

A BABE IN PAUL.

BY THE WAY. Olaf Sealie sat in his office yesterday in a most interesting way. A card was lying on his desk, on which appeared the word "Bastikiken" as the name of a Scandinavian paper. Mr. Sealie was asked what the word meant; he replied: "It is a Norwegian word, 1,200 years old."

That the railroad difficulties would never be solved until the legislature should legislate against the roads. "The Hon. He always forgets that when a man has $1 an acre, this sort of thing will be of no use to him."

MAJ. A. G. POSTELNICK'S CALL ATTENTION.

To the members of the Episcopal Bishop Walker, of North Dakota, at the conference of the Protestant Episcopal church in New York, as reported in last Tuesday's Globe. The bishop of the diocese of Dakota, as a means of inducing financial assistance. He described a Dakota village in all its horrors, painting it to his hearers in a way that made them turn up their coat collars. The part of the bishop's speech that Maj. Postelnick took particular notice of is that in which he asks for a private railroad car, with a vestibule platform and a smoking room, for the use of the bishop, and a committee of the board of directors of the railroad, who are to be named by the board, to give his hearers the impression that Dakota was in a chronic state of "hizz."

JIM HILL FOR GOVERNOR!

The cry is gaining considerable hold among conservative business men. Inquiries made in a desultory way yesterday showed that while few men had considered the matter, it was being discussed in many quarters. It is believed that the Democratic nomination would be a popular candidate. The fact that the Democratic nomination would be a popular candidate is a fact that is being discussed in many quarters. It is believed that the Democratic nomination would be a popular candidate.

A NEW PRISON MANAGER.

M. O. Hall, of Duluth, has been appointed member of the board of prison inspectors to take the place of C. H. Hunter, who has resigned. Mr. Hunter's resignation is caused by illness, which he will carry to Europe for a stay of several years. Mr. Hall is well known all over the state. He is cashier of the national bank. Before going to Duluth the year was engaged in business at Granite Falls, and is a well-known politician.

ATLANTA'S OWNER.

The performance of Axtell yesterday was very gratifying to S. S. Noteman, of South Park, who said: "I resided near Atlanta, Ga., where Axtell was raised, and know his owner very well. He is a young man, and as he also has two stallions, he will carry Axtell to Europe for a stay of several years. Mr. Hall is well known all over the state. He is cashier of the national bank. Before going to Duluth the year was engaged in business at Granite Falls, and is a well-known politician."

BELOW THE BELT.

The Park Commissioners Shoot at the Wrong Man. The regular meeting of the park commissioners was set for yesterday, but as only four members assembled no business was transacted. But those present went in a corner and passed the following resolution: Whereas the custodian of the court house in the distance of the park commission, turned the park commission out of the commodious rooms assigned them by the court house committee. Therefore, be it resolved, that a committee of five be appointed to select and designate rooms elsewhere.

Boys and liberties last night. Mr. McMillen, however, states that his assets will foot up about $10,000, and that his liabilities will amount to about that amount.

THE ANNUAL SESSION OF THE STATE SWEDENBORGIANS.

While the New Jerusalem church, commonly known as Swedenborgian, has only two churches in this state, they are both prosperous. Probably the prettiest church in St. Paul is the one at 10th street, which was crowded yesterday by attendants at the annual meeting of the state association. A preliminary service of worship opened the session. After this service the elected as follows: President, Rev. E. C. Mitchell, of St. Paul; vice president, C. J. S. David, of Minneapolis; secretary, C. F. Farber, of Minneapolis; treasurer, E. N. Cutler, of St. Paul; members of the church committee, ex-officio, Marshall, of Paul; Hon. M. Gilman, of St. Paul; P. Nelson, of Minneapolis; St. H. Putnam, of Minneapolis. The president, Rev. Mitchell, delivered his annual address, the subject of which was "Signs of the Times." The eloquent pastor treated the subject in a most interesting manner, and his address was received with the most favorable attention. He pointed out that people are drifting further and further away from the principles of the church, and that the church is in a most critical position. He urged that the church should stand firm on its principles, and that it should not be swayed by the world. He also pointed out that the church is in a most critical position, and that it should stand firm on its principles, and that it should not be swayed by the world.

TOUGH AND OTHERWISE.

Judge Barr sat through a long session of the police court yesterday, during which he had few cases of particular interest. "Jocco" Conway made his second appearance this week before the court, charged with the same offense as last time. He was arrested with the boys John Ward and James Foley, while ransacking the third story of the block at 14th and Broadway streets. Their cases were continued until to-day. The case against Thomas Trizer, accused of being a drunkard, was also continued until to-day. The case against Henry Latham of embezzlement, was heard and taken under advisement. Charles Neunski, a young Jew peddler, was fined $25 for disorderly conduct. Neunski is a minor, and made his home with his mother. He was arrested when his mother refused to give him $40 that he had earned. Attorney E. S. Thompson was fined $10 for using obscene language. The complainant witnesses were J. H. Gieske, proprietor of the Tremont house, and Richard Cavannaugh, with whom Thompson was in trouble at the time. Jennie Thompson and Thomas Murray, a disorderly couple from the house at 776 Jackson street, were fined $25 each. Margaret Bradley, an old-time, got ninety days for drunkenness.

Matchless Melody.

Ford's piano warerooms were last evening the scene of one of the most pleasant and thoroughly artistic musical events given thus far in this season. The first of the series to be given by the eminent pianist, Edward Perry, of Boston. Mr. Perry played a grand piano, and his performance was most excellent. He played a variety of pieces, including a waltz by Chopin, a nocturne in D flat, Ballade in A flat (Chopin), a grand finale, an excellent recital of Liszt's "Hungarian Honours." Some very fine vocal selections were given by the Mendelssohn quartette. The "Three Fishers" (Thebeck) was perfectly sung, and called forth rapturous applause from an appreciative audience. Storck's "Hussar Song" and Hatton's "Good Night" were also well received, and the success of the series is well assured.

Killen's Bonanza.

Pat Killen received word yesterday that the will of his mother, who died several months ago, had been probated. There was a law suit over the will, but it is now all right, and Pat will leave for Philadelphia next week to get his share of the estate. The property left consists of twenty-four acres at Haddington, near Philadelphia. Pat estimated that his share of it will amount to from $11,000 to $12,000. It is left in Mrs. Killen's will to her three children, Patrick, Dennis and Mary. Pat will bring his brother out to St. Paul when he returns from the East. His multitude of friends will all congratulate him upon this stroke of good fortune.

OVER FIFTY THOUSAND.

The increase in the City and County Salary List. The chamber of commerce will be given an opportunity to tip things up the back next Monday morning. The city committee on city and county officials and taxes have completed their report on official salaries and expenses, and the whole will be made a special order at the next meeting. Copies of the report have been sent to all members of the chamber and city and county officials, with an invitation to attend the meeting. The report first presents a statement of the city debt to have been $6,417,745.10 at the beginning of the present year, or a steady increase of $5,162,623.25 since Jan. 1, 1880. The apparently apparent comparison is explained by the fact that the following figures are given:
