

MINNEAPOLIS.

Additional City News on the Fifth Page.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

In the peculiar verbiage of an Evening Star reporter, Mayor Ames is made to call the police commission muddle a "sensational failure." In this same line of thought the mayor would probably refer to the recent Republican victory as an election failure.

At a public meeting the other afternoon a lady's name was proposed for vice-president. George A. Pillsbury had been elected president, and she objected strenuously to the use of her name. "Why, he's a Baptist," she said, "and you know I couldn't work with a Baptist."

The Pennsylvanians have organized a prosperous society. A great many of our prominent citizens came from "Pennsylvania," and this latest state association is likely to be one of the largest.

The newsboys may need a drinking fountain, but it would strike a candid observer that something not quite so monumental, but a great deal more practical in the shape of a home with educational facilities, would be better.

County Attorney Davis regards him self as a pin upon the mill in the trial of the Aldrich case after all that has been said, and there will be less of the "Whispering Pine" business in his oratory.

People are beginning to dread the possibility that Capt. Babb is going to look the town up on Sunday and throw the key in the well. The patrons of Sunday theaters will not, however, say far from St. Paul every seventh day, are showing signs of uneasiness.

Rev. W. W. Satterlee will carry with him the best wishes of the people of Minneapolis, and will be glad to see the good humor will be missed upon many a public occasion.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

The case against Ralph Cross, charged with embezzling from W. A. Edwards' installment house, was brought up again in the municipal court yesterday afternoon, and, after a hearing, Cross was held to the grand jury under $500 bonds.

Hank Keegan, and Dora Wittenhouse and Jessie Herban, arrested on a charge of lewd and indecent conduct by Officer Krummweide, Saturday night, were discharged, as the officer could not prove that the parties were doing anything wrong.

H. A. Walter, charged with assault and battery, by J. J. Carbeau, was dismissed for want of prosecution.

Gus Nordin was sent to the workhouse for six days, on being found guilty of lewd and indecent conduct.

Charles, Tyler, the young man charged with obtaining money from several street car conductors, was arrested yesterday, and gave bonds to appear Nov. 22.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

"To-morrow evening Rosina Vokes will have a change of bill. "In Honor Bound," "Uncle's Will" and "Pantomime Rehearsal" being given.

Robert Dowling will be seen at the Grand Thanksgiving week, supported by a brilliant company. The program for the following day, "Spartacus," Tuesday, "Julius Caesar" (Mr. Downing as Marc Antony), Wednesday, "Virginia"; Thursday, "Thursdays Child," Saturday, "Friday," "Julius Caesar"; Saturday matinee, "Ingomar," and Saturday night, "Spartacus." Each play will be hand-some and well staged. The sale of seats opens Friday.

A FAITHFUL SISTER.

Devoted to Her Brother Even Unto Death.

Mrs. Nellie Ranson was buried yesterday morning from the Church of the Immaculate Conception. It is seldom that the world is treated to the spectacle of such unselfish devotion and sisterly love as was shown in the life and death of this woman. Three years ago her brother, William Myrick, shot and killed Peter Gross. She was then in California, a widow and without means, but she came to her brother's rescue and saved him from prison. She means she had and raised funds to secure him legal aid. His wife died and she took charge of the children. He was committed to the penitentiary, and she went to work to secure his pardon. She imperturbedly acquiesced in his behalf, and enlisted the aid of influential friends. Those who cared little for him and their sins, she tried to arouse by her plaintive appeal. She became worn and sick, and at one time it looked as though she could not live to see her work accomplished. At last she was pardoned, and then she said she could die contented, as he was restored to his children. She had finally won herself away by the time the funeral went into a decline, dying Monday morning.

When she came to Minneapolis three years ago she was a Protestant. In her home she was a member of the Sisters of Mercy, and her brother's children were placed in the Catholic orphan asylum. The kindness of the sisters affected her greatly, and six months ago she was baptized in the Catholic church and died in that faith.

NEWS TO QUINLAN.

He Is Surprised by It, and Thinks It Was Said to Injure Him.

So, I see an office is to be created for my benefit, said Detective Mike Quinlan, as he walked up street with a copy of the GLOBE in his hand. "Who in the world has been filling you up with trash like that? I think whoever gave you that must have been the worst enemy I have."

"Is there nothing in it?" "Not a thing. Though I know nothing about it, I am sure in saying there is not a bit of truth in it. It must have been told to the GLOBE to injure my case, to make capital against me."

It should be said, in justice to Detective Quinlan, that he was not consulted when the article was written, and the only intimation that he was concerned in its publication does him injustice. It may also be stated that the "prominent Republican" was not an enemy of Quinlan, but gave out the matter as a piece of news.

THE PENNSYLVANIANS.

A Society Composed of Former Citizens of the Keystone State.

The former residents of the Keystone state now living in Minneapolis have organized a Pennsylvania society, with the following officers: President, John M. Miller; first vice, Dr. D. A. Bull; second vice, J.G. McFarland; secretary, Charles D. Moyer; treasurer, O. J. Griffith; executive committee, Judge J. P. Rea, Dr. A. L. Bauman, George E. Kirkbride, J. M. Gilmore and Col. George Ripley. The members of the society are made of the several thousand Pennsylvanians in Minneapolis, and monthly reunions are to be held between September and May, inclusive.

They Were Disorderly.

Harry King and Mrs. M. A. Mitchell were the names given by a man and woman arrested in the municipal court yesterday morning on a charge of disorderly conduct. The two had been found making a disturbance in a somewhat notorious house on Third street south, near Seventh avenue. They were fined $10 each.

Got One Year.

Christ Smith was for one time manager of A. Booth & Son's fish market on Hennepin avenue, and who was indicted for embezzlement, pleaded guilty yesterday, and was sentenced to serve one year in state prison, and was taken to Stillwater last evening by the sheriff.

WHEN WILL IT END?

Does the Police Commission Extort Money From Pugilistic Managers?

Cash Must Come Down or No Fight Goes at Washington Rink.

A System of Blackmail That Has Been Regularly Carried On.

The Commission Cannot Clear Its Official Skirts Any Too Soon.

"It's rank blackmail! I'll never pay it!"

The speaker was Dominick McCaffrey, the well-known pugilist. His eyes flashed and his attitude was determined.

"If any one wants to pay this $300 to see the fight go on, all right, but I will never do it."

The $300 that McCaffrey refused to put up was a sum of money demanded by the police commission, as he supposed, for protection. Really it was a bold piece of blackmail that the police commission should use its detective force to locate.

It will be no surprise to the Talent and Fancy, but will the good people of Minneapolis who have been upholding the police commission believe the statement that before any glove fight can occur at the Washington rink, there must be a good round sum "put up to square the police commission?"

Who gets the money is another matter. It may never reach the police commission, but in the name of the police commission it is extorted, and unless paid the fight will not be given.

It is in the neighborhood of $250. In the present case it is $300, and McCaffrey, after consulting an attorney, declares he will not pay a cent before he will be led in any such way.

Glove fights are not unlawful. There is no license tax imposed. The money demanded in the name of the police commission is simply an extortion, for it is accompanied by the threat that unless forthcoming the fight will be stopped. A plea of disorderly conduct would not help in this case.

Charles, Tyler, the young man charged with obtaining money from several street car conductors, was arrested yesterday, and gave bonds to appear Nov. 22.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

"To-morrow evening Rosina Vokes will have a change of bill. "In Honor Bound," "Uncle's Will" and "Pantomime Rehearsal" being given.

Robert Dowling will be seen at the Grand Thanksgiving week, supported by a brilliant company. The program for the following day, "Spartacus," Tuesday, "Julius Caesar" (Mr. Downing as Marc Antony), Wednesday, "Virginia"; Thursday, "Thursdays Child," Saturday, "Friday," "Julius Caesar"; Saturday matinee, "Ingomar," and Saturday night, "Spartacus." Each play will be hand-some and well staged. The sale of seats opens Friday.

A FAITHFUL SISTER.

Devoted to Her Brother Even Unto Death.

Mrs. Nellie Ranson was buried yesterday morning from the Church of the Immaculate Conception. It is seldom that the world is treated to the spectacle of such unselfish devotion and sisterly love as was shown in the life and death of this woman. Three years ago her brother, William Myrick, shot and killed Peter Gross. She was then in California, a widow and without means, but she came to her brother's rescue and saved him from prison. She means she had and raised funds to secure him legal aid. His wife died and she took charge of the children. He was committed to the penitentiary, and she went to work to secure his pardon. She imperturbedly acquiesced in his behalf, and enlisted the aid of influential friends. Those who cared little for him and their sins, she tried to arouse by her plaintive appeal. She became worn and sick, and at one time it looked as though she could not live to see her work accomplished. At last she was pardoned, and then she said she could die contented, as he was restored to his children. She had finally won herself away by the time the funeral went into a decline, dying Monday morning.

NEWS TO QUINLAN.

He Is Surprised by It, and Thinks It Was Said to Injure Him.

So, I see an office is to be created for my benefit, said Detective Mike Quinlan, as he walked up street with a copy of the GLOBE in his hand. "Who in the world has been filling you up with trash like that? I think whoever gave you that must have been the worst enemy I have."

"Is there nothing in it?" "Not a thing. Though I know nothing about it, I am sure in saying there is not a bit of truth in it. It must have been told to the GLOBE to injure my case, to make capital against me."

It should be said, in justice to Detective Quinlan, that he was not consulted when the article was written, and the only intimation that he was concerned in its publication does him injustice. It may also be stated that the "prominent Republican" was not an enemy of Quinlan, but gave out the matter as a piece of news.

THE PENNSYLVANIANS.

A Society Composed of Former Citizens of the Keystone State.

The former residents of the Keystone state now living in Minneapolis have organized a Pennsylvania society, with the following officers: President, John M. Miller; first vice, Dr. D. A. Bull; second vice, J.G. McFarland; secretary, Charles D. Moyer; treasurer, O. J. Griffith; executive committee, Judge J. P. Rea, Dr. A. L. Bauman, George E. Kirkbride, J. M. Gilmore and Col. George Ripley. The members of the society are made of the several thousand Pennsylvanians in Minneapolis, and monthly reunions are to be held between September and May, inclusive.

They Were Disorderly.

Harry King and Mrs. M. A. Mitchell were the names given by a man and woman arrested in the municipal court yesterday morning on a charge of disorderly conduct. The two had been found making a disturbance in a somewhat notorious house on Third street south, near Seventh avenue. They were fined $10 each.

Got One Year.

Christ Smith was for one time manager of A. Booth & Son's fish market on Hennepin avenue, and who was indicted for embezzlement, pleaded guilty yesterday, and was sentenced to serve one year in state prison, and was taken to Stillwater last evening by the sheriff.

STILL ANOTHER DELAY.

Tommy Kelly Turned Up in Court Without Any Attorney.

A FEW DAYS' RESPIRE.

The Aldrich Case Goes on Trial To-Day.

---The Davison Gang Will Testify.

LONG ON OPINION.

The Big Market Manipulators Prefer That to a Cash Shortage.

Col. G. D. Rogers is not only a close observer of the wheat and flour situation, but is also a quaint commentator. His disquisition on the Pillsbury circular and "Old Huteh's" ideas yesterday is pretty good reading.

It was that great stand with money in the way of sinking wheat values appears to have retired and given full play to the active bear forces. It has not required large forethought for the last few weeks to catch the drift.

But the case of the state against ex-Licenses Inspector Thomas J. Kelly, who is under indictment for misappropriation of public funds, was set for trial yesterday. Kelly was indicted over a year ago for this offense, but the case has been continued time after time until the matter of setting the case for trial was postponed.

It was that great stand with money in the way of sinking wheat values appears to have retired and given full play to the active bear forces. It has not required large forethought for the last few weeks to catch the drift.

But the case of the state against ex-Licenses Inspector Thomas J. Kelly, who is under indictment for misappropriation of public funds, was set for trial yesterday. Kelly was indicted over a year ago for this offense, but the case has been continued time after time until the matter of setting the case for trial was postponed.

It was that great stand with money in the way of sinking wheat values appears to have retired and given full play to the active bear forces. It has not required large forethought for the last few weeks to catch the drift.

But the case of the state against ex-Licenses Inspector Thomas J. Kelly, who is under indictment for misappropriation of public funds, was set for trial yesterday. Kelly was indicted over a year ago for this offense, but the case has been continued time after time until the matter of setting the case for trial was postponed.

It was that great stand with money in the way of sinking wheat values appears to have retired and given full play to the active bear forces. It has not required large forethought for the last few weeks to catch the drift.

But the case of the state against ex-Licenses Inspector Thomas J. Kelly, who is under indictment for misappropriation of public funds, was set for trial yesterday. Kelly was indicted over a year ago for this offense, but the case has been continued time after time until the matter of setting the case for trial was postponed.

It was that great stand with money in the way of sinking wheat values appears to have retired and given full play to the active bear forces. It has not required large forethought for the last few weeks to catch the drift.

But the case of the state against ex-Licenses Inspector Thomas J. Kelly, who is under indictment for misappropriation of public funds, was set for trial yesterday. Kelly was indicted over a year ago for this offense, but the case has been continued time after time until the matter of setting the case for trial was postponed.

It was that great stand with money in the way of sinking wheat values appears to have retired and given full play to the active bear forces. It has not required large forethought for the last few weeks to catch the drift.

But the case of the state against ex-Licenses Inspector Thomas J. Kelly, who is under indictment for misappropriation of public funds, was set for trial yesterday. Kelly was indicted over a year ago for this offense, but the case has been continued time after time until the matter of setting the case for trial was postponed.

It was that great stand with money in the way of sinking wheat values appears to have retired and given full play to the active bear forces. It has not required large forethought for the last few weeks to catch the drift.

But the case of the state against ex-Licenses Inspector Thomas J. Kelly, who is under indictment for misappropriation of public funds, was set for trial yesterday. Kelly was indicted over a year ago for this offense, but the case has been continued time after time until the matter of setting the case for trial was postponed.

It was that great stand with money in the way of sinking wheat values appears to have retired and given full play to the active bear forces. It has not required large forethought for the last few weeks to catch the drift.

But the case of the state against ex-Licenses Inspector Thomas J. Kelly, who is under indictment for misappropriation of public funds, was set for trial yesterday. Kelly was indicted over a year ago for this offense, but the case has been continued time after time until the matter of setting the case for trial was postponed.

It was that great stand with money in the way of sinking wheat values appears to have retired and given full play to the active bear forces. It has not required large forethought for the last few weeks to catch the drift.

But the case of the state against ex-Licenses Inspector Thomas J. Kelly, who is under indictment for misappropriation of public funds, was set for trial yesterday. Kelly was indicted over a year ago for this offense, but the case has been continued time after time until the matter of setting the case for trial was postponed.

It was that great stand with money in the way of sinking wheat values appears to have retired and given full play to the active bear forces. It has not required large forethought for the last few weeks to catch the drift.

But the case of the state against ex-Licenses Inspector Thomas J. Kelly, who is under indictment for misappropriation of public funds, was set for trial yesterday. Kelly was indicted over a year ago for this offense, but the case has been continued time after time until the matter of setting the case for trial was postponed.

It was that great stand with money in the way of sinking wheat values appears to have retired and given full play to the active bear forces. It has not required large forethought for the last few weeks to catch the drift.

But the case of the state against ex-Licenses Inspector Thomas J. Kelly, who is under indictment for misappropriation of public funds, was set for trial yesterday. Kelly was indicted over a year ago for this offense, but the case has been continued time after time until the matter of setting the case for trial was postponed.

It was that great stand with money in the way of sinking wheat values appears to have retired and given full play to the active bear forces. It has not required large forethought for the last few weeks to catch the drift.

But the case of the state against ex-Licenses Inspector Thomas J. Kelly, who is under indictment for misappropriation of public funds, was set for trial yesterday. Kelly was indicted over a year ago for this offense, but the case has been continued time after time until the matter of setting the case for trial was postponed.

It was that great stand with money in the way of sinking wheat values appears to have retired and given full play to the active bear forces. It has not required large forethought for the last few weeks to catch the drift.

But the case of the state against ex-Licenses Inspector Thomas J. Kelly, who is under indictment for misappropriation of public funds, was set for trial yesterday. Kelly was indicted over a year ago for this offense, but the case has been continued time after time until the matter of setting the case for trial was postponed.

It was that great stand with money in the way of sinking wheat values appears to have retired and given full play to the active bear forces. It has not required large forethought for the last few weeks to catch the drift.

But the case of the state against ex-Licenses Inspector Thomas J. Kelly, who is under indictment for misappropriation of public funds, was set for trial yesterday. Kelly was indicted over a year ago for this offense, but the case has been continued time after time until the matter of setting the case for trial was postponed.

It was that great stand with money in the way of sinking wheat values appears to have retired and given full play to the active bear forces. It has not required large forethought for the last few weeks to catch the drift.

But the case of the state against ex-Licenses Inspector Thomas J. Kelly, who is under indictment for misappropriation of public funds, was set for trial yesterday. Kelly was indicted over a year ago for this offense, but the case has been continued time after time until the matter of setting the case for trial was postponed.

It was that great stand with money in the way of sinking wheat values appears to have retired and given full play to the active bear forces. It has not required large forethought for the last few weeks to catch the drift.

But the case of the state against ex-Licenses Inspector Thomas J. Kelly, who is under indictment for misappropriation of public funds, was set for trial yesterday. Kelly was indicted over a year ago for this offense, but the case has been continued time after time until the matter of setting the case for trial was postponed.

FURS--SEALS--FURS.

Just a Little Article on This Subject to the Public.

ALDRICH'S BARGAINS.

There are many good, reliable fur dealers in the United States, but a greater number of unreliable ones, and they all claim to sell only the best Alaska seal, best London-dyed. Now the majority of those dealers do not know the true meaning of those few words, and I will be charitable enough to admit it is ignorance on their part that causes them to so grossly misrepresent themselves, or it must be the other. If those dealers can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as H. Liebes & Co., of San Francisco, why do they not sell in San Francisco and other large cities? It is a well known fact that there is no better or so good a market in the world for sealskin garments and other fine furs as San Francisco. Now the firm of H. Liebes & Co. do sell, not alone in their own city, but in large or small city or town in the United States. Why and how is it that they can sell their goods as cheap as