COLTS KEEP COMING.

The Chicago Team Wins the Final Game From the Philadelphians.

New York Wins Once and Loses Once With the Cleveland.

Boston Shuts Out the Tall Enders Without Much Difficulty.

Pittsburg Creates Surprise by Beating the Brooklyn Twice.

Four Western association teams are still playing away from the Southwest.

The Sioux City contingent has a comfortable lead, and will probably stay in front to Oct. 1, if the association should live that long.

The club stands thus: Played, Won, Lost, Percentage.

St. Paul, Minn. 11 7 4 .636

St. Louis, Mo. 11 6 5 .545

Chicago, Ill. 11 6 5 .545

St. Paul, Minn. 11 6 5 .545

chance that the Quakers may move up a peg. Columbus is No. 5, and Milwaukee is next and tugging the home public to hysterics with its fine all-around playing. The Washington and Louisville teams are pretty sure losers every day. It is stated, with the exception of Boston and St. Louis, all of the American association teams are largely out of pocket. There is a good deal of speculation as to what the make-up of next year's association will be. It is probable, however, that Milwaukee and Louisville will be dropped, Chicago admitted and another team from somewhere in the East put in to fill up. Then there is the possibility that the settlement of the league-association imbroglio may result in the breaking of the old lines and the formation of East and West leagues. The American association teams stand as follows:

Played, Won, Lost, Percentage.

Boston 11 7 4 .636

St. Paul, Minn. 11 6 5 .545

Chicago, Ill. 11 6 5 .545

St. Paul, Minn. 11 6 5 .545

By a Narrow Margin. The Cowboys Take a Game From the Omaha.

Kansas City, Sept. 12.—Two bases on balls, two hits and a wild throw by Fields to third base gave Kansas City the game in the last inning to-day. Smith was in the box for the home team and pitched well, but felled badly. Score:

Boston	11	7	4	.636

Chicago, of course. Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 12.—Chicago won the concluding game of the series to-day by better fielding. The errors of Allen and Myers proved fatal to the Phillies' chances. Attendance 6,652. Score:
