Linlithgow and Melanie Led the California Crack at Chicago.

The Prize Was the Drexel Stakes, and Both Were Long Shots.

Very Poor Racing Marks the Opening Day at Jerome Park.

Flyers That Captured the Purses at Brighton and Gloucester.

CHICAGO, July 8.-It was too cool for thorough enjoyment at Washington park to-day. The track was in fairly good condition, but slow. About 4,000 people were present. The feature of the day's racing was the Drexel stakes for three-year-olds. Rinfax, the California crack, was backed as though he could not lose. He was not in it at the finish, Linlithgow, a 25 to 1 chance, winning from Melanie, who was at 10 to 1, by a length. Rinfax managed to run a dead heat with Vallera for third place.

First race, purse $600, for maiden two-year-olds, entrance $10, three-quarters of a mile-starters: Gov. Porter, 111, C. Sloan, 50 to 1; Dr. Malioy, 111, N. Porter, 50 to 1; Illume, 111, Overton, 5 to 2: Townsend, 111, Golliday.

A POOR DAY'S RACING.

Jerome Park Opening Was De-void of Feature.

JEROME PARK, N. Y., July 8.-For the first time in nearly two years metropolitan race-goers had a chance to journey to this track to-day. Not more than 3,000 availed themselves of the opportunity, and those that did were treated to as poor a day's racing as has been seen in a long while. The card was light, and the weather miserable. First race, three-quarters of a mile-Starters: Dr. Wilcox, 118, 7 to 2; Crotchet, 108, 8 to 1; Motto, 105, 7 to 5; O. P. B., 118, 5 to 1; Schuylkill, 168, 6 to 1.

They got away in good order with Crotchet, Motto, Dr Wilcox and OPB next. Crotchet held his advantage to the last sixteenth pole, when Dr Wilcox and order was a sixteenth pole, when Dr Wilcox and work was the sixteenth pole, when Dr Wilcox are the sixteenth pole, when Dr Wilcox and work was the sixteenth pole, when Dr Wilcox and work was the sixteenth pole, when Dr Wilcox and work was the sixteenth pole, when Dr Wilcox and Dr Wilcox cox drew up and won by a nose from Crotchet, who beat Motto five lengths.

The flag fell to a good start, with Orageuse, Lima and Woodcutter the most prominent. Orageuse showed first in the stretch, but was quickly passed by Woodcutter, Judge Post and West-paster Woodcutter, badd bit of the stretch. chester. Woodcutter held his advantage to the last furlong pole, where Westchester came with a rush and won handily by a length from Woodcutter, who beat Judge Post a length. Time, 1:20%. Third race, Long Branch handicap, mile and a quarter—Starters: Eon 123, 6 to 5; Riley 125, 4 to 5; San Juan 112, 10 to 1. San Juan was first away and went out o make the pace, with Riley at his addle and Eon trailing. On the far turn Eon began to crawl up; the three turned into the stretch on even terms, but Riley and San Juan were beaten. Eon just galloped the rest of the way, winning easy by a length from Riley, who was three lengths before San Juan.

Time, 2:11½.

Fourth race, mile and a sixteenth—Starters:
Raceland 123, 11 to 2; Madstone 112, 8 to 5;

A COUNCIL RAZZLED.

Detroit's Street Railway Boss Got

a Rough Deal. DETROIT, Mich., July 8 .- The coun cil meeting last night was attended by an enormous crowd of indignant citizens, gathered to show their interest in the street railway franchise question. and, as it proved, to voice their indignation at the work of the council. When the franchise question came up, and the tranchise question came up, and during the discussion which followed, bedlam broke loose. The packed chamber was filled with excited men, who cried: "Down with Boss Jacobs and his gang;" "Tar and feather the boss," "Haug him," and similar cries. Jacobs faced the storm a moment, speechless with rage, and foaming at the mouth. When he did speak he denounced the When he did speak he denounced the citizens roundly and moved on them. Affairs became so threatening at this point that to transact business was impossible, and amidst the greatest excitement every one piled out of the council chamber. No adjournment was

The Courts Will Be Called on to Decide It. KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 8.-Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson, the noted philan-thropist of Stamford, Conn., was adjudged insane by a jury in the probate court this morning, and a curator will be appointed to care for her property in this state. David McCormick, a noted contractor of this city, will combat the transfer of Mrs. Thompson's property into the hands of the curator. Mr. Mc-Cormick was engaged to be married to a niece of Mrs. Thompson. The niece died, and Mr. McCormick claims that the property which was to be given by Mrs. Thompson to her niece upon her marriage, was, upon the latter's death, given to him. The property is valued at $20,000.

Kansas Eight-Hour Law.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 8 .- A mandamus suit against the warden and board of directors of the state penitentiary to enforce the law providing that no state employe shall work more than eight hours a day, was filed and argued to-day. Decision was reserved. The labor organizations are fighting to have the law enforced. The enforcement of the law would necessitate the employment of 1,200 new employes in the various state institutions, for whose pay there is no appropriation. A Wise Innovation,

DETROIT, July 8 .- The recent innovation of the Detroit Driving club in reducing entrance fees to the races from 10 to 5 per cent of the purse re-ceived emphatic indorsement from horsemen when entries to the trotting meeting of July 20-25 were counted to-day, 123 nominations and three classes remaining open. All the great stables of the country are represented, includ-ing Budd Doble. John Goldsmith, John Turner, George Storrs and McDowells.

SMILER WAS BURNED.

An Enterprising Reporter in New York Views His Corpse.

He Reports That the Body Presented a Horrible Sight.

Warden Brown Is Peculiarly Cautious as to What He Knows.

Newspapers Talk Very Plainly.

NEW YORK, July 8.—The following is printed in an extra edition of an evening paper here: The body of the murderer Harris A. Smiler was brought to this city this afternoon by Undertaker Hulberg, of 265 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, on the train which left Sing Sing at 1:36 o'clock. The body has been claimed by Smiler's widow, the woman whom he afterwards murdered. The hair on the front of the head, of The hair on the front of the head, of the mustache and eyebrows had been singed and burned off. The face was furrowed and scarred as though with a hot iron. These marks were not those of a scalpel or dissecting knife. They were palpable burns. Pressing closer to see the dead face plainer, the reporter attracted the attention of the undertaker's assistants, and they seized him by the shoulder and compelled him to leave the place before any other portion of the body was exposed. To repeated requests to be allowed to see the body, the reporter was informed that no one but the undertaker and his assistants would be permitted to see it until it had been fully prepared for burial. "It was learned through one of the undertaker's assistants that Smiler's left leg was burned to the bone through the calf. The eyes were badly burned, though the eyeball was not destroyed."

though the eyeball was not destroyed."
Following the above is printed a Sing Sing dispatch from a correspondent who had been directed to question Warden Brown about the alleged condition of Smiler's body. This dispatch is as follows:

Brown Will Not Talk.

Warden Brown said when asked as to the burning of Smiler's body: "I still adhere to my determination to make no statement whatever. I will neither deny or confirm the report. No influence can be brought to bear upon me to induce me to say anything whatsoever regarding the electrocution beyond the simple statement that on July 7 Slocum, Smiler, Wood and Jugiro were executed according to law." Father Creeden is quoted by a priest from another wither the denis quoted by a priest from another withers who was a success, and I believe will be found the proper mode of capital punishment, as it is to continue in this state."

Asked about the witnesses, Dr. McDonald said: "There were too many. It would have been better to have only a few scientific men present. Dr. Ward and myself were the official physicians and will make the death report. The witness whom nobody knew and who witness whom nobody knew and who ecuted according to law." Father Creeden is quoted by a priest from another village who rode down town with the reporter to-day as saying that when the whole story came out it would be disclosed that all the doomed men were burned by the electrodes, but that they had been so mutilated by the surgeons' knives that it would be difficult of proof. The priest, who particularly desired to keep his name out of print, said he had been told the same thing by a layman who had seen the bodiespresumably a prison employe. Confirmation of the above is not at hand.

A Contradiction.

A Contradiction.

The following comes from the usual local news sources of the Associated Press: The body of Harris A. Smiler, who was electrocuted at Sing Sing yesterday, was brought to this city to the undertaking establishment of Fred Hurlburg, at No. 265 West one Hundred and Twenty-Fifth street, this afternoon. Smiler once worked for Hurlburg and his relatives accepted Mr. Hurlburg's offer to bury him at his own expense. The body was put in a casket and was viewed by Smiler's sister, brother and a few friends. Mr. Hurlburg stated that no examination of the body had been made by any person with a side of an execution. This provision is a disgrace to the civilization of which we are proud. It is against public policy, it is impossible to enforce, and it is defied and will continue Warden Brown was seen at the prison warden brown was seen at the brison this evening and asked as to the reported burning of Smiler's body. He still adhered to his determination to make no statement whatever, and that he would neither deny nor confirm the report. Rev. Father Creeden, who was present at the executions in his clerical ca-pacity, is quoted as saying that when the whole story came out it would be disclosed that all the doomed men were burned by the electrodes, but that they had been so mutilated by the surgeons' lances that it would be difficult of proof.

"I am considering just how much or how little I ought to say. I am not bound by oath but by honor, which to me is the same thing, not to divulge anything connected in any way with the details of the execution. Therefore, I cannot answer the question. I will not say Smiler was not burned."

"Will you say he was?" queried the reporter for the United Press.

Dr. Ward, without the utmost courtesy. replied: "I will say nothing about it."

Finally the doctor broke a minute's silence by saying: "I will say that not one of the executed showed anything like the disfiguring incidental to death by hanging. There was not one-half the horror in witnessing their execution that there would have been if they had been hanged. The heart beats were over fifteen times as quick."

"Do you call a blister a burn?"

"Certainly not," was his reply. "A burn would char the flesh." Again he was asked as to the turning on of the current once or twice after the first had been shut off, to which he replied:

"I will not say how many times it was turned on or off. It could make no earthly difference how many times. As a matter of fact, an alternating current shuts itself off from 1,500 to 1,800 times a minute. Now, if it were turned off by the switch it would be the same entoif, only with a longer interval between it and the next application of the current." Dr. Ward would say nothing more, excepting that the executions were eminently successful and carried Doctors Are Mum, but the more, excepting that the executions were eminently successful and carried out skillfully and without any mishaps.

a reporter was in waiting at the rooms to see the body of the executed murderer. The coffin was taken into the basement by the undertaker's assistants, and the lid was quickly taken off, exposing the dead man's face. The reporter stood close by and was horrified at the sight that met his eyes. Smiler's face had been

Dr. Daniels said that but for his promise not to talk he could tell a startling tale. He admitted that, as in Kemmler's case, it was necessary to shock the victims twice. He said the doctors carried away portions of the victims' bodies for examination. One physician, whose name may not be mentioned, said he never saw anything so neatly done. It reminded him of a little family party as they sat in the room Dr. Daniels said that but for his tle family party as they sat in the room

Southwick said that the experiments were highly successful, and he feels satisfied now that electrical executions have come to stay. Dr. Franklin Townsend said the executions were perfectly successful.

ALBANY, N. Y., July 8.—Dr. Carlos
F. MacDonald, who conducted the execution and the autopsies of the four murderers at Sing Sing, arrived in the city last night and, after registering at the Stanix hotel, was driven to the house of Dr. Samuel B. Ward. He de-upon the electrical executions at Sing Sing yesterday, which they generally regard as successful, take occasion to vigorously attack Warden Brown for his vigorously attack Warden Brown for his extraordinary and wholly unnecessary as well as futile pains to prevent the newspapers from getting news of the executions. The placing of armed guards outside the prison walls, referred to as a "dead line," is condemned as authority arbitrarily assumed.

The Sun says: "This morning the Sun and every other real newspaper in the state openly and deliberately violate that section of the electrical execution viewed by Smiler's sister, brother and a few friends. Mr. Hurlburg stated that no examination of the body had been made by any person with a view to ascertaining about the burns said to have been inflicted by the electroctes at the time of the electrocution. He did not think it right to let anybody but the family and a few friends see it. To-morrow morning at 11 o'clock the body will be buried.

In Dishonored Graves.

Sing Sing, July 8.—The unclaimed bodies of the three electrocuted murderers—Slocum, Wood and Jugnowere buried in the prison cemetery at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Nine convicts lowered the coffins, one after another, into the graves, which were then quickly filled up with quicklime and leveled off with earth. There was no ceremony, religious or otherwise, at the graves.

Warden Brown was seen at the prison this evening and asked as to the results of the service of the law."

It is against public policy, it is impossible to enforce, and it is defied and will continue to be defied by every self-respecting nad it is defied and will continue to be defied by every self-respecting nad it is defied and will continue to be defied by every self-respecting nad it is defied and will continue to be defied by every self-respecting nad it is defied and will continue to be defied by every self-respecting nad it is defied and will continue to be defied by every self-resp and, if possible, to tring about a settlement or abridge the liberty of speech or the press." But the press has another duty to perform. It must bring about the repeal of this unconstitutional provision. To that end it should devote its utmost energies at the next election. Without regard to personal or partisan considerations, it should support for the legislature and for responsible executive posts only such candidates as are distinctly committed against this prepoterous gag-law. The Sun is ready, for one, to engage liself to support any Republican candidate who shail promise to vote or work next winter for the repeal of the law."

management had issued over $11,000,000 more bonds than was warranted by the mortgage. The mortgage provided that the bonded debt shall be limited to $25,000 per mile. So far 140 miles have been constructed, calling for the issue of $3,500,000 in bonds. The company, however, has issued $15,600,000 in bonds, and justifies itself by asserting that the line when completed will be 600 miles long and that the bond issue on the system would then be only $25,000 per mile. The bonds, which were placed at 80, now have no market value and the company has a floating debt of $600,000.
