DAKOTA SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Meeting of the Territorial Association at Jamestown.

REPORTS AND ADDRESSES.

Gov. Mellette Asks Dakotians to Contribute Liberally to Suffering Pennsylvanians.

JAMESTOWN, N. D. June 5.—About seventy-five delegates are in attendance upon the fifteenth annual meeting of the Dakota Sunday School association which met here this morning. The association will be divided and officers elected for North and South Dakota tomorrow. The committee appointed to-day made such a report to-night. Delegates were welcomed by the opening of the convention by an address from Hon. Alfred Dickey, Supt. W. S. Bell, of the Sioux Falls normal institute, Miss E. L. Swartz and Asst. Supt. William Ewing of Jamestown, read written reports of the work of the past year. Reports show that there are now fifty-two live county Sunday school organizations in the territory. Thirty-five of these are in South and seventeen in North Dakota. Two county organizations were formed in South Dakota during the past year, and thirteen in North Dakota. Addresses were made to-day as follows: Rev. C. G. Cressy, Aberdeen, "Teacher's Bible and Its Study"; E. E. Saunders, Fargo, "House to House Visitation"; V. M. Yergin, Fargo, "The Sunday School and the Nation"; Rev. D. S. McCaslin, Huron, "Christ and the Common People"; and a prominent Sunday school worker present are D. P. Hurd and Supt. Bell, of Sioux Falls, and President Kent, of Huron.

A PROCLAMATION.

Gov. Mellette Asks Dakotians to Contribute Liberally.

HURON, S. D. June 5.—Gov. Mellette to-day issued the following proclamation: To the Citizens of Dakota: The appalling calamity which has befallen the people of Johnston and other cities in Pennsylvania is so great in magnitude and so sudden in its onset that we should not hesitate to fold our hands and feel that there is nothing for us to do. No such destruction has ever been wrought on our continent by floods as that which has just visited the Conemaugh valley, and probably never again. When the flood descended a portion of our territory along the Missouri in 1881, willing hands came to the rescue of the sufferers in assuaging its damages. I recommend that the contributions of money for Pennsylvania be sent to J. M. R. H. territorial treasurer, at Sioux Falls, who will forward the same to the governor of that state.

THAT NEW COUNTY

In the Black Hills, and What It Has and Is Able to Do.

STURGEON, S. D. June 5.—The old-timers in the West will undoubtedly wonder where in Dakota the county of Meade exists, what its population is and what town lays claim to the honor of being its county seat. For the information of all concerned, your correspondent will explain.

Meade county was manufactured by the last legislature from the eastern portion of Lawrence, hitherto known as the eastern county of the Black Hills. By taking a map of Dakota and drawing a line square north and south, through the breadth of Lawrence, just east of the village of Sturgis, the territory contained in the county of Meade will be at once visible. The county is sixty miles long from east to west, with an average width of thirty miles. Its population at present is about 3,500. The vote cast at the first county election, held May 7, exceeded 1,600. The county seat was located by popular vote at Sturgis, the largest city in the county and one of the best towns in the Hills. Meade is entirely an agricultural county. The people of this section lay claims to mines or mill sites. They have a little mining property, it is true, but they do not boast of it. They are perfectly willing to have Lawrence, Custer and Pennington advertise their products in the mining counties of the Hills. We are strictly and absolutely an agricultural and stock raising county. We can give homes to thousands of immigrants and locate them on the best lands lying out of doors. This county is the best watered section of the hills. Large creeks traverse it in all directions. Irrigation is not only necessary, and is never resorted to by the granger. This year we have had plenty of rain, and, as a consequence,

CROPS ARE LOOKING FINE.

The outlook for the hills this year, from an agricultural standpoint, is excellent. Nothing but contingencies at present undisciplined will destroy the crops now. So great has been the faith of the farmers in this country around us that they have increased their acreage in wheat over 25 per cent, and in corn over 50. Out of the other crops there have been increased in similar proportion. No county in South Dakota offers better inducements to settlers than does Meade. Its lands are unequalled. Its crops are the greatest. It raises more "No. 1 hard" wheat than either Iowa or Nebraska. It well watered, and is well timbered. It has the best of rail facilities. The markets for the farmer's produce are at hand, where the best of cash prices are always obtainable. The community in the West has a market equal to us. Besides supplying the various cities of the Hills we have a regular army market, from Meade one of the largest in the United States, with a grain store of over 1,000 men and 600 horses to be fed and looked after. This post alone uses enormous quantities of farm produce. It is always an open market, and Uncle Sam is a sure and good paymaster. Meade is destined to become the banner county of the southern state of the Dakotas. Watch us.

WHY THEY INVEST.

Capitalists Realize the Fact That Prices Are Very Reasonable.

CHAMBERLAIN, S. D. June 5.—The demand for Chamberlain real estate has not abated in the least, and the city is full of gentlemen from cities in Dakota, Minnesota, Nebraska, Iowa, New York, Ohio and other Eastern states who are here for the purpose of "catching on" to some real estate before the advance in prices, which will surely take place immediately upon the opening of the springing in favor of the acceptance of the Sioux bill. Five or six additions to the city have been platted and lots are selling very rapidly in all of them. Roswell Miller, the first real-estate agent in Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, who owns 120 acres of choice land about half a mile east of the Missouri river, in this city, is planning the land preparatory to the sale of lots there. One thing about Chamberlain real estate that draws business men to the city to invest is the fact that the prices asked are reasonable and within the reach of all. This fact has been the means of drawing people from all sections of the Northwest, and every incoming passenger train brings more, who never fail to invest in some way before the next place of meeting. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, W. H. Miller, Clinton; vice president, A. Hubbard, Spencer; secretary, C. Burkett, Creston; treasurer, M. M. Hoffman, Dubuque. Executive committee—D. B. Wilbur, Marshalltown; A. Hubbard, Spencer; and J. B. Turner, Cedar Rapids. The first meeting of the association was elected delegate to the international convention at Toronto.

WEALTHY AND SHREWED

Undertakers Association.

Drummond, Io. June 5.—The state undertakers' convention closed a two-day session to-day for the transaction of business pertaining to that association. This afternoon the visitors were treated to an excursion on the river. Marshalltown was selected as the next place of meeting. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, W. H. Miller, Clinton; vice president, A. Hubbard, Spencer; secretary, C. Burkett, Creston; treasurer, M. M. Hoffman, Dubuque. Executive committee—D. B. Wilbur, Marshalltown; A. Hubbard, Spencer; and J. B. Turner, Cedar Rapids. The first meeting of the association was elected delegate to the international convention at Toronto.

estate will advance in value. Much confidence is expressed here in the well-known ability of the gentlemen composing the Sioux commission, Crook in particular, and it is believed that their labors cannot be otherwise than successful. Their progress at Rosford and Pine Ridge will be watched with interest by the people in the border towns.

THEY PLAY BALL

A Little Meantime, but Don't Mean to Let Go of the Capital.

REDFORD, S. D. June 4.—James B. Churchill, owner of the beautiful island park at Armadale, in Northern Spink county, was here to-day and perfected arrangements with the local baseballists to meet the Aberdeen nine at the place named on the diamond on the 14th inst. The Redfield band and military company will also be present. The ball games will again fight over the tussle of last Thursday, when the game stood a tie at the end of the ninth inning. It was an interesting one throughout, and was probably witnessed by more people than ever assembled at a ball game in Dakota. Both nines are good ones and a credit to the respective cities they represent.

District court convenes here next week. Judge Crofoot has announced his intention of staying until the court day is cleared. This means at least a four weeks' term. Redfield's capital stock keeps quietly in the advance, and if any of the competing towns are consoling themselves with the assurance that the capital be no longer buzzes in this quarter they are figuring wrong of the mark. Stock in the South Dakota Ind. company is selling rapidly, and from various quarters come the most flattering assurances of support. In this meantime the citizens are not worrying about any unnatural boom, but keep on pursuing the even tenor of their way, well satisfied with the outlook for the future.

A VENERABLE LADY.

Who Was Well Known in Minnesota and Other States.

FLANDREAU, S. D. June 4.—Experience Dunn, aged eighty-nine years, died at Freeborn, Freeborn county, Minn., June 1. She was an old resident of Minnesota, residing at St. Peter during the New Ulm massacre. She leaves a family of three daughters and five sons, residing in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Missouri, Washington Territory and Dakota. She was one of the early settlers of Freeborn county, and passed away in the old homestead of the family on the banks of Freeborn lake. Her husband died at an advanced age in 1879.

Mostly Personal.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—James McDowell, register of the Huron land office registered this morning at Emmet. He said Commissioner of Lands and Secretary of the Interior, and will leave for Helena, Mont., at the St. James. The postoffice at Matthews, Fall River county, Dak., will be moved to a station, Wyoming, the Central railway and the name of office will be changed to Collins.

Grand Forks Contribution.

GRAND FORKS, N. D. June 5.—Grand Forks sent a carload of flour to the flood sufferers of Pennsylvania. The city council passed the resolution to-night. Telegrams were sent to Gov. Beaver, the mayor of Williamsport and the Pittsburgh relief committee, asking where it was most needed. The Manitoba delivers the car free of charge. It will leave here in the morning.

They Will Celebrate.

CIA. MINN. June 5.—The citizens, at a meeting held for the purpose, decided to have a celebration here on the 4th of July, and sufficient funds were at once raised to defray the expenses of the occasion. Every effort will be made to have it eclipse all former celebrations.

For Flood Sufferers.

PIERRE, S. D. June 5.—Citizens of Pierre to-day subscribed $100 for the Johnston flood sufferers, which was forwarded to the mayor. The petition is still circulating, with a probability that much more will be raised for the same object.

Old Settlers' Picnic.

HURON, S. D. June 5.—The old settlers of Esmond held their annual picnic to-day. About 2,000 were present. Speeches were made by Gov. Mellette, ex-Speaker Keith, Warden Kanouse, of Sioux Falls, and others.

Knights Templar Conclave.

MITCHELL, S. D. June 5.—The grand conclave of Knights Templar of Dakota convened here to-day with a large attendance. The public parade was imposing.

TWIN STATE POINTS.

Down in South Dakota, the other day, the great and only Dennis Hannafin was held in a position of "yes, then, and statesmen. I think Pettigrew will be one of the senators. I'm not sure of Moody. I think the Home Guard will be a little better. Why, that company has beat every one that has had anything to do with them. They even beat the stage robbers. They are in the lead in the battle of the territory to left the big holes for the security to look at."—Jamestown Alert.

The legislature is to be secured by the passage of a bill, possibly, that the alliance will want to name the United States senators. The prohibitionists want men elected to the legislature who may be depended upon to vote for the passage of such laws as they will desire to make prohibition effective. Altogether there is to be a fight worth seeing.—Rapid City Journal.

WATER, or less dread of a drought than now? It might be a "little warmer" for comfort, but the cereals and grasses can just be seen growing all over the country, and the cattle on a thousand hills are getting fat and lazy fast. This will be a big year for Dakota financially as well as politically, "and don't you forget it."

If the farmers want an economical state government, they can best get it by voting for minority representation. That will give the minority the right to elect a house, and a one-third minority makes a very safe watchdog of the state treasury.—Dakota Dispatch.

The Sioux Falls Press is of the opinion that it is not within the power of the constitutional convention to provide for a new election of county officers this fall. This would seem to be a reasonable view of the case.—Mitchell Republican.

Undertakers Association.

Drummond, Io. June 5.—The state undertakers' convention closed a two-day session to-day for the transaction of business pertaining to that association. This afternoon the visitors were treated to an excursion on the river. Marshalltown was selected as the next place of meeting. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, W. H. Miller, Clinton; vice president, A. Hubbard, Spencer; secretary, C. Burkett, Creston; treasurer, M. M. Hoffman, Dubuque. Executive committee—D. B. Wilbur, Marshalltown; A. Hubbard, Spencer; and J. B. Turner, Cedar Rapids. The first meeting of the association was elected delegate to the international convention at Toronto.

CLEANED AT STILLWATER.

A Big Contract Awarded to a St. Paul Firm.

MONEY FOR JOHNSTOWN.

The Jury Out in the Keator Case—General News of a Day.

The contract for paving with cedar blocks Myrtle, Chestnut, Second and Water streets has been awarded to John W. Doherty, of St. Paul, at the following figures: Sawing and laying the cedar blocks, 74 cents per square yard; furnishing all pine material used, $1.30 per square yard; setting curbing, 16 cents per linear foot; taking up and relaying wooden sidewalks, 7 cents per linear foot; stone sidewalks, $1.40; extra grading, 20 cents per cubic yard. The contract for grading Olive and Greeley streets go to O'Neal Bros. at 14 1/2 cents per yard, and North Fifth street to H. Volney at 13 1/2 cents. Kenneth McLagan secures the contract for grading Broadway, Sixth avenue, Hill and Churchill streets.

The jury in the long-contested case of Keator & Son against Edwin St. John was instructed by the court and retired at 11 o'clock yesterday morning to deliberate upon a verdict. The court next took up and continued the case of A. K. Doe, as surviving partner of L. E. Corbus, against the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad company, in which plaintiff seeks to recover damages for alleged trespass upon land occupied by defendant from January, 1882, February, 1884, the amount claimed being $2,300.

Adam Kundent, who lives on a farm near the city, was arraigned in the municipal court yesterday on a charge of neglecting to support his wife, a bride of six months. Adam attempted to excuse his conduct by explaining that his wife left him, but court found that he considered himself no longer responsible for her maintenance. Nevertheless the court sentenced him to twenty days in the county jail.

O. M. Smith, cashier of the St. Paul & Duluth railway, has gone to London, O., to attend the wedding of his friend, R. Anderson, general passenger agent of the V. & W. route. Visiting in Chattanooga, Tenn., and at his home in Kansas City, expecting to return in time for camp with the company K boys.

At the mere suggestion of the superintendent, Robert Slaughter, the humble employees of the East Side Lumber company's saw mill raised, in a few moments yesterday, the sum of $87 to aid the sufferers at Johnston, Pa.

The condition of Nels Johnson, who was seriously injured at the Stillwater manufacturing company's establishment Monday, is but little changed since he was removed to the hospital.

Misses Grace Jenks, Bay Stein, Faith Fogle and Mary Goodhue drove to Lakeview Tuesday afternoon and took tea at the lakeside home of their friend, Miss Lovatt.

In the police court yesterday Sam Estes was up for the second time under the Scheffer law and was assessed $20 and costs.

The funeral of the late Nicholas Sinnott will take place at 9 o'clock this morning from St. Michael's church.

Mrs. Lee M. Murphy and son started Thursday for a visit to Mrs. Murphy's old home, Bellevue, Io.

Harvey Shepard, of Worthington, Minn., is revisiting Stillwater friends.

VETERANS IN LINE.

Enthusiastic Meeting of Members of the G. A. R. at Austin.

AUSTIN, Minn. June 5.—This was the second day of the G. A. R. encampment, and never was seen such a crowd in Austin before. A conservative estimate places the number that witnessed the parade, this afternoon at 18,000. The procession formed at 2 p. m. at the camp grounds and from there marched through the principal streets, headed by a platoon of police and followed by a band. Then came carriages containing Gov. Merriam, Mayor Gibson, ex-Gov. McGill, Department Commander Hon. Barto and Adj. Gen. Mullin. Next came the various G. A. R. posts containing about 2,000 men, Company G, M. N. G., with seventy-five men, and South Veterans with 100 men. There were ten bands. A feature that created much amusement along the line was the appearance of about a dozen veterans on horseback, carrying flags, and many rebel prisoners, and others who had been out on a pillaging expedition, carrying their booty consisting of chickens, sheep and calves. Gov. Merriam, Hon. A. Barto and ex-Gov. McGill addressed the crowd at the grounds. This evening, after a dress parade on the grounds, Judge Rea, of Minneapolis, spoke to an immense audience and made an eloquent speech and was cheered to the echo. The encampment closes to-morrow.

WANT MORE LIGHT.

Laverne to be Lighted by Electricity—Encouraging Crop Prospects.

LIVERNE, June 5.—Laverne is to be lighted by electricity. A stock company has been organized for this purpose with a capital of $10,000. The company was organized by the election of J. A. Parroun, president; A. Ross, vice president; M. Weber, secretary; J. W. H. Halbert, W. T. Kendall and A. Bark, directors. A franchise has been obtained from the village and negotiations for the purchase of a plant will begin at once. A committee of the Farmers' alliance purchased of the Rock County Driving Park and Fair association the fair grounds and all improvements connected therewith, and a county fair will be held this fall under the auspices of the alliance. The prospects for a large crop of all kinds of grain in Rock county is very encouraging. The season has been an exceptionally favorable one, and crops, including corn, are well advanced.

Notable Nuptials.

FERRIS FALLS, June 5.—The marriage of Frank J. Evans, cashier of the Ferris Falls National bank, to Miss May L. Compton, daughter of Senator James Compton, president of the Citizens' National bank, was celebrated at the Presbyterian church at 5 o'clock yesterday. The bride was escorted by Bickel, George Phillips and Clifford Hilton. The church was crowded, 300 invitations having been issued. A brilliant reception was afterwards held at the residence, to which 150 invitations were issued. The bride and groom left on to-night's train for an Eastern trip. It was a social event of the first magnitude.

Robbery at Hammond.

WABASHA, June 5.—A daring and successful robbery was committed at Hammond, a small town on the Midland railroad, distant from Wabasha about forty miles, last Friday night. The train was stopped at Hammond and a party of five men, armed with revolvers and blued up the big safe, completely demolishing it. They secured $100 in money belonging to H. J. Adams, cashier of the elevator, and certificates of deposit and notes belonging to M. J. Maldon, the manager, aggregating the sum of $8,510. Payment has been stopped on the certificates of deposit, and Mr. Maldon's loss will probably not be very large. The burglars also carried off a lot of private letters, receipts and insurance policies.

Iowa Free Masons.

Special to the Globe. SIOUX CITY, Io. June 5.—The Iowa Grand Lodge of Masons elected officers to-day as follows: Worshipful grand master, J. D. Chace, Knoxville; senior grand warden, R. S. Phillips; A. S. lantie, Io.; grand secretary, T. S. Parvin, Cedar Rapids, Io.; junior grand warden, J. W. Barker, Ottumwa; grand treasurer, Samuel Dunn, Muscatine. George M. Van Luren, Jr., of Lime Springs, will be appointed deputy grand master. Ottumwa was chosen as the place for holding the next meeting, receiving 673 votes; Cedar Rapids, 90; Davenport, 42; Des Moines, 38. The remainder of the day was occupied in hearing reports and in the transaction of routine business.

The Waseca Assembly.

Special to the Globe. WASECA, Minn. June 5.—Bills are out announcing the coming assembly at Maplewood Park, and great efforts are being put forth by the Maplewood Park association to make this assembly the most successful assembly yet held at that place. The grounds are in fine condition, and many improvements in the shape of buildings, etc., have been made thereon. The attendance promises to exceed that of any previous year, and the programme will be interesting and instructive throughout. Lecturers of national reputation will be in attendance and lecture throughout the assembly.

Lumber King Banqueted.

Special to the Globe. CHENEQUA, PA., Wis. June 5.—Fred Weyerhaeuser, the lumber king, was tendered a banquet at the Stanley house, this city, last night in honor of his departure for Europe. ### Catarth to Consumption.

Catarth in its destructive force stands next to and undoubtedly leads on to consumption. It is therefore singular that this disease is not more generally understood and made the object of their lives to rid themselves of it. Decisive remedial measures by ignorant and unskilled medical knowledge have weakened the confidence of the great majority of sufferers in the efficacy of the remedy. They have become resigned to a life of misery rather than to the torture themselves with doubt.
