

The informal ballot was followed by a declaration as to whether or not Mr. Earl would accept the nomination if given to him. A telegram was read in which he said that he would accept the honor in justice to the party. His name was then withdrawn by the Ramsey county delegation, and Rev. J. F. Pinkham was nominated, receiving 12 votes to 1 vote for Mr. Earl, and 38 for J. O. Barrett. On motion of F. A. Pike, of Ramsey county, the nomination was made unanimous.

FOUR DAYS FOR TALK.

Revised and Official Programme of the Educational Convention.

Archbishop Ireland Occupies a Prominent Place on the List.

Subjects of National Importance Set Down for Discussion.

Council of Educators Meet Four Days Ahead of the Convention.

The final official programme for the annual meeting of the National Educational association has just been promulgated, and is appended. The national council will meet in the chamber of commerce July 4 at 9 a. m., and will continue until the 8th, when the National Educational association will convene. The council is composed of advanced educators and is a branch of the national association, and always meets in conjunction with the association. The opening session of the general association will be held on the part of the state, Mayor Smith on the part of the municipal government and the various presidents of the different universities, colleges and schools of Minnesota. CAUGHT ON THE FLY.

Secretary Bertram, of the state dairy commission, was in his element yesterday. The price of practical jokes, an apt and ingenious cartoonist, his pencil made some highly laughable sketches of events at the reunion of the Eighth Minnesota Volunteers, and the most recent of Bert's portfolio, by the way, is a veritable curio in its completeness. There is everything in it from a plug on an aspiring politician to a horse jockey.

GALAXY OF TOUGHS.

Yesterday was a busy day for the Police Judge. A galaxy of thieves and toughs came before the police court yesterday morning, on the whole about as hard a set as has been arranged there for some time.

Enjoyable Day Spent at Lake Minnetonka.

The Junior Pioneer Association of Ramsey County had their first annual picnic excursion yesterday. They went out to Lake Minnetonka via the Minneapolis & St. Louis railroad and enjoyed a delicious ride across the lake on the handsome steamer City of St. Louis. The Great Western band, of St. Paul, accompanied the party and gave a delightful musical program on the Lake Park pavilion in the afternoon.

THIS LOOKS QUEER.

Lack of Interest at Red Rock in Foreign Mission Work. The large delegation of those interested in the spread of the gospel among the heathen failed to materialize yesterday. Even if the oppressive heat kept many away it could not keep all from manifesting their interest in the missionary cause, as was shown by their presence at the services. In the forenoon Rev. B. Leonard, D. D., of New York, delivered a sermon, the theme of which was "Missions." In the afternoon the Rev. F. J. Schaeffer, of St. Paul, gave a very interesting discourse at the evening service, followed by the Rev. Paul, of St. Paul, who delivered a sermon on the "General Government and the Problem." Address—Hon. W. A. Avery, of Minneapolis; Mae Donley, Nora Morton, A. A. Perkins, E. E. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, of Minneapolis; Levi Gleason, of Castle Rock; Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Russell, of St. Paul, and Mrs. A. J. Love, of Omaha, Neb.

HARD ON THE JUROR.

One of the "Twelve Good Men" Fined for Sleeping. There is scarcely a juror in attendance upon the four courts now in session in Ramsey county who would not be anxious to escape service this sultry weather. Many of them did devise various excuses which they thought would be sufficient reasons for being let off. Some even went away, but were brought into court under writs of attachment. But these are not the only pains and penalties to which jurors are subjected. One Judge Kerr's court yesterday found the heat, a hearty dinner and a prosy case too much for human nature to endure, and so, when a case was on trial, he drifted into dreamland. A deputy sheriff, by a severe scolding and realization of the fact that he was one of twelve men who were expected to "well and truly try the cause," was obliged to impress his surroundings more fully upon him; the judge imposed a five dollar fine.

CHANT GOES HIGHER.

An Election of Officers for Company C of First Regiment. Col. Bend, of the First regiment, has ordered an election of officers for Company C, to be held Monday night at 8 o'clock. The company has accepted the position of state inspector of fire practice, and retired from active membership in the company. Lieut. Van Duzee will doubtless succeed him in command of the company. The company will probably go to the second place, being succeeded by Sergt. Braden. The company will be well off financially, and it is expected that a strong effort is being made to secure a good attendance. Much regret is expressed by members of Company C that they are not to be with them this year, he having built up the command for a very ragged squad to the largest company in the state.

Was the Elevator Detective?

The action of Homer C. Davidson against Sarah A. Davidson and other persons interested in the estate of the late Commodore Davidson is being tried before Judge Brill and a jury. The case is being heard in the elevator in the Union block. One of the counter weights was jarred out of the frame and fell through the top of the elevator, striking Homer C. Davidson on the head and causing, as is claimed, permanent injuries. It is claimed that he wants $20,000 damages. It is claimed that the top of the elevator and the frame holding the weights were defective in construction. A section of the frame and the weights were exhibited in court for the purpose of showing the arrangement and operation of the weights.

BEFORE HIS WIFE.

Member of an Excursion Party Drowned in the Mississippi. John Smith, of Concord street, was drowned in the Mississippi at about 1 o'clock yesterday morning. He, together with his family, were members of an excursion party that went down the river under the auspices of the City LaSalle club. They were on their return trip on the steamer Hecla, and had neared the point known as Robinson's rocks when he fell overboard and sank.

NINETY-FOUR DEGREES.

A Hot Day Experienced by St. Paulites. "It is hot!" chanted all St. Paul yesterday. The thermometer in its ambition to excel its exploit of the day before had the temerity and hardihood to indicate all the way from 80 to 84 degrees, according to the consciousness of the mercury or the location in which it was placed, and the end is not yet. The indications are that the hot wave will continue without interruption, with a possible increase in temperature.

FRATRY OF WOMAN.

A Pole Has His Wife and Her Companion Arrested for Adultery. Detective Tom Horan yesterday afternoon arrested Mrs. Michalina Katsowski and Albert Katsowski, and looked them up at the central station with the charge "adultery" after each name. On information from Ashland, Wis., they were located at 629 Elford street, where they were living as man and wife under the name of Bliski. They are Poles, the woman being thirty years of age and the man twenty-two.

McMasters Shows a Surplus.

James A. Owens, assignee of S. R. McMasters, the druggist at the corner of Wabasha and Seventh streets, yesterday filed schedules showing assets $10,706.10, $3,300 being for lots 3 and 5, block 30, and the balance in cash. He has a mortgage for $300. The liabilities are fixed at $8,806.53. ECHOES OF THE CITY.

N. F. Clark, of St. Cloud, spent yesterday in St. Paul. Robert J. Thompson, of Winona, is at the Merchants. The interior of the chamber of commerce is being repainted and frescoed. The Art Building is being repaired, a few days in the city with friends. There will be a meeting of Akker post this evening at the corner of Seventh and Wabasha streets. A. M. holds its annual communication this evening. In the case of C. Mackay against L. W. Buzzell, the jury returned a verdict for the defendant. Lawrence Petcher was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing a $500 camera from John Ross. The case of Allen Wood & Co. against Antoine N. Pelletier was taken from the jury and dismissed. A strain of the Fourth street cable line was broken, and a delay until the break was repaired. The jury returned a verdict for $602.18 in favor of The Wisconsin Red-Pressed Brick company against E. K. Perodovitch at Lake Minnetonka, June 25, 1930, has proven to be one of the most successful and delightful of any of their excursions. Resolved, That we hereby extend our thanks to the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railroad Company for their courteous treatment to the steamer City of St. Louis and her obliging crew for their excellent and charming ride to the Great Western Band, and to the officers of the society, who have contributed to our great pleasure and happiness. That these outings are conducive to pleasure, knowledge, social reunion and happiness. Let us make them a habit. H. F. Hoyt, M. M. Newson, Hon. C. H. Harrigan, Hon. Henry Weber, Capt. U. in the legislature. They would solve the question of crime in twenty-four hours. The old party barflies are sectional party whorals. McGoigarr urged men to join the latter party and solve the only great question of the day.

WEDDING BELLS.

Two Well-Known St. Paul Young Men Take St. Pauls.

Yesterday morning at ten o'clock a very pleasant wedding took place at St. Francis de Sales church, nuptial high mass being celebrated by Father Starina. The contracting parties were John J. Ryder and Miss Minnie Gies. Will Dargatz and Miss Annie Ryder officiating as groomsmen and bridesmaids. The bride was handsomely attired in white, and looked a perfect picture of happiness and contentment. The wedding ceremony, attended by their friends, drove to the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. L. E. Binet, 643 Martin street, where a wedding breakfast was spread from twelve to five o'clock. Many friends dropped in during the afternoon and tendered their congratulations. The best wishes, cigars were passed around among Mr. Ryder's associates in the Globe office during the evening. Cigars were also passed among the bride's friends. The bride and groom were seen in the evening at the Grand Hotel. They were seen in the evening at the Grand Hotel.
