

PICKET AN INGRATE.

St. Paul's Old Shortstop Enjoined From Playing With Philadelphia.

His Shabby Treatment of the Cowboys Denounced by the Court.

Results of Contests in the Two Leagues and American Association.

Pedestrian Harriman Reaches the Half-Way Point on His Journey.

PHILADELPHIA, May 5.—The suit of the American Association base ball club, of Kansas City against John T. Pickett, of St. Paul, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

The judge granted the injunction asked for in the bill. This was that Pickett be restrained by an injunction, preliminary until the hearing of the case, and perpetually thereafter, from playing base ball with or giving his services as base ball player for the season of 1890, to any other club or organization, person or persons, whatever, other than the Kansas City club, and that the Players' National League Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, which was argued on Saturday, was decided by Judge Arnold this morning.

the eighth on two two-baggers, and Gleason, who expressed no remorse at her action, and has not inquired as to Durman's condition. She apparently feels her disgrace keenly, and although her attorney has told her she is sure he would secure her release, she has said nothing that would lead any one to suppose that she looks forward with pleasure to her discharge.

Philadelphia, May 5.—The international rifle contests were opened here to-day. King Humbert, Queen Marguerite and all the members of the Italian cabinet were present at the opening ceremonies. The Italian provinces are represented by 200 riflemen. The shooting was opened by the king, who fired the first five shots.

Attendance at League Games. New York, May 5.—The attendance at the Players' and National league games to-day was as follows: Players' Philadelphia 2,723; Brooklyn, 1,116; Chicago 5,232; total, 6,465. National Philadelphia 1,088; Brooklyn 1,323; Chicago 250; total, 3,361.

To Be Exported to Germany. LEXINGTON, Ky., May 5.—Maj. H. C. McDowell, of this city, has sold to Fred Schante, Dusseldorf, Germany, the brown filly Illusion, three years old, by Dictator, by Gossamer, by Princeps; price, $2,500.

PLUNGERS DUMPED. Short Horses Carry Off the Honors at Elizabeth. ELIZABETH, N. J., May 5.—Plungers dumped their shacks to-day, a majority of the races being won. Results: First race, five-eighths of a mile—Pitzyro won, Gloster second, Glenmore third. Time, 1:5.5.

Second race, one and eighth mile—Lestony won, King Crab second, Bellwood third. Time, 2:09.4.

Third race, five-eighths of a mile—Leon Rossion won, Shoveler second, Verne third. Time, 1:05.4.

Fourth race, half a mile—Lord Harry won, Kitty B second, Cascade third. Time, :54.

Fifth race, three-fourths of a mile—Bangs won, Sam Morse second, Major Daily third. Time, 1:18.

Sixth race, one and eighth miles—Royal Garter won, Admiral coast, Rudolph third. Time, 2:04.2.

SEVENTH FOR TO-DAY. First race, five furlongs—Young Duke, 125; Lonsdale, 125; Adelle B, 110; Reford, 105; Homeopathy, 105; Extra Dry, 110; Civil Service, 110; Sorrento, 122.

Second race, three-quarters of a mile—Porter, 100; Wasev, 100; Vitality, 100; San Jose, 100; McGregor, 100; Hyperion, 112; Lee Christy, 113; Sister Toluca, 113.

Third race, three-quarters of a mile, selling—Shooter, 110; Mattie Loran, 110; He, 100; Gals, 100; Phoebe, 100; Nixa W, 107; Stephen, 103; Fante Cristo, 100; Batestery, 114; Bohemian, 114; Equalizer, 99.

Fourth race, three-quarters of a mile, selling—Marianne, 103; Chickahominy, 100; Fox Hill, 100; Lake Wood, 100; Moss, 100; Bill Barnes, 112; Sir William, 90; Harrier, 124; Sovereign, 90; Manifold, 110; Belle, 110.

New Jersey Jockey club handicap, one and one-quarter miles—Badge, 122; Offhand, 112; Targum, 115; Eric, 112; Dunbroog, 109; Bellwood, 107; My Fellow, 107; Hyperion, 107; Stephen, 103; Fante Cristo, 100; Batestery, 114; Bohemian, 114; Equalizer, 99.

Sixth race, five furlongs—Young George, 111; Gals, 107; Phoebe, 110; Reford, 105; Top Sawyer, 107; Casser, 106; Royal Garter, 100; Wasev, 100; Vitality, 100; San Jose, 100; McGregor, 100; Hyperion, 112; Lee Christy, 113; Sister Toluca, 113.

Seventh race, one mile, selling—Lancaster, 107; Gals, 107; Phoebe, 110; Reford, 105; Top Sawyer, 107; Casser, 106; Royal Garter, 100; Wasev, 100; Vitality, 100; San Jose, 100; McGregor, 100; Hyperion, 112; Lee Christy, 113; Sister Toluca, 113.

Selections: First race, Young Duke and Civil Service; second race, San Jose and Hyperion; third race, shooter and Mattie Loran; fourth race, Sir William and Lakewood; fifth race, Belle and Gals; sixth race, Terrifier and Young George; fourth race, Sparling and King Vol.

Meeting of the Presbytery. A special meeting of the St. Paul presbytery will be held at Andrew Presbyterian church this evening at 7:30 for the purpose of installing Rev. William M. Kincaid as pastor. Rev. Dr. McCurdy, moderator of the presbytery, will preside. Prof. George E. McLain, of the state university, will preach the sermon. Dr. Burnett will deliver the charge to the pastor, and Rev. Dr. Edwards, of St. Paul, the charge to the church.

For Decoration Day. The sub-committee in favor of the G. A. R. memorial committee held a meeting in the Nicollet house parlors last evening and received reports from the various sub-committees which had been allotted work in different sections of the city. The work of collecting flowers from the school houses will commence on Wednesday, May 30, and all the school children will be requested to contribute.

Found Drowned. The body of a man in an advanced stage of decomposition was found floating in the river near the Twentieth avenue north bridge yesterday. An examination made by coroner Towers of the clothing revealed a naturalization paper bearing the name of John Moler, a native of Sweden, twenty-two years of age, who was taken to the poor farm and buried. No inquest will be held. The body of Mathias Petersen, the tailor, who hung himself on Sunday at 240 Fremont avenue, is still in Connelly's morgue. As Petersen left some money it is probable that the coroner will make an order allowing a portion of the money to be used for his funeral expenses instead of allowing him to be buried by the county.

Council Meets To-Night. A special meeting of the city council will be held at 7:30 this evening to consider the petition of the Minneapolis Street Railway company for permission to lay a conduit for carrying the feed wires for the electrical lines under ground. The proposal for building the Thirty-third street bridge, and the tunnel under Third avenue north, which have been considered by the committee on roads and bridges, will also be considered, and a resolution will be passed on the granting of licenses will be passed upon. A meeting of the license committee has been called for 2 o'clock this afternoon.

A Starch Factory. The stockholders in the Flouring Starch company have elected as directors Charles Guick, G. R. Paegel, Jacob Buswinger, Peter Ganser and James Powers. The capital stock of $20,000 is reported nearly subscribed, and land has been selected on the east side of the city. The factory will be built at once, and in operation in time to handle the next potato crop, which is now being contracted for. Large feeding pens will be built near the factory for the purpose of fattening cattle on the refuse from the mill.

Polis Open at 6 and Close at 5. MINNEAPOLIS. THE FIGHT STILL ON. The Liljengren Trouble Gets Into Court. The trouble between the members of the Liljengren Furniture company culminated yesterday in the arrest of George Pond and Elmer Gould on the charge of assault and battery. Pond and Gould were committed upon A. N. Hansen and A. N. Johnson, the watchmen employed by the Liljengren faction. George Pond was placed under bonds to the peace several days ago and the Liljengren faction wanted Judge Emery to declare the bond forfeited. After listening to the testimony the court said that the defendants had a perfect right to prevent Liljengren or any one else from breaking into the store, and dismissed the case. One of the defendants, watching the other, and interesting developments are promised before the matter is settled. Yesterday was a full day in the municipal court, there being only one vagrant and eight ordinary cases of drunkenness, which were disposed of in the usual manner.

SMALL IS AHEAD. His Injunction Against Davison and the Others Still Holds. S. S. Small is ahead so far in his litigation with C. Wright Davison and the other stockholders of the Minneapolis Electro-Matrix company, who Small alleges, are trying to freeze him out of the company. Judge Lochren yesterday filed a decision, in which Judge Smith concurred, denying the motion to dissolve the injunction secured some time ago by Small, restraining Davison and the other stockholders and directors from disposing of any of the Minneapolis Electro-Matrix company's rights and property. The injunction still holds and the matter will have to stand a regular trial in order to determine whether there has been crooked work in the management of the affairs of the company. Some more light will yet be thrown upon the way in which the company's affairs have been conducted by the application of the dew of heaven.

Durnam's Condition. The physicians who are attending Morris W. Durnam, who was shot by Emma Schmidt, now think that patient will recover. When Dr. Bars dressed the wound yesterday there was no sign of inflammation, and unless some unforeseen complications arise no serious results are feared. No attempt has been made to remove the bullet, and the doctors are turning their attention to healing up the wound, and will leave the bullet ball remain where it is, Emma could tell remain where it is, Emma could tell remain where it is.

Changed to Avoid a Clash. COLUMBUS, O., May 5.—The owners of the Columbus Base Ball club, who have been reticent about the conduct of Fred B. Newburg, late secretary and treasurer of the club, admitted yesterday that he was an embezzler of thousands of dollars. His stealings have been covered by a shrewd system of false entries.

Walking for Gate Receipts. DETROIT, Mich., May 5.—A seventy-two hours' hard toe walking match was started here this noon. At midnight the scores stood as follows: Driscoll, 60 miles; Hoagland, 66; Meagher, 67; Olmsted, 64; Messier, 63; Smith, 55; Corcoran, 56; Oddy, 61; Hatten, 52; Krantz, 52; Unknown, 50; Townsend, 56; Glick, 50; Benedict, 39; Nolan, 55; Little, 52.

Jim Fell's Waterloo. SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—Jim Fell, a heavyweight of considerable note, was whipped in twenty rounds at Virginia City, Nev., Saturday night, by Bill Keogh, a gigantic young Nevada, with little ring experience. The battle was won by Keogh by a knockout in the seventh round. Keogh received a seven per cent of gate receipts, amounting to $2,000, went to Keogh. In addition to this, the men wagered $500 apiece on the side. Fell was knocked through the ropes three times in the final round.

Newburg is an Embezzler. COLUMBUS, O., May 5.—The owners of the Columbus Base Ball club, who have been reticent about the conduct of Fred B. Newburg, late secretary and treasurer of the club, admitted yesterday that he was an embezzler of thousands of dollars. His stealings have been covered by a shrewd system of false entries.

Changed to Avoid a Clash. COLUMBUS, O., May 5.—The owners of the Columbus Base Ball club, who have been reticent about the conduct of Fred B. Newburg, late secretary and treasurer of the club, admitted yesterday that he was an embezzler of thousands of dollars. His stealings have been covered by a shrewd system of false entries.

Changed to Avoid a Clash. COLUMBUS, O., May 5.—The owners of the Columbus Base Ball club, who have been reticent about the conduct of Fred B. Newburg, late secretary and treasurer of the club, admitted yesterday that he was an embezzler of thousands of dollars. His stealings have been covered by a shrewd system of false entries.

Changed to Avoid a Clash. COLUMBUS, O., May 5.—The owners of the Columbus Base Ball club, who have been reticent about the conduct of Fred B. Newburg, late secretary and treasurer of the club, admitted yesterday that he was an embezzler of thousands of dollars. His stealings have been covered by a shrewd system of false entries.

Changed to Avoid a Clash. COLUMBUS, O., May 5.—The owners of the Columbus Base Ball club, who have been reticent about the conduct of Fred B. Newburg, late secretary and treasurer of the club, admitted yesterday that he was an embezzler of thousands of dollars. His stealings have been covered by a shrewd system of false entries.

Changed to Avoid a Clash. COLUMBUS, O., May 5.—The owners of the Columbus Base Ball club, who have been reticent about the conduct of Fred B. Newburg, late secretary and treasurer of the club, admitted yesterday that he was an embezzler of thousands of dollars. His stealings have been covered by a shrewd system of false entries.

Changed to Avoid a Clash. COLUMBUS, O., May 5.—The owners of the Columbus Base Ball club, who have been reticent about the conduct of Fred B. Newburg, late secretary and treasurer of the club, admitted yesterday that he was an embezzler of thousands of dollars. His stealings have been covered by a shrewd system of false entries.

Changed to Avoid a Clash. COLUMBUS, O., May 5.—The owners of the Columbus Base Ball club, who have been reticent about the conduct of Fred B. Newburg, late secretary and treasurer of the club, admitted yesterday that he was an embezzler of thousands of dollars. His stealings have been covered by a shrewd system of false entries.

Changed to Avoid a Clash. COLUMBUS, O., May 5.—The owners of the Columbus Base Ball club, who have been reticent about the conduct of Fred B. Newburg, late secretary and treasurer of the club, admitted yesterday that he was an embezzler of thousands of dollars. His stealings have been covered by a shrewd system of false entries.

Changed to Avoid a Clash. COLUMBUS, O., May 5.—The owners of the Columbus Base Ball club, who have been reticent about the conduct of Fred B. Newburg, late secretary and treasurer of the club, admitted yesterday that he was an embezzler of thousands of dollars. His stealings have been covered by a shrewd system of false entries.

Changed to Avoid a Clash. COLUMBUS, O., May 5.—The owners of the Columbus Base Ball club, who have been reticent about the conduct of Fred B. Newburg, late secretary and treasurer of the club, admitted yesterday that he was an embezzler of thousands of dollars. His stealings have been covered by a shrewd system of false entries.

Changed to Avoid a Clash. COLUMBUS, O., May 5.—The owners of the Columbus Base Ball club, who have been reticent about the conduct of Fred B. Newburg, late secretary and treasurer of the club, admitted yesterday that he was an embezzler of thousands of dollars. His stealings have been covered by a shrewd system of false entries.

have games in Philadelphia on that date.

International Rifle Contests. ROME, May 5.—The international rifle contests were opened here to-day. King Humbert, Queen Marguerite and all the members of the Italian cabinet were present at the opening ceremonies. The Italian provinces are represented by 200 riflemen. The shooting was opened by the king, who fired the first five shots.

Attendance at League Games. New York, May 5.—The attendance at the Players' and National league games to-day was as follows: Players' Philadelphia 2,723; Brooklyn, 1,116; Chicago 5,232; total, 6,465. National Philadelphia 1,088; Brooklyn 1,323; Chicago 250; total, 3,361.

To Be Exported to Germany. LEXINGTON, Ky., May 5.—Maj. H. C. McDowell, of this city, has sold to Fred Schante, Dusseldorf, Germany, the brown filly Illusion, three years old, by Dictator, by Gossamer, by Princeps; price, $2,500.

PLUNGERS DUMPED. Short Horses Carry Off the Honors at Elizabeth. ELIZABETH, N. J., May 5.—Plungers dumped their shacks to-day, a majority of the races being won. Results: First race, five-eighths of a mile—Pitzyro won, Gloster second, Glenmore third. Time, 1:5.5.

Second race, one and eighth mile—Lestony won, King Crab second, Bellwood third. Time, 2:09.4.

Third race, five-eighths of a mile—Leon Rossion won, Shoveler second, Verne third. Time, 1:05.4.

Fourth race, half a mile—Lord Harry won, Kitty B second, Cascade third. Time, :54.

Fifth race, three-fourths of a mile—Bangs won, Sam Morse second, Major Daily third. Time, 1:18.

Sixth race, one and eighth miles—Royal Garter won, Admiral coast, Rudolph third. Time, 2:04.2.

SEVENTH FOR TO-DAY. First race, five furlongs—Young Duke, 125; Lonsdale, 125; Adelle B, 110; Reford, 105; Homeopathy, 105; Extra Dry, 110; Civil Service, 110; Sorrento, 122.

Second race, three-quarters of a mile—Porter, 100; Wasev, 100; Vitality, 100; San Jose, 100; McGregor, 100; Hyperion, 112; Lee Christy, 113; Sister Toluca, 113.

Third race, three-quarters of a mile, selling—Shooter, 110; Mattie Loran, 110; He, 100; Gals, 100; Phoebe, 100; Nixa W, 107; Stephen, 103; Fante Cristo, 100; Batestery, 114; Bohemian, 114; Equalizer, 99.

Fourth race, three-quarters of a mile, selling—Marianne, 103; Chickahominy, 100; Fox Hill, 100; Lake Wood, 100; Moss, 100; Bill Barnes, 112; Sir William, 90; Harrier, 124; Sovereign, 90; Manifold, 110; Belle, 110.

New Jersey Jockey club handicap, one and one-quarter miles—Badge, 122; Offhand, 112; Targum, 115; Eric, 112; Dunbroog, 109; Bellwood, 107; My Fellow, 107; Hyperion, 107; Stephen, 103; Fante Cristo, 100; Batestery, 114; Bohemian, 114; Equalizer, 99.

Sixth race, five furlongs—Young George, 111; Gals, 107; Phoebe, 110; Reford, 105; Top Sawyer, 107; Casser, 106; Royal Garter, 100; Wasev, 100; Vitality, 100; San Jose, 100; McGregor, 100; Hyperion, 112; Lee Christy, 113; Sister Toluca, 113.

Seventh race, one mile, selling—Lancaster, 107; Gals, 107; Phoebe, 110; Reford, 105; Top Sawyer, 107; Casser, 106; Royal Garter, 100; Wasev, 100; Vitality, 100; San Jose, 100; McGregor, 100; Hyperion, 112; Lee Christy, 113; Sister Toluca, 113.

Selections: First race, Young Duke and Civil Service; second race, San Jose and Hyperion; third race, shooter and Mattie Loran; fourth race, Sir William and Lakewood; fifth race, Belle and Gals; sixth race, Terrifier and Young George; fourth race, Sparling and King Vol.

Meeting of the Presbytery. A special meeting of the St. Paul presbytery will be held at Andrew Presbyterian church this evening at 7:30 for the purpose of installing Rev. William M. Kincaid as pastor. Rev. Dr. McCurdy, moderator of the presbytery, will preside. Prof. George E. McLain, of the state university, will preach the sermon. Dr. Burnett will deliver the charge to the pastor, and Rev. Dr. Edwards, of St. Paul, the charge to the church.

For Decoration Day. The sub-committee in favor of the G. A. R. memorial committee held a meeting in the Nicollet house parlors last evening and received reports from the various sub-committees which had been allotted work in different sections of the city. The work of collecting flowers from the school houses will commence on Wednesday, May 30, and all the school children will be requested to contribute.

Found Drowned. The body of a man in an advanced stage of decomposition was found floating in the river near the Twentieth avenue north bridge yesterday. An examination made by coroner Towers of the clothing revealed a naturalization paper bearing