Expose of the Character and Workings of the Anti-Catholic Society.

Organized to Oppose the Election of Any Catholic to Office.

Its Declaration of Principles, Oath, Workings, Signs, Grip, Etc.

"How Does This Weather Suit You, Brother," This Morning.

An element has made its open appearance in the politics of Minneapolis this campaign that has exerted a secret and hidden influence...

Their Political Ambitions by preying upon the prejudices and fears of some and the bigotry of others.

The "Anti" Movement. Concerning the appearance of the adherents of this society in the county convention the Tribune had the following to say at this time:

The contest was precipitated as a challenge to the selection of a candidate less than that known in a general way as working for the "anti" movement, and that is, to capture the Republican party hereabouts.

The password for the order is "Washington," and the sign is a question, viz: "How does this weather suit you, brother?"

petation of civil and religious liberty, and this great American Union.

One president and chief recording secretary. One state deputy for each state. One congressional deputy for each congressional district.

One county deputy for each county. One ward deputy for each ward in city. One precinct deputy for each precinct in ward.

In calling meetings for business or to pass upon candidates, the following plan only will be used. President notify state, congressional, county, city, ward, precinct, and town deputies in their districts; ward and town deputies to notify precinct deputies; precinct deputies to notify members in their precincts.

The president and chief recording secretary shall receive reports from all deputies at once. Deputies are to be notified of their districts and any changes of precincts in their districts and any changes of precincts in their districts.

Our main object will be to elect men of ability, national, state and local—who are pledged to our principles and to the success of our party.

There is a key to the working book of the Anti-Catholic society, or Order of Deputies, to explain the numbers from 1 to 5 and from 9 to 12 of the working book, which should accompany it, this being necessary to correctly read the numbers in the working book.
