

THE HANDICAP TO-DAY

The Brooklyn Jockey Club's Rich Stake on the Eve of Decision.

List of the Probable Starters, and the Weights They Will Carry.

Chances of the Various Flyers—Heavy Betting in New York.

Louisville's Second Day Drew a Large Crowd to Enrich the Books.

GRAVESEND, May 14.—The New York Tribune will say to-morrow: For the handicap to-morrow Tenny is a pronounced favorite with most of the trainers that haven't a horse in it. But all make a proviso, such as "if it don't rain," "if he is not jostled and cut off," "he is carrying a crusher and must have almost clear sailing to win." Senorita is handicapped with the rain proviso, but with a good track will close up. Prince Royal and Teary are in the same match in regard to their work, and with a good track should win in 2:09, with most of the trainers in favor of the Prince. With a wet, heavy track Eon is able to stand off Teary at any distance, as he has as much speed and stamina when pinched over swerves and Teary sulks. Judge Morrow is an honest, true running horse, and is at home on any kind of a track. His work has been as good as that of any horse engaged. Hardison will have all he can do to beat Saunterer, the one that the stable thinks the better. Banquet is fit, and sure to run his level best. He is good in any kind of going. Demuth is good on any kind of a track, and with McLoughlin up town will be a hard horse to beat. Leighton, with 104, is hardly a handicap horse, but his work right off the cars from Cape Charles entitles him to consideration. Reporter's friends are praying for rain, and should Reporter get off well he will be in it the whole of the way. Russell will hardly do unless he footed the boys in his work yesterday. Loantaka is good in the mud. Cousin James is in it in any kind of a track. Uncle Bob is a Good Mud Horse.

and can go very well over a good track. Castaway was as good a horse as ever he showed in his work yesterday. With mud and Taral to help him he is in it. Riley is good on any kind of a track. Carroll, the member from Monmouth, has not done anything in his work that makes him look as if he had a chance. King Thomas will start, hoping to win by a short head from Adalia, while Ignite was a head before American Lady. Time, 1:03.

HEARST'S HORSES SOLD. The Great Stable is Broken Up by Auction Sale. NEW YORK, May 14.—The racing stable of the late Senator George Hearst was under the hammer to-day at the Metropolitan Hotel. Two hundred and all were in the stable, and nearly every one of them was a racer of no mean order. Such sires as Imp, Sir Modred, Imp, Clavio, Joe Daniels and others were represented. All of the horses were in training, and were sold with long lists of engagements for the racing season, which begins to-morrow. At the head of the stable was that first-class race horse, Tournant, the great, three-year-old of last season, and a winner of nearly $80,000. King Thomas, Ballarat, Rhono, Anarelist and a number of other first-class flyers were on the list. A special train left for the Long Island City Hotel, where the horses sold and the prices obtained are as follows: Rhono, ch. c., five years old, by Flood, out of Imp, Rosetta, was sold to Mr. McMorris for $25,000. Ballarat, b. c., 4, by Imp Sir Modred, out of La Favorita, to Barnes & Porter, $10,000. Tournant, br. c., 4 years old, by Imp Sir Modred, out of Plaything, to Foxhall Keene, for $33,500. (Gleudale Gleudale), St. Lancelot, b. c., 4, by Imp Sir Modred, out of Fastina, (Gleudale stables), $1,300. Miss Belle, b. f., 4, by Imp Prince Charlie, out of Linnet, for $2,800. B. b. c., 3 years old, by Warwick out of Maria E. to Frank Taylor for $1,800. Sycamore, ch. c., 3, by Joe Hooker out of Laura Winston, to J. Campbell for $2,200. LEO'S ENCYCLICAL.

The Pope Expresses His Views on Vital Subjects.

ROME, May 14.—The Latin text of the papal encyclical about to be published analyzes and refutes the socialist theories tending to abolish private property, and upholds the principles of the church as the first and main element in the solution of social questions. The true solution, the pope says, is to be found in the Gospel, which, rightly studied, would teach employers and employed to become united, while fulfilling their respective duties. The church has always sought to promote the application of the principles stated in the Gospel, and to give moral and eternal help, as indicated in the doctrines of Christ. The state should intervene to regulate private property in order to ensure the public peace and the moral and material welfare of the working people. The pope here comments on the necessity of that such institutions have already achieved, and calls upon Catholics to assist in their formation, urging that all should be animated by a Christian spirit. Cardinal Manning and Archbishop Walsh are collaborators in the preparation of the English translation.
