

SAINT PAUL.

BRUTES AND BUMMERS.

Predominated in the Motley Mass at Police Court.

Saturday in the municipal court is usually a busy day, and yesterday was no exception to the rule. Ed Anderson, a low looking brute of Scandinavian origin, was charged with an indecent assault upon Mrs. Lena Anderson at her house on Atwater street the previous evening, but as the evidence showed that the pair had been drinking heavily, the charge was altered to disorderly conduct, and Anderson received a sentence of ninety days at the workhouse.

Henry Heinz appeared in court charged with keeping a vicious canine which bit the hand of the son of Officer Given. Heinz was ordered by the court to send his dog out of the city, otherwise the police will practice upon it with their revolvers.

Alfred Dresser and Peter Feduck took a horse and buggy out on the "avenue" the previous afternoon, and fancied that they had the right to eclipse Mand S. Serej, Boernstedt, however, stopped to their amusement, and charged them with furious driving. Their case went over until next Friday.

Detectives Moran, Daly and Kenealey presented three tough-looking specimens of humanity named Thomas Murphy, William Gordon and James Daly, whom they rounded up near the gas works the previous day for being disorderly. Judge Cory, thinking a change of air would do the boys good, sent the trio to the city's Comoro resort for ninety days.

Tat Shanasey made his second appearance in two days, charged with being drunk and carrying concealed weapons. He had been fined $10 the previous day for a similar offense, so Judge Cory raised the stakes and Shanasey had to put up $25 or reside at Comoro for thirty days.

Le Veck and Henry Edmonds, two youths, were up before the worthy judge because they refused to work and preferred to roam "homeless, ragged and torn." They will help to plant vegetables for the city for the term of thirty sunsets.

Sam Quinn, an old time vag, received his official papers to spend sixty days on the shore of the lake which has no water, and James McKay closed the list for the day by handling over the price of 200 beers for having indulged not wisely but too well the previous evening.

In the afternoon Fred St. Peter, a Frenchman, was brought up on a most serious charge by Officer Delosso. St. Peter has been in court five times charged with making a beast of himself by exposing his person, and each time has been convicted. Yesterday morning Officer Delosso caught the depraved wretch at the foot of Jefferson street committing the same offense in the presence of a number of little girls. The case was continued at the prisoner's request, until to-morrow. St. Peter has a wife and family who are most respectable people.

The Germania Bank, Opposite the postoffice, at its Foreign Department sells Passage Tickets on all principal European steamers, and letters of credit or drafts on all parts of the world.

An Expensive Piece of Art. J. H. Rosell, who was arrested upon a charge of raising a $1 silver certificate to a $10 bill, and with passing it at Kandiyohi station, was indicted, tried and convicted at the Makoto term of the United States district court the past week. Judge Nelson sentenced him to pay a fine of $6,000 and to live in prison until the stillwater penitentiary.

The Northwest Grows Metropolitan. Gentlemen wearing Gloves on the street used to be exceptional; now the well-dressed man without is noticed. "The Plymouth" carries a large stock of anti-tariff-priced ones.

The Hillyard Funeral. The funeral of J. K. Hillyard will occur at 1:30 to-day from his late residence, 808 Robert street. The Odd Fellows will gather at their hall on Third and Cedar streets at 1:30, and will proceed to St. Paul's church, where Rt. Rev. Bishop Gilbert will conduct the services, assisted by Rev. Dr. Pope. The Sunday school children will meet at Ninth street at 10 o'clock, and the services will be held there. Messrs. T. H. Lytle, R. E. Anderson, F. L. McGhee, C. E. James, D. E. Talbert, F. D. Parker, J. H. Beckman and S. E. Handy are a committee formed to arrange for a memorial service.

Mind Reading. The feats of mind reading performed by the late Irving Bishop were wonderful, and savored a good deal of the supernatural, though he always claimed there was nothing mysterious about it. Johnston, the phenomenal product of the Northwest, has given some wonderful exhibitions, though skeptics have not been wanting who denounce him as a palpable fraud. There is another kind of mind reading not so difficult as that attempted by Bishop and Johnston—to read the mind of the public on a subject of great interest. During the past five years "The Burlington" has carried to all parts of the country thousands and thousands of the bright people of the Northwest; and if you ask any one what he thinks of that man, you can, before he speaks, read his mind on that question by noting how pleasant recollections of speed, comfort and safety cause his face to light up and a smile to break forth. For assistance in this matter, ask your local agent for a ticket via "The Burlington," or write to W. J. C. Kenyon, General Passenger Agent, C. & N. R. R., St. Paul, Minn.

Office St. Paul Omnibus and Hack Line, 720 East Third street.—We wish to thank our kind friends who came to our assistance so quickly after the burning of our barn and stock. With this assistance we were enabled to proceed with our business without any interruption. We again thank you. Jno. B. Cook & Son.

The Spring Days. And new spring suits are the proper combination. Nature provides the first, and McGrath & Co., the popular Merchant Tailors, the latter. And such suits, in style and elegance, go and see for yourself. It's only down at 140 East Third Street.

COURTS IN REVIEW. A Number of Important Cases in the Special Term.

The following routine business was disposed of in special term of the district court yesterday: By Judge Coryish—Cochran & Drake vs. Kate E. Verrill. Plaintiff's case proved and finding for defendant. The assignment of Corb Brothers & Co. to Charles H. Worthen. Heard and submitted on an order to show cause why the final account of the assignee should not be set aside. Motion to set aside the verdict of the jury in the case of F. W. Martin et al. ordered to show cause dismissed. Leonard H. Trott vs. Fredrick. Heard and submitted on a new trial granted by court. May 10. Motion to set aside the verdict of the jury in the case of the ten-month-old child Ernest J. to the mother, pending the suit for divorce.

HIGHER AND TOUGHER. Meats Make the Spring Rise Very Decidedly.

The boarder complains that his beef steak is tougher, and the housewife holds up her hands in surprise to find that her meat has struck a decided inflation of prices. The complaint of the boarder is justified because he is not so forced to eat stall-fed beef that is not juicy and tender as the grass fattened prairie cattle. The rise in the market is caused by the fact that grazed cattle are more expensive than cattle shipped from the plains. While it is true that cattle are higher in the early spring, yet the rise is very perceptible and beyond recent precedent this spring and will keep up until after the shipment to the cities of grass-fed animals in June. Cuts of beef that sold last fall for 12½ cents are now selling for 18 to 20 cents; roasts have advanced from 12½ cents to 15 cents, and from 8 cents to 12½ cents; boiling pieces that sold for 3 cents have gone up to 6 cents and 7 cents. Mutton has also risen but not so perceptibly. Pork has also advanced about 25 per cent. There has been no unusual rise in salt meats.

Miller's Hats. Clancy, the Hotel Ryan Hatter, has just received "Miller's" summer styles of light-colored Derbys and Crushers.

Progressive Robert Street. Is attracting business. Goyer Bros., the Furnishing Goods dealers, are about removing from 137 East Third street to 330 Robert, near Fourth, where they will occupy an elegant store with better facilities.

SEVERAL STRONG REASONS Alleged by Mary Jane Durham Why She Should Be Divorced.

Mary Jane Durham has applied to the district court to declare her marriage with George Harrison Durham a nullity and for permission to resume the name of Mary Conner and for the custody of her child. They were married at Waseca Aug. 6, 1888. She at that time was only fifteen years old and George Harrison Durham was her senior by twenty-four years. It is alleged that the husband has a former wife living and from whom he has not been divorced, which fact was unknown to the plaintiff until some time after her marriage. He also claimed that the defendant has failed to support the plaintiff since a month after his alleged marriage.
