

MINNEAPOLIS.

MUSIC IN THE PARKS.

A life-sized portrait, beautifully executed, of ex-Mayor Ames is on exhibition. The picture will be presented to the city by the admirers of the genial doctor, and is to grace the city council chamber. This is the first response to the resolution passed by the council...

A Mosquito Duo--"There's a fat man in the park."

MEAN OF MINNEAPOLIS.

A life-sized portrait, beautifully executed, of ex-Mayor Ames is on exhibition. The picture will be presented to the city by the admirers of the genial doctor, and is to grace the city council chamber.

Fred Malone, formerly one of the Minneapolis thieves, has just been elected to a place in the fire department.

N. H. Gjertsen was the only member of the police commission on duty yesterday, the mayor, the superintendent and Commissioner Guile being East, probably to get pointers on some more reform measures from New England villages to try on the people of Minneapolis.

Neil Scully, the popular character actor, is back from the East awaiting the opening of the Pease. Neil Scully met with a misfortune which his friends will regret to learn of. He recently sustained paralysis of the optic nerve, affecting his left eye, and being East, has threatened to permanently impair that organ, although there is some hope of recovery. He hopes to return to his engagement, however, notwithstanding the painful affliction.

A. H. C. Barrows is going East next Saturday. He intends to visit Maine and fish in the surf at Ann Harbor, and will doubtless call on James G. Blaine.

PHASES OF LIFE.

Some of the good people who attend divine services at the Hennepin Avenue M. E. church have been in the habit of hitching their horses to the shade trees. The animals have amused themselves and gratified their appetites by gnawing the bark from the trees. One of the property owners has boxed up his trees, and on each one is a sign which reads "Don't Hitch Here."

Fred Stran, the draughtsman employed by Burlington, the architect, during the stay of the Willbur Opera company, contracted a violent cold, and for several of the ladies of the company, so it is reported, and wishing to testify to his professional skill, he has written as to make the memory of their last night in Minneapolis a pleasant one, caused an elaborate banquet to be spread in the dining room. There was some hitch in the delivery of the invitations, or else the necessity of packing trunks was imperative. When the feast was spread with glittering silver and snowy damask the guests came not, and the host found himself alone. He used to think that he would undertake to interfere with a woman when she has got a trunk to pack.

DID HE, OR DIDN'T HE?

The appointment of young Mr. Evans, of New Mexico, to a well-known position in Minneapolis has caused persons in high political circles a great deal of uneasiness. Mr. Evans' appointment was not popular, and those responsible for it have been watching closely the popular will in respect to that has been given now. The old soldiers have denounced the appointment unanimously. It is said that Merriam appointed Evans because his brother, the big national committeeman, had been rather at odds with his excellency. It was said that the popular proverb, "Bill Merriam will never get another term," originated in a neighborhood where B. G. Evans does not live. The party of Evans' appointment, and the circumstances, Merriam was willing to do something to please the people of the Indiana colony, and Evans' appointment followed. On the other hand, politicians who are near the governor say he saw the danger of Evans' appointment, and would not have done so had not B. G. Evans earnestly demanded it. The pressure was so great that the governor finally gave way, at the same time expressing the hope that the Evans family would bear the political consequences.

A LONE POLITICAL MEETING.

The only political meeting of any consequence that will be held in this state this year will be the state meeting of the Republican league of clubs. The executive committee of the national league has gone up to Saratoga Springs to have a session, and will set the date of the state meeting. Then it is expected the clubs will have a good time in Minneapolis. It will be a good time to compare notes and figure on appointments on the part of the older statesmen while the younger boys will be incalculably enough to express their real sentiments, thinking election a long way off. Edward J. Conroy, a lawyer, whose voice has rustled in disuse so long, will doubtless come to the front with plans to save the country, and E. F. Davis, if he is not too busy trying to get the defense, will have good time to rattle the defenses, for they immediately rested, and as the state had already done so, Judge Emery held the defense in abeyance. Assistant City Attorney Ely wanted the ball increased. The defense thought that the defense would desire an examination in the lower court, and Judge Emery set her bail at $1,000 for appearance on the 23d.

HELM HELD.

The case against Mrs. George H. Helm, charged with contempt of court in securing the absence of witnesses, was dismissed yesterday morning on motion of the county attorney, and Mrs. Helm was immediately re-arrested on the more serious charge of bringing a witness. Her attorney demanded an examination in the lower court, and Judge Emery set her bail at $1,000 for appearance on the 23d.

SOME CANDID REMARKS.

Dr. Kilvington-Joe Mannix has a great system of raising a man and mingling his mad-cat poison with just enough taffy to make the victim wonder whether he ought to kick or to run up. The other reporters are catching onto it in great shape.

F. A. Catharin--The first prize at one of the labor picnic races was $8, second prize, a lot in stands. About half-way they had a Medicine lake lot for third prize.

ALL SORTS.

A correspondent asks where the Scripps league is, and the way to get it. The Western association and the South Dakota league.

C. J. Buel, in a half-column communication, demands a rest from Thomas Lowry and Anderson & Douglas. Good way to get it. Buy a Buel.

William Henry Eustis, as Persian minister, has extended the freedom of the city to the Bellini Opera company. He says the company is all right, but their oddities are a little off color.

THE FORESTERS HERE.

500 Delegates to the National Convention at Minneapolis.

Helm Is Held to the Grand Jury--Mrs. Helm Rearrested.

Collom Will Have His Examination To-Day.

A Terrible Fall at the Library Building Yesterday.

At 500 delegates to the national convention of the Ancient Order of Foresters have arrived in Minneapolis. At least 100 more are expected to arrive before the convention is called to order for business this morning at Harmonia hall.

Yesterday was very enjoyably spent by the visitors at Spring Park, Lake of the Isles, and the city.

The delegates all were bores, and have attracted considerable attention on the streets and about the city since their arrival.

The latest sensational story regarding the case is that Blaisdell really signed all the notes, and that he and Anderson shared equally with Collom the East were expected early yesterday morning in time for the picnic, but they were delayed so that they did not reach the city till the evening.

The delegates are divided among the hotels about the city, the Nicollet house being headquarters and entertaining about 200 delegates.

These are the New York and Brooklyn delegations. The Californians are at the St. James in a body. The West hotel entertains most of the New Englanders.

The order is not well established in the National convention here is to further the interests of the organization.

Over 150 years in its existence are to be found all over the world. The head court, or high court, meets in England once in every seven years.

In America what is known as the subsidiary high court, which is under the jurisdiction of the high court. There are five courts here: Court Minneapolis, Court Hennepin, Court St. Anthony, Court Minneapolis and Court Nicolet, with a total membership of about 800.

The great question to come before the convention is as to whether or not the American order shall sever connection with the English order, under whose rule they practically are, or remain as a subsidiary branch. There seems to be a little friction between the two countries and in all likelihood, at the end of the convention the American order will be independent under the name of the "Ancient Order of Foresters," or the "Ancient Order of Foresters in America."

The source of the difficulty between the English and American orders is a violent question of admitting colored members on an equal footing with the rest of the order. The American branch opposes such an action.

To-morrow the regular work of the convention will begin behind closed doors. The program will be a parade on Thursday evening, which will be followed by a banquet at the Nicollet house. The line of march will be from Harmonia hall, where the meetings are to be held, to Washington avenue, up to the Nicollet house.

A game of ball will be played at Athletic park at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon between Courts Hennepin and Nicollet. The game will be applied to defraying the local expenses of entertainment.

The convention will last into next week, and will be followed by a brief convention of the Knights of Sherwood Forest, at Elks hall. At the close of the convention, the proceeds of the sale of the companions of the Forest, which consists entirely of ladies, will convene in Elks hall, elect officers, etc. About 100 delegates will be present.

The convention may last into next week, as there is considerable business to be transacted. The convention, which will be followed by a brief convention of the Knights of Sherwood Forest, at Elks hall. At the close of the convention, the proceeds of the sale of the companions of the Forest, which consists entirely of ladies, will convene in Elks hall, elect officers, etc. About 100 delegates will be present.

HELM HELD.

The case against Mrs. George H. Helm, charged with contempt of court in securing the absence of witnesses, was dismissed yesterday morning on motion of the county attorney, and Mrs. Helm was immediately re-arrested on the more serious charge of bringing a witness. Her attorney demanded an examination in the lower court, and Judge Emery set her bail at $1,000 for appearance on the 23d.

SOME CANDID REMARKS.

Dr. Kilvington-Joe Mannix has a great system of raising a man and mingling his mad-cat poison with just enough taffy to make the victim wonder whether he ought to kick or to run up. The other reporters are catching onto it in great shape.

F. A. Catharin--The first prize at one of the labor picnic races was $8, second prize, a lot in stands. About half-way they had a Medicine lake lot for third prize.

ALL SORTS.

A correspondent asks where the Scripps league is, and the way to get it. The Western association and the South Dakota league.

C. J. Buel, in a half-column communication, demands a rest from Thomas Lowry and Anderson & Douglas. Good way to get it. Buy a Buel.

William Henry Eustis, as Persian minister, has extended the freedom of the city to the Bellini Opera company. He says the company is all right, but their oddities are a little off color.

ABLE TO SURPRISE SOMEONE IN A DAY OR TWO.

At the same time the creditors and the people interested in the defense are claiming that they are more perfectly satisfied than ever of Collom's innocence and have no doubt whatever that when the truth comes out in the courts his reputation will be entirely cleared. Attorney Davis says he is going to subpoena every one of the nine attorneys who heard Collom's alleged confession, and if they don't tell the truth about it he will prosecute them for perjury. He says also that four of the nine attorneys who are talking very loudly of Collom's innocence of the charge made against him are not attorneys at all.

Mr. Davis will not appear as an attorney in the case, as he will be a very important witness for the state.

The latest sensational story regarding the case is that Blaisdell really signed all the notes, and that he and Anderson shared equally with Collom the East were expected early yesterday morning in time for the picnic, but they were delayed so that they did not reach the city till the evening.

The delegates are divided among the hotels about the city, the Nicollet house being headquarters and entertaining about 200 delegates.

These are the New York and Brooklyn delegations. The Californians are at the St. James in a body. The West hotel entertains most of the New Englanders.

The order is not well established in the National convention here is to further the interests of the organization.

Over 150 years in its existence are to be found all over the world. The head court, or high court, meets in England once in every seven years.

In America what is known as the subsidiary high court, which is under the jurisdiction of the high court. There are five courts here: Court Minneapolis, Court Hennepin, Court St. Anthony, Court Minneapolis and Court Nicolet, with a total membership of about 800.

The great question to come before the convention is as to whether or not the American order shall sever connection with the English order, under whose rule they practically are, or remain as a subsidiary branch. There seems to be a little friction between the two countries and in all likelihood, at the end of the convention the American order will be independent under the name of the "Ancient Order of Foresters," or the "Ancient Order of Foresters in America."

The source of the difficulty between the English and American orders is a violent question of admitting colored members on an equal footing with the rest of the order. The American branch opposes such an action.

To-morrow the regular work of the convention will begin behind closed doors. The program will be a parade on Thursday evening, which will be followed by a banquet at the Nicollet house. The line of march will be from Harmonia hall, where the meetings are to be held, to Washington avenue, up to the Nicollet house.

A game of ball will be played at Athletic park at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon between Courts Hennepin and Nicollet. The game will be applied to defraying the local expenses of entertainment.

The convention will last into next week, and will be followed by a brief convention of the Knights of Sherwood Forest, at Elks hall. At the close of the convention, the proceeds of the sale of the companions of the Forest, which consists entirely of ladies, will convene in Elks hall, elect officers, etc. About 100 delegates will be present.

The convention may last into next week, as there is considerable business to be transacted. The convention, which will be followed by a brief convention of the Knights of Sherwood Forest, at Elks hall. At the close of the convention, the proceeds of the sale of the companions of the Forest, which consists entirely of ladies, will convene in Elks hall, elect officers, etc. About 100 delegates will be present.

HELM HELD.

The case against Mrs. George H. Helm, charged with contempt of court in securing the absence of witnesses, was dismissed yesterday morning on motion of the county attorney, and Mrs. Helm was immediately re-arrested on the more serious charge of bringing a witness. Her attorney demanded an examination in the lower court, and Judge Emery set her bail at $1,000 for appearance on the 23d.

SOME CANDID REMARKS.

Dr. Kilvington-Joe Mannix has a great system of raising a man and mingling his mad-cat poison with just enough taffy to make the victim wonder whether he ought to kick or to run up. The other reporters are catching onto it in great shape.

F. A. Catharin--The first prize at one of the labor picnic races was $8, second prize, a lot in stands. About half-way they had a Medicine lake lot for third prize.

ALL SORTS.

A correspondent asks where the Scripps league is, and the way to get it. The Western association and the South Dakota league.

C. J. Buel, in a half-column communication, demands a rest from Thomas Lowry and Anderson & Douglas. Good way to get it. Buy a Buel.

William Henry Eustis, as Persian minister, has extended the freedom of the city to the Bellini Opera company. He says the company is all right, but their oddities are a little off color.

TUESDAYS, THURSDAYS AND SATURDAYS, TICKETS GO TO RETURN ON THE FOLLOWING DAY.

These are the days during the continuance of the state fair, and also during the session of the national encampment of the G. A. R. at Minneapolis.

A rehearsal of the children's chorus, under the direction of Prof. Raymond, was held in the great building yesterday, attended by over 200 pupils of the schools, and was very successful. The following programme of special "days," dates to be hereafter announced, has been arranged for during the Exposition: Baby show, exhibitors' day, fence-making day, A. R. day, Minneapolis day, manufacturers' day, Odd Fellows' day, Scandinavian day, patriarchal church, athletic exercises by class of young ladies from the Misses Marsh's Athletic school, children's day, Bremen's day, football day, ladies' day, St. Paul day, newspaper day, request music programme, reading day, open air military drill by university cadets, under command of Lieut. Glenn, commercial travelers' day.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

THE JAPANESE VILLAGE.

When Harry Deakin, the well-known theatrical manager of Milwaukee, now in the building, is invited to visit the village to the United States, it created a perfect furore, and the business he did with it was unprecedented. Later, he was invited to visit the village, but the one that will be seen at the exposition is the first to be exhibited in this country.

HEM IN TOW AND LANDED HIM IN THE LOCKUP.

Michael Pierre has begun an action against Eleazer Williams to recover the possession of two lots in Bottineau's second addition, and for $300 damages claimed by the retention of the lots, and for $250 claimed for rents and profits on the property. The complaint states that the defendant on the 10th of Feb., 1889, without right or title, and wrongfully entered into the possession of the property and ousted and ejected the plaintiffs therefrom.

DISTRICT COURT BRIEFS.

Michael Pierre has begun an action against Eleazer Williams to recover the possession of two lots in Bottineau's second addition, and for $300 damages claimed by the retention of the lots, and for $250 claimed for rents and profits on the property. The complaint states that the defendant on the 10th of Feb., 1889, without right or title, and wrongfully entered into the possession of the property and ousted and ejected the plaintiffs therefrom.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. H. G. O. Morrison has returned from a two weeks' visit in Wisconsin. Mr. H. B. Kimmel of Omaha, S. D., and of Sully county, is visiting friends in Minneapolis.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Jennie Sabern, of Chicago, is visiting with Mrs. C. L. DeLaitre, No. 3 Highland avenue.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Wilson and son have gone to Newport and Black Island, R. I., to spend the summer.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Jennie Sullivan, of Chicago, and Miss Julia O'Sullivan, of Alton, Ill., are visiting with Mrs. James Byrnes, 1230 Western avenue.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Perry Harrison, assistant cashier in the Security bank, has returned from Pennsylvania where he has been spending a month's vacation.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Dr. T. Chase, of Boston, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church of Minneapolis, is expected to preach at Central Baptist church next Sunday.

PERSONAL MENTION.

A. T. Stebbins, of Rochester, is a guest at the Hotel Brunwick.