An Austrian Nobleman Follows an Opera Singer About the Country,

Fails in His Attempts to Get Her to Become His Wife,

Meets a Rival Who Casts Reflections Upon Her Character,

Fights a Duel With Him, and Receives a Dangerous Wound.

CHICAGO, May 24.—Chicago today was the scene of a denouement in a genuine romance with all the essential features—a wealthy nobleman, a disinterested son, a beautiful woman, a duel, and mystery. Baron Rudolf Kalnoy, of Koroopalak, a nephew of Count Kalnoy, of Vienna, made his first visit to Chicago about a month ago, registering at the Riehellen Merly as Rudolph Kalnoy, of New York. He was handsome and mysterious. PHILADELPHIA, May 24.—Nothing new was developed today that would serve to throw light on what has become of the million of money that Treasurer Bardsley says he deposited in the Keybank in New York. The Examiner Drew and Receiver Yardley say there is no record of the bank's books. The two questions that excited the greatest interest here today were whether Bardsley was well enough to appear at the hearing of his case to-morrow. There is no doubt but that Mr. Bardsley is well enough to appear at the hearing of his case to-morrow. STRIKE OF CREEDS.

Dr. Heber Newton Expresses Some Rather Radical Views of Christianity.

Protestantism, He Says, Is on Fire With Many Burning Questions.

Christ's Kingdom Torn and Dismembered Before Our Eyes.

The Alternative to Throw Over All Creeds or Simplify Them.

NEW YORK, May 24.—Rev. R. Heber Newton, rector of All Souls Protestant Episcopal church, who is charged with holding heretical views and with preaching heretical doctrines, and especially with denying the immaculate conception of the Virgin Mary, took occasion this morning to answer his accusers in a sermon on the Nicene creed. A congregation which crowded the church to the doors heard the sermon, which was in substance as follows: "Calvin once said that the Nicene creed was only fit to be sung. That is its noblest glory. Rightly understood, its utterances form a hymn of thanksgiving to God for the redemption of the world, and therefore to be sung. The Westminster confession being sung. To what music could it be set?"

Lord Romilly Loses His Life in London From Inhaling Its Fumes.

Two Servant Girls in the House Die From the Same Cause.

The Terrible Affair Is Caused by the Overturning of a Lamp.

A Cloudburst in Idaho Causes Heavy Loss at Boise City.

LONDON, May 24.—At midnight Saturday Lord Romilly, aged a paraffine lamp in the drawing room of his London residence. He was alone at the time, and vainly attempted to extinguish the fire unassisted. Shortly after the butler smelled smoke, and on making an investigation found Lord Romilly lying senseless in the burning drawing room, the nobleman having been overcome by smoke and the fumes arising from the burning contents of the lamp. Lord Romilly was subsequently removed to St. George's hospital, where all attempts to revive him failed. Several fire engines in response to alarms sent out, hastened to Lord Romilly's house, about which an excited crowd gathered. The firemen, on entering, found Blanche Griffin, a housemaid, and Ella Lovell, the cook, in the same state of insensibility in which their employer was discovered. They were also removed to the hospital, where it was found that both were already dead. Another female servant and the butler had succeeded in escaping from the house. George Byne, fireman, received serious injuries while engaged in rescuing the unconscious inmates of the house. The fire, which was not extensive, was soon extinguished.

CHICAGO PRAIRIE FIRE.

A Lot of Excursionists at Calumet Heights in Danger.

Chicago, May 25.—Between 4,000 and 5,000 excursionists from this city went out on the Calumet heights this afternoon were compelled to run for their lives before a prairie fire, which formed a sheet of flame half a mile in width. Sixteen passenger coaches loaded with seekers of suburban lots went out from the west side of the city in the afternoon, and when all had disembarked at Calumet Heights that suburb presented the appearance of a picnic ground. Some boys threw matches into the dead prairie grass, and the fire, which was a part of a prairie fire, assumed the dimensions of a prairie fire. A brisk northeasterly wind was blowing, and as the blaze started in the south, the fire quickly spread over the prairie, the flames spread and advanced with tremendous rapidity. Calumet Heights was surrounded with fire, and when the fire spread itself and came rushing toward them with the rapidity of the wind, the fire quickly followed. Men, women and children jostled each other in their wild flight from the advancing fire. The fire quickly followed. THE CHURCH OF ROME.

The Church of England, and our own church alike hold fast to them.

The Church of England, and our own church alike hold fast to them. The Nicene creed is an amplification of the apostle's creed, and the Council of Nice is called to answer to-day. What are the Nicene Creed affirm? It affirms, first of all, the great fundamental truths of religion in all lands and ages. It affirms, further, the birth of Christ from the Virgin Mary. His crucifixion under Pontius Pilate, His ascension into heaven, His return to earth in power and glory, His coming to judge the quick and the dead. To this is added the existence of the one catholic and apostolic church. It affirms, also, the doctrine of the Trinity, which is the doctrine of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, who are co-equal and co-eternal with the Father, and who are united in one substance, and who are together worshipped and glorified.
