READY FOR A RAID. Boomers Preparing to Rush Upon the Sioux Reservation.

Special to the Globe. SIOUX FALLS, N. D., Jan. 14.—The news received here last night that President Harrison would issue his proclamation this week opening the Great Sioux reservation to settlement has caused an immense stir among prospective settlers awaiting to go on, and notwithstanding the little rain and cold weather preparations are being made for a grand rush when the time comes. If it wasn't for the fact that the reservation is now occupied by thousands of settlers and speculators, but the boomers have special orders to prevent an influx of settlers under the new proclamation. It is estimated that the number of settlers is increasing every hour, and when the president's proclamation is issued the rush of settlers will eclipse that of Oklahoma, which is the middle of a hard winter.

COMING TO THEIR SENSES. South Dakota Legislators Discard Penny Wise and Pound Foolish Principles.

Special to the Globe. SIOUX FALLS, N. D., Jan. 14.—The legislature to-day took its first tumble on the economic principles it staked out to follow at the beginning of the session. The members at first thought they could afford to print the bills of the senate and house journals of proceedings, together with bills and all other matter which should be in any law-making body. But things have been getting so tight that they are now printing day contracts for printing the journals of each house were awarded to the Commercial Press. AN ARTESIAN WELL CURBED. Part of the Town of Woonsocket is Now a Lake.

Woonsocket, S. D., Jan. 14.—The flow from the artesian well was brought under subjection yesterday although it seemed impossible. A lake covering over forty acres has been formed in the lower part of the town, on some vacant lots. A dense fog is constantly rising from the warm water. Numbers of birds and wild animals are seen. The pressure is now turned on and the water runs through a six-inch pipe and throws a solid stream fifteen feet. Artesian experts say the well is one of the most powerful in the world. The proprietors of the Woonsocket flour mills have offered to pay for the water $1,000 a year for less than one-half the power. The council will make liberal offers to manufacturers to locate here and use the water.

A large majority of the Indians have already signed an agreement to sell their lands amounting to about 7,000,000 acres, in severalty. They have each received 100 acres, in severalty. Special to the Globe. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Jan. 14.—For months past at irregular intervals the settlers on the Crow Creek and Winkonago reservations have been missing some of their choicest cattle, and careful watching has resulted in the discovery that a certain person, also a settler on the reservation, has been selling large numbers of cattle to the local dealers here. A warrant was sworn out for his arrest, but he and the officers have been unable to discover his whereabouts. It is believed that he is in hiding somewhere on the reservation. He is the Indian, who are continually roaming about all portions of the reservation, and are sure to discover him, and they will at once report the fact to the officers here. The argument was altogether contrary to the points already presented in the attorney's written declaration of errors. Judge McConnell announced his decision in the following terms: "I think it would be more precise for me to take more time to deliberate on this matter. I would not arrive at any different conclusion in several days than I have now. It has weighed upon my mind during the trial and all through it that the defendants should have a fair trial. I will adjourn the trial for three days, and will reconvene on Friday."

To-day twenty-one of the rebels were executed. The mutineers were not in the mutiny, but all the non-commissioned officers were. The cause of the mutiny was dissatisfaction with the new government. DES MOINES, Io., Jan. 13.—The house this morning continued the deadlock on temporary clerk, the five independent caucusing and voting with the Democrats, notwithstanding that Ewart, the Union League member from Potosi, Mo., declared Saturday that he would vote no caucus. On the tenth ballot the house adjourned until to-morrow morning.
