City Oklahoma's Capital.

GUTHRIE, Oklahoma, Sept. 2 .- The capital question has been sprung in the council by the introduction of a bill locating the state government at Oklahoma City. It seems to be a conceded fact that the bill will pass, and Guthrie's only hope now lies in the veto power of the governor. Whether or not his excellency will come to the rescue of the town of his choice remains to be seen. Some think he is too much of a politician to say no when a majority of both houses say yes. It has developed within the last two days that the combination and has given not even its enemies cause for complaint. Resolved, That we commend and approve the straightforward course of the Republic-ans in congress to fulfil the party pledges to so revise and adjust the tariff laws as to re-duce the accumulation of a burdensome and dangerous surplus while still affording to American labor and products a fair protec-tion against degrading foreign competition. That we confidently anticipate that the tariff bill now before congress, when it shall have been revised and passed by a Republican senate and approved by a Republican presi-dent, and when the reciprocity feature so ably recommended by our illustrious Repub-lican secretary of state shall have been en-grafted upon it will meet the wishes and wants of the whole people, and will prove to our common coun-try a source of continual and increasing prosperity. Resolved. That we confially commend the Boston, Sept. 2 .- The annual convention of the Typothetæ was opened this morning in Chickering hall with an this morning in Chickering hall with an attendance of 150 delegates. President Rockwell presided and delivered his an-nual address. The report of the execu-tive committee showed that the organi-zation had been extended in many places. It recommended that the work of organization be referred back to the executive committee with instructions to push it more actively. A committee of three was appointed to consider all the recommendations contained people, and win prove to our common conti-try a source of continual and increasing prosperity. Resolved, That we cordially commet the action of the Republican house of repre-sentatives in its endeavors, through the passage of the federal election bill, to make inviolable the right of every clitzen of the United States, regardless or color, rank or station, to have his vote upon every national question freely cast and fairly counted. Resolved, That we cordially indorse the course of Hon. S. P. Snider, who has repre-sented this congressional district during the past two years; active, genial, energetic and persistent, he wreated this district from the Democracy and swept it into the Republican column by a majority of more than 10,000 yotes. He assisted in making free and prac-tical the navigation of the Soo canal, so that the products of the Northwest shall forever pass untrammelied to the sea. In the inter-est of our workmen he has labored to pro-tect our manufacturers. In the interest of the helpless and oppressed he has consist-ently supported the federal election bill, and has been persistent and unceasing in his en-deavors to serve every citizen of his district. Hardly had Mr. Sanborn reached the end of this remarkable platform when of three was appointed to consider all the recommendations contained in the report, and put them in proper form before the conven-tion. The other will oppose both and can defeat both and elect the sen-ator, though who that man will be remains to be discovered. Capt. McCor. mack, of Grand Forks, probably is the strongest man in the Democratic party, and could come nearer winning the sen-atorial prize than any other Democrat, but McCormack is cautious and will not place himself up as a stool pigeon with the gamesters all on the other side. He has a strong influence in North Da kato, and counts more Republicans among his personal friends than any other prominent Democrat in the state. That McCormack would like to be a United States senator there is little doubt, but that there is very little show for a Democrat, no matter how good a man, none know better than McCorman, none know better than McCor-mack, and hence it is doubtful if he can be persuaded to enter the race. Among the multitude of Republicans desiring. asolring, scheming and conniving to succeed Pierce, judging from the re-sponses in the state papers to the suggestion of his name, Col.

Lounsberry is a favorite among the people, but declines to take an active interest in the fight, as he is friendly to both Pierce and Hansborough.
