ASCENSION SERVICES.

Knight Templars' Special Event at St. Paul's Church.

Ascension day was duly observed in many of the city churches yesterday, but particularly by the Protestant Episcopal and Catholic denominations.

Mass was said in the Catholic churches, and special musical services were held in the Episcopal edifices.

For the Knights Templars, a special service was held at St. Paul's last evening and was a very elaborate affair.

Both commanderies were invited, but Damascus was the only one present, at St. Paul's last evening.

Paladin commandery from stress of duty was unable to attend. At 7:35 p. m. the Knights arrived, the surging choir singing the professional hymn, "Onward, Christian Soldiers" (which was requested by the commandery), meeting them at the main door, and counter-marching led them to their seats.

The mingling of the white vestments and the uniforms of the Knights made a very pretty sight. After leading the Knights to their seats, the choir took their places in their stalls, and the service began. It was a pretty church service, the responses and verses being intoned to "Tans" setting in E. The text selection of the psalms was rendered to chants by Hopkins & Sons.

The Rev. Mr. Wright read the lessons appointed for the day. In the Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis of Charles Simper the sweet voice of Master Percy Creelan was heard to advantage.

The crowning piece of the service was the solo "Angels Ever Bright and Fair" sung by this boy soprano, who is now a member of the choir. The choir rendered the Anthem "O Saviour of the World" in good style, and the sermon by the Rev. Mr. Graham, prelate of Marius. Communion was administered very appropriately to the occasion.

The service ended by the choir singing "Jerusalem the Golden" as a recessional. The church was crowded with visitors three being standing room only.

The cause of Oscar B. Hillis and Alfred D. S. Johnson against James C. Slou to recover $1,100 on real estate transactions, was tried in Judge Kerr's court yesterday.

Judgment for that amount is also asked for against Passig and the other defendants. The cause is set for trial at 10 o'clock tomorrow.

In the case of James W. Jones against Alfred Fresh, Judge Otis has filed an order giving judgment in favor of Jones for $6,777.30, and directs the sale of stock certificates of the St. Paul Casket company in question, and that the proceeds be applied to the payment of the judgment.

DEATH OF CAPT. VALENTINE.

An Old Minnesota Pioneer Passes Away.

The death occurred yesterday morning of D. H. Valentine, one of the oldest residents of St. Paul, and a gentleman widely known for his many excellent qualities. His death was attributable to hemorrhage of the lungs, the result of a severe cold from which he has suffered for some time. Mr. Valentine is a native of Ohio, having been born at Cincinnati in February, 1827. He graduated from Wooster college, and subsequently taught school in Louisiana. In 1850 he joined the expedition to California, was unsuccessful in the quest for gold, and engaged in grain raising. Coming to St. Paul in 1859 he purchased a large farm in Redwood county. Mr. Valentine was during the war captain of the Sixth Minnesota regiment. He leaves a wife, three daughters and two sons, and considerable property in real estate and other forms. The funeral announcement appears in another column.
