The St. Paul Academy of Science Inaugurates the Fall Season.

A Programme Mapped Out Which Appeals to All Classes.

School Inspectors Ignore the Plea of a Janitor for More Salary.

Teachers Resigned and the Latest Transfers and Appointments.

The St. Paul Academy of Science is beginning the fall and winter season of popular education with renewed vigor. Last night's meeting was important in that it reported progress was made, and active preparations were authorized for prosecuting the work of university extension and that of the night schools.

HALF-ENFORCED LAW.

Prohibition in North Dakota Is Proving a Dismal Failure.

Vigilance Doesn't Prevent Men From Becoming Gloriously Drunk.

Very Few and Unimportant Are the Convictions Up to Date.

The Law Having a Depressing Effect on Officers of Bismarck.

Special to the Globe. BISMARCK, N. D., Sept. 18.—Much has been written and said about the prohibitory law and how it works in North Dakota, but the true condition of affairs has never been made public.

There is a general impression outside this state that the law is working quite satisfactorily to those who were instrumental in placing it on the statutes, but such is not a fact, by any means, and the fathers of the supposedly ironclad law are painfully aware of it.
