

Secretary Bayard Requests the Consul-General at Samoa to Resign.

The Reason Given Is His Lack of Harmony With the Department.

Sewall Points Out How Bayard Is Toadying to Princes Bismarck.

Germany Means to Annex Samoa and the Hawaiian Islands as Well.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—A reporter called this afternoon upon Mr. Sewall and asked for a statement of the reasons given by the state department in its request that he should tender his resignation as consul general at Samoa. Mr. Sewall in reply said: "The reason given in the letter asking my resignation, is the disagreement of my express views with the views entertained by the state department, in regard to Samoan affairs. This refers, I suppose, to the testimony I have given before the senate committee on foreign relations, and which has not yet been published. No disapproval of my conduct in Samoa as consul general has ever been expressed by the state department, so far as I know, and, indeed, it will appear from the communication sent to congress in regard to the situation of affairs at Samoa, that the department wrote me commending my course in the trying and delicate position, as it was styled, in which I was placed during the deposition of Malietoa, at the time of the conference of the powers. Only two months ago, when I requested that my leave of absence be granted, the report was made for the reason, as stated, that the situation of affairs in Samoa rendered my presence there inadvisable, suggesting no doubt even then of my resignation.

SEWALL IN THE SOUP

As is well known I was on my way to my post when summoned to Washington to testify before the senate committee. Last Thursday I was discharged by the committee, and affairs in Samoa being in a most critical condition, I immediately made arrangements to return to my post. No objection was given me that I should not be allowed to do so until within a few hours of my intended departure, when I was notified to remain here. The purpose was obvious. My services were needed immediately, if at all. Another steamer would not sail until March, and it was the evident intention to detain me until after the incoming of the next administration, upon which, as is known, I have not the slightest influence. Mr. Bayard, however, continued Mr. Sewall, "I did not thereupon tender my resignation. I had done nothing wrong. I had no respect for Mr. Bayard's assumption that I had offended him by my testimony before the committee. Besides, I was under oath to tell all I knew of Samoan affairs and to withhold nothing. The views I expressed on the situation and the remedy necessary were given at the request of the committee. It was not for me to consider whether my views were agreed with Mr. Bayard's or not. I do know, however, that my views coincide with those of all Americans who have given the matter any thought, and that the department's intention to detain me had no other object than to prevent me from attending that conference. The purpose of Germany is to

SECURE CONTROL OF SAMOA.

In defiance of the solemn repeated assurances it has given to our government. Furthermore, I believe that Lord Salisbury is a party to this scheme and that the movement against Samoa is the result of a concerted effort to man attempt to secure supremacy in the Hawaiian Islands. "What, in your opinion, Mr. Sewall, will be the result of the German ultimatum to protect our interests in Samoa?" "I concur with Mr. Bates, our late commissioner to Samoa, in his published opinion, that the German ultimatum is a plain nothing under his instructions from the state department. Mr. Bayard expects Admiral Kimberly to succeed in the attempt to force Germany to try without success to do for a year."

DOES MR. BAYARD SUPPOSE A PROTEST

is made by Germany and from the fact that he has been steadily pursuing? Commanders Leary and Mullen have been re-elected with contempt, does any one expect Admiral Kimberly will be treated better? "What do you believe should be done?" "I believe, with Secretary Whitney, that a definite policy should be adopted, and that our ships there with only their present instructions is simply to subject their officers and men to humiliation as Secretary Whitney has done in polite term of respect. I suppose, to Mr. Bayard terms 'irritating conditions' from which they self-respect makes them refuse to accept any more. Bayard cannot punish Secretary Whitney or Mr. Bates. Informer Le Caron Says He's a Spy in England's Service.

Special Cable to the Globe. VIENNA, Feb. 7.—The following is published as the authentic details regarding the tragic death of Crown Prince Rudolf: Arch Duke Rudolf had paid court to the beautiful Baroness Marie Vetsera for four months, and it is stated that Countess Wallersee Larisch, a niece of Empress Elizabeth, encouraged the liaison. Baroness Marie had a romantic and nervous temperament and was devoted to Rudolf. The pair started in a closed carriage, drawn by two horses, on the 28th of January for Meiringen. They spent the next day together, and on the morning of the 30th both were found dead in the prince and Marie was shot through the forehead, and Rudolf as already described. It is evident that the guilty couple resolved to die together. The coverlet of the bed was strewn with flowers. The body of the baroness was taken secretly from the chateau to the gamekeeper's cottage, and was removed from thence for burial. The Vetsera family left Vienna Saturday for Venice, where they will probably hereafter live.

THE FIRST TELEGRAM RECEIVED AT THE VATICAN

simply announced the death of the prince. The telegram which he himself wrote four-line reply, at the time that was especially noteworthy, the pope being hardly able to hold a pen. In the following day a long telegram from the pope to the emperor agreed to decide a quarrel by a duel with dice, how he had lost, and, in compliance with the terms of the agreement, the emperor, who is his holiness immediately summoned a conclave of cardinals. After a long discussion it was decided that only one deceased should be permitted to fight a duel. This decision having been agreed, permission to bury the dead prince with religious rites was granted. Emperor Francis Joseph received the news with the deepest gratitude, and sent a dispatch in reply saying that his holiness had spared him the greatest grief.

WITH TEARS IN HIS EYES

Emperor Francis Joseph Thanks the Reichsrath for the Condolence Tendered by It. VIENNA, Feb. 7.—The emperor to-day received the presidents of the two houses of the reichsrath and thanked them for the condolence tendered by those bodies on the death of crown prince Rudolf. President Smolka, in the lower house, described the emperor as deeply affecting. The emperor, with sobs in his voice, said: "All the people of Austria have displayed to me the deepest sympathy and such patriotism and attachment to the dynasty as, next to my trust in the Almighty, will prove the best means to the achievement of the harsh stroke of destiny I will continue conscientiously to fulfill the duties of a sovereign. How can I be sufficiently grateful that such a helpmate was given me? Tell this to everybody. The more you spread the news, the more I will be gratified."

BALFOURISM UPHOLD.

Salisbury's Government Will Not Desert the Tyrannical Irish Secretary. Special Cable to the Globe. LONDON, Feb. 7.—The members of the government held a cabinet meeting of two hours' duration to-day. The programme for the coming session was discussed, but most of the time was given to a conference on Irish matters. The vast numbers of public meetings held both in Ireland and England to express indignation at Mr. Balfour's savage treatment of William O'Brien, have caused some of the cabinet members, and government, who deplore the opportunity given the enemy to create an overwhelming feeling in their favor. It is believed, however, that Mr. Balfour's course in Ireland was upheld, as any visible backing down on the part of the government, at present, would reflect on the cabinet. It is possible that changes may take place at a near date in the cabinet and with the changes of the personnel, a slightly different course might be possible. AN OBJECT OF CONTEMPT.

Illinois Pharmacists Have No Use for Informer Le Caron. CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—Le Caron is at present an object of the most earnest contempt in the eyes of many pharmacists of the state of Illinois, a city of Chicago. He was president of the State Pharmaceutical association in 1888, and before and since then he has been making endeavors to secure, through the association, an appointment as a member of the state board of medicine. At the convention at Peoria last August he failed to secure the recommendation of the association for the position and was expelled from the association. It is possible that changes may take place at a near date in the cabinet and with the changes of the personnel, a slightly different course might be possible. HISTORY OF THE INFORMER.

Le Baron Beach, Alias Le Caron, Well Known in Detroit. DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 7.—Beach, the witness before the Parnell commission, is well known here. His name is Henri Le Baron, and he was a major in a Union regiment during the war of the rebellion. In the blowing up of London Fenian road at Ridgeway, Ont., in 1882 or 1888. He afterward entered as a student in the Detroit Medical college and graduated in 1872. When he left here he went to practice medicine in an Illinois town some distance from Chicago. Mrs. Lomasney, who lives at 227 B street, said this morning that she had never known Le Caron as a dynamiter, and that in his oral and published opinions for many years he had strongly objected to the use of explosives as means to achieve a man's freedom. She also said that his brother Michael, whom Beach, the informer, had said was implicated with her husband in the blowing up of London Fenian bridge, died in St. Louis, Mo., in 1881, leaving a widow and four children. DOCTOR LE CARON CONTINUES THE RELATION OF HIS STORY REFLECTING ON THE IRISH.

Special Cable to the Globe. LONDON, Feb. 7.—Dr. Le Caron continued his testimony to-day before the Parnell commission. Sir Charles Russell asked if the evidence Le Caron was giving was evidence against the Parnellites. Attorney General Webster held that the organizations referred to were all one, and that the evidence was admissible. Sir Henry James also held that the witness' alleged conversation with Parnell made his evidence admissible. Parnell had requested the witness to do certain things when he arrived in America, and it had been proved that the witness had been car-

READY TO RESIGN.

Special to the Globe. WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Mr. Sewall, when seen to-night, said: "I am thoroughly sincere when I say that I am glad of to-day's developments. My formal resignation will be sent to the state department to-night, and I will state that I have been freed from a humiliating position. I have no grievance against the Americans. A

ALLEGED BURGLAR-PROOF SAFES A SOFT MARK FOR EXPERIENCED CRACKSMEN.

WEST SUPERIOR, WIS., FEB. 7.—EARLY this morning burglars effected an entry into the residence of a prominent citizen by removing a pane of glass from a back window, blew open an alleged burglar-proof safe and escaped with nearly $175 in currency. This burglary, with other recent perpetrations of a similar nature, indicate the existence of a class of professional burglars, and the police have assumed the role of detectives, following up clues which will doubtless lead to the apprehension of the party or parties. During the past few weeks three safes have been blown and their contents carried off. Several private and banking houses were also burglarized, and other petty crimes committed, but in no case has the slightest clue to the perpetrators been obtained. Yesterday, however, a search instituted by the police resulted in the discovery in a suspicious-looking shanty near the docks of articles of clothing and other property to considerable value. The furniture was placed under arrest to await examination, to be held to-morrow.
