

APPELLANTS AWRY.

Bad Day for Them in the State Court of Last Resort. Ten Cases in Which Respondents Hold Over Opponents.

Judge Dickinson's Ten Decisions Affirming the Trial Courts.

Law Laid Down as Final and Losers Must Be Contented.

Yesterday was not propitious for litigants who had appealed cases to the supreme court, for ten decisions were handed down by the appellate tribunal, each one upholding the rulings of the lower courts.

Thomas A. Abbott et al., respondents, vs. Isaac Morrissette et al., appellants. Order affirmed. Dickinson, J.

Contributory Negligence. Frank La Riviere, appellant, vs. Joseph W. Fenberson, respondent. Order reversing a new trial affirmed. Dickinson, J.

Insolvent Debtor. R. Christie Frost, appellant, vs. Lucy R. Steier, respondent. Judgment affirmed.

Town Bonds. Charles F. Powell, appellant, vs. Martin Heister et al., respondents. Order affirmed.

Canceled Contract. John Nelson, respondent, vs. Andrew Hanson, appellant. Judgment affirmed.

Sale of Land. Herman E. Long, appellant, vs. Nicholas J. Miller, respondent. Order affirmed.

Contract for Sale of Land. A contract for the sale of land, being a default in respect to the payments to be made by him, and the vendor seeking the cancellation of the contract.

Contract for Sale of Land. A contract for the sale of land, being a default in respect to the payments to be made by him, and the money paid should be returned.

A CHICKEN-SAW WIFE. And Her Devotion to a Husband Now Confined in the Ohio Penitentiary.

Manhattan Sold for $25. According to popular tradition the island of Manhattan was sold in 1624 for the sum of $25.

April Weather Predictions. If a peck of March dust is worth a king's ransom, and April showers bring forth may flowers, it is not right to predict that every day in every month of the Electric-Light, Vestibule Limited trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will continue to run on the level.

The State Savings Bank. Germania Life Insurance Company's Building, corner Fourth and Minnesota streets, has received a new supply of miniature safe boxes.

heroine's honor. The lady modestly bore the congratulations showered upon her. Her husband is a part of his relative as though she were of royal blood.

CLEVELAND'S MONEY VIEWS. They Are Approved by Many Business Men.

To the Editor of the Globe. DULUTH, Minn., March 27.—As a reader of your valuable paper, which is generally recognized as a staunch advocate of Simon pure Democracy, I note with pleasure your editorial comments on the Democratic members of the late congress who are so cock-sure that Grover Cleveland's opposition to the bonanza scheme for a full and unlimited issue of silver coinage will amuse you as the possibility of his renomination by his party in 1892.
