

SAINT PAUL.

MOURN HIS LOSS.

Co-Workers of the late Gen. Sibley Pass Resolutions of Respect.

At the regular meeting of the board of trustees of the Oakland Cemetery association, held yesterday at the chamber of commerce building, the death of Gen. Sibley was noted officially.

Whereas, on the twentieth day of February last this association was called upon to receive the mortal remains of the late Gen. Sibley, who for their noble and patriotic services had been a member of that association for twenty-two years.

SWAMP LANDS.

A Big Appropriation Wanted to Reclaim Thousands of Acres.

The Red river valley drainage commissioners were in session yesterday at the Merchants' hotel, discussing the question of reclaiming lands in the Red river valley which are at the present time rendered useless by the overflow of the river.

The commission was organized in 1886, and represents a large number of citizens and land owners in the Red river valley counties.

All the members of the delegation were agreed on one point, that valuable lands could be reclaimed by the proposed drainage, and they all promised to support a bill for an appropriation.

It was eventually decided to appoint a subcommittee to draft a bill asking for an appropriation of the bill to be presented to the full committee this evening.

Job List of Minor Offenders.

Patrick Morris and Charles Haines were arrested Tuesday night for drunkenness. They forfeited their bail yesterday morning.
