president's speech, heard PATTI sing, viewed the decorations of the mammoth building, was charmed with the acoustical qualities of the structure, and then came out and told a Tribune reporter that "he was proud to be a part of the spirit that has put up such a monument to a city's culture and enterprise."

EXTRAVAGANCE IN CONGRESS. Mr. DUNNELL goes at it rather modestly, yet quite effectively, in his endeavor to control the extravagance of the plans for squandering the surplus. His particular plan is to allow each of the 35 representatives in the lower house a private secretary, whose salary is to be paid out of the national treasury.

TO-DAY'S WEATHER. WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—For Wisconsin: Fair; mostly lighter lower temperature. For Minnesota: Fair, except in extreme southern portion; lighter in adv. warmer in western, colder in eastern; easterly winds. For North and South Dakota: Fair; warmer; easterly winds. For Iowa: Fair, followed by western portion by light rain Tuesday night; slightly warmer; variable winds.

THE BEST RESULTS. Editor of the Globe: I can frankly say that I receive the best results from my advertising in your paper of any paper in the Northwest.

THE STOLEN OF A DAY. Judge Wesley died at Hudson. The state of Washington Davis is struck in full. Several Duluth elevators drop into the British main.

BURIAL OF JEFF DAVIS. It is not often that a man dies without a country, and still less frequent that an ex-Confederate has the honor paid to him at death, and that, too, in the land of his birth, and that, too, in the city of New Orleans yesterday when the remains of JEFFERSON DAVIS were committed to earth.

STUCK IN THE MUD. Hypocrisy was never a winning card in politics, and the Republicans in both of the Dakotas are now having a sad demonstration of this remark.

IRRIGATION IS NECESSARY. It is noteworthy that while most of the zealous people who now represent the most Dakota states in congress are putting in the foreground of measures to illuminate the first chapters of their public career the irrigation policy, many of their constituents are vigorously protesting against their efforts.

TIMELY ENTHUSIASM. Gov. McKean, on his arrival at Washburn, attended the Chicago audience, when he was encouraged to lovingly lead the casket of his chief slain with flowers as it was being borne to the Macphail they had purchased for their dead.

can get along nicely without irrigation. Their unsurpassed cereal will usually make a good crop, and other products will suffer, with the water they are accustomed to, and in perhaps a majority of the years all parts of the state have moisture enough for fair production; but reliable and timely watering would insure such increase of production as far more than warrant the outlay.

SUFFRAGE IN BRAZIL. The report that Brazil had established universal suffrage under the new dispensation is modified by the limitation of ability to read and write. In that country the exception is vastly more comprehensive than it would be in the United States, as something like 55 per cent of the male adults are in the illiterate category.

AN EFFORT is being made in Ohio to induce the supreme court to decide that amendments to the constitution are adopted by the voters more votes than against, but less than a majority of the whole poll. That view would add to the constitution the prohibitory amendment without the possibility of being annulled.

THE CHOLERA PROSPECT. There is apprehension in Europe that the epidemic of influenza reported in Russia is the predecessor of the cholera. The local diagnosis is of that character, and the conservative are inclined to look upon the prospect with concern.

CUBA NEXT. An animated discussion is springing up again over the project of buying Cuba. Not that Spain is offering to sell. That is not an incident to be predicted.

TERSE TELEGRAMS. Muller & Co. boots and shoes, Montreal, have suspended business. A fire at the Duke of Connaught will visit the Dominion next June.

BURNED WHILE FIRING A SALUTE. COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 11.—By the premature explosion of a cannon used in firing a salute to J. W. Foster, who was badly burned. B. W. Blanton had a hand shattered, his arm lacerated, and was slightly injured.

FIFTY THOUSAND FOR A FIGHT. BOSTON, Dec. 11.—To-day Capt. Cook, of the Police News, received from Ellis Powell, of Santa Fe Springs, Cal., who was interested in the fight between Sullivan and Jackson, the following: "I will guarantee $50,000 to the men if they will do battle at my place."

MOVEMENTS OF STEAMSHIPS. New York—Arrived: Wyoming, from Liverpool; Bellan, from Fort of Spain; Coban, from Montreal and St. John, N. F.; Havana—Arrived: St. John, N. F.

OVERWORKED JUDGES. A Scheme to Increase the Membership of the Supreme Court. It Will Give Harrison a Chance to Elevate Five of His Friends.

Secretary Blaine Notifies Congress That They Must Tote Squarely. The American House of Lords Takes Precedence Before the President.

NOT READY TO CROAK. A Detroit Lumberman Accuses His Wife of Attempted Murder. She Tried to Poison Him, and Failing, Attempted Asphyxiation.

Attorney Forrest Finishes His Harangue in Behalf of Cronin's Slayers. Ruse of a Philadelphia Doctor to Defraud an Insurance Company.

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—Robert E. Dawson, a Detroit lumberman, came to Chicago a few days ago and began to hunt for his wife, Martha Dawson, and her son, George E. Osman, whom he accuses of two attempts to murder him. He claims that on Oct. 28 he was tried to poison him by putting strychnine in some medicine, and evidence of which he has; and Nov. 21 he tried to suffocate him by putting a blanket over his head in his room. This latter attempt, Mr. Dawson says, he discovered at once and the guilty woman and his step-son fled to escape to St. Louis, where Chicago and they were arrested this afternoon.

FORREST'S STORY IS TOLD. Counsel for the Cronin Suspects Concludes His Long Harangue. CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—Mr. Forrest resumed his address to the jury in the Cronin murder case this morning by a discussion of the question, "Was the horse Dan's horse?" Mr. Forrest said, described peculiarities about the horse which Mr. Dinan had never seen. Mrs. Conklin described a peculiarity about the horse, the swinging of the tail, and Mr. Forrest said that his wife had told him to transfer all his property to her name, and having yielded she was anxious to get rid of him.

THE POLICE COURT. "Daniel Ryan, you are charged with drunkenness. Have you been before this court before on the same charge?" inquired Judge Emery as Daniel stood up in the bull pen.
