

SAINT PAUL, WANT ALL THE FACTS.

PASSED IN REVIEW. Some one should stick a red pole in a convenient snow bank in memory of the fact that for now the prediction of Sign Officer Greely has been verified.

There is a Heavy Indebtedness, Now Where Did It Begin? It is a public society. It carries the duty of a state organization, directly under the fostering care of the commonwealth, and is partially supported by an annual appropriation from the public treasury.

The Same Story of Profit Was Told of the Merriam Regime. It does not appear that there is any reason for disbelieving from the exact financial condition of the state agricultural society; but, on the contrary, there are the best of reasons why the public should be given every detail of the business of the society.

An Institution of Which the Public Is Entitled to Know. It does not appear that there is any reason for disbelieving from the exact financial condition of the state agricultural society; but, on the contrary, there are the best of reasons why the public should be given every detail of the business of the society.

Those warm-hearted gentlemen who were so eager to see every one connected with the Lake Johanna matter "sent over the road" must have felt a cold chill when they learned the grand jury had unanimously decided not to present the matter to court.

W. F. Dickenson, of Redwood Falls, was a Sault Ste. Marie visitor yesterday. Mr. Dickenson is a prominent banker of Redwood Falls, and is a resident of that thriving little city.

Charles E. Davis, of Lake Crystal, dropped into St. Paul yesterday and is now domiciled at the Merchants. Mr. Davis is the proprietor of a large general store in his town, and is recognized as one of the brightest business men in Blue Earth county.

In the days when the great "Boss" Tweed ruled the city of New York, one of the brightest young lieutenants he had in the whole city was Frank Lelievre, a live, young carpet man.

Ex-Gov. John P. St. John, of Kansas, will lecture on "Prohibition" at People's church Tuesday evening, Jan. 14. Admission, 10 cents.

THE FATHER WAS LATE

And Lord Ullin Failed to Catch His Daughter and Her Lover. The Pioneer Press always insisted that it was no indebitness carried over from the Merriam regime, and at that time refused to publish a communication from S. M. Owens showing there was no actual indebtedness.

The Father Finds Them at the Windsor as Man and Wife. The father of the bride, Mr. Damar, of Lexington, Ky., was in St. Paul yesterday, and was met by the bridegroom, Mr. McLeod, at the Windsor hotel.

The Bride Refuses to Desert, and the Pair Left for Winnipeg. Among the guests at the Windsor yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McLeod. The register showed that the couple were married at Kentucky, though from what particular corner of that state they hailed was not at first apparent.

NEWS IN A NUTSHELL. A. J. Pitzer was yesterday elected president of the recently organized Fifth ward citizens' union, which will meet on Friday evening at 7 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Pitzer.

THE LOCAL BLIZZARD. Wires Reported All Right, and Railroads Have Little Trouble. "It isn't an old-fashioned blizzard," said an old-timer who had just returned from the storm which had prevailed all day, "but it's the next thing to it, and really makes one think of winter and lots of snow."

ONE MORE CHURCH.

The Macalester Presbyterians Dedicate a New House of Worship. The text teaches us of a fiercer battle with the flesh and the devil, but holds out to us a promise of victory, and we ought not to be deterred by any difficulties or seeming lack of success.

"Use Your Edifice for Devotional Purposes Solely." Yesterday afternoon the Presbyterians of Macalester Park solemnized the dedication ceremonies of their new chapel on Summit avenue. The church organization was perfected early in 1887, and a year ago the lot upon which the present building stands was purchased at a cost of $4,500.

THE AFTERNOON SERVICES. The afternoon services were opened by the Doxology, sung by the choir and congregation, which was followed by a doxology in Latin by Rev. M. D. Edwards, of Dayton Avenue church, St. Paul.
