MINNESOTA COMPANY HIT.

The United States Building Association Asked to Refrain. Boston, Mass., Sept. 17.—The savings bank commissioners to-day notified the No Interest Building and Loan company, claiming to be of Nashua, N. H., and the United States Savings, Loan and Building company, of St. Paul, Minn., to refrain from transacting further business in Massachusetts until the law is complied with and the permission of the board is granted them to resume. The commissioners claim that these concerns are conducted in violation of the state law.
