UNCOILED THE SERPENT. A North Carolina Girl Rescues Cow From an Anaconda.

Last year a monster snake was seen n the neighborhood of Dondell's mill, gling, and went to see what was the matter. Imagine her surprise to see coiled around the neck of the cow an immense snake some tour inches in diameter and at least ten feet in ength. The cow was being choked to death, and the brave girl took hold of the snake with both hands, and, being a strong girl, she with great difficulty got it loose, or perhaps frightened it un-til it uncoiled itself and ran into the

After awhile the cow, with aid from the lady, got upon its feet and was The snake was of a brown color and is fairly breaking its own record. The Fairhaven Daily Herald of June 29 says: "On one of the principal corners of Fairhaven street Colonel Holton is having constructed a brick and stone building 50x100 feet, three stories high. On an opposite corner Mr. Waldron, the banker, is erecting another brick and stone building of the same dimensions. On the corner of Eleventh and Harris Mr. McKechnie is excavating nine feet below the surface for a solid 50x100 brick and stone structure. On the corner of and stone structure. On the corner of Thirteenth and Harris Mr. Cowgill is excavating nine feet below the surface for the foundation of a building 100x125, to be five or six stories high. Messrs. Gates & Fraser and McDougall & Dod-Gates & Fraser and McDougall & Dod-son are just completing their brick, stone and iron structure stores, offices, and Pythian and Masonic halls, 100x100 feet, three stories high. An attempt was made to kill it. but it went into a thicket on the banks of the creek.

Nothing more was seen of this monster snake until last Friday, when Miss Ida L. Robinson saw a cow, the property of Abner Schoolfield, down and struggling, and went to see what was the matter. Imagine her surprise to some colled around the neck of the cow an immense snake some four inches and palpable showing of business and
