

SANT PAUL

CAUGHT ON THE FLY.

The Young People's Society of the Central Park M. E. Church last evening decided in future to affiliate with the Epworth League.

The committee on legislation of the board of county commissioners will hold a meeting in the board room at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

At the Harris this afternoon and to-night Frank Mayo will appear in "Shadows" and "Lights and Shadings" are now on sale.

The German Evangelical Lutheran St. John's congregation of Sheridan, Redwood county, yesterday held a meeting of incorporation with the secretary of state.

Alec Elcor was brought in from Crookston by Deputy Marshal Sheehan yesterday, and lodged in the Ram eye county jail upon a charge of selling liquor to Indians.

Lieut. Gov. Deas was called at the capitol yesterday and stated that he had taken a house on Portland avenue, where he will reside during the session of the legislature.

A meeting of the citizens' union was called for last evening in the municipal court, but, owing to a very slim attendance, the gentlemen present decided to adjourn until after the holidays.

The Bible class for the study of the Sunday school lesson, "Jesus' Parting Words," will meet to-night in the chapel of the Young Men's Christian Association, General Secretary T. C. Horton leader.

There will be no matinee at the Newmarket to-day. Roland Reed will close his engagement this evening instead of to-morrow evening, as previously announced. To-night's will be the concluding performance at the Newmarket.

W. Phillips, deputy sheriff of Blue Earth county, informed the state auditor yesterday that he had delivered at Stillwater county James Flynn and sentenced to eighteen months imprisonment each.

At the annual meeting of Park Congregational church the deacons elected were: W. Backstrom and E. Anderson, and the trustees W. Foulke and C. B. Gilbert. Since Mr. Nutting became pastor of this church the membership has been doubled.

A meeting for men will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Young Men's Christian Association gymnasium, corner Ninth and Washington streets.

The following exercises will be submitted before the supreme court yesterday: John B. Spencer, appellant, vs. Matias Hagan, respondent; Thomas Welch, respondent, vs. Michael Bradley, appellant; and H. O. Olson, respondent, vs. the St. Paul & Duluth Railroad company, appellant.

The Woman's Christian Temperance union, at their conference held at St. Paul, made arrangements for holding on the West side monthly union Gospel temperance meetings in six churches, under the direction of the Willard Union Association.

They were also perfected for holding a New Year's reception with the Young Women's Friendly association at 70 East Seventh street, the head quarters of both organizations.

FOR YOUNG WOMEN.

An Association Which Merits General and hearty Support.

"Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." It is a law in the work of the Young Women's Friendly association, at 70 East Seventh street. For years thousands of dollars have been spent for the welfare of the young men of St. Paul, but no one has thought of our young women.

There is need for this work is shown by the great success of this society. On the 17th of December, 1888, the parlors of the gospel temperance union were opened as a free reading room for young women, and coffee, tea, cocoa and milk furnished to those employed in stores.

The first year 24,000 valued themselves of the happy privilege of the rooms. This year the attendance has exceeded 42,000.

The rooms are very pleasant, and the entire floor, 25x100, is now carpeted. A piano, books, magazines, etc., add much to a comfort and enjoyment of the young women.

An important feature of the work is the interest taken in those coming to the city as strangers. These are cared for, are directed to places of interest, and the places and assisted in obtaining employment.

Last April the society was permanently organized, and the following gentlemen chosen officers of the association: Bishop M. N. Gilbert, Messrs. Jefferson, Van St. John, Noyes, Sisk, Schmeier, Frost, Simonson, Bend, Lichtenberger and Moore. Among other interested in the work are Messrs. Manson, Sweeney, Edgerton, and Misses Moore, Dickerman, Bunker, Deacon, Handy, Wemott, Baldy, Hager, Cow, Harrison and Luley. The object of the society is:

First—To maintain pleasant rooms for the use of young women.

Second—To collect a library for their use.

Third—To organize classes for their mental enjoyment and improvement.

Fourth—To provide lectures and entertainments for their benefit and to everything for their advancement, physical, mental and spiritual.

The rooms are open daily from 9 a. m. until 9 p. m. Coffee, tea, milk and cocoa are served from 11 a. m. until 2:30 p. m. and from 5 until 8 p. m. This year the society has received $1,000 to increase its facilities for this practical Christian work.

A CHINAMAN'S PIPE

Causes the Loss of Nearly One Thousand Lives.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 19.—The steamship Belicor arrived this morning, bringing Chinese advice to November 30 and Japanese advice to December 3. The deaths resulting from the powder explosion at Talping were more than at first estimated, it being stated that 800 coffins had been taken out of the city and yet they were not enough to bury all the dead. A Chinaman lighting a pipe with a match, which was a total wreck. The crew was saved.

Children Enjoy. The pleasant favor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be constipated or bilious the same will be found to be the best family remedy known, and every family should have a bottle.

MAN DECAPITATED.

An unfortunate Denver Man Is Caught by a Revolver. DENVER, Dec. 19.—Thomas Man, an employe of F. R. Thies, wholesale liquor dealer, was instantly killed in the Boston block to-day. Man was sent by his employer to the revenue office for a liquor license. He had transacted his business, and had stepped to the elevator door for the purpose of descending to the street. This was on the third floor. The elevator at this time was full of people. Man was standing near the door, and as he descended, catching the unfortunate man's head between the door and the top of the elevator, the door closed and the man was crushed and his brains were strewn about. Man was married on Tuesday, and his young wife is heart broken over his sad death.

DENNY CHECKMATES.

South St. Paul Aldermen and the Mayor. A special meeting of the South St. Paul council was held last evening, the purpose of which was to receive an answer from Mayor Denny to the request for reasons why he did not sign certain liquor licenses. The mayor appeared with his attorneys, Fenney, Jamison & Rogers, and served an in-

DEFEAT PREDICTED.

Parnell Likely to Lose in the Bye Election Next Monday.

The Clergy Arrayed Almost Solidly Against His Candidate.

England's Navy is Preparing Against an Irish Outbreak.

Strong Denial That Lime Was Thrown into Mr. Parnell's Eyes.

KILKENNY, Dec. 19.—Harold Fredericks, correspondent for a New York paper, says: "Yesterday I visited the rural districts, driving over thirty-five miles of country. A great change was noted from the mob of the city of Kilkenny, which latter does not vote. In the country I found the rural population to be under the leadership of priests and ardently anti-Parnellites. This curious difference between the city and the country led me to probe beneath the surface. Was it all an anti-English feeling in the city which mastered Parnell's mob? I discovered that brewers are the principal industries of the city, and the brewer work people the principal ingredient of Parnell's supporters. Recently the bishops and priests started a determined temperance crusade, greatly reducing the incomes of brewers and publicans. This engendered a bitterness which only required the occasion for its development. The Parnell split served the purpose, and accordingly he flowed freely among the town rabble, which was agitated antipathetically by the brewers and vintners. At once the ecclesiastics took an anti-Parnellite attitude.

Respectable Townsmen side with the priests, but respectability does not make mobs. Accordingly, in outward brow, the city favors Parnell. Among the rural population the clergyman is king. The priest is at the head of every country league, controls its working, and knows its pivot. The men, therefore, of the country are against Parnell, being further influenced by the fact that every landlord, agent, bailiff, emergency man and land grabber is now firmly a Parnellite. My forecast of the situation at Monday's poll is that, allowing thousands of abstentions for neutrals, double entries, deaths and emigrations, Hennessey will receive 3,000 votes, and Scully, the Parnellite candidate, 1,700. The one certainty is Parnell's crushing defeat, despite the sayings of the Freeman's Journal and United Ireland, which are being circulated gratuitously among the voters. This brings me to a topic raised by Mr. Healy to-day.

Two Large Sums of Money from New York and Paterson, N. J., were yesterday announced by Dr. Kenny as allotted to the National League.

Mr. Healy charged that this was a breach of the understanding arrived at by the American delegation, claiming that the money should go to the evicted tenants' fund. He alleged that otherwise it would be diverted by the Parnellites for campaign purposes. Treasurer Kenny's reply is awaited with interest. Parnell's move after the Kilkenny defeat is now causing speculation. He, however, still entertains hopes of victory, declining to speak of his plans. The extraordinary intensity of anti-Parnellism among the devout Catholics is shown by a unique incident in the Catholic church of Castle Corner, the arrival of anti-Parnellism strongholds. Last Sunday, before high mass, the organist, instead of sacred music, played an overture, "Let Erin Remember the Days of Old, Ere Her Faithless Sons Betrayed Her," and the song of "O'Rourke," which commemorates the incident which led to the invasion of Ireland by the Normans, consequent on the seduction of O'Rourke's wife by MacRough. Such music, played amid a devotional populace, created a thrilling effect.

WAR ON IRELAND.

Rumors That the English Fleet Has Been Ordered There.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—It has just leaked out that the fleet in the Thames river has received orders from the admiralty to hold themselves in readiness to sail on a moment's notice, and that a similar command for preparation has been given to the Medway fleet. It is rumored that these orders were given in view of information that the government has received warning of a rising in the west of Ireland. It is said that since the Parnell episode the intensity of the feeling against the government in certain parts of Ireland has increased, and that English officials in the disaffected districts have warned the government to prepare to quell an insurrection. Such music, played amid a devotional populace, created a thrilling effect.

ATTACKED BY WOMEN.

Michael Davitt Explains the Castle Corner Affair.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—A dispatch received in this city from Michael Davitt states that the injuries sustained by Mr. Parnell at Castle Corner were inflicted by women and girls who pelleted him with flour and mud. The story that lime was thrown in his face and eyes, the dispatch says, is Parnell's latest disgusting dodge to evoke sympathy and divert the people's mind from the real issue.

M'CARTHY SPEAKS.

He Predicts the Certain Election of Hennessey.

DUBLIN, Dec. 19.—Mr. Parnell and his colleagues drove to Johnston town, where Parnell still wears bandages over his eyes. Mr. Redmond, alluding to the denials that lime was thrown into Mr. Parnell's eyes, declared that two doctors staked their reputations on the fact that it was lime that they found in his eyes. Justice McCarthy addressed a meeting at Kilkenny to-day. He declared that Sir John W. Hennessey would certainly be elected, and that the only question was as to the extent of his majority. Mr. Sexton also made an address. He said he deeply regretted the violence done to Mr. Parnell, and that whatever his present feeling towards Mr. Parnell might be, he was grateful for his past services to Ireland. The Athlone commission of guardians has adopted resolutions advising Mr. Parnell to resign temporarily. The Athlone commission has voted against Parnell.

Mud, Not Lime.

DUBLIN, Dec. 19.—Canon Cody asserts that it was mud that was thrown into Mr. Parnell's face and eyes, and not lime as is claimed by his supporters. An address, signed by twenty-three women of Kilkenny, has been published.

SUCCESSFUL SWINDLE.

A Seattle Coal Company Does Up San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 19.—The Chronicle to-day says: "The Seattle & Northern Coal company, which has opened extensive offices here last month, has vanished, and an investigation shows that a successful swindle has been perpetrated. The company was organized in Seattle about three months ago with a capital of $50,000. The business was managed here by a man named Ayles, who issued a circular offering to sell coal, to be delivered after Feb. 1, at from $7.25 to $8.25 per ton. As the Seattle coal was selling at the time for from $4 to $10 a ton, the advertisement was very attractive. The circular advertised to sell only a limited amount of coal, only on condition that the purchaser would buy a share of the stock of the company, valued at $5, for each ton of coal ordered. The stock was to be taken back by the company at par value in payment for the coal. The business was very successful, and quite a business was done. A. F. Branbrook was announced as the president, C. C. McAlay vice president, Ayles chairman, E. Willard secretary, and McAlay assistant secretary. McAlay and Branbrook came here for a day or two, but never saw the office, and nothing has since been heard from them."

STILL WAITING.

A Butte Miner Bounced Out of a Sum of Money.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE. BUTTE, Mont., Dec. 19.—Fred Inabutt bought a ticket for St. Paul to-day and went to the Northern Pacific depot to wait for train. He has been working in the mine north of Butte for some time and wanted to visit his old folks in Butte. At the depot he met an affable stranger who said he had a lot of extra baggage amounting to $300. He produced a check for $300, and the amount was cashed. Inabutt kindly cashed the amount. The two then went to the baggage room, telling Inabutt to wait. He is waiting yet and at midnight for St. Paul to-day.

WORLD'S FAIR JANGLES.

The Entire Lake Front Site May Be Abandoned.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—An ordinance thirty-eight years old was unearthed to-day which apparently gives the Illinois Central the right of way and other privileges on the lake front which it was supposed the company was eager to obtain and which were granted in return for ground now occupied by the road and forming part of the world's fair site. Unless the ordinance turns out to be invalid, the city will be forced to set for the purpose plans, outlined by the directory and might involve a complete abandonment of the lake front.

RECEIVERS' HANDS.

PORTLAND, Or., Dec. 19.—In the United States court to-day, Charles E. Barnett, a citizen of Kentucky, filed a bill against the Northwest Fire and Marine Insurance company, incorporated under the laws of Oregon, with a capital stock of $200,000.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 19.—The American Marine company was placed in the hands of a receiver to-day. Assets, $100,000; liabilities, $300,000.

BRECHAL'S BODY.

TORONTO, Dec. 19.—Oswald Brechal writes from England to the editor of the Mail that he thinks it needless to say anything further about the execution of his half brother, Reginald Brechal, but that he would like to see the body of his brother's wife, and he asks that the authorities make repayment to the wife by allowing his body to be removed to the Woodstock cemetery.

CATTLEMAN PLOT.

They Still Have Hopes of the Cherokee Strip. ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., Dec. 19.—It is asserted that the cattlemen have yet given up hope of again entering their herds into the Cherokee strip. They expect that the offers by several parties of large sums for the lands—which are believed here to be part of a preconcerted plan—will have the effect of preventing the commissioners from making a deal with the Cherokees; and that this will prevent the strip from being opened to the public. The grass starts in the spring, they will smuggle their cattle back in the strip. To this end large numbers of cattle are now being held in the reservation, and joining the strip. The soldiers stationed south of here in the strip are all getting ready to move having received orders to report at Fort Reno. Thousands of people are watching the soldiers, and the minute they leave the strip the settlers will go in.
