Exile Wins the Brooklyn Handicap in a Terrific Contest,

In Which He Defeats Prince Royal, Terra Cotta and Hanover.

Ten Thousand People Yell Themselves Hoarse Over the Race.

Several Celebrities and Many Ladies Present--Track

Talk. NEW YORK, May 15 .- The Brooklyn handicap has been run and won, and Exile is the victor. Fifteen thousand people saw him win, and not one of them will forget the grand sight to his dying day. After the third race, just before the great event, there was a rush to the bookmakers' betting shed, which soon so filled it that the men could hardly do business. Men clamored like mad and fought like wild ani-mals for a chance to stake their money on their favorites. The wild mania to get a bet at any odds seemed to pervade the multitude. Had there been four times the number of bookmakers, all would have been rushed to accommodate the tremendous number of bet-ters. While the gamblers were playing their money other throngs visited the paddock to see the great horses groomed paddock to see the great horses groomed and saddled for the fray. When it was all over, and Exile's neck was encircled with the mammoth floral shoe brought to crown the winner, there were many cheers, but they were mixed with regrets that the ex-king of the turf had fared so badly. A finer day for racing purposes could not have been had. The early arrivals at the track found that the course was in excellent condition. Though a little damp underneath, it was dusty on top, and many pronounced Though a little damp underneath, it was dusty on top, and many pronounced it fast, while a few thought it was a second or so slow. There was a tremendous crowd present. Not only did New York and Brooklyn pour forth multitudes, but even Boston and Philadelphia sent large representations. Among the prominent gentlemen present were Pierre Lorillord, August Belmont, President Withers, of Monmouth park; Capt. Connor, Col. Simmons, president of the Louisville Racing association; Senator Pinchback, of Louisiana; William Lisha, of Louisville: the Haggins, pere and son, of Carriages were arrayed in phalanxes about the course. Hand-some women fluttered from them in gayest of spring attire. Many wore the colors of their favorite equines at their breasts. The crowd, warmed up by the first race, grew excited and yelled them-selves hoarse as a preliminary to get-ting their throats in shape to do justice ting their throats in shape to do justice to the handicap. A magnifecent floral offering reposed in Secretary McIntyre's office. It was in the form of a horse shoe, about five feet high, composed of the choicest flowers. Running around the shoe, to represent nails, was the inscription, "Brooklyn Handicap." It was destined for the winner. Three horses were scratched this morning, the unfortunates being George. the unfortunates being George, the Californian, Marauder and Niagara. By 2 o'clock dense masses of people crowded the grand stand, filled the sward, lined up grand stand, filled the sward, lined up to the fence surrounding the track, and indeed seemed to filled every available nook and corner. In addition to the thirty bookmakers there were four straight and four place 50 mutual machines and one straight and one place 100 mutual machine. There was also betting in the American auction pools. The officers of the day were: Col. Simmons, Clarence McDowell and J. F. Brewster, indges: J. Brush, C. Corne-mons. Clarence McDowell and J. F. Brewster, judges; J. Brush, C. Cornehelsen and Mr. Walden, timers. J. F. Caldwell was the starter.

First race, five furlongs—Starters: Reveller, Britannic, Cyclops, St. Joseph, Persimmons, Salisbury, King Crab. Vance, Martha, Monsoon, Benedict, Jay F. Dee, Soncy Lass.
Monsoon was the first horse out, and the black red sleeves of the Manhattan stable were the first to flash around the track. Jimmie McLaughlin had a chill just before this race, but he determined just before this race, but he determined on riding. There was delay at the post, but after three trials they were given an excellent start, King Crab going away in the lead with Benedict, Britannic, Cyclops and Persimmons next, and the rest close up. Going up the back stretch, Benedict took the lead, followed closely by Britannic the back stretch, Benedict took the lead, followed closely by Britannic and Cyclops. At the head of the homestretch Benedict was two lengths in the van, but Britannic immediately closed upon him, and half way home he had him collared. From that out there was only one in it, Britannic, he winning with ease in 1:01½, but a second slower than the record. King Crab was a length before Reveller, third.

Second race, one and one-sixteenth miles—
Starters: Brait, Ballston, Inspector B. Connemara, Frank Ward, Marauder, Tea Tray, Brother Ban and Seawood.

This was a beautiful race. After one breakaway they were sent away is splendid style, with Brother Ban, Con nemara, Frank Ward and Inspector is almost in line and the others immediately behind. Frank Ward was a head before Ballston at the stand. The latter ran out and led from this out to the last jump, where Tea Tray, who had come up the stretch like a whilwind, last jump, where Tea Tray, who had come up the stretch like a whilwind, nipped the victory by a head, almost at the line in 1:48%, Ballston second, Brother Ban third. Mutuals, $87.30 straight. With the closing of the second race anticipation and excitement over the greatest of the events began to increase. The feminine portion of the enthusiasts were excited as could well be, and plied their escorts with questions about the horses.

Third race, Expectation stakes, half a mile.—Starters; Eccola Colt, Beliarius Colt, Ballarat, Civil Service, Chaos, Banquet, Centaur, Flatbush, Huston, Daly, Phebe, Homeopathy, Bronze and Blue, Unadaga.

The field was too large to be handled easily, and it was not until they had broken away several times that they were dispatched on their way, with Houston in the lead, Centaur next and Chaos, the Eccolacolt and Daly heading the ruck. Belisarius and Banquet made the running. The finish was a terrific one and Banquet won by a length in :48%, Belisarius account was an one length hening. The nnish was a terrific one and Banquet won by a length in :48½, Belisarius second, was an open length before Houston, third. Pheebe, Ballarat, the California horse, Flatbush, the Eccola celt, Civil Service, Chaos, Bronze and Blue, Centaur, Unadaga, Homeopathy and Daily followed in a ruck. Fourth race, the Brooklyn Jockey club handicap, for three-year-olds and upward at $100 cach if declared out; the club to add an amount necessary to make the gross value of the stakes $10,000, of which $2,000 to second and $1,000 to third; mile and one-fourth—Starters: Hanover, Taylor, 122, 8 to 5; Terra Cotta, McLaughlin, 120, 8 to 5;

Elkwood, Martin, 120, 6 to 1: Prince Royal, Garrison, 120, 8 to 5: Exile, Hamilton, 116, 5 to 1; Rtchmond, Littlefield, 110, 10 to 1; Juggler, McCarthy, 97, 8 to 1. Auction pools: Terra Cotta, $380; Hanover, $360; Prince Royal, $340; field, $190.

Prince Royal was the first of the great horses to take the track. He was closely followed by Juggler and Terra Cotta, the last named with McLaughlin up, but looking pale and ill. They looked fit to race for a kingdom. All the noble steeds were given splendid receptions. The big floral horseshoe was brought from Secretary McIntyre's office and placed in the judges' stand. There was quite a delay at the post, Exile and Prince Royal being rather fractious. They were ranged in the following order: Juggler having the rail, Terra Cotta next, and Richmond, Exile, Elkwood, Prince Royal and Hanover stringing to the outer rail. They broke away four times before getting the flag. In all the false starts the black and yellow of the Clifton candidate loomed to the front, but when the flag went down such a terrific yell of excitement as went up is seldom heard in a lifetime. When the banner fell Juggler was first away, followed by Terra Cotta, Elkwood, Richmond, Royal, Hanover and Exile, in the order named. The latter had much the worst of the start. Coming down the near stretch Hanover and Juggler were racing sideand-side, three lengths before Prince Royal and Exile. The others were in a ruck, tailed by Richmond, and in this way they went by the stand. At the lower end Juggler showed a little in front, and he was first past the judger look, a nose in front of Hanover. Around the turn dent the worst from Around the term flew the racers, the jockeys' coats forming a glittering mass of color, which was lost in the swirl of great clouds of dust torn up by the hoofs of the speeders. The horses seemed to skim the course like birds, barely keeping their feet long enough, it seemed to steady themselves. Going up the back stretch Juggler improved his lead. and the others closed up on Hanover. Halfway up the stretch Hanover began to fall back, and a cry of "HANOVER IS BEATEN." issued from 10,000 throats. It was true. He was soon passed by Prince Royal and Exile. Juggler was still in front at the half-mile post, half a length before Prince Royal, who was the same distance before Exile, Hanover being a bad fourth. On the upper turn Exile went to the front, and came into the home stretch a length before Prince Royal, who was two lengths before Juggler. Then began a struggle that set the blood of every spectator chasing through his veins. Garrison rode Prince Royal like a demon. but in vain; he could not get up to Exile, who, in the Royal like a demon, but in vain; he could not get up to Exile, who, in the last furlong, iucreased his advantage, and, amid the applause of 10,000 voices, and, amid the applause of 10,000 voices, he won the great race by two lengths, Prince Royal second, a dozen lengths before Terra Cotta, third. Elkwood, Juggler and Hanover finished as named. The time by fractions was: 0:25, 0:50, 1:03, 1:16, 1:28½, 1:41½, and 2:07½. The mutuals paid $83.30 straight, and $2:30 for place. A LITTLE HISTORY.

Last year The Bard won the handicap, beating Hanover by a length, who was three lengths in front of Exile. Time, 2:13. The other horses in the race were Fenelon, Volante, Favor, Oriflamme, Royal Arch, Grover Cleveland, Saxony and Kaloolah. Exile is a bay horse, owned by W. Lakeland, sired by Mortimer out of Second Hand. At the spring meeting at Jerome Park, May 29, last year, Exile was entered for the City handicap. In this race there were seven handicap. In this race there were seven entries, including Aurelia, Esquimau, Bess, Saxony, Lady Primrose, Linden and Climax. Exile, who was ridden by Fitzpatrick, did not make a creditable Fitzpatrick, did not make a creditable showing, being among the tail enders at the finish. Exile redeemed himself May 31, when he won the handicap sweepstakes, defeating Googloe, Raymond and Brown Duke. In the Fordham handicap Exile was left far behind by Belvidere, but at the Brighton track, June 25, Exile was ridden by Garrison and made one and a quarter miles in 2:12½, defeating Barnum, True Born, Sam Keene, Melodrama and Lancaster. In this race True Born led past the stand, followed by Melodrama and Lancaster. The latter and Barnum were second and third at the half; no change at the three-quarters, but when second and third at the half; no change at the three-quarters, but when well in line for home Garrison urged his horse, and one by one passed the others, winning by three-quarters of a length. In the sweepstakes at Coney Island June 20, Exile was a close second to Pontiac, who won the race. June 29 Garrison rode Exile to victory at Coney Island, winning the High Weight handicap sweepstakes. This same performance was repeated on the following day, defeating Ten Booker, Bob Miles and Chanticleer. At the midsummer meeting at Monmouth, Exile, in the Harvest handicap, was only beaten half a length by Firenzi.

A GENERAL DENIAL.

A GENERAL DENIAL. Officials of the Bookmakers' Asso ciation File Their Plea.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 15.-In the matter of the charges preferred against the officials of the Western Bookmakers' association for an attempted boycott of the Louisville Jockey club, the bookmakers, represented by counsel, made answer to the summons served on Messrs. Brady, Laudeman and Enright, their officers, to show cause why they should not be ruled off by presenting a denial of the charges to the executive committee of the jockey club to-night. The denial sets forth that they did not and had no desire to boycott or injure the Louisville Jockey club; that they had never discussed or taken an action as an association against the club, and that they would not boycott or attempt to injure any bookmakers now on the Louisville track, and that such bookmakers would enjoy all the privileges on tracks which might be controlled by the association at the same terms as members of the association. Charges will now be made against individual bookmakers, who have, it is alleged, attempted to injure the Louisville track.

WILL HAVE A ROAD. CHICAGO, May 15.—The lines of the Wabash railway east of the Mississippi river were sold before Judges Gresham Milbank Will Run a Line to the and Jackson to-day to Messrs. Ashley Special to the Globe.

MILBANK, Dak., May 15.—Milbank and Joy, representing 90 per cent of the bonds and acting in the interests of the Wabash Western purchasing committee, for $15,550,000. The Wabash lines were first sold in four sections, and then sold as a whole. The lines east of the river will. it is understood, be consolidated with the lines west of the river, with headquarters at St. Louis. Messrs. Popper, Johnson, Purdy and Parsons represented the minority bondholders. According to the decree of the United States court for foreclosure and sale, the four divisions were first to be put up separately, and then the four sold as a unit, whichever should yield the largest amount to be accepted by the masters who were appointed to make the sale. These were Messrs. Bluford Wilson and H. A. Hicks. On the sale by divisions the Hopper-Johnson committee, representing the minority of the bondholders. bid higher than the Joy committee for the first three divisions, but when it came to selling the property in a lump the Joy committee outbid its opponents with a price in excess of the aggregate of the bids for the divisions, and conand Joy, representing 90 per cent of the means business in the matter of rail-road connections from the South. The following gentlemen started to-day to look over the route of the new railroad: D. W. Diggs, W. B. Saunders, Irving Bath and J. P. Farley. Among all the plans proposed to secure additional railroad connections in the immediate railroad connections in the immediate future this road running south offers the most promising features. It is proposed to organize at once a company for the purpose of constructing a line from Milbank south to Egan or Flandreau, filling the missing link in a direct line from Sioux City, Yankton and Sioux Falls, with the expectation that the Milwaukee will operate it, or if not then there are three other roads crossed by it within fifty miles, and with a line running through the rich Whetstone valley. Surely some of the roads will want it as a feeder. As soon as the most practicable route is ascertained surveyors will be put in the field and all preliminary work pushed as rapidly as possible. came to selling the property in a lump the Joy committee outbid its opponents with a price in excess of the aggregate of the hids for the divisions, and considerably in excess of the upset price as given above. The masters and attorneys then proceeded to Judge Gresham's room, where the work of preparing the masters' report for the court's approval. The amount received secured the first and second mortgages in Ohio and the first on all the rest of the road. Said President Ashley, of the Wabash Western: "We will consolidate the Wabash railway and the Wabash Western. We will probably call the complete system the Wabash railroad company. We have issued and sold $34,000,000 fifty-year 5 per cent bonds on the consolidated system. Of this we will use $11,741,000 to pay the first mortgage on the Wabash Western. We will also issue second mortgage bonds of $14,000,000 on the lines east of the Mississippi, making $36,259,000 on these lines. There are besides on the lines east of the Mississippi, $30,000,000 bonds depending on the income, and $52,000,000 bonds depending on the income, and $52,000,000 bonds for their 7 per cents, instead of compelling us to buy them out. The new bonds are already at a premium of 1½ per cent, and I think will go between 5 and 10. What Railroaders Believe of the

H. C. Thrall, assistant to the president of the Northern Pacific, was asked yesterday what he thought of the with-drawal of the Northern Pacific from the Transcontinental association. "I believe it is true," said he. "Mr. Hannaford it is true," said he. "Mr. Hannaford has served notice of withdrawal, to take effect in ninety days. This will probably break the association up, and leave all roads free to compete on each other's territory, keeping within the limits of the interstate commerce act. The agreement had been fairly well adhered to, until the Union Pacific tried to force us to take their tickets over our Washington Territory lines. This, I suppose, is what caused Mr. Hannaford to withdraw."

W. S. Alexander, general traffic manager of the Manitoba, was asked his opinion of the effect of this move by the Northern Pacific. "It is too early to express an opinion," he replied. "Many things may happen in ninety days. It probably arises from the action of the Union Pacific, and this difficulty may possibly have to be settled by the interstate commissioners. What the result of the move will be I can predict at this early date."

Germany's Young Emperor Succeeds in Stirring Up the Animals

By the Declaration That He Will Shoot Riotous Strikers.

A Lordling Loses His Money at a London Club, Tells His Papa.

Causing a Great Chattering Among the Aristocratic Sports.

London, May 15.—The speech of the emperor of Germany to the committee representing the striking miners of Westphalia yesterday, wherein he avowed his intention of shooting down considers and disorderly strikers, with Westphalia yesterday, wherein he avowed his intention of shooting down socialists and disorderly strikers without remorse in the event of their persistent agitation and fomentation of disturbances, has aroused general criticism, not by any means confined to socialistic circles, both in Germany and England. It is suggested that the autocratic policy enunciated by the emperor, which could hardly be put in force by the czar of Russia, might have been successful in the middle ages, but its success in the present age is almost universally regarded as impossible. The report that the reichstag will adjourn within a few weeks is denied in official circles in Berlin. These authorities declare that the imperial body will not dissolve until next February, and give cogent reasons for the continuance of the session until that time. The present disturbances in Westphalia, the threatening attitude of workingmen in other parts of the empire, and the active aid given to the strikers by English, Belgian and German socialists have made imperative the necessity for the immediate discussion by the reichstag of a definite anti-socialist measure to replace the acts at present in force, embodying all of the provisions affecting socialism in one law. This legislation, it is asserted, will 'occupy the greater part of the time of the reichstag's working days until midwinter.

LONDON CLUB GAMBLING.

LONDON CLUB GAMBLING. A Callow Lord Loses, Squeals and

Causes Trouble. LONDON, May 15.-The action of the

bondon, and its—the action of the police in the matter of club gambling in London has stirred the usually apathetic clergy into activity. A committee of the lower house of the Canterbury convocation has submitted an exhaustive freport on the evils of gambling, accompanied by a profusion of suggestions, the adoption of which would tend to the ultimate suppression of the vicious practice. Chief among these suggestions is one showing what great strides could be made toward the happy result aimed at if the nobility would take sufficient interest in the welfare of their inferiors in rank to set the needed example. This suggestion is amusing in view of the circumstances leading to the raids on the Adelphi and Field clubs Sunday morning. The eldest son of one of the cabinet ministers recently confessed to his habit of gambling at his club, the result of his ventures being that, besides losing all his ready cash, fellow members of the club held his notes for the aggregate sum of £20,000. These notes had become due, and the young police in the matter of club gambling in notes had become due, and the young man besought his father to pay them in order to save his honor. The parent yielded to his son's entreaties and paid the notes. He then took the matter in hand on his own account and ordered the police to suppress the games at the clubs his son had indicated as the ones in which he had lost his money. The result was that many of the young man's intimate friends were arrested, and they are naturally very bitter in their characterization of the nobleman's conduct. The health bitter in their characterization of the nobleman's conduct. The health committee of Dublin is conducting a stubborn fight with the government authorities over the case of a patient afflicted with leprosy. The leper, who was formerly a soldier, is in the last stages of the disease at Hardwick hospital. The committee is desirous of securing his removal to Nettley hospital, or to Cauada, but the authorities object to his being taken to either place, and thus the matter stands.
