SAINT PAUL.

POUR PASSER LE TEMPS.

The best variety show that has been seen in St. Paul for many a long day was that given at the Grand 1st evening by the Marks and Schaeffer. International Yandevilles. The house was packed, and each of the clever specialties were applauded lustily.

The source musicale of the St. Paul Banjo, Mandolin and guitar club will be given at Turner hall this evening.

The sale of seats for the comedy and specialty performance of "He, She, Him, Her," which is to play at the Newmarket theater four nights, commencing Sunday next, opens at the box office this morning.

The second Brooke musical matinee will be given this afternoon at the Grand opera house, and a full house is already assured.

The concert of a character of excellence that is popular with St. Paul people, who, by the way, only need to hear that Brooke is director to be aware of the nature of the entertainment.

Many men owe the grandeur of their lives to their tremendous difficulties--Surgun.

LABOR CIRCLES. At a meeting of Cigar-makers Union No. 98, last night, it was determined to make a vigorous prosecution of the infringement upon the trademark or seal used on boxes containing unbranded cigars.

Supreme Court Routine. The supreme court yesterday heard the following cases:

Wentworth Hayes, respondent vs. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Company, appellant. Argued and submitted by E. C. Shepherd, respondent, vs. Edward K. Ware et al, appellants; E. E. Ware, respondent, vs. J. C. Eaton, appellant. Submitted on briefs to be filed on or before Feb. 1, 1891.

Wants Her Hair Gray. London Daily News. People sometimes expect medical men to do strange things. A professional correspondent of the Lancet has a lady patient who has consulted him about her hair, which we are told is "turning gray slowly but surely." Probably it will be assumed that a good hair dye

Low Prices and Good Meats.

Is our motto. Give us your trade and we will give you good satisfaction. J. A. McAlister, 188 East Seventh.

It has been said that he who retires to solitude is either a beast or an angel.

The centuro is to severe, and the prize unmerited; the discontented being who retires from society is generally some good-natured man, who has begun his life without experience, and knew not how to gain it in his intercourse with mankind.--Goldsmith.

Fresh Home-Made Catsup.
