

MINNEAPOLIS.

ALL SORTS.

F. B. Ames, in deeding land to the city for the North side pumping station, made a blunder that deeded away his entire farm. And still the board of directors thinks the best city gets is the worst of it in deals made by our council.

Minnesota Methodists will banquet at the Holmes in May. The manager will undoubtedly be placed under bonds to prevent wine being served.

The date of prize fighting in Minneapolis is indeed settled. Tickets to the hanging be brought triple the price of the prize money to the Needham-Gilmore matinee.

The Barretts have been hung, and now the festive evening paper will have to drop back to the house and the gory option joints for their wild-eyed staccato sensations.

The breadth of Ald. Bradish's joke in introducing the police commission yesterday until it began to look as if F. J. might "make a winning."

It is a constant source of grief to Ald. Love, which forces him to oppose base ball on moral grounds and allows him to vote "wet" on extension of the patrol limits, is so qualified by the freakiness of the "blatant" courtesy which compelled certain aldermen to vote with Mr. Love on the base ball matter because it was in his ward, and allowed the police commission to vote on the more important matter of extending the liquor district in the same ward.

AMUSEMENTS.

Matinees at all the theaters to-day. Sutton's Double Union Tom's Cabin Company drew a fair sized audience at the Hennepin theater last evening.

Mr. J. A. Anderson, of Ashland, Wis., is an Ardmore guest.

AT THE HOTELS.

T. P. Gleason is at the Windsor from Mankato.

George Wilson and family are guests at the Holmes from Republic, Minn.

MEREY POSTPONED.

Ald. Loye Gets Himself in the Way of the Base Ball Ordinance.

But It Will Go Through With Flying Colors at the Next Meeting.

The Same Obstructionist Desires an Extension of the Patrol Limits.

Hazen Made Building Inspector and Mortimer Police Commissioner.

No sooner was the council meeting called to order yesterday afternoon, than Ald. Woodward moved suspension of the rules, which was obtained by a vote of 31 to 3, and presented an amendment to the ordinance providing for the building of the base ball ground, seats and fence on the block back of the West hotel. The ordinance was given one reading and Ald. Woodward then moved to give it a second reading and put it upon passage until further suspension of rules, but President Johnson ruled that this could only be done by unanimous consent, and as Ald. Loye objected, the matter was laid over.

Anti-Base Ball Aldermen Vote to Extend Patrol Limits.

The legislative committee who had been entrusted with the investigation of a petition to extend the patrol limits up Hennepin from Sixth to Tenth streets, reported against requesting any such extension, and offered a resolution requesting the Hennepin council to make a relative delegation to oppose any attempt to extend the territory in which liquor licenses can be granted in Minneapolis.

A Building Inspector, That Responsible Position.

The committee on examination of building inspector reported that J. T. Baker, Charles F. Ferrin, J. Haley, F. B. Hart and J. P. Kinsey had been granted certificates of competency. The report was accepted and placed on file. Kinsey, Hart, J. T. Baker, Ferrin, Haley and Hart were all nominated for building inspector when the matter came up and it had been voted to proceed with the election of that official.

Assistant City Attorney Hall explained that any man who is elected to the place must be examined and admitted before the regular committee and also to present a certificate. Ald. Vandewalker stated that he was not a member of the committee, but that he was a deliberate attempt on the part of the committee to shut out a man who had passed a satisfactory examination, because he was a Democrat.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBES.

There was a $25 fire in the roof of the frame boarding house at 119 South First street at 9 o'clock last night.

"COMRADE" MORTIMER.

The Republican Ward Hustler Elected Police Commissioner.

Ald. Bradish moved to elect one police commissioner, and the motion was carried. Ald. Perry nominated E. W. Mortimer, city passenger agent on the Kansas City road, and the nomination was seconded by Ald. Vogt.

Ald. Bradish said: "We now have a chief of police a man with a long stiff back and plenty of brains at the top of it, and a man of similar qualifications in the board of commissioners. I nominate as such a man, Fred Barrows, of the city."

The next ballot the G. A. R. man and Lane were even with 10 votes each, and the vote went up from 2 to 4. On the next ballot the "comrade" racket began to tell, and on the fifth Mortimer was elected, getting 22 votes. The ballots were as follows:

Table with 5 columns: Name, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5. Rows: Mortimer (22), Barrows (10), etc.

WILL BE PAID.

The Contractors for Eighth Ward Work Get Their Money.

The Eighth ward injunction chestnut came up for another hearing yesterday, when one of the aldermen from that ward moved that the proper city officers be ordered to draw warrants in favor of W. J. Bowen, Roach & Wilson and Charles Fiteau, whose claims the city had been enjoined from paying, but which, thanks to the enabling act passed by the legislature, could now be paid.

HERE'S NERVE.

The City Clerk Wants to Be Re-elected Into Another Term.

Ald. Hunter and some one else, presumably Clerk Haney, sprung a very nice little scheme in the form of a resolution purporting to have the settlement of the city clerk's salary in view, but in which a side clause making the city clerk's term of office four years was the real object.

OTHER BUSINESS.

Odds and Ends of the Meeting--Rules Adopted.

Business men on First street north requested that an account of the odium attaching to First street south on account of the disreputable houses there that the name of First street north be changed to Commerce street.

THE COPPER ERA.

The Syndicate Loses $4,000,000--An Easier Feeling.

LONDON, March 22.--Copper still monopolizes the attention of financiers, and in France has become a political factor. The year 1880 will justly claim hereafter to be known as the copper year.

DAMAGE SUITS.

O. A. Anderson has commenced an action to recover damages from the Northern Mill company. The ground of the action is that he broke his leg while working in the mill.

Andrew Backman has brought suit against S. C. Campbell to recover $2,070 for injuries claimed to be received by him in falling down from an unguarded and unlighted platform over the defendant's store.

Martin Anderson, administrator of M. Alfred Anderson, has brought an action against the Minneapolis Street Railway company for $5,000 damages.

Sophie Schoenert has filed papers through her attorney, J. W. Aretander, against the Mutual Reserve Fund Life association in action to recover $6,000 upon an insurance policy.

Invited to Fight.

ROME, March 22.--Lieut. Gen. Corveto, under secret orders, has been challenged to a duel by Sgt. Cavallotti, member of the chamber of deputies. The affair grew out of a personal dispute.

AMICABLY SETTLED.

Edwin Booth and Helene Modjeska Reach an Agreement.

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.--The Press-to-morrow will say: "The difference between Messrs. Booth and Barrett and Mme. Helene Modjeska, which threatened to prevent the consummation of the negotiations that have been pending some time past for the joint production of some of the best plays starting tour of Mr. Barrett's management, has been amicably settled and the contract signed by all the parties interested. The contract provides that the actor and actress shall be jointly started; that the names of both shall appear on the bills and programmes in type of equal size; that the names of things Mme. Modjeska shall be on equal terms with Mr. Booth. The tour begins Sept. 23, 1889, and is to extend to the end of the season, which there are to be thirty weeks of performances. The repertoire embraces 'Hamlet,' 'Merchant of Venice,' 'Richard III,' 'The Merry Wives of Windsor,' 'Macbeth,' 'Othello,' and 'Mary Stuart,' and when Mr. Booth plays 'The Fool's Revenge' in which Mme. Modjeska has the part of the Queen, she will have the privilege of appearing on the same night in a play of her own selection. Messrs. Nixon and Zimmerman, proprietors of the Philadelphia Grand Opera, and she is to be under the sole management of Lawrence Barrett for Mr. Booth.

Building Right Along.

SEATTLE, Wyo., March 22.--Advices from Mission, on the line of the Canadian Pacific, forty miles east of New Westminster, are to the effect that contractors are doing fine work on the bridge over Fraser river.

Two answers were filed yesterday in the case of S. H. Mattison against Winthrop & Co. The answer of S. H. Mattison, Jeremiah J. How and O. O. Merriam, Mr. Farnham filed a separate answer. The case involves about $8,000. The parties in business as firm since the death of James A. Lovejoy, and they are not indebted in the amount claimed.

Special to the Globe. SEATTLE, Wyo., March 22.--Advices from Mission, on the line of the Canadian Pacific, forty miles east of New Westminster, are to the effect that contractors are doing fine work on the bridge over Fraser river.

Why are your rooms vacant? An ad in the Globe will tell you.

HEMPEL HORROR.

Continued From First Page.

had fallen and Tim and Pete Barrett had explained their horrible crime at a rope's end, a little ray of sunshine came dancing in through one of the cell windows and rested on the gallows. There it was, the gallows, five minutes before the execution south near Fourteenth street yesterday afternoon, and had her nose broken and was otherwise badly injured about the head and face. She was taken to the home of a Mr. Bartley at 1108 South Fifth street, where Dr. Kilvington attended her. She will be laid up for some time, but her injuries are not considered dangerous. The girl is without money, and unless the people who drove the horse to the gallows will have to be taken care of by the city.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

The devotees of the vivacious goddess of the municipal court for once flattered in their usually constant affection and went to swell the awe-inspired multitude yesterday morning crowded around the court. Miss E. J. Crowder, the drunks and disorderly affected an unusual interest in the proceedings down there, and on the night before refused to make a noise and disturbance and returned to her home.

James Park paid $5 for hanging on a switch over the city hall. The company claims that it has been much annoyed by this sort of thing lately, and that Park was arrested as a means of stopping it.

F. S. Farr was on trial yesterday afternoon for destroying a house in North Minneapolis belonging to I. P. Russell. Farr claimed the house was his, and he stood on his land, and that he therefore had the right to tear it down. On learning his mistake he made good all damages done by him until afternoon, and was then taken home.

MORBID CURIOSITY.

A Crowd at the Jail Hours After the Execution.

Up to a late hour last night small crowds of morbidly curious people lingered around the county jail and gazed longingly into the dark windows of the room where Tim and Pete Barrett were hung. The crowd was particularly thick in the windows, and while only iron bars could be seen the people seemed just as much interested as though the terrible drama of the morning had been a comedy.

CELL TO SCAFFOLD.

A Deputy Gives His Experience in the March to Death.

The deputy sheriffs were all tired out last night and had all gone home when a GLOBE reporter called at the jail. Jaeger James Riley relieved Deputy Sheriff Hines at 9 o'clock, when the latter went to bed. Riley was with the boys at an early hour in the morning in the jail, and he had a long talk with them all night, who had been with them all night, who had been with them all night, who had been with them all night.

A New University.

MONTREAL, Que., March 22.--A letter has been received from a clergyman connected with the Roman college at Rome, stating that the committee of a purchasing agent for the city. The communication was placed on file.

For the first time since the new communication was placed on file, the committee on rules reported on Bradish's scheme to amend the rules so that the chairman of a committee reporting on the petition should be in favor of more "wet" territory, but there was still more surprise when an explanation of the resolution was called for, and when, after a number of aldermen had changed their votes, Mr. Love failed to vote "dry" to "wet."

There will be no lack of this kind of litigation. O. A. Anderson has commenced an action to recover damages from the Northern Mill company.

Andrew Backman has brought suit against S. C. Campbell to recover $2,070 for injuries claimed to be received by him in falling down from an unguarded and unlighted platform over the defendant's store.

Martin Anderson, administrator of M. Alfred Anderson, has brought an action against the Minneapolis Street Railway company for $5,000 damages.

Sophie Schoenert has filed papers through her attorney, J. W. Aretander, against the Mutual Reserve Fund Life association in action to recover $6,000 upon an insurance policy.

Invited to Fight. ROME, March 22.--Lieut. Gen. Corveto, under secret orders, has been challenged to a duel by Sgt. Cavallotti, member of the chamber of deputies.

AMICABLY SETTLED. Edwin Booth and Helene Modjeska Reach an Agreement.

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.--The Press-to-morrow will say: "The difference between Messrs. Booth and Barrett and Mme. Helene Modjeska, which threatened to prevent the consummation of the negotiations that have been pending some time past for the joint production of some of the best plays starting tour of Mr. Barrett's management, has been amicably settled and the contract signed by all the parties interested."

Building Right Along. SEATTLE, Wyo., March 22.--Advices from Mission, on the line of the Canadian Pacific, forty miles east of New Westminster, are to the effect that contractors are doing fine work on the bridge over Fraser river.

Invited to Fight. ROME, March 22.--Lieut. Gen. Corveto, under secret orders, has been challenged to a duel by Sgt. Cavallotti, member of the chamber of deputies.

AMICABLY SETTLED. Edwin Booth and Helene Modjeska Reach an Agreement.

Why are your rooms vacant? An ad in the Globe will tell you.

HEMPEL HORROR.

Continued From First Page.

had fallen and Tim and Pete Barrett had explained their horrible crime at a rope's end, a little ray of sunshine came dancing in through one of the cell windows and rested on the gallows. There it was, the gallows, five minutes before the execution south near Fourteenth street yesterday afternoon, and had her nose broken and was otherwise badly injured about the head and face. She was taken to the home of a Mr. Bartley at 1108 South Fifth street, where Dr. Kilvington attended her. She will be laid up for some time, but her injuries are not considered dangerous. The girl is without money, and unless the people who drove the horse to the gallows will have to be taken care of by the city.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

The devotees of the vivacious goddess of the municipal court for once flattered in their usually constant affection and went to swell the awe-inspired multitude yesterday morning crowded around the court. Miss E. J. Crowder, the drunks and disorderly affected an unusual interest in the proceedings down there, and on the night before refused to make a noise and disturbance and returned to her home.

James Park paid $5 for hanging on a switch over the city hall. The company claims that it has been much annoyed by this sort of thing lately, and that Park was arrested as a means of stopping it.

F. S. Farr was on trial yesterday afternoon for destroying a house in North Minneapolis belonging to I. P. Russell. Farr claimed the house was his, and he stood on his land, and that he therefore had the right to tear it down. On learning his mistake he made good all damages done by him until afternoon, and was then taken home.

MORBID CURIOSITY.

A Crowd at the Jail Hours After the Execution.

Up to a late hour last night small crowds of morbidly curious people lingered around the county jail and gazed longingly into the dark windows of the room where Tim and Pete Barrett were hung. The crowd was particularly thick in the windows, and while only iron bars could be seen the people seemed just as much interested as though the terrible drama of the morning had been a comedy.

CELL TO SCAFFOLD.

A Deputy Gives His Experience in the March to Death.

The deputy sheriffs were all tired out last night and had all gone home when a GLOBE reporter called at the jail. Jaeger James Riley relieved Deputy Sheriff Hines at 9 o'clock, when the latter went to bed. Riley was with the boys at an early hour in the morning in the jail, and he had a long talk with them all night, who had been with them all night, who had been with them all night.

A New University.

MONTREAL, Que., March 22.--A letter has been received from a clergyman connected with the Roman college at Rome, stating that the committee of a purchasing agent for the city. The communication was placed on file.

For the first time since the new communication was placed on file, the committee on rules reported on Bradish's scheme to amend the rules so that the chairman of a committee reporting on the petition should be in favor of more "wet" territory, but there was still more surprise when an explanation of the resolution was called for, and when, after a number of aldermen had changed their votes, Mr. Love failed to vote "dry" to "wet."

There will be no lack of this kind of litigation. O. A. Anderson has commenced an action to recover damages from the Northern Mill company.

Andrew Backman has brought suit against S. C. Campbell to recover $2,070 for injuries claimed to be received by him in falling down from an unguarded and unlighted platform over the defendant's store.

Martin Anderson, administrator of M. Alfred Anderson, has brought an action against the Minneapolis Street Railway company for $5,000 damages.

Sophie Schoenert has filed papers through her attorney, J. W. Aretander, against the Mutual Reserve Fund Life association in action to recover $6,000 upon an insurance policy.

Invited to Fight. ROME, March 22.--Lieut. Gen. Corveto, under secret orders, has been challenged to a duel by Sgt. Cavallotti, member of the chamber of deputies.

AMICABLY SETTLED. Edwin Booth and Helene Modjeska Reach an Agreement.

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.--The Press-to-morrow will say: "The difference between Messrs. Booth and Barrett and Mme. Helene Modjeska, which threatened to prevent the consummation of the negotiations that have been pending some time past for the joint production of some of the best plays starting tour of Mr. Barrett's management, has been amicably settled and the contract signed by all the parties interested."

Building Right Along. SEATTLE, Wyo., March 22.--Advices from Mission, on the line of the Canadian Pacific, forty miles east of New Westminster, are to the effect that contractors are doing fine work on the bridge over Fraser river.

Invited to Fight. ROME, March 22.--Lieut. Gen. Corveto, under secret orders, has been challenged to a duel by Sgt. Cavallotti, member of the chamber of deputies.

AMICABLY SETTLED. Edwin Booth and Helene Modjeska Reach an Agreement.

Why are your rooms vacant? An ad in the Globe will tell you.

HEMPEL HORROR.

Continued From First Page.

had fallen and Tim and Pete Barrett had explained their horrible crime at a rope's end, a little ray of sunshine came dancing in through one of the cell windows and rested on the gallows. There it was, the gallows, five minutes before the execution south near Fourteenth street yesterday afternoon, and had her nose broken and was otherwise badly injured about the head and face. She was taken to the home of a Mr. Bartley at 1108 South Fifth street, where Dr. Kilvington attended her. She will be laid up for some time, but her injuries are not considered dangerous. The girl is without money, and unless the people who drove the horse to the gallows will have to be taken care of by the city.

POLICE COURT NOTES.

The devotees of the vivacious goddess of the municipal court for once flattered in their usually constant affection and went to swell the awe-inspired multitude yesterday morning crowded around the court. Miss E. J. Crowder, the drunks and disorderly affected an unusual interest in the proceedings down there, and on the night before refused to make a noise and disturbance and returned to her home.

James Park paid $5 for hanging on a switch over the city hall. The company claims that it has been much annoyed by this sort of thing lately, and that Park was arrested as a means of stopping it.

F. S. Farr was on trial yesterday afternoon for destroying a house in North Minneapolis belonging to I. P. Russell. Farr claimed the house was his, and he stood on his land, and that he therefore had the right to tear it down. On learning his mistake he made good all damages done by him until afternoon, and was then taken home.

MORBID CURIOSITY.

A Crowd at the Jail Hours After the Execution.

Up to a late hour last night small crowds of morbidly curious people lingered around the county jail and gazed longingly into the dark windows of the room where Tim and Pete Barrett were hung. The crowd was particularly thick in the windows, and while only iron bars could be seen the people seemed just as much interested as though the terrible drama of the morning had been a comedy.

CELL TO SCAFFOLD.

A Deputy Gives His Experience in the March to Death.

The deputy sheriffs were all tired out last night and had all gone home when a GLOBE reporter called at the jail. Jaeger James Riley relieved Deputy Sheriff Hines at 9 o'clock, when the latter went to bed. Riley was with the boys at an early hour in the morning in the jail, and he had a long talk with them all night, who had been with them all night, who had been with them all night.

A New University.

MONTREAL, Que., March 22.--A letter has been received from a clergyman connected with the Roman college at Rome, stating that the committee of a purchasing agent for the city. The communication was placed on file.

For the first time since the new communication was placed on file, the committee on rules reported on Bradish's scheme to amend the rules so that the chairman of a committee reporting on the petition should be in favor of more "wet" territory, but there was still more surprise when an explanation of the resolution was called for, and when, after a number of aldermen had changed their votes, Mr. Love failed to vote "dry" to "wet."

There will be no lack of this kind of litigation. O. A. Anderson has commenced an action to recover damages from the Northern Mill company.

Andrew Backman has brought suit against S. C. Campbell to recover $2,070 for injuries claimed to be received by him in falling down from an unguarded and unlighted platform over the defendant's store.

Martin Anderson, administrator of M. Alfred Anderson, has brought an action against the Minneapolis Street Railway company for $5,000 damages.

Sophie Schoenert has filed papers through her attorney, J. W. Aretander, against the Mutual Reserve Fund Life association in action to recover $6,000 upon an insurance policy.

Invited to Fight. ROME, March 22.--Lieut. Gen. Corveto, under secret orders, has been challenged to a duel by Sgt. Cavallotti, member of the chamber of deputies.

AMICABLY SETTLED. Edwin Booth and Helene Modjeska Reach an Agreement.

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.--The Press-to-morrow will say: "The difference between Messrs. Booth and Barrett and Mme. Helene Modjeska, which threatened to prevent the consummation of the negotiations that have been pending some time past for the joint production of some of the best plays starting tour of Mr. Barrett's management, has been amicably settled and the contract signed by all the parties interested."

Building Right Along. SEATTLE, Wyo., March 22.--Advices from Mission, on the line of the Canadian Pacific, forty miles east of New Westminster, are to the effect that contractors are doing fine work on the bridge over Fraser river.

Invited to Fight. ROME, March 22.--Lieut. Gen. Corveto, under secret orders, has been challenged to a duel by Sgt. Cavallotti, member of the chamber of deputies.

AMICABLY SETTLED. Edwin Booth and Helene Modjeska Reach an Agreement.

Why are your rooms vacant? An ad in the Globe will tell you.

JAMES McMILLAN & CO., PROPRIETORS OF THE

Minneapolis Sheepskin Tannery

HIDES, SHEEP BELTS, FUR, WOOL, TALLOW, GINSENG AND SENECA ROOT. SHEEP BELTS AND FURS A SPECIALTY. 101, 103 and 105 Second St. North, Minneapolis, Minn. Write for Circular.

KENNEDY BROS., Manufacturers and Wholesale and Retail Dealers in GUNS, RIFLES, REVOLVERS! Ammunition, Fishing Tackle, Base Ball Supplies, Lawn Tennis, Pocket Cutlery, Tents and Gymnasium Goods. A full line of BICYCLES and TRICYCLES, Gun repairing a specialty. Satisfaction guaranteed. Agents for the Douglas, Remington and Stream Launches. Send for Illustrated catalogue. 36 Washington St. South, Minneapolis, Minn.

The Farmers and Mechanics' Savings Bank, MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

The Largest and Strongest Savings Bank in the Northwest. PRESENT DEPOSIT, - - $2,800,000 SURPLUS, - - - $150,000 5 per cent interest paid on all deposits left three or more months. ALL CLASSES OF BONDS BOUGHT. CLINTON MORRISON, THOMAS LOWRY, E. H. MOULTON, President, Vice President, Treasurer.

TWIN CITY TRANSFER COMPANY!

25 Washington St. N., Minneapolis. 127 East Fifth St., St. Paul. PROMPT DELIVERY. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED. JAMES NOLAN, Manager. Telephone 1884-3, Minneapolis. 1632-4, St. Paul.

AMUSEMENTS. GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

MATINEE AT 2:30--TO-NIGHT AT 8. HANLON'S. NEW. FANTASMA! Last Performances.

GRAND OPERA, MINNEAPOLIS

Three nights, commencing Monday, March 25, Wednesday matinee, 25. CORA TANNER! FASCINATION! Regular prices. Matinee, "Jim the Penman."

HENNEPIN AVENUE - THEATER.

Three Nights and Saturday Matinee, commencing Thursday, March 21, Sutton's UNCLE TOM'S CABIN! Two Topics! Two Marks! Two Bands! Great Daily Street Parade.

Hennepin Avenue Theater.

Beginning Monday, March 25--516. MR. WASHINGTON IRVING BISHOP, in his startling exemplification of his marvelous power of "READING THOUGHTS!"

PEOPLE'S THEATRE!

J. T. McCaddon, Sole Manager. Best Reserved Orchestra Chairs, 50c. Second and Last Week.

THE SILVER KING.

The Greatest and Most Successful Production of the Year Stage.

PENCE OPERA HOUSE.

To-Night, and Saturday Matinee, the beautiful romance play, Lorle, or the Artist's Dream!

MINNEAPOLIS WANTS.

Advertisements and subscriptions taken, and the Globe on sale at W. J. Hughes' drug store, corner Third avenue northeast and Monroe street, Minneapolis.

SITUATIONS OFFERED.

Male. AGENTS--Wanted, live agents, to sell photographs of the three Barrett brothers. Apply at 114 Second St. south.

Female.

HOUSEWORK--Wanted, competent girl for general housework; references required. 429 1/2 Fifth St. south. 747 SHIRTMAKERS--Wanted, experienced S shirtmakers to work by power on best machinery; none others need apply. 120 Hennepin av.

SITUATIONS WANTED.

Male. DRAUGHTSMAN--Situation wanted by architectural draughtsman; young man with seven years' experience. Address R. E. 257 Twenty-seventh av. south, Minneapolis.

Female.

OFFICE WORK--Young lady would like office or store work; will work for a small salary. Address A. 19, Globe, Minneapolis.

MISCELLANEOUS.

TOOLS--A set of tinners' tools for sale at 54 Fifth St. south. 82 FAIR