BLAINE IS TRICKY.

An Italian Editor Who Doesn't Like James.

NEW YORK, April 11.—Dr. Rovorsi, of Il Progresso Italo Americano, stated to-night that he had been authorized by Baron Fava to state for publication that he was only going to Rome on a "leave of absence" and that he is still the Italian minister in Washington.

NEW YORK, April 11.—Gen. Benjamin F. Tracy, secretary of the navy, spent to-day at his office in the Mills building, up to his ears in business.

NEW YORK, April 11.—In response to a request in his autobiography before he said, Baron Fava sent the following card to a reporter: "I am satisfied to express my sympathy for the United States (Signed) Baron Fava."

NEW YORK, April 11.—The New Hampshire legislature has been adjourned to the last Wednesday in December, 1891.

NEW YORK, April 11.—L'Echo d'Italia, alluding to the present Italian question, says: "It is now nearly a month since the Italian government sent its first note to the cabinet at Washington asking for an equitable and immediate reparation for the Italian citizens murdered in New Orleans. And what did Blaine do to undertake to dictate the terms of the present condition of affairs?"
