

THEIR CLUB IS GONE.

The Mill City Will Probably See No More Base Ball, Although Others Claim the Suspension is Merely Temporary.

If Minneapolis Goes Out the Western Association Will Drop.

Pittsburg Phil Wins $50,000 on Kern at Saratoga Races.

For sale—One Western Association base ball franchise, one base ball park in the heart of a big city, with all appurtenances thereto, including a first-class diamond, grand stand, bleachers, club house, etc., and one lot of base ball uniforms in assorted sizes, together with bats, balls, bat bags, masks, gloves and other base ball paraphernalia, all going cheap for cash.

The above signed "ad" was written yesterday, supposedly, if it wasn't, it should have been. The statements made in it are literally true.

The Minneapolis ball team was. Only the melancholy dream of a pennant, "championship" of the Western association, 1891, is.

At 10:30 sharp yesterday morning Manager W. R. Harrington entered the club house at Athletic park, Minneapolis. The leather chasers were busy packing up to go to Duluth. No smile was upon his face as he went to the "Boys," he said, and there was a quiver in his voice, "you may as well lay out your suits and get on for a good time. This base ball team is disbanded by order of the board."

"Then was there hurrying, hot haste. Tredway went upstairs to his room, and two whoops that would have done credit to Stick-in-the-Middle-of-the-Road, his illustrious ancestor of the Ojibwas. Everybody was jumping for joy, waving and an abundant crop of snowflakes. The team is gone, for a certainty. The little sign on the door, but its meaning has flown. The crank sits him down before a mug of sorrow-smasher and moans: "Our ball team is no more, and the joy is dead, for without a ball team is there no umpire to stand the gaff!"

Yes, the ball team is gone. Yes, Hach has this to say on the subject: "Ever since the team returned from the last trip we have been considering this course of action. The patrons of the game think, of course, the team has been doing all right financially; in fact, that we were making money out of money. Such is not the case. We knew that we wouldn't draw very well when the team came to the city, and the boys had played losing ball. But we determined to make several changes where we were we could better ourselves, and, if possible, show the boys hooed and play winning ball. We succeeded pretty well, and of late have done well. We have taken two out of three from Lincoln, Kansas City and Omaha, lost two out of three to Denver in the last four series. This is good work, yet the attendance is so poor to warrant us going on. On Saturday we had 451 people and yesterday 735. Our average attendance for the past two months has been 300. Now, when you come to pay $100 to the visiting club out of each day's gate receipts, there isn't enough left to run an amateur club. To pay club expenses costs exactly $125 per day from the time the season opens until it closes. We are investing like that on your hands a man must see his way clear. It doesn't take long to eat up considerable at that rate. The club has no money to speak of. We are even now, but we cannot finish the season without losing between $2,500 and $3,000. We have lost $2,500 in the past two months, and for this reason I disbanded the team. The franchise belongs to the association, and if any one wants to take the team up they are welcome to do so."

Hach says further that he will sell the lease of the ground, ranging for two years yet, with the ground, for $10,000, and everything that stands on it for $5,000 cash. He places the value of it at $1,000, but is willing to take 50 cents on the dollar. And there you are. He adds that he believes that the Western association will go up the traditional spout within the week. The junior member of the firm of Hach & Griffin attributes the falling patronage to the roasts from the newspapers. He doesn't seem to appreciate that the team needed an occasional roast for the quality of ball furnished.

So much for the reasons of the management. Now for the public's view of the case. One can go upon the streets of Minneapolis and find several dozen reasons for the disbandment. Of course there are 1-100,000 reasons, many of which say that the sale of Shugart killed the attendance and brought about the disbandment. That may have hurt the attendance, so far as a few cents are concerned, but it wasn't wholly responsible. A few people went to see Shugart, more went to see ball games. Shugart couldn't have won the pennant.

Scated about eight feet deep in the mind of the public is the conviction that there is a scheme being devised to disbandment. Theories are numberless. Some of them are plausible. Here is one: It is possible that Hart has become dissatisfied with Manager Harrington, Harrington having, in all probability, a contract for a full year, which would be troublesome to dispose of. The team could be disbanded. That would settle the manager. The franchise and the team could be transferred to another and the game go on, each being interested in the profits. The players are not formally released, yet they will not be at liberty for ten days. The franchise is not forfeited. Such a scheme could be worked.

Here is another. Suppose Hach wanted to get out of the sporting goods business. That the store of Hach & Griffin does not make much money, if any, is conceded. He has a partner in both base ball and the store. He doesn't want to buy out the partner. The partner can't buy him out for lack of funds. The team could be formally disbanded and transferred to another, as before outlined. The partner would be out of the base ball business. The store could be sold out.

Next people affect to disbelieve the statement that Hach and Griffin are just breaking even. Patronage was big early in the season. It didn't drop off disastrously until recently. The races helped to lessen it. A great amount of money hasn't been lost in the past two weeks. Last year the team made $7,000, and the season before $8,000. The difference between this season and the two former ones doesn't seem great.

The broad shoulders of Sam Morton loom up in this fog. Sam is interested in this somewhere. Perhaps he is the third man in the schemes outlined above. He and Hach have been consulting for several days. There is talk of organizing a stock company to take the team. Morton is willing, he says, to furnish one-half the required $5,000. And the public says this talk of a stock company is another "stunt" in the interest of a scheme. The players are confident that they will finish the season with Minneapolis. Hengle and Dugdale, the two men released, intimates and reported to have said openly, that Morton has told them to stay here and they would be all right.

There is a scheme in it, and it will come out sooner or later.

THE END IS NEAR. Disbandment of the Western Association Begun.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 10.—The chances are that the Western Base Ball association will go out of existence within a week. The Milwaukee club will probably follow the action of Minneapolis, and a meeting will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock to decide whether to purchase, or buy a franchise in the American association. Other clubs will undoubtedly disband.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 10.—On learning that the Minneapolis club had disbanded today President Von Der Ahe, several players of the disbanded team in with a view of securing their services. There you are, that without doubt there will be two leagues playing ball under the national agreement next season.

PENNSYLVANIA, Aug. 10.—President Packard, of the Denver Base Ball club, was seen today in regard to the threatened disbandment of the Western association. He said that if Minneapolis and Milwaukee dropped out the association would continue with six teams; and at any rate, the Denver club would play ball as long as it could and a club to play ball with.

PRETTY GOOD BALL. Omaha Defeated in Its First Game With Denver.

OMAHA, Aug. 10.—Errors by Whitehead and Walsh, a single by Burns, and O'Connor's home run defeated the resuscitated Omahas in the ninth inning. It was their initial appearance here, and they played good ball up to the last inning. Score: Omaha, 1; Denver, 3.

BRIDGEMAN'S ERRORS LOST THEM THE GAME. New York, Aug. 10.—The game today between Brooklyn and Cincinnati was a lively one, and Cincinnati won after an exciting game. Brooklyn's errors were costly. Attendance, 1,222. Score: Brooklyn, 2; Cincinnati, 4.

AN ALL-AROUND ROAST. The Giants Accused of Fatal Sombolism. New York, Aug. 10.—The Giants lost today's game with Chicago simply through sleepy playing and careless base running. Rusie, Richardson and Buckley were the only local players who seemed to take any interest in the game. Powers' umpiring was about the worst ever seen in New York. Connor looked like a bit depressed.

STOPPED THE QUAKERS. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 10.—Cleveland put a check to Philadelphia's winning streak this afternoon by better all-around playing. Thornton pitched the first three innings and then gave way to Gleason, who held his position admirably. The Phillies will probably sign Tim Keefe for the rest of the season. Score: Philadelphia, 1; Cleveland, 2.

Thornton pitched the first three innings and then gave way to Gleason, who held his position admirably. The Phillies will probably sign Tim Keefe for the rest of the season. Score: Philadelphia, 1; Cleveland, 2.

PIRATES EASILY BEATEN. PITTSBURGH, Aug. 10.—The Pittsburghs outbatted the Boston to-day and bunched their hits, but their field work was very ragged, and Baldwin was wild, at one time forcing in two runs in succession, so the Boston were easy winners. Attendance, 1,568. Score: Boston, 10; Pittsburgh, 2.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 10.—Cleveland put a check to Philadelphia's winning streak this afternoon by better all-around playing. Thornton pitched the first three innings and then gave way to Gleason, who held his position admirably. The Phillies will probably sign Tim Keefe for the rest of the season. place in America, and will offer him $100,000, which he cannot refuse. He will fight him any way he wants from one round to a finish."

THESE DESPERATE SCRAPERS ARE LIKELY TO MEET.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—A special cable dispatch from London to the Police Gazette says that Ted Pritchard, the champion pugilist of England, has announced his willingness to meet Bob Fitzsimmons for the middleweight championship of the world, $5,000 a side and the best purse offered in England or America. Pritchard has posted a forfeit of $500 to bind a match. The Olympic club of New Orleans has dispatched a special messenger to Pritchard and Pritchard has accepted this offer. The probabilities are that a great international prize fight will shortly be decided in America.

THE WALK IS STARTED.

The walking match at Shadys park started off very favorably last night. Al. Dorndien acting as master of ceremonies. Hart was taken from the track at 11 o'clock, owing to illness. Ladies will be admitted free on Wednesday evening. Score: Messer, 21; Hart, 22; Baker, 23; Cox, 24; Denney, 25; Hunt, 26.

SARATOGA RACES. SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 10.—This was an extra day of the race meeting here. The weather was clear and the track in fine condition. The attendance was large. The five and a half furlong race, with seventeen entries, was divided into two races of equal value and having nine and eight horses in them respectively. Pittsburg Phil backed the horses, and won by a head.

QUITE A FUROR. CINCINNATI, Aug. 10.—To-day's game was considerable of a furor. After the fourth inning the Kellys gave up and played in a heartless manner. Attendance, 222. Cincinnati, 4; Boston, 3.

FOR A BENEFIT. The Palace Base Ball Team Will Play the Professionals. To-morrow the Palace team will play the Millers at Athletic park. It is a benefit game, as many of the members of the Minneapolis team are not yet financially able to run a ball team. The loss of Eagan at second base necessitates the shifting around of the players, hence the poor showing made. The visiting Millers will be led by Eagan, who will force runs across the plate.
