord with his own wishes, but, nevertheless, it has been commented on as singular that, amid all the demonstrations of last night and to-day there was not a move as there was at the time of his nomination—toward giving him an impromptu reception at his own home. New York being considered as tolerably safe, public attention was more directly centered to-day upon this state. Last night it was claimed by both parties, the Democrats of the two being the most confident. The returns were remarkably slow in coming in from the start they indicated Republican gain. At the Republican headquarters, in addition to the reports collected by the Western Union, Chairman Huston received a special bulletin from the chairman of each county committee, while at the Democratic headquarters special reports from the principal election officers in each county had been arranged for. These differed materially in almost every instance from the bulletins received through the other channels. At noon when the telegraphic returns from 350 precincts showed a net gain of over 5,000, the reporters to the Democratic committee indicated a Democratic loss of twenty-five only. In getting our returns we do not depend upon the Western Union tabulations. They are not reliable, and not intended to be. They give them out as a matter of news, and I suppose, do the best they can. Our returns are official from every county. Our committee send them to us as soon as they can get them exactly."

AT 10:30 this evening the Democratic committee rooms were deserted. The janitor had full possession of the lower rooms. In the chairman's private room Mr. Jewett and three or four assistants were engaged in figuring on the result of the legislative and congressional ticket. Mr. Sheer has gone home, Chairman Jewett greeted the Associated Press correspondent pleasantly, and in answer to the suggestion that he might have something to say regarding the political situation in the state, said: "The indications are that the Republican electors have carried the state. The official count may show differently. The probability is that we have elected a part of our state ticket. We have elected ten congressmen, a gain of four. We have a certain majority in the state senate of six, and in the lower house of twenty, giving us control on joint ballot. I do not care to say anything about the methods by which this was accomplished."

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—Eight hundred and twenty precincts in Indiana give Harrison 128,877, Cleveland 120,837. Same precincts in 1884 gave Harrison 117,193, Cleveland 115,214.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—Complete returns from the Second ward of this city, Gen. Harrison's ward, give Harrison 1,650, Cleveland 1,345. Cleveland gave Blaine 229, Cleveland 229; net Republican gain, 200. The Third precinct of the Second ward, Gen. Harrison's precinct, gives Harrison 345, Cleveland 84, against Blaine 229, Cleveland 66; net Republican gain, 91 votes.

SURPRISE TO THE REPUBLICANS. It was carried by Blaine in 1884 by 228 plurality, although two years ago it gave Nelson, Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor, a plurality of 397. But as the home city of the Republican nominee for the presidency was a part of this county, it was confidently expected that it would come to the front with a resulting plurality for Harrison and the entire ticket. But the conditions are exactly reversed at 8 o'clock to-night; with eighty-six out of the ninety precincts officially reported and five of the six missing being strongly Democratic, Gen. Harrison's plurality is three, while the state and county Democratic tickets are elected by majorities ranging from 300 to 500. If the returns from the precincts yet to be heard from are on the basis of those of 1884 it is conceded at Republican headquarters that Gen. Harrison will lose his own county by 400 to 500. In his own precinct the vote was Harrison 345, Cleveland 84, while in the ward was carried by 730, a Republican gain of 300.

MAHON FLOYD, candidate for county treasurer, ran ahead of him in the ward by nine votes. Numerous dispatches from the national headquarters at this time were received at the committee rooms during the day. J. W. Dudley, wired Editor Halford that the empire state had gone Republican beyond a question and that any attempt at fraud would be resisted to the utmost. From Senator Gorman there came a dispatch to Chairman Jewett to the effect that errors had been discovered in the returns from Kings county which would give the state to Cleveland by 2,000. This was supplemented later in the day by the following dispatch from Chairman Brice to Secretary Sheerin: "It looks like 1884 over again."

NEWTON COUNTY, complete, net Republican gain 9. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 7.—The following dispatch was received from Chicago: Chicago, Nov. 7.—To Hon. Benjamin Harrison, Indianapolis, Ind.: Congratulations on your great victory and on the fact that the nomination of our country's next president is yours. Fair W. Peck.

Harrison, has received from the national Republican committee this afternoon, inquiring with regard to the correctness of the report accredited to Gen. Gorman, alleging the discovery of an error in the returns from Kings county, which, when rectified, will give New York state to the Democrats. Col. Bentley at 4 p. m. sent the following to Gen. Harrison: CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The full returns have been received from 27 counties out of 52, which show net Republican gain of 2,355. COLUMBUS.—Interest in election returns continues great. The bulletin boards at the Ohio State Journal and Dispatch offices were crowded with crowds of people who seemed to care little for the rain and mud, but stood anxiously awaiting the news and discussing it when it was received. Probably the coolest and most unexcited of the least interested man in the city was Judge Thurman, who spent his time in the same way he has done for the past few years, quietly reading in his library. He was free from opinions as to the result, and had not been paying much if any attention to the particulars of the election. Being asked for an expression of opinion by the editor of the Journal, he said: "The two state committees are still receiving returns from the state and figuring up the gains and losses. The Democrats are claiming a plurality of 25,000 to 30,000, and place their estimate on more or less complete returns from about half the counties in the state. On the other hand, the Democratic committee says that complete or conservative estimates of returns from twenty-two out of the eighty-eight counties give evidence of a Democratic gain of a little over 3,000, and that if this ratio of gain continues, which they scarcely dare hope, they will carry the state. At any rate, they say, there is no doubt about the result. The Republican plurality to a small figure. For congress the Democrats say their losses balance their gains, and there is as yet no certainty that they have not gained a net gain. The Democrats have twenty-eight tickets, but have gained in the Sixth and Tenth, and are not yet ready to concede their defeat in the other counties. The Republicans claim a net gain of one, having lost in the Tenth and gained in the Seventh and Twenty-first. These are the claims. So far as the actual knowledge or close estimating can tell, the representatives in the next congress from Ohio will be: Dutton, Rep.; Caldwell, Rep.; Williams, Rep.; Vard, Dem.; Dewey, Dem.; Morey, Rep.; Kennedy, Rep.; Cooper, Rep.; Hayes, Dem.; Thompson, Rep.; Pugsley, Rep.; Othwale, Dem.; Hays, Rep.; Owen, Dem.; J. D. Taylor, Rep.; McKinley, Rep.; E. R. Taylor, Rep.; Smyser, Rep.; Burton, Rep. This does not include the Sixth district, which is claimed by both committees. Moody, in the Seventh, is probably elected, but the Democrats say that late information from Butler county show great Democratic gains, and on that account they are not yet ready to concede the defeat of Battison. The Republicans claim Bothman's election in the Sixth district. Exact figures on state and county returns cannot yet be given. The Democrats say the Republican candidate for prosecuting attorney, Huling, is the only one of the ticket who has pulled through. He is the same man who was in the celebrated fall-sheet trials.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—The two committees are coming closer together in their estimates of the result in this state. At 11 o'clock the Democratic committee stated that they had reports from sixty-six out of the eighty-eight counties of the state, and that they had 6,000, leaving a Republican plurality of about 17,000. Some of the strongest Democratic counties had not yet been heard from, but the Republican plurality will be about 15,000. They concede the election of Morey, Rep., in the Seventh district and still claim the election of Salzbauer, Dem., in the Sixth, but there is not yet complete information in this last particular. Chairman Capeller, of the Republican committee gave a statement at a late hour to-night. He said that the Republican county committees from nearly every county in the state give a Republican plurality of 30,222 on the national ticket. No returns given on the state officers, but they will have probably about the same vote as Harrison. During the evening an unsigned message claiming New York for Cleveland added great anxiety to the crowd regarding the result.

MICHIGAN. DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 7.—Sufficient returns have been received from all the congressional districts in Michigan, with one exception, to insure the election of eight Republicans and two Democrats, a Republican gain of two. The districts are: First, Republican; Second, in doubt, and may require the official count to determine. J. Logan Chipman, Dem., is returned from the First district; Edward W. Allen, Rep., from the Second; James O'Donnell, Rep., from the Third; J. C. Burrows, Rep., from the Fourth; Mark S. Brewer, Rep., from the Sixth; J. R. Whiting, Dem., from the Seventh; and Byron M. Citcher, Rep., from the Ninth. Ford, Dem., is defeated in the Fifth district by Charles E. Belknap, and Tarney, Dem., in the Eighth by Aaron T. Bliss, S. M. Stephenson, Rep., success Seymour, Rep., in the Eleventh.

DETROIT, Nov. 7.—The Tribune estimates that the returns have been received at 22,000. Luce, for governor, runs about 8,500 behind his ticket. The Free Press estimates are practically the same as those given above.

KANSAS. NO JOKE ABOUT THIS. TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 7.—Returns have been received from every county in Kansas. An estimate by Chairman Booth from the reports received gives Harrison 70,000 majority over Cleveland and 65,000 for the entire Republican state ticket. The legislature is almost solidly Republican. The Republicans have elected all but four members, and two of these districts are in doubt. Every Republican senator is elected by two, one in Leavenworth and one in Labette county. There are thirty-eight opposition members in the present legislature. TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 7.—The Prohibition vote in Kansas in 1884 was 4,435 and in 1888 it was 8,094. It is estimated to be about 9,000 this year.
