

SAINT PAUL.

Campagna Pen Sketch.

Hon. Henry W. Cory, the present senior judge of the municipal court, is what might be termed a "natural born" judge.

H.W. Cory

controverted points in a case readily, and to apply to them those legal principles which can be gained only by long and careful study.

ECHOES OF THE STREET.

Strenuous efforts are being made in the Dayton's bluff district to secure a heavy registration of voters.

Hon. John C. Flynn, of Little Falls, was in the city yesterday. He is the only member of the late legislature who has thus far declined to seek re-election.

Lieut. Gov. Rice spent yesterday in St. Paul. He declined to say anything as to the nature of his business in the city, but during the afternoon was noticed to come out of the Merchant's hotel.

Hon. C. T. Peterson, of New Ulm, who is spending a few days in the city, is much amused by the reports made by the Farmers' alliance men.

Ald. Yoerg's ensilage against the board of education is laughed at by that body. "Reply to it, not me," said the inspector when asked to reply.

Clarence E. Tobb, the whilom candidate for alderman in the Second ward, is reported to have retired in favor of E. Reed's candidacy.

Hon. J. N. Ives—I am always desirous of doing what I can for the best interests of the Democratic party.

Alvin R. Bushnell reports a syndicate in the city which is attempting to purchase some down town lots.

Relief Agent Hutchins—in order to properly prosecute the work of the relief society we should have an income of $5,000 per annum.

When the news of the death of Eugene Wilson became known in the city yesterday, expressions of regret were to be heard on all sides.

St. Paul is going to be a great center for convention work.

The Halleleluah chorus sung by well-trained chorists at the People's church to-night.

The St. Paul Cycle club will have a club run this evening.

Don't fail to hear the wonderful boy, Otto Hegner, to-night at the People's church.

HAS BURGER BOLTED?

Some of the Efforts Being Made to Force Leithauser to Withdraw.

The Unparalleled Total of Tuesday's Registration Is 15,000.

Certificates of Removal Are Not Required Preliminary to Registration.

Reese Afflicted With Too Much Politics and Inattention to Duties.

What's the matter with Matt Leithauser?

This was the question fired at Capt. Joe Burger a thousand times yesterday, and which he declined to answer.

But Capt. Burger has come back on his old-time friend, the paper, "Dear Leithauser, an Mississippi," is out this week with a large picture of the syndicate candidate for the council in the Second ward.

Strenuous efforts are being made in the Dayton's bluff district to secure a heavy registration of voters.

The Volkzeitung yesterday contained the following neat compliment for Ald. Conley, of the Third ward.

The Eighth Ward Democratic club will meet this evening at Brand's hall, corner of University and Western avenues.

There will be an enthusiastic Democratic meeting on Front street, near Lexington avenue, on Monday evening.

The First ward Democrats will entertain at the hall corner of Payne avenue and Case streets on Saturday evening.

Col. Kiefer, the Republican candidate for the publication of the following announcement:

Candidates for mayor and aldermen will note that the platform from the Workingmen's Municipal Reform club, chairman names come from Frank Valiesh, chairman of the central committee.

Will Aid. Leithauser, who has been regularly and legally nominated for alderman of the Second ward by the Republicans of that ward, allow the syndicate candidate with his large campaign fund to crowd him out of the track?

Are the "friends of Matt Leithauser and L. E. Reed" going to take in favor of the latter? The fact that Mr. Reed's name has not yet been nominated by the clerk of court, although they were prepared and ready nearly two weeks ago, leaves just room for the inference that Mr. Reed's friends will go to this meeting with the idea of submitting the claims of each (Leithauser and Reed) to the said gathering.

Can the "friends of Mr. Reed and Mr. Leithauser" affiliate successfully? Can Mr. Reed, professedly always a strong Democrat, carry the Republican vote of the Second ward?

Frank Lockwood is giving Ald. D. M. Sullivan considerable uneasiness in the Eleventh ward.

In yesterday's Globe C. F. Gaeffle was alluded to as an anarchist.

Get your reserved seats at Dyer's Music Store for the Church Choir Chorus Club concert and Otto Hegner to-night.

OVER FIFTEEN THOUSAND

The registration books used on Tuesday last were all returned to City Clerk Prendergast's office yesterday, as required by law.

The total registration of the first day—and this is the first time it is correctly given—was 15,417, or within 100 of the total of the entire registration of two years ago, and presages a full vote.

It has been stated upon good authority that the retirement of Mr. Reese has been decided upon by the city attorney for the very good reason that the duties he has discharged have been performed in the most perfunctory manner.

A TOUGH QUARTETTE.

Detectives Horan, Daly, Kernally and Ahern made a good catch last night. Noticing suspicious actions on the part of several youngsters near the gas house, Horan, with his confederates, and the quartette laid in hiding in the rear of Kinney's old boiler shop, between Fourth and Fifth streets.

The tin, sheet iron and cornice workers had a large meeting last night at the Excelsior street, 100 below, present, with 15 additions to the union.

Officer Kafka arrested the house of John Leidorf to arrest the latter's son. The hour was late at night, and the policeman had no warrant, consequently he was obliged to allow the boy to be taken.

C. K. Boyington, agent for the Schofield Buoy company, applied for a license to sell beer in the city.

The variety actor, Joe Martin, who jumped from the Excelsior hotel, was discharged, Judge Egan making it a rule not to prosecute such cases.

Mary Murand, a woman who came from Chicago on a begging expedition, was taken to the police station and sentenced by the judge to three months at the workhouse.

The man Ed Sippen, who abused his wife and attempted to run away with her, was taken to the police station and sentenced by the judge to three months at the workhouse.

THE CERTIFICATE QUESTION.

Judges Can Demand a Certificate on This Year's Registration.

Only one of the judges of election were, under a mistaken view of the election law, unintentionally the means of preventing a number of voters from registering on Tuesday last.

That is, in other words if a man registered last Tuesday in the First precinct of the Fourth ward, say, and removed to the Second precinct of another ward on Saturday, he could not be registered in the second ward.
