A GOOD TIME FOR OVERCOATS.

It's a good time for overcoats now. A good time for you to buy one and a good time for you to wear one. Our assortment is complete, all sizes and all styles are here. If you put off buying your winter overcoat too long you certainly won't have such an assortment as you have now to select from, particularly if we sell as many overcoats this coming week as we did last week.

Those English Cape Overcoats we spoke of you about are selling even better than we expected, their beauty and the low prices we sell them for are the reasons why they please you. We mention their prices again: $18, $20, $22, $25 and $30. At these prices every one of these Cape Overcoats is a genuine bargain.

Our Genuine Irish Frieze Sack Overcoats make a tip-top Overcoat for a gentleman to wear. These garments are lined with a handsome all-wool plaid lining, have an all-silk sleeve lining, and make altogether a very genteel and wonderfully serviceable Overcoat. Prices, $22 and $28. We also have extra long Irish Frieze Ulsters at $27 and $30.

Speaking of Ulsters, many gentlemen cannot wear and do not like to wear a Fur Overcoat. To such we recommend our Ulsters; they are nearly as warm as fur, much more healthful to wear, and not nearly as expensive. In fact, our Ulsters are considered preferable to fur, and are worn by lots and lots of St. Paul gentlemen.

Broken Frogs' Fine Custom Ready-Made Clothing we are exclusive agents for.

Allen Solly's Fine Winter Underwear and Dent's Gloves are two of the many attractions just now in our Furnishing Department.

Henry Heath's English Hats (Derbys and Silks) and Youmans' American Hats (Derbys and Silks) are to be found nowhere else in St. Paul but here.

The reliability of our Boys' Clothing and its acknowledged superiority over the 'to-be-found-everywhere' sort, makes our Juvenile Department very popular with St. Paul mothers and fathers.

The Triennial Convalee Fittingly Concludes With an Elaborate Banquet.

All But a Few of the Delegates Are Homeward Bound.

Land Commissioner Groff Denies the Request of a Dakota Matron.

Secretary Blaine Will Give the Pan-American Delegates a Southern Trip.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The Knights have broken rank. Thousands of them are on their way home to-day, while other thousands were scattered through the city, in the hotels, in the horse cars, driving in carriages and strolling through the streets. Everywhere was the white and blue, and the red cross or the fez. At the session of the grand encampment to-day, Eminent Commander John H. O'Leary, of the Order of Columbia, was assisted by one of his knightly intercessors for a year for having illegally knighted William Oscar Roon, and the grand master was declared illegal. The grand master announced the appointment of the following officers:

Secy. M. Moulton, of Illinois, grand standard bearer; Col. Myron M. Parker, of the District of Columbia, grand sword bearer; Henry M. Alton, of Tennessee, grand waiter; Francis E. White, of Nebraska, grand cap bearer. This afternoon the members of the grand encampment visited Mount Vernon as the guests of the triennial convalee. The grand encampment was held, and the excursionists returned to Washington in the afternoon. A grand banquet took place this evening, given by the local committee in their honor. Col. Myron M. Parker presided, and Grand Master Groff occupied the seat on his right. On his left was Col. Parker's guest, Maj. Thomas McCallister, of the grand encampment of the Order of Ireland. Covers were laid for 255 persons. The banquet was the final event of the convalee, and many knights took their departure from the city this evening.

SPECIAL SPOONER.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The Wisconsin Knights Templar, headed by the official band, called at the Elberton tonight and serenaded Senator Spooner. Gen. Chapman made a complimentary speech of introduction and Senator Spooner responded in a complimentary manner. The Oshkosh band then called upon and serenaded Art J. Dotz, the Milwaukee Senator's correspondent. Mr. Dodge was formerly managing editor of the Oshkosh Times, and is personally acquainted with every member of the Wisconsin Knights Templar known in every town in Wisconsin.

NO CHANGE IN CEREMONIAL.
The Grand Encampment Holds Its Final Meeting.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—At the meeting of the grand encampment to-day the committee on ritual made its report. The report was adopted in part, so much of it as related to ceremonial being referred back to a later meeting with certain amendments, with instructions to prepare a report to be submitted at the next triennial convalee. The ritual for the next three years longer. Sir Knight Hopkins, of Pittsburgh, from the committee on correspondence, reported on the grand encampment from 1870 to 1890. This history proved conclusively that the grand encampment was established by the authorities from Rhode Island, Massachusetts and New York. A resolution was presented concerning the pasting of the seal of the sense of the grand encampment that in all knight Templar parades and demonstrations, the Knights participating should wear no banners or flags, those belonging to the knight Templar or Masonic orders. This resolution was passed. The Knights then paraded wearing Elks, Knights of Pythias and other badges. The grand encampment then adjourned to the state of Indiana, delivered an appropriate address at the tomb of Washington to-day.

SHE MARRIED TOO SOON.

A Husband and Wife Cannot Perfect Separate Homestead Claims.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Land Commissioner Groff has rendered a decision in the case of My Barr, formerly Madison, a resident of the Mitchell, Dakota, district. It appears from the testimony that, in July, 1885, Mrs. Barr, then a resident of the state of Iowa, went to Dakota on a visit to a friend, and while there was informed that a certain tract of land was for sale. She then returned to her home in Iowa, and had it moved on her claim, broke one acre and made other improvements. At that time, she was in the state of Iowa, and had no intention of marrying Mr. Barr, but later they married.

When they moved the houses up close together on the line and sodded them up all around on the outside, making them one house, but Mr. Barr put his table, table, etc. in his; and that she put a bed, stove, etc. in hers; that no means of communication existed between the two different parts of the house except by going outside. It was found that she had acted in good faith in making the entry, and that she had no intention of conveying the land to her husband. The court held that she was entitled to the land, and that her husband's claim was rejected on the ground that husband and wife cannot maintain separate homestead claims on the same land, and that each, by virtue of said residence, may perfect an entry under the homestead law. It is said that there are a number of cases in the general land office similar in all important respects to the case of Mrs. Barr.

ANOTHER TOUR IN PROSPECT.
Pan-American Delegates to be Taken to the South.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—The secretary of state receives many invitations for the International American congress to visit certain sections of the South. It should be generally and widely known the present arrangement is that they are in January an itinerary will be arranged for the South, relatively more extensive than that which is now in progress in the North. To have taken in both sections in one itinerary would have been fatiguing and exhausting,

Ambrose laid in a stock of whisky, and he and his wife celebrated the marriage anniversary by drinking whisky. It was not until the next morning that the neighbors discovered the bodies of the unfortunate couple. They were found in their room, and the husband was found in a state of delirium. The coroner's report states that the husband had been drinking whisky for ten days at a time about every two months. When it is done by a three-year-old stallion at the trotting gait it means a record that will stand for many a day. It means the acme of physical endurance, courage and all that goes to make a king of all horses. The fourth day of the fall meeting brought out a crowd, large and enthusiastic as ever a perfect Indian summer sun shone upon, to witness an event that one is fortunate to see in a lifetime—the great Axtell to beat the three-year-old record of 2:13 1/2 held by the California filly Sunol.
