

END OF A MERRY WAR.

Presidents of Northwestern Lines Decide to Restore Passenger Rates.

An Ironclad Agreement Good for Sixty Days From June 10.

No Line Can Withdraw Without Giving Thirty Days' Notice.

Prospect That East-Bound All-Rail Tariffs Will Be Advanced Soon.

CHICAGO, May 28.—The end of the Western passenger rate war is at hand. A meeting of the general passenger agents of all the interested lines for the purpose of fixing a date for the restoration of rates. The Wisconsin Central has yielded, and is now ready to become a member of the new association, without any stipulation as to the speed of trains between Chicago and St. Paul. Indeed, it has already signed the agreement. This removes the only apparent obstacle to the establishment of peace, and there is no reason to doubt that the ten days' notice required by law will be given to-morrow of an advance in passenger rates throughout the territory where they have been cut.

GOOD FOR SIXTY DAYS. The Peace Agreement in Effect June 10.

New York, May 28.—The differences in regard to passenger rates in the Northwest were all adjusted to-day, and an agreement was signed by all the roads to restore passenger rates to the tariff in effect on December 31. The agreement goes into effect on June 10 and will continue for sixty days. No road can withdraw except on thirty days' notice. It is believed in Chicago by the officers of all the roads whose executive officers could be reached there in time. The agreement is in the nature of a gentlemen's agreement, brought to this city. He presented it to-day to President Oakes, who signed it. The agreement is in the nature of a gentlemen's agreement, brought to this city. He presented it to-day to President Oakes, who signed it.

COOLEY IS CHAIRMAN. National Convention of Railroad Commissioners.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 28.—A national convention of railroad commissioners met here to-day. The subjects which it was called to consider relate to railroad legislation, uniformity in railway accounting, railway construction and so forth. Judge Cooley, the chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, called the convention to order and presided over the proceedings.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 28.—A national convention of railroad commissioners met here to-day. The subjects which it was called to consider relate to railroad legislation, uniformity in railway accounting, railway construction and so forth. Judge Cooley, the chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, called the convention to order and presided over the proceedings.

ONE KILLED OUTRIGHT. Murderous Affray on the Streets of El Paso.

EL PASO, TEX., May 28.—Several days ago Leon Barlow and J. Gaudine, two prominent young men, had some hot words over the latter's attentions to Barlow's sixteen-year-old sister. The affair was patched up and nothing more thought about until last night, when the two met in front of the Gem theater, when Gaudine pulled a gun and shot Barlow twice, once ball passing through the lungs and the other through the liver. The wounded man died in four hours after. When Gaudine fired the first shot, a fight occurred. The crowd gathered in front of the theater, and three disinterested parties were slightly wounded. The dead man's name is Leon Barlow, and he was a banker of Fort Worth. Gaudine and one of his companions were arrested and taken to the jail.

ON GENERAL PRINCIPLES. Two Women of Shady Repute Flogged by White Caps.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 28.—A band of white caps, thirty in number, visited Corydon, Ind., at 1 o'clock this morning, and proceeded to the house occupied by two women of questionable reputation. The women were dragged from bed, taken to the edge of the town, tied to trees, and flogged until nearly faint. Their things were then cut and the white caps departed, leaving their victims where they had fallen, at the foot of the trees limp and insensible. Besides their general bad character, the two women were suspected of having set a fire to the fire grounds near Corydon.

Slain on a Mountain Top. NORTH ADAMS, MASS., May 28.—The home of John Dilworth situated on the top of the mountain, two miles west of Stamford village, Vermont, was the scene Tuesday of what at first appeared to be a sudden and natural death, the result of a prolonged hard cider debauch, but which on investigation proved to be the most horrible murder. The victim was "Mag" Shea, a notoriously dissolute woman and the perpetrator of the deed is believed to be Nick Bradley, a negro, for whom deceased has kept house for a year or so. Bradley is arrested.

Two New Directors Chosen. CEDAR RAPIDS, IOWA, May 28.—At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & North-

DUPED THE BARONET.

Sir Robert Peel Fooled by a New York Confidence Man.

Smooth John McDermott Is Bagged at Delmonico's by Byrnes' Men.

Bank Wrecker Claasen Adjudged Guilty by a Jury of His Peers.

Two Convicts Sandbag a Keeper and Escape From Jersey Prison.

New York, May 28.—To step from a sumptuous supper table in Delmonico's, where he had been dining with two wealthy Englishmen, one of them a baronet, into the clutches of a detective and thence to a prison cell was the experience of John McDermott, who was arrested last evening for swindling people out of various sums of money and for whom the detectives have been looking for some time. The Englishmen were Sir Robert Peel, who arrived in this city on Sunday night, and Clifford Talbot, who came over on the steamer Antrim. They met McDermott, who told them he was Inspector Byrnes' head detective and was coming from Jersey where he had delivered a foreigner to the authorities. He promised to show them the sights of New York and go to the city with a diamond scarf pin worth $500, and turned over his baggage to him, gave him four English $5 notes in fact, he and Mr. Talbot placed themselves practically in his hands. They had been looking at the signs of the city up to Tuesday night, when they dined at Delmonico's. Detective Sergeant McCluskey and Mulolland, an inspector of the police, were looking through a window, saw McDermott, whom they recognized, sitting at a table. They waited until he came out and put him under arrest. His friends were dumfounded, but the detectives explained the matter. McDermott, it was said, was wanted for the larceny of $1,250, out of which sum he swindled Mrs. Thayer, a widow living at Munster, in the North End of the city, under promise of marrying her. To-day Mrs. Thayer came to the city and identified McDermott as the man who had swindled her. McDermott is forty-four years old, and was a hackdriver in this city. He will be arraigned in court to-morrow morning.

Mortgage for Thirty Millions. SPRINGFIELD, ILL., May 28.—The secretary of state to-day recorded a mortgage made by the Chicago & Northern Pacific Railroad company in favor of the Farmers Loan and Trust Company of New York to the amount of $30,000,000, to cover outstanding indebtedness against certain branches, and to secure the bonds to be issued on the new lines. The bonds will run until 1940, and draw 5 per cent interest, payable semi-annually.

May Restore East-Bound Rates. NEW YORK, May 28.—The joint committee of the trunk lines met to-day to consider the advisability of restoring east-bound all-rail rates to the standard. Chairman Blanchard, of the Central Traffic association, presided, and George B. Colver, of the Chicago & North Western, presided over the committee to consider the practicability of advancing rates, to report to-morrow.

Huntington in the Saddle. NEW YORK, May 28.—At the annual meeting of the Pacific Mail Steamship company to-day the following directors were elected: Collis P. Huntington, Henry Hart, John B. Catron, J. S. Payne, Edward Lauterback, Charles W. McGee and J. Houston. President George B. Colver presided over the meeting for the year ending April 30, shows net earnings of 2 1/2 per cent.

Joint Rates Don't Go Yet. IOWA CITY, IOWA, May 28.—In the district court to-day the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern railroad asked an injunction restraining the Iowa railway commission from enforcing the joint rates recently established by them. Judge Fairall, upon the showing made, granted the injunction.

SANBAGGED A KEEPER. Two Desperate Convicts Escape From Jersey Penitentiary.

TRENTON, N. J., May 28.—A great sensation was caused here to-night by the announcement that two prisoners had escaped from the state prison. The two convicts are Henry Johnson and Charles Thomas, firebugs, sentenced in February, 1884, to thirty years. They were trusted convicts, who waited on the prison clerk and Keeper Patterson's table. While most of the convicts were in attendance at the night school for convicts these two sandbagged doorkeepers Charles and Henry Johnson, and robbed him of $800 which he had on his person, and in clothes belonging to deputy keepers made good their escape.

BEHIND THE BARS AGAIN. A Fugitive Forger Nabbed by a Judge of Des Moines.

PHILADELPHIA, May 28.—Thomas J. Basso, thirty-two years old, ex-chief of detectives of New Orleans, La., who escaped from the state penitentiary at Baton Rouge, where he was serving a sentence of fourteen years on conviction for forgery on Nov. 20, 1888, was arrested in this city to-night by Detectives Miller and Tall and Special Officer Haislerton, of the twenty-third precinct, at the central station and the authorities of New Orleans were notified by telegraph of his arrest. The man, who is now in the city, is a tall, thin man and talks freely of his past life. After making his escape, he went at once to South America and remained until he became undetermined by disease, when he resolved to return to the States, in the hope that he might escape detection. He was landed in New York, homeless, friendless and almost penniless; and after failing to secure employment, came to Philadelphia. Basso was appointed on the police force of New Orleans in 1878, when he was but twenty-one years of age. He proved to be an efficient officer, and was promoted from time to time until he was a detective force, serving until the time of his conviction in 1888. The crime of which he was convicted was the forging of the signature of Judge Voorhees to a marriage certificate by means of which he betrayed Katherine Kuhn, eighteen years old, a single man and that the certificate was all that was necessary to make their marriage legal. He took her to a watering place, and after remaining for two weeks abandoned her and returned to his home. When the girl discovered the deception she returned herself and meeting Basso on the street, shot him, the ball entering his right side, and producing what was believed to be a fatal wound, but he recovered after lying in the hospital for several months. The girl was arrested for the shooting, but was afterward acquitted, the grand jury refusing to indict her. There was no law under which she could be tried for despoiling Miss Kuhn, but she was indicted for forgery, and having no defense, was convicted. Basso could be tried for despoiling Miss Kuhn, but she was indicted for forgery, and having no defense, was convicted. Basso could be tried for despoiling Miss Kuhn, but she was indicted for forgery, and having no defense, was convicted.

Ten Years for the Madame. TOLEDO, May 28.—In the court of BID FOR ALIEN LABOR.

Chicago's Builders' Exchange Takes a Step in the Wrong Direction.

In Seeking to Harass Strikers It Violates a Federal Statute.

The Harrison's Will Sniff Ocean Breezes at Swell Cape May.

Samuel J. Randall's Pictorial Successor Takes His Seat in Congress.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Secretary Windom has sent a letter to George F. Sitter, immigration inspector at Chicago, Ill., in regard to the enforcement of the alien contract labor laws, with respect to aliens coming in from Canada, in which he says: "You call my attention to the following advertisement, clipped from a Canadian paper: '500 CARPENTERS WANTED—Good work at 30c to 40c per hour. Apply at Builders' Exchange, 150 La Salle street, Chicago.' I assume from your letter that this advertisement was inserted by the builders' association, an association or corporation doing business in Chicago. It contains a proposition to pay a good, competent carpenter from 30 to 40 cents per hour and give him steady employment, on the condition of his accepting the order, coming to the United States, and engaging in labor for the right of the officers appointed by the secretary to make the proper investigations necessary to determine whether the applicant is a bona fide workman of the law, without reference to the place where the investigation may, from the nature of the case, be required to be made. It is important that the immigration inspectors, particularly those on the borders of Canada, be diligent in using proper measures to prevent the violation of the law, and report them, with the evidence that may be obtained, to the collector of customs of the proper district."

VAUX TAKES HIS SEAT. S. J. Randall's Successor Presented His Credentials.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—In the house to-day, after the reading of the journal, Mr. O'Neill, of Pennsylvania, presented the credentials of Mr. Vaux, and they having been read by the clerk, he escorted Mr. Vaux to the bar of the house and the latter gentleman qualified as a representative from the third district of Pennsylvania. Mr. Vaux affirmed, and as he took his seat he was greeted with a hearty "welcome" by the members of the house. On motion of Mr. Post, of Illinois, a survey was authorized by the committee on the Mississippi river, with a view to ascertaining what lands would be subject to overflow by the construction of a dam at the mouth of the river, between the mouth of the Mississippi and the mouth of the Missouri river. On motion of Mr. Post, of Illinois, a survey was authorized by the committee on the Mississippi river, with a view to ascertaining what lands would be subject to overflow by the construction of a dam at the mouth of the river, between the mouth of the Mississippi and the mouth of the Missouri river.

EARLY'S LONG TONGUE. Old Jubal Stirs Up a Sensation at Richmond.

RICHMOND, Va., May 28.—Gen. Jubal A. Early, while engaged in a hot argument over war issues at the exchange this afternoon, was approached by a stranger who slapped him on the shoulder and remarked: "My Dear Gen. Early, how do you do?" Early answered his visitor by exclaiming: "Why, I'm nothing to do with a man who mistakes me for such a d—d rascal as James Longstreet." A friend of the latter who was standing by demanded a retraction. Early refused, whereupon Longstreet's friend made a lunge for Early, but the latter was protected long enough to escape. The incident has caused a sensation.

Fishermen's Luck. HALIFAX, May 28.—A good deal of excitement prevails at Bay St. George, N. F., owing to a French war ship ordering British subjects there to remove their fishing gear, nets, etc., from the water, with the alternative of being commandeered by the vessel ordering his men to remove them. Fearing that these articles would be destroyed, the fishermen promptly removed them.

SINCURES FOR PATRIOTS. Arranging for a Pan-American Railway Commission.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—In the senate to-day Mr. Sherman, from the committee on foreign affairs, reported an amendment to be offered to the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill, authorizing the president to carry into effect the recommendations of the international conference by the appointment by and with the advice and consent of the senate of three commissioners, to represent the United States in the intercontinental railway com-

TURNED UP TOO SOON.

A Would-be Insurance Fraud Balks His Own Game.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 28.—Twelve months ago, James Dillon, a well-known citizen of Ferris county, insured his life for $3,000 in the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance company. Some time after he fell from a boat half a mile from shore and yelled loudly for help to a man a quarter of a mile away in the water. The Englishman, Dillon secretly swam ashore and could not be seen. The man, whose assistance he had called for, was drowned and was perfectly willing to swear to it. Notice of Dillon's death was sent to the company. The insurance was paid to the widow of Dillon, who was brought by Dillon's wife, and the case stood for trial at the court last week. The jury returned a verdict that Dillon was drowned and was perfectly willing to swear to it. Notice of Dillon's death was sent to the company. The insurance was paid to the widow of Dillon, who was brought by Dillon's wife, and the case stood for trial at the court last week.

MISSOURIANS WANT THE BLOOD OF MURDERER MOORE. SEDALIA, MO., May 28.—The discovery made to-day that John Williamson, an arrest for the murder of Jefferson Moore, was made in the neighborhood of Sedalia, Mo., has aroused a storm of indignation against the prisoner. Sheriff Smith to-day received information that a lynching party had gathered in the neighborhood, and that an attempt would probably be made upon the jail to-night or to-morrow night, and if the triple murder. Sentries have been placed on the roads entering the city, and the houses of the neighborhood are all guarded armed to resist the anticipated attack. A year ago Williamson and his wife occupied a cottage there, which he had bought and the all guards armed to resist the anticipated attack. A year ago Williamson and his wife occupied a cottage there, which he had bought and the all guards armed to resist the anticipated attack.

KIMBER WAS MURDERED. The Missing Briton's Body Found in a Reservoir.

MONTREAL, May 28.—This morning by the finding of the unfortunate young Englishman's body in a large reservoir which supplies Montreal with water. His throat was cut, and around his neck was tied a towel. The body was identified by the clothing, and was taken to the morgue, where an inquest is now in progress. Kimber came to Montreal in the month of May, 1888, and has been in possession of considerable money and notes and a letter of credit to a certain firm in Montreal. He arrived in Montreal in the month of May, 1888, and has been in possession of considerable money and notes and a letter of credit to a certain firm in Montreal. He arrived in Montreal in the month of May, 1888, and has been in possession of considerable money and notes and a letter of credit to a certain firm in Montreal.

BIG SEIZURE OF OPIUM. Northern Pacific Employees in Cañon With Chinese Smugglers.

PORTLAND, OR., May 28.—The customs officials last night seized 310 five-pound cans of opium, valued at about $2,000, in a Chinese wash-house. The United States inspectors, who had been watching for smuggled opium, saw a man take the drug into the wash house, and arrested him. He gave the name of John Mays, and it is learned that he is a brakeman on the Northern Pacific between here and Tacoma. Mays confessed that the opium was bought in Victoria, B. C., a few days ago and smuggled into the United States. The customs authorities claim they have positive proof that a number of the Northern Pacific employees, together with several Chinese, are smuggling a large amount of opium into this city. It is stated that a number of other arrests will be made to-night.

REED STOPS THE SALE OF LIQUORS IN THE HOUSE RESTAURANT.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Certain newspapers having called attention to the fact that intoxicating liquors have been sold in the house restaurant, to-day Speaker Reed issued an order that the practice should cease. The order is temporary, and is intended to give the speaker an opportunity to learn exactly what bearing the joint rules have in the matter and what the result of the order will be. The order went into effect immediately, and its effect was plainly noticeable in a considerable diminution in the number of customers. The restaurant who are accustomed to drink beer with their luncheon, and in the increased business in the senate restaurant, much of it being strictly for the influx of members of the house who had learned of the prohibition in their own wing of the capital.

Have Earned a Holiday. WASHINGTON, May 28.—It is the intention of the Republican leaders in the house to secure an adjournment from Thursday afternoon until Monday. Several day ceremonies will take a number of members out of town for two days, and it is felt that the house has a complete holiday on another summer session on the tariff and other public matter.

For Services Rendered. WASHINGTON, D. C., May 28.—The president sent the following nominations to the senate to-day: United States Consul—Joseph O. Kerby, Pennsylvania; Paris, A. H. B. Kovel, Massachusetts; Martineau, W. L.; James F. McCaskey, Ohio; Acapulco, Postmaster; Wisconsin—James E. Brinkerhoff, Wisconsin; Iowa—Isaac Brandt, Des Moines.

Virginia's Capital Enveloped in Flags and Bunting. RICHMOND, Va., May 28.—The houses along the principal thoroughfares of the city are enveloped in flags and bunting, while the sidewalks are lined with a mass of living, moving freight. Every train that arrives is packed with people. Arrangements for the reception of Richmond's guests, military and veterans, have been excellent, and the weather is charming, and everything points to an unprecedented holiday at the unveiling ceremony of the Lee monument to-morrow. The union flag predominates in the decorations. The patriotic bands, playing by the bands and the steady tramp of soldiers through the streets create great enthusiasm. It is estimated that at least 50,000 visitors will be here by noon to-morrow. Gen. Longstreet arrived to-day with the Washington army, and is given a most cordial reception by the Richmond hotheads, who met their guests at the station. The following is a complete list of the veterans and veterans who will be in the line of parade to-morrow: Fourth cavalry, Wisconsin brigade; Pezarski's battery, cavalry; Washington, D. C. veterans; E. Company, association; Stuart's Tenth battalion, L. D. T.; Curtevant's battery, Mexican veterans; A. F. Hill, Confederate veterans; R. E. Lee camp, Confederate veterans; George E. Pettit camp, Confederate veterans; Oney battery, Parker battery; Wise brigade; Tenth Virginia cavalry; army of North Virginia, Benevolent association; Louisiana division; Rowan county, North Carolina, veteran regiment; Clinton-Hatcher camp, Confederate veterans; Peckett-Burnham camp, Confederate veterans; John Bowie Strange camp, Confederate veterans; Stonevalley camp, Confederate veterans; Murray camp, Confederate veterans; H. Hill camp, Confederate veterans; R. E. Lee camp, Confederate veterans; Camp Garnett, Confederate veterans; Ewell camp, Confederate veterans; Winchester camp, Confederate veterans; Louisiana division, Virginia veterans; Federal court, Maryland, cavalry; Thirteenth Virginia infantry (with old flag); Randolph, Third-first Virginia infantry; ex-Confederates; Confederates; Cabell-Graves camp, Confederate veterans; Ninth Virginia cavalry (mountain); Henderson camp, Confederate veterans; Shepherdstown camp, Confederate veterans; Stuart-Hairston camp, Confederate veterans. The members of the legislature who may be in the city, will hold an informal meeting at the state capital to-morrow and arrange to participate in the unveiling ceremonies.

EARLY'S LONG TONGUE. Old Jubal Stirs Up a Sensation at Richmond.

RICHMOND, Va., May 28.—Gen. Jubal A. Early, while engaged in a hot argument over war issues at the exchange this afternoon, was approached by a stranger who slapped him on the shoulder and remarked: "My Dear Gen. Early, how do you do?" Early answered his visitor by exclaiming: "Why, I'm nothing to do with a man who mistakes me for such a d—d rascal as James Longstreet." A friend of the latter who was standing by demanded a retraction. Early refused, whereupon Longstreet's friend made a lunge for Early, but the latter was protected long enough to escape. The incident has caused a sensation.

Fishermen's Luck. HALIFAX, May 28.—A good deal of excitement prevails at Bay St. George, N. F., owing to a French war ship ordering British subjects there to remove their fishing gear, nets, etc., from the water, with the alternative of being commandeered by the vessel ordering his men to remove them. Fearing that these articles would be destroyed, the fishermen promptly removed them.

SINCURES FOR PATRIOTS. Arranging for a Pan-American Railway Commission.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—In the senate to-day Mr. Sherman, from the committee on foreign affairs, reported an amendment to be offered to the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill, authorizing the president to carry into effect the recommendations of the international conference by the appointment by and with the advice and consent of the senate of three commissioners, to represent the United States in the intercontinental railway com-

EVEN BLAINE FAILS.

His Plea for the Pardon of a Montana Murderer Denied.

Business Troubles Prompt a Badger to Attempt Murder and Suicide.

Russian Settlers in South Dakota Intimidate a Female Suffragist.

Editor Griffin's Old Partner Confesses That He Slugged Mr. Moffet.

Special to the Globe. HELENA, Mont., May 28.—The board of pardons to-day refused a pardon for John A. Rowan, convicted of the murder of Joseph Bussiere, at Butte, 1888. Rowan's case is the most interesting one in the history of Montana. He is a member of a wealthy and influential family in Quebec, and came to Montana in 1878, settling in Butte. He fell in with a bad crowd, and in 1888, while attempting to kill another man, murdered Bussiere. He was convicted and sentenced to imprisonment in the state prison for life. Rowan was made to do his best for a pardon which he refused. Afterward Gov. White was asked to intercede and had the case under consideration when the territory became a state. Rowan then made application to President Harrison and Sir John A. MacDonell, a senator-elect, and had the British minister at Washington interest Secretary Blaine in the case. Secretary Blaine wrote to the board asking that the pardon be granted, and that the pardon be granted. To-day the request was refused. The case is regarded here as a creditable one. The prisoner is a man of education and keeps the books in the prison at Deer Lodge.

BULLETS FOR TWO. A Badger Shoots His Wife and Kills Himself.

LA CROSSE, May 28.—Charles Lind, for some time past a dealer in general merchandise at Hellsboro, Vernon county, Wis., was shot to death by his wife, making a serious wound in her head, and then shot himself dead. The cause assigned for the act is financial difficulties, having failed in business last year. Lind is a well-to-do farmer, and had the British minister at Washington interest Secretary Blaine in the case. Secretary Blaine wrote to the board asking that the pardon be granted, and that the pardon be granted. To-day the request was refused. The case is regarded here as a creditable one. The prisoner is a man of education and keeps the books in the prison at Deer Lodge.

FOR SERVICES RENDERED. WASHINGTON, D. C., May 28.—The president sent the following nominations to the senate to-day: United States Consul—Joseph O. Kerby, Pennsylvania; Paris, A. H. B. Kovel, Massachusetts; Martineau, W. L.; James F. McCaskey, Ohio; Acapulco, Postmaster; Wisconsin—James E. Brinkerhoff, Wisconsin; Iowa—Isaac Brandt, Des Moines.

Virginia's Capital Enveloped in Flags and Bunting. RICHMOND, Va., May 28.—The houses along the principal thoroughfares of the city are enveloped in flags and bunting, while the sidewalks are lined with a mass of living, moving freight. Every train that arrives is packed with people. Arrangements for the reception of Richmond's guests, military and veterans, have been excellent, and the weather is charming, and everything points to an unprecedented holiday at the unveiling ceremony of the Lee monument to-morrow. The union flag predominates in the decorations. The patriotic bands, playing by the bands and the steady tramp of soldiers through the streets create great enthusiasm. It is estimated that at least 50,000 visitors will be here by noon to-morrow. Gen. Longstreet arrived to-day with the Washington army, and is given a most cordial reception by the Richmond hotheads, who met their guests at the station. The following is a complete list of the veterans and veterans who will be in the line of parade to-morrow: Fourth cavalry, Wisconsin brigade; Pezarski's battery, cavalry; Washington, D. C. veterans; E. Company, association; Stuart's Tenth battalion, L. D. T.; Curtevant's battery, Mexican veterans; A. F. Hill, Confederate veterans; R. E. Lee camp, Confederate veterans; George E. Pettit camp, Confederate veterans; Oney battery, Parker battery; Wise brigade; Tenth Virginia cavalry; army of North Virginia, Benevolent association; Louisiana division; Rowan county, North Carolina, veteran regiment; Clinton-Hatcher camp, Confederate veterans; Peckett-Burnham camp, Confederate veterans; John Bowie Strange camp, Confederate veterans; Stonevalley camp, Confederate veterans; Murray camp, Confederate veterans; H. Hill camp, Confederate veterans; R. E. Lee camp, Confederate veterans; Camp Garnett, Confederate veterans; Ewell camp, Confederate veterans; Winchester camp, Confederate veterans; Louisiana division, Virginia veterans; Federal court, Maryland, cavalry; Thirteenth Virginia infantry (with old flag); Randolph, Third-first Virginia infantry; ex-Confederates; Confederates; Cabell-Graves camp, Confederate veterans; Ninth Virginia cavalry (mountain); Henderson camp, Confederate veterans; Shepherdstown camp, Confederate veterans; Stuart-Hairston camp, Confederate veterans. The members of the legislature who may be in the city, will hold an informal meeting at the state capital to-morrow and arrange to participate in the unveiling ceremonies.

EARLY'S LONG TONGUE. Old Jubal Stirs Up a Sensation at Richmond.

RICHMOND, Va., May 28.—Gen. Jubal A. Early, while engaged in a hot argument over war issues at the exchange this afternoon, was approached by a stranger who slapped him on the shoulder and remarked: "My Dear Gen. Early, how do you do?" Early answered his visitor by exclaiming: "Why, I'm nothing to do with a man who mistakes me for such a d—d rascal as James Longstreet." A friend of the latter who was standing by demanded a retraction. Early refused, whereupon Longstreet's friend made a lunge for Early, but the latter was protected long enough to escape. The incident has caused a sensation.

Fishermen's Luck. HALIFAX, May 28.—A good deal of excitement prevails at Bay St. George, N. F., owing to a French war ship ordering British subjects there to remove their fishing gear, nets, etc., from the water, with the alternative of being commandeered by the vessel ordering his men to remove them. Fearing that these articles would be destroyed, the fishermen promptly removed them.

SINCURES FOR PATRIOTS. Arranging for a Pan-American Railway Commission.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—In the senate to-day Mr. Sherman, from the committee on foreign affairs, reported an amendment to be offered to the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill, authorizing the president to carry into effect the recommendations of the international conference by the appointment by and with the advice and consent of the senate of three commissioners, to represent the United States in the intercontinental railway com-

EARLY'S LONG TONGUE. Old Jubal Stirs Up a Sensation at Richmond.

RICHMOND, Va., May 28.—Gen. Jubal A. Early, while engaged in a hot argument over war issues at the exchange this afternoon, was approached by a stranger who slapped him on the shoulder and remarked: "My Dear Gen. Early, how do you do?" Early answered his visitor by exclaiming: "Why, I'm nothing to do with a man who mistakes me for such a d—d rascal as James Longstreet." A friend of the latter who was standing by demanded a retraction. Early refused, whereupon Longstreet's friend made a lunge for Early, but the latter was protected long enough to escape. The incident has caused a sensation.

Fishermen's Luck. HALIFAX, May 28.—A good deal of excitement prevails at Bay St. George, N. F., owing to a French war ship ordering British subjects there to remove their fishing gear, nets, etc., from the water, with the alternative of being commandeered by the vessel ordering his men to remove them. Fearing that these articles would be destroyed, the fishermen promptly removed them.

SINCURES FOR PATRIOTS. Arranging for a Pan-American Railway Commission.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—In the senate to-day Mr. Sherman, from the committee on foreign affairs, reported an amendment to be offered to the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill, authorizing the president to carry into effect the recommendations of the international conference by the appointment by and with the advice and consent of the senate of three commissioners, to represent the United States in the intercontinental railway com-

GLAD GRADUATES.

Thirty-One Cross the Threshold of Careers at St. Cloud.

Special to the Globe. ST. CLOUD, Minn., May 28.—The commencement exercises of the normal school took place this morning. Normal hall was filled to its capacity. The graduating class numbered thirty-one, fourteen of whom were women. The advanced course and seventeen from the elementary course. The exercises were of a very high order, and the essays were the recipients of numerous encomiums and floral tributes. Gov. Merriam was present and delivered the address to the class. The exercises were of a very high order, and the essays were the recipients of numerous encomiums and floral tributes. Gov. Merriam was present and delivered the address to the class. The exercises were of a very high order, and the essays were the recipients of numerous encomiums and floral tributes. Gov. Merriam was present and delivered the address to the class.

SOMEbody BLUNDERED. Duluth Police Officials Make an Unwarranted Arrest.

DULUTH, May 28.—Duluth police officials are liable to pose as defendants in a lawsuit for heavy damages for unwarranted arrest. The case is that of George H. O'Dell, who was arrested on a charge of being a vagrant, and was bound over until to-day, and placed in the county jail for safe keeping. The jailer took him down to the house fixed for his trial, and found there was no charge against him. The case is that of George H. O'Dell, who was arrested on a charge of being a vagrant, and was bound over until to-day, and placed in the county jail for safe keeping. The jailer took him down to the house fixed for his trial, and found there was no charge against him. The case is that of George H. O'Dell, who was arrested on a charge of being a vagrant, and was bound over until to-day, and placed in the county jail for safe keeping. The jailer took him down to the house fixed for his trial, and found there was no charge against him.

Congregationalists to Confer. Special to the Globe. MAZEPPA, Minn., May 28.—The annual conference of the congregational society for the Winona district convened here to-day for a three days' session. The conference is held at the home of Rev. West of Winona; Harvare, Zumbrota; Taintor, Rochester; Medary, Wabasha; Herron, Lake City; Wright, of Charles Lake; Samuel Platt, Wis. Wabasha, and Knobe, Japan, addressed the conference this afternoon.

Horses and Cattle Cremated. Special to the Globe. FERTILITY, S. D., May 28.—The barns belonging to Miles Russell, half a mile west of town, were burned this morning, together with five horses, three cows, potatoes, grain, two buxys and farm machinery. The loss is estimated at $1,800; on stock, etc., $1,000; no insurance. This is the third time Russell's barns and contents have been destroyed, twice by wind and water in 1881.

Third District Democrats. Special to the Globe. SHAKOPEE, May 28.—Chairman Southworth has issued a call for a meeting of the Third District Democrats. The Democratic District Convention is to be held at the Merchants Hotel, St. Paul, May 31. The delegates of the district will be present to open a humming campaign.

A Pioneer Gone. Special to the Globe. JORDAN, Minn., May 28.—S. F. Graham died in this morning. Mr. Graham had been in the hospital for some time, and his death was a great loss to the community. He was a pioneer settler and a man of high character. He was a pioneer settler and a man of high character. He was a pioneer settler and a man of high character. He was a pioneer settler and a man of high character.

Winona's Normal Commencement. Special to the Globe. WINONA, May 28.—The commencement of the normal school occurred to-day. The essays of the graduates were of a very high order. The class profited by a course of instruction, particularly pleasing bit of work, and the class will, by Miss Leah Barnes, was applauded.

Thunder, Lightning and Rain. Special to the Globe. MICROTAS, N. D., May 28.—The first heavy thunder shower of the season passed over this vicinity early this morning, greatly improving crop prospects. Grain, although backward, looks well.

Wants to Be a Lawyer. Special to the Globe. DULUTH, Minn., May 28.—Mrs. Mary McGindley applied to-day for admission to the bar of St. Louis county. She is the first female applicant in this part of the state.

Nat Goodwin Will Orate. Special to the Globe. DULUTH, Minn., May 28.—Nat Goodwin, the actor, will deliver the Memorial day oration at Duluth.

THE NORTH DAKOTA MEDICS. Their Conference at Jamestown Concluded.

JAMESTOWN, N. D., May 28.—The medical association adjourned to-day. Much business was taken up, and the members of the association were pleased with the results of their conference. The association was organized in 1888, and has since that time been a valuable institution for the medical profession in North Dakota. The association was organized in 1888, and has since that time been a valuable institution for the medical profession in North Dakota. The association was organized in 1888, and has since that time been a valuable institution for the medical profession in North Dakota.

Elected President of the Baptist Education Society. CHICAGO, May 28.—The most important session of the Baptist "anniversary" was held this morning, when the announcement was made that the great fund for the establishment of the educational institution, the Chicago university, had been raised. A year ago John D. Rockefeller subscribed $600,000 to this institution of learning on condition that a full $1,000,000 be made up by June 1, 1890. Resolutions were unanimously adopted thanking Mr. Rockefeller for his generous contribution to the cause of education in this country.

Mortally Wounded by Thieves. DES MOINES, IOWA, May 28.—C. W. Southwite, an artist, was found in his studio this morning lying upon the floor unconscious, with a dagger wound near his heart. The contents of his trunk were scattered about, and his pockets had been rifled, showing the intention of the deed to have been robbery. No clue or suspicion exists as to the assailant. The wounded man will probably die.